Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for your kind letter of 17th October.

I regret I overlooked the matter of the small bone box for carrying mercury. If you are willing to accept 3/6 we should be glad to have it, and in view of that I am enclosing you a cheque for £8/6 for the dental instrument and the box.

If this is agreeable to you, kindly sign the enclosed receipt and return to me at your early convenience.

Thanking you in anticipation,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

Dear Sir

Thank you for your letter of the 15th.

I accept your offer of 15/- for the old dental instrument.

You appear to have overlooked my other loan to your Museum of a bone box with a screw lid for carrying an ounce of Mercury to purge a patient - It was used by the late Dr. Wilkinson of Barton on Humber. - Case 59.

Yrs sincerely

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for your letter of the 14th inst. Referring to your advice note, I see that you kindly lent us one old dental instrument. I have had this valued, and I find at a very liberal valuation it is worth fifteen shillings. If you are agreeable to accept this amount, will you kindly advise me and I will have a cheque sent to you without delay.

At the same time, allow me to thank you very cordially for your kindness in sending the object.

I am,

Yours very truly,

H.S.W.

My. F. Wellcome Esq.

Dear Sir

In reply to your circular I do not think I am quite in the financial position to present the objects
I lent to your museum, but if you wish to keep them you can have them at their declared value.

Yours sincerely
By Maudslayi Esq.
