Dear Sirs,

Referring to your letter of the 28th
January we have got into touch with the soldier whose watch was destroyed by a German Bullet.

He naturally places rather an amount of personal value on it but states that if it is worth £6. to you he is prepared to part with same.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sirs,

We desire to thank you for your letter of the 21st inst. with respect to the soldier's watch. We have submitted the matter to our client, and although he thinks the value placed upon it by the owner very high, he quite realises it is a soldier's and is willing to give that amount if the owner will write him a short account of where and how he was shot, to be sent with the watch, also if he has the bullet, he would like to have it. If this is agreeable to you, and he will send the things to you, we will send you a cheque by one of our representatives by hand which he could hand to you in exchange for the article.
