THOMAS, R

1917

Wigmore St.

14 December 1917.

Dear Mr. Thomas,

Thanks for your note. I am sorry the old glass sign has been taken away. It did not occur to me when you mentioned it that it might have been useful to have. I do not think it is any use to anyone except for the glass, and if you could give the bearer an idea where the old man came from who took it, he will go and hunt it out, and see if we can get it back. I did not see anything on the outside of the shop that would be of further use.

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

Dear Mr. Thompson,

I am sorry that the glass sign was taken away by an old man who brought all the spare glass. I do not know where I shall be able to get it back for you. I shall let you know if so. There may be a part of the outside sign still standing which may answer your purpose.

Yours faithfully

Thomas

Dear Mr. Thomas,

I received the old bottles and fixtures safely, and enclose you a cheque herewith for Ten Pounds as agreed for same. Kindly sign the attached receipt and return it to me per bearer.

If you are not wanting the glass sign-board you pointed out to me in the shop, inscribed "Established 1838" I think, I should be glad to have it to put away with the other relics of the old shop. If you will tell my man, he will fetch it any time convenient to you, if you will be kind enough to let me have it.

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

Dear Sir,

I noticed on passing Gristock's old shop in Blandford Street the other day that there are still a number of the old bottles and fixtures there. Will you kindly let me know if they are to be disposed of, as I might be able to do with a few of them if the price was very reasonable.

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.
