Dear Sir,

Many thanks for so kindly sending the plaster replica of your portrait of Nurse Cavell which has duly arrived.

Dear Sir, I thank you for your letter.
Yes, it was my intention to present a cast of my bust of Laura Cavell to your Museum, but unfortunately it had been found necessary to get more money ^{on account} of the material going up in price. I think you will appreciate this.

I could send the boat the day next week. Kindly let me know what day would suit your convenience.

Yours sincerely
Geo. Hampton

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for your note of the 23rd inst. I gathered from your letter in May last that you were kindly presenting a cast of the bust to this Museum, but I note what you say with reference to the Cavell Memorial, and shall be pleased to forward you a cheque for five guineas when the cast is ready if you will kindly advise me.

Thanking you,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

Dear Sir,

Several months ago you kindly wrote to me saying you would be willing to present a cast of your bust of Nurse Cavell to this Museum, if I would remind you towards the end of the year.

We should very much appreciate your kindness if you could see your way to let us have one, where it will be placed in a prominent position among other distinguished nurses. If it would save you any trouble, I could send for it anywhere in London on hearing from you.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Faithfully yours,

Sir George Frampton, R.A.,

Dear Sir,

Will you kindly let me know if it would be possible for us to have a plaster cast for this Museum of your bust of Nurse Cavell which is in the Academy this year. We should very much value one as an addition to our section on Nursing and Ambulance in which we have many portraits and relics of women distinguished in nursing.

Thanking you in anticipation,
