Dear Sir,

I understand you called here in August last to inspect an oil painting of Galen that Mrs. Scatchard of Boston Spa kindly loaned to Mr. Wellcome for the Historical Medical Exhibition.

This Exhibition has not yet been held, but it will be opened in London in 1913. We have advised Mrs. Scatchard of this, and she has requested us to hold the picture until the Exhibition takes place.

You are quite at liberty to inspect it, but as it is at present stored in a safe storage warehouse, it will cause a good deal of trouble and expense to get at it for that purpose only, unless Mrs. Scatchard would like it returned to her altogether at the present time. We should be glad to hear from you on the matter.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

G.J.S.T.
