New Glasgow, Nova Scotia.

June 14th 1909.

Messrs. Burroughs Wellcome & Co.

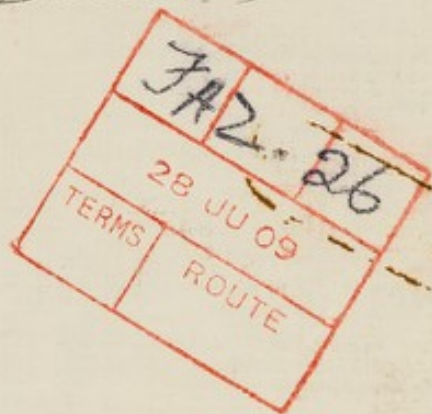

Dear Sirs:— Permit me to tender cordial thanks for your very friendly and satisfactory letter of 1st inst.

I have always had a very high opinion of, and therefore a preference for the products of B. W. & Co. This is now supplemented by quite a friendly feeling towards those connected with the firm who have taken so much interest in securing for me what is no doubt just the information I desired. Appreciating very highly the favor you have thus conferred,

I remain, With kind regards,

Sincerely Yours,

J. Miller

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 17th ult., in which you have kindly detailed to us your requirements, we think we can now put you in touch with the right people, whom we trust will prove satisfactory.

For general secondhand books on miscellaneous subjects, you will find Maggs Bros., 109, Strand, W.C., and J. Tregaskis, 232, High Holborn, W.C., good firms to deal with. For old firearms, Fenton & Sons of 11, New Oxford Street, will probably be able to supply you with what you require.

Trusting these particulars will be satisfactory,

We are,

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. Burroughs, Wellcome & Co

Dear Sirs:- I am in receipt of your very kind and by me much appreciated favor of 7th inst.

It is a matter of regret to me that my wants were not definitely stated.

I wished to get the address of some respectable general dealer in old and second-hand books, from or through whom I might on occasion get an odd book. At present I have nothing in view in this line except a second hand copy of a book entitled "The Gun and its Development" by Greenes of your City. In the matter of old firearms, I have for some time been trying to get a well-made specimen of an old double-barrelled flint-lock fowling-piece and hence my inquiry about a reliable dealer in such relics. With cordial thanks for your letter and due appreciation of your friendly offer of further service, I am, Dear Sirs,
Sincerely & Respectfully Yours,
G. Miller.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 26th ult., we shall be pleased to advise you on this matter if you will kindly let us have the following particulars, as so many book-sellers in London specialize in a certain class of book.

Please state what kind of books and on what subjects, you wish to purchase. If, on the other hand, you wish to dispose of some, kindly let us know, and we will advise you accordingly.

Further, with respect to the old firearms, do you mean antique weapons, or simply those that are secondhand?

On receipt of this information we will give the matter our early attention.

We are,

Yours obediently,
