ROYAL DENTAL HOSPITAL OF LONDON

'12/'13

Hum

17 October 1913.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for your kind letter of the 16th inst., and though I should have been pleased to have fallen in with your suggestion to lend you some objects of dental interest during next month, I am sorry to say it is quite impossible.

When the Museum closes the whole of the collection will undergo immediate revision and everything will be wanted on the spot, so I am sure you will understand that it is impossible to comply with your request.

Yours very truly,

H S W

A. Landon Whitehouse Esq., M.R.C.S.,

Royal Dental Hospital of London,

32, LEICESTER SQUARE, W.C.

16th October 1913.

Dear Sir,

The Clinical At Home and Gathering of old students from all parts of the world will be held here on Saturday, November 22nd.

Among the numerous and interesting exhibits at the Historical and Medical Museum are many specimens of dental interest. You would be affording great pleasure to the profession - which I am sure would be appreciated - if I might prevail upon you to allow us to exhibit them here, or that a portion only might be lent to us for that afternoon.

If you would grant us this request we should of course take all charge of them, or be prepared to pay such fees to your Sub-Curator as you might deem necessary.

Yours faithfully,

A Landon Whitehouse

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter the old signboard in question appears to have been mislaid when the Hospital was removed from the old building and I am afraid therefore we cannot lend it to you for the Historical Medical Exhibition.

Yours faithfully,

E. Pink

Secretary.

Dear Sir,

I should be glad to know if your Committee would be willing to loan us the old signboard of a tooth drawer found at Ottery St. Mary, and which you have at the Dental Hospital, for the Historical Medical Exhibition, which is to take place in London next summer at the time of the meeting of the International Medical Congress.

I enclose a syllabus and lender's form in which you will find full particulars of the Exhibition.

Thanking you in anticipation,

I am,

Yours very truly,

The Secretary of the Dental Hospital,
