My dear Sir

I have not the slightest objection. I esteem it, I assure you, in every kind of you &
warrant for me.

I am very anxious
in the case of Sir W. Jones to do what we ought to

As now, having regard to the increased income of this advancing year, I often communicating with
Dr. South, I will write to you again. In the mean time, I should like to know for my guidance what would be about the annual expense of such a family &

houses as these & you think would meet the requirements of this case.
Believe me with best respects to your Mother

I am

My dear Sir

You will think I have been so of neglectful but your note was not forwarded & I should have been immediately. I have been wandering about since the vacation but I shall be in Iowa now
I hope in a few days or will see if I can adjust my matter wh. certainly ought to have done

before - but like
I shall come to London
very soon on my part in

My dear Sir

Shall I be too
pursuing too much a your kindness if I ask you to allow me to continue your debt for a
few more of my debt
for a short time longer.

I in turn (desire for a small portion of a note for the balance
except the interest etc: I cannot send now as I forget the date of the advance but I can adjust this when I see you. If you
can show the matter

to stand. Then I shall feel obliged as I find my position are low &
it would be a con-venience. Oblige me
if you can. Write me

My Dear Sir

I find I have no appointments here early next week, or perhaps on the whole it will be better if you address your letter to me on Monday at my House No 39 St. Andrews
Place Russell Sq. If you can do it, I shall be glad, but you must not on any account

put yours off to the
slightest inconvenience.
Indeed it is my kind
of you to think of it
at all, & I may hope I may be able in some way to testify my sense of it.

From W. Shepherd: My

sudden break in upon him took me quite aback.
I had in mind he was with you - His poor Father was a most intimate friend & used to sit down with me casually many of his cases.
