DATES & MUSSON,

STAMFORD

1910

Mr. Pearson.

Re "The Poison'd Wound - Edward 1."

Stamford

The group of figures from ~~Bourne~~ arrived this morning by the Midland Railway, and was carefully examined on receipt.

It appears to be in perfect order with the exception of the figure on the right hand side, which is that of a woman kneeling. The right hand is clenched and looks as if it might have held something such as a short scroll, and in this event the "something" is missing.

Re Mr.C.J. Thompson

Mr.Thompson has already been instructed to address all communications to you to Snow Hill Buildings whilst he is on his present trip. This was done in case you might be moving about, and if the letters were sent here we could ensure their prompt delivery to you. You, however, mentioned to Mr.Warden yesterday that you wished Mr.Thompson to have your present address - do you confirm this, or shall the present instruction to address you at Snow Hill Buildings stand?

Yours faithfully,

Henry S. Wellcome Esq.
