NOTICE.—Recruits for Army or Militia.

Pamphlets shewing the conditions and advantages of the Army or Militia are supplied gratis at every Post Office.

Any man wishing to enlist into any arm of the service, should apply personally, or by letter to the Officer Commanding the Regimental District in which he resides, or to any Volunteer Serjeant Instructor or other Recruiter.

Re-enlistment in the Militia.

Men discharged from the Army with not less than three years service can re-enlist in the Militia of the County in which they reside on advantageous conditions, which will be communicated to them by the Adjutant on application.

Civil Employment.

A Register for Civil employment is kept at the Hd. Qrs. of Regimental Districts, in which are entered the names of men of good or fair character discharged on completion of engagement, or transferred to the Army Reserve, who reside in the Regimental District. Applications for registry should be made to the Officer Commanding the Regimental District within one year of Discharge or transfer to the Reserve.
