ACCOUNT BOOK

OF

Richard William
Travis

No. 51

Every Entry in this Book, after the Paymaster has inserted the necessary particulars from the Attestation, is to be made under the Inspection of the Officer Commanding the Troop, Battery, or Company to which the Man belongs, and any entry regarding Promotion, Wounds, or Distinguished Conduct, is to be in the Hand-writing of, and signed by, the Officer.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

THE principal objects for which a Soldier is required to be in possession of this Book are, to secure to him, whilst in the Army, a proper settlement of his Pay, Allowances, and Clothing, and that he may have a Record, establishing his claim to any benefits to which he may be entitled under Her Majesty's Regulations for granting Pensions, Allowances, and Gratuities, to discharged Soldiers, who have performed good and faithful Service, and to assist in the disposal of his effects, in the event of his dying intestate.

It is therefore the Soldier's interest to take care that his Book is at all times correctly and completely kept.

When a Soldier is discharged, he is to take his Book away with him; in the event of a Soldier dying in the Service, his Book will be forwarded to his relations or representatives if they desire it; and if it contain a record of Wounds received in action, or of distinguished acts of Bravery, it will remain an honourable memorial of his character and conduct.

REGIMENTAL SAVINGS BANKS.

To encourage habits of temperance and economy, and to enable the soldier to make a further provision for his comfort on quitting the Service, the Regulations (Clause 41, Army Circulars, 1883), sanctioned by Her Majesty, afford him the readiest means of accumulating his savings, by authorizing the payment of interest at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent. a year upon every hundred pounds, or of 9 1/2 per cent. a year upon every pound sterling, deposited by him in the Military Savings Bank, provided the amount so deposited and interest shall not exceed £30 in any one year, and £200 in the whole. He may, however, make additional deposits on which interest will not be allowed.

The Soldier will receive from the Captain of his troop, company, battery or detachment, every facility in depositing his savings, and in withdrawing his deposits in whole or in part.

Upon the discharge of a Soldier, his deposits may remain in the Regimental Savings Bank at interest for a period not exceeding six months, after which, if the soldier for his own convenience requires it, the amount will be retained for him, but without interest.

Upon the death of a Soldier interest upon his deposits will cease, and the amount of principal and interest then due will be included in his non-effective account.

The Regimental Savings Bank having been established solely for the advantage of the Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers of the Army, any money belonging to other persons, whether in Military employ or not, which may be deposited by a Soldier in his own name, will be forfeited.

The Money in deposit belonging to any Soldier who shall be convicted of desertion, will also be forfeited.

COMPLAINTS.

When a Soldier has any complaint to make, he should appeal to the Captain of his Company; his tone and manner should be temperate and respectful; and he should be accompanied by a Non-commissioned Officer, if possible, of his own Company. No Soldier, on any account, is to presume to make a complaint to his Officer for another Soldier, who conceives he is aggrieved; and not more than two Soldiers should approach the Officer to make a complaint at one and the same time.

PARTICULARS REGARDING THE ROYAL MILITARY ASYLUM (OR DUKE OF YORK'S SCHOOL), AT CHELSEA.

I. The Royal Military Asylum was founded in 1804, by H.R.H. the late Duke of York, for the free education of soldiers' orphans.

II. The benefits of the institution are open to the sons of non-commissioned officers and men who have deserved well of their country, for long, faithful, or gallant service, or who have died in the performance of their duty, or have been discharged from the army, from any cause not affecting their character

III. Candidates for admission must be not less than 9, and not more than 18 years of age, at the time the application is made on their behalf, and free from any mental defect or infirmity.

IV. In registering applications for admission, the cases are classified as follows:—

- Class A.—Boys who have lost both parents.
- „ B.—Boys who have lost their father.
- „ B2.—Boys whose father is alive, but absent on foreign service.
- „ C.—Boys who have lost their mother.

V.—The merit of the father, in respect of character and service, is always an important consideration in weighing the claims of the candidate.

SOLDIERS' WILLS.

1. The particulars of the next of kin should always be carefully inserted in the foregoing form, but the soldier must understand that the entry of the particulars of next of kin does not relieve him from the necessity of making a Will. The entry in question has no legal effect, and, unless a soldier duly makes a Will, his estate is dealt with as if he had died intestate, and the person intended to be benefited may receive little or no share in the distribution.

2. The soldier's Will should be made out either on one of the separate Forms provided for that purpose, or on the Form as contained in the Pocket Ledger, or on a separate sheet of paper to be kept folded in his Pocket Ledger.

3. The bequests in the Will may be varied according to the circumstances and wishes of each soldier; but the form of attestation, and the general outline of the Will, as shown in the following forms, are to be carefully preserved.

4. The Will must be in writing, and signed by the Testator with his name, or, if he cannot write, with his mark, in the presence of two Witnesses, who must be present together; and the Will must be made, acknowledged, and attested in the presence of all three.

5. A person to whom money, &c., is left by the Will should not be an attesting witness, for the gift would not be good.

6. A Will is revoked by the marriage of the Testator, and therefore a new Will ought to be made after marriage, if desired.

7. If any alteration is made in the writing of a Will, the signature of the Testator and of the Witnesses ought to be made in the margin or other part of the Will, opposite to or near such alteration, or at the foot or end of, or opposite to, a Memorandum referring to such alteration, and written at the end or some other part of the Will.

8. But an alteration or addition may be made by a Codicil (that is to say, by an addition to the Will), executed and witnessed in the same way as the Will.

9. When engaged in actual warfare a Soldier would do well (where circumstances do not allow of these Forms being used) to record his Will in writing, or declare the same orally in the presence of Witnesses.

N.B.—The Testator must be of the age of 21 years, unless he is on actual Military Service.

OBEDIENCE IS THE FIRST DUTY OF A SOLDIER.

NOTES FROM ARMY ACT.

For the following offences a soldier is liable, at all times, to the penalty of death or of any less punishment:—

- Shamefully abandoning a post.
- Shamefully casting away his arms, ammunition or tools in the presence of the enemy.
- Treacherously holding correspondence with or assisting the enemy.
- Harbouring or voluntarily serving with the enemy.
- Doing anything to imperil the success of Her Majesty's forces.
- Cowardice before the enemy.
- Mutiny.
- Personal violence to a superior, or disobedience to his lawful commands when in the execution of his office.

For the following offences, if committed on Active Service, a soldier is liable to the penalty of death or any less punishment, and if committed not on Active Service, to imprisonment or any less punishment:—

- Deserting, attempting to desert, or assisting, or persuading any other person to desert. (N.B.—A soldier under orders for Active Service who deserts or attempts to desert is liable to the penalty of death.)
- Leaving his Commanding Officer or breaking into any house in search of plunder.
- Leaving his guard, picquet, patrol or post without orders.
- Forcing a safeguard, or sentry.
- Impeding, or when called on, refusing to assist the Provost Marshal or any of his assistants.
- Doing violence to a person bringing supplies to the Forces, or detaining stores proceeding to the Forces, or committing any offence against the property or person of any inhabitant of or resident in the country in which he is serving.
- Intentionally occasioning false alarms, or treacherously giving up the countersign.
- When a sentry, sleeping or being drunk on his post or leaving his post without orders.

Penal servitude, or any less punishment under all conditions of service, may be awarded for the following offences:—

- Deserting for the second or any subsequent time.
- Fraudulent Enlistment for the second or any subsequent offence.
- Stealing or embezzling any public money or goods.

When in command of a picquet or guard releasing a prisoner without due authority.
Wilfully allowing a prisoner to escape.

On Active Service, penal servitude or any less punishment may be awarded if a soldier is found guilty of:—

- Leaving the ranks without orders.
- Wilfully destroying or damaging property.
- Being taken prisoner through neglect.
- Creating alarm or despondency.
- Striking or offering violence to, or using threatening or insubordinate language to, or disobeying the order of a Superior.

All other offences, including any act to the prejudice of good order and military discipline not specially mentioned, may be punished by imprisonment depending on the nature and degree of the offence.

The following are some of the graver offences of this class:—

- Traitorous words regarding the Sovereign.
- Malingering or feigning disease.
- Wilfully maiming himself or any other soldier.
- Aggravating or delaying the cure of disease.
- Stealing or embezzling the property of a comrade or officer.
- Disgraceful conduct of a cruel, indecent or unnatural kind.
- Drunkenness, on duty or not on duty.
- Resisting an escort.
- Breaking out of barracks.
- Neglecting to obey orders.
- Breaking arrest or escaping from confinement.
- Absence without leave.
- Making away with, or losing by neglect, articles of equipment, clothing or necessaries.
- Wilfully injuring any property belonging to a comrade, or to an officer, or to any regimental mess or band, or to any regimental institutions, or any public property.
- Illtreating any horse used in the public service.
- Making a false accusation against any other soldier or officer.
- Refusing to answer questions when a witness before a Court Martial.
- Being guilty of contempt of court or giving false evidence on oath.
- Enlisting after having been discharged with disgrace.

On Active Service a soldier drunk on the line of march, or otherwise on duty, or after being warned for duty, or when required for duty, or guilty of malingering, stealing, or of any other disgraceful conduct, or of any offence punishable with death or penal servitude, may be awarded summary punishment of the character of personal restraint or of hard labour.

PENAL STOPPAGES FROM ORDINARY PAY.

A soldier is liable to forfeiture of pay as follows:—

All ordinary pay for every day of absence either on desertion or without leave, or as prisoner of war, and for every day of imprisonment either under sentence for an offence awarded by a civil court or court-martial, or by his commanding officer, or if he is on board one of Her Majesty's ships by the commanding officer of that ship, or under detention on the charge for an offence of which he is afterwards convicted by a civil court or court-martial, or under detention on the charge for absence without leave for which he is afterwards awarded imprisonment by his commanding officer, or under detention when he shall confess to have been guilty of desertion or fraudulent enlistment, and the forfeiture during the period of such detention shall have been ordered by the competent military authority.

All ordinary pay for every day on which he is in hospital on account of sickness certified by the proper medical officer attending on him at the hospital to have been caused by an offence under the Army Act committed by him.

A soldier ordered by his commanding officer to suffer imprisonment, or pay a fine, or to suffer any deduction from his ordinary pay (as a punishment) has a right, if he so request, to be tried by a district court-martial instead of submitting to such imprisonment, fine, or deduction.

MODE OF COMPLAINT BY SOLDIER.

If any soldier thinks himself wronged in any matter by any officer other than his captain, or by any soldier, he may complain thereof to his captain, and if he thinks himself wronged by his captain, either in respect of his complaint not being redressed or in respect of any other matter, he may complain thereof to his commanding officer, and if he thinks himself wronged by his commanding officer, either in respect of his complaint not being redressed or in respect of any other matter, he may complain thereof to the general or other officer commanding the district or station where the soldier is serving; and every officer to whom a complaint is made in pursuance of this section shall cause such complaint to be inquired into, and shall, if on enquiry he is satisfied of the justice of the complaint so made, take such steps as may be necessary for giving full redress to the complainant in respect of the matter complained of.
