Dear Mr Longmore,

I have just heard it reported that you have been invited by the Director General to succeed Dr Layan, who it seems is about to return from imperfect health. I hope the report is not true as your leaving the school at this moment would not fail to injure it. I cannot help adding that I think the Director General has acted rather disem-generously over the purchase in not acquiescing them with his intention & also to the Senate if he has not made them acquiesce with it.

Pray let me have a

at least some thanks and in haste very yours truly

27th March 1863

Dear Sir J. C.

It is true that the D - G - has offered me promotion in case of Dr Logan's retirement & my acting as his successor in office. I have talked the matter over fully with Dr Parker & he agreed with me in thinking that I could not have refused such an offer.

I quite adhere to all that I have said, in conjunction with my colleagues, respecting the advisability of the Professorships being made permanent appointments; but they have always been aware that if promotion were offered to me my duty to my family would cause me to accept it — the advantages offered by promotion, both present & prospective, more especially as to the pension of my widow in case of my death, would be greatly preponderate —

Yours

But I would not have said that I would accept promotion, with all its advantages, if I believed my doing so would have injured the school, the great importance of which I am deeply alive to. In the present instance however I believe the change contemplated would benefit the school. My proposed successor happens to be a much more experienced lecturer than I am, has seen service in the field, is an author, and, I understand, for I do not know him personally, is a gentleman in every sense of the word. At the same time I feel that although quitting the Professorship I should not be separated from the school or my present colleagues; so far from it, that I could be the means of promoting its & their interests very materially, if I had a voice in the Council at Whitehall Yard

Believe me
Very faithfully yours
The 'Longman'

Dear Mr Longman,

I have just received a note from Parker, in which he requests me to write you a line stating that I did not receive my information regarding the Dinner General's proposal to remove your name the whole to his own proprietor.

to find from Parker having given me the information I have not heard from him certainly for the last three weeks - His information came quite from another quarter - But I was very glad to hear from yourself that you had communicated the circumstances in Parker as one of your colleagues,

I would have much rather seen you promoted in the school than out of it, & I should still hope that you may be retained for the sake of the school -

Very truly yours
Jas Clark

My dear Mr. Garrison I have just received your kind letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I am very truly
Yours
Wm. Lloyd Garrison

Dear Sir James
If I understand your question rightly, it is whether ~~in reply to your question~~ ^{consequently} ~~regarding the probable occurrence~~ ~~of Difficulties~~ ^{are not likely to arise} in care of the Prin. M.O. of this Hospital has junior is myself in ^{the hands of} ~~W. J. South~~ ^{M^r. R^d} In reply my reply is that I do not think they are likely to occur.

But because, ~~our duties~~ ^{the} the office of the P. M. O. is a Special appoint^{ment} ~~nomination~~ of the Director General, as is my appointment ^{with School} of the Secy. W. & our duties are so distinct as not to be ~~in any way~~ ^{in any way}.

It often happens that a Captain in a regiment is higher in rank than the Lt Colonel of the regiment who is his Commanding Officer, and I should feel no more difficult in acting under a T. M. O. in such a case ^{such} as that referred to ^{in the case} than ^{in such another} as those ^{now} are brought into relation with each other & them.

Dear Mr James Clark

I have been for some time past contemplating writing to you as respects the School so far as they have been modified by what took place in reference to the Dir. Genl's offer of promotion to me last March, but I have hesitated to trouble you about personal concerns, and, to tell the truth, I have not seen & do not now see any definite way in which you can assist me beyond what I feel assured you have already done. But the matter is so important to me who have only the income with my position in the public service procures me that I feel constrained to write & place my prospects as they appear to me, before you, trusting to your good nature to pardon the trouble I give you in doing so. What I particularly feel is this - that I have no right to expect again from the Dir. Genl. an offer of promotion, and if I am right in this view, I feel what a great loss it is to be debarred from the chances of further advancement with its advantages pecuniary & other. The increase of income my removal from Colchester to the School brought me was a little under forty pounds a year. While, on the other hand, ~~it entails~~ my position entails on me unavoidably additional expenses which I should not incur elsewhere, and, in my present rank, if I were serving in a colony, my income would be increased one hundred a year while my duties would occupy but a comparatively small portion of my time. My whole time is now occupied in connection with my public duties & here I am at some disadvantage as compared with two of my colleagues who have a certain amount of leisure for private pursuits at their command. Professor Maclean has also the advantage of his Indian Service. If my future is to be stationary in my present rank, my connection with the School is pecuniary, & perhaps some other respects, will have proved a serious loss, & that I am sure those who placed me in the School were intended. Had the Dir. Genl's recommendation of promotion been adopted, the gain to me in income would have been small compared with the gain I should now be making in progress toward, the prospect of ultimate advantages in retirement. I know it may be justly said I had no right to expect promotion at the time it was offered to me, & I only regarded it as one of those accidents which occasionally happen in all branches of the Military Service. However, it is not my regret as regards the fact that makes me write, but uncertainty as regards the future. ~~But~~ This makes me anxious because it involves not only myself but others who depend on me, and I feel sure, if the opportunity should happen to arise out of your late position in relation to the School Organization Committee, of removing this uncertainty, you will serve me by doing so.

I remain

Very truly yours

3. ^{Nearly} About a year ago I was offered Promⁿ as an Inspector by the Head of my Dep^t, & this was approved by the then Sec. of State for War Sir C. Lewis. It appeared to be my connexion w. the A.M.S. wh^{ch} caused that great prize to be lost to me.
4. Would certainly not have accepted the Proft. if I had known it was to be a bar to promotion in the service without equivalent advantages.
5. I am on a disadvantageous footing as regard my colleagues. Maulean has all the advantages accruing from his past mil^l service plus the Proft. - P. & A. have licence for private pursuits plus - I have none of these -

Dear Mr-Sergent,

Your case is still under discussion, and I send you Captain Goller's note to Messrs.
Wright & Co., in order that you may see exactly what they mean & how they view the case. I send the note in order that you may have no mistake about their their offer. I read your Galton's note without Miss A's leave, so pray consider it most private & return it to me with your answer by return of post if possible.

Answer it to me as if I had asked the question without any reference to Miss A. or Capt. Galton - but suppose that I had stated what ~~the~~ what I understand the Treasury would do - Do this as briefly as you please as I may show it, altho I think this will not be necessary.

Very truly yours
J. A. Clark

When I suggested your coming here with Parker it was meant privately, to give us the advantage of your advice, but not to appear at the meeting.

Dear Mr. James Clark

You inform me that what you understand the Treasury would accede to in my case, is to make me an Inspector & to give me the ^{lady's} money of that rank in addition to General, ~~but to pay me the salary I now receive, with, in addition,~~ the ~~lady's~~ money of my rank. Excuse my making a few remarks on this proposal & in doing so referring to some former occurrences.

When Mr. Cate had Herbert offered me the appointment of Inspector at the A. M. S., I was in receipt of an income of £653, 19^s, per annum as a Deputy Inspector at Manchester. The increased pay to £700 a year was hardly a consideration with me, but for I knew I was changing a comparatively light for an onerous position: but the ~~honour~~ of the selection, & the hope of being useful, had great weight with me. At the same time before ^{deciding upon} ~~accepting~~ the ^{offer} appointment I asked Lord Herbert's permission to consult the Director General, chiefly with a view to ascertaining how it would affect me in the department to which I belonged, ~~and I found that these steps for their purpose before me~~ and Lord H. at once kindly advised me to do so. I saw Dr. Alexander, & the result of the interview was that he told me he should be glad if I accepted Lord Herbert's offer, and that though ~~it was not in his power~~ ^{he had no authority} to make any guarantee, he had no doubt, if I ~~succeeded in~~ ^{remained successful} in the office, it would lead to my promotion at the end of five years. I then wrote accepting ~~and~~ the Professorship, but without any limitation as to ^{duration} of holding it, as none were proposed to me.

I should not have thought therefore of alluding to any change in my ~~position in the service~~ ^{at any rate} until after the period named by D. Alexander, ~~unless~~ had it not been that circumstances changed. The chief was the offer made to me last year of promotion ^{to Inspector} in the ~~regular~~ ordinary service of the ^{military} department which my connexion with this school prevented me from receiving. The next is that the Professorships being made permanent appointments, I find myself in a position which if things remain as they are, cuts me off from all the improvements in pay, rank, & emoluments, which my whole life in the ~~public service~~ previous career has given me a title to aspire to.

I write this much to ~~show~~ ^{show} my anxiety on the subject ^{of my position} has not been unreasonable. Moreover I find that by being a Professor, I am ^{now} actually a loser of £12 - 0 - 4 a year. ~~Now~~ for being a Deputy Inspector General after 5 years' service, my lodging allowance would be ~~now~~ ^{now} £100 a year instead of what it was ^{when I was at Colchester}, & this with ^{the} ~~my~~ ^{my} pay, ^{house} ~~my~~ ^{my} allowance, & allowance for one servant, would give me £712 - 0 - 4 per annum.

I am ~~quite~~ willing to accept the proposal which your letter conveys to me of the Inspector's rank ~~with~~ and lodging money, in addition to my present pay, but at the same time, I trust that I may of my own, whatever ^{might} may seem fit to the ^{higher} authorities, all ^{the} advantages of the Inspector's rank and

2. It always answers to bully, it never answers to reason with, the W.O. My bullying letter of last Thursday about Longmore produced the first answer I ever made on that subject. They now propose to make him a full Inspector Genl. But they say that he could not act under a Principal Med Officer of his junior - which he could if he had only local rank, & they want to know whether he could be P.M.O. ± Proprietor with-help). I can't say it seems to me a desirable thing. But I have no opinion. And we are desired to ask what his objections to it are. - this 'you -

Dear W Longmore,

Another phase of the subject has you would consider your

I cannot judge how it would do for you to be Principal medical officer, but I should think that it would not. It could scarcely fail to interfere with your Principal duties, while it would add considerably, I should think, to your labours. It strikes me also that it would be unpopular in the army medical department, as it would reduce the opportunities of Principal Med. Officers by one, & to increase the feeling that exists among a considerable part of the medical officers in the service. I see other objections in prospect, but you will be good enough to consider the matter & discuss it with your colleagues.

I hope you will also,

Parker says that that you could aid us in making up our minds then I think you could,
I shall be very glad.

Dear Sir James Clark,

I have received the decision of the War Office and the Treasury respecting my case which has been the subject of so much correspondence. Dr Parker tells me you are probably not aware what the decision has been, and I therefore write to name it to you. It is that I am to receive the lodging-allowance of a Deputy Inspector General, until an official house is provided for me, (with the understanding of the 2/6^d per diem recently sanctioned being discontinued,) in addition to my pay as Professor.

The loss of the promotion, which, I may almost say, I held in my hand last year, has been a considerable loss to me pecuniarily, and denotes me as regards my future prospects; but I feel quite assured that had your influence been ~~of~~ of avail this loss would have been made up to me by equivalent advantages as I was led to expect ~~they~~ ^{it} would be.

Had nothing been done ^{during} this season, I had made up my mind at the close of it as I announced to my colleagues to try to be allowed to resign the Professorship; as it is, should hereafter an opportunity of promotion in the Service again happen to me, I ~~shall~~ hope that I shall not be expected to forfeit it in order to be retained in a position far more onerous and responsible, but without equivalent ~~advantages as regards pay or~~

June 7/64

My dear Sir James Clark

Nothing is so desperate as to put reasons (for a course) before a man, who puts those reasons before himself much better than you can yourself.

15 months ago, just before Sir G. Lewis' death, Lord de Grey put before himself (in my presence) the reasons for continuing Longmore at the School & therefore for promoting him - & for giving him the Sainitary place under the D.G. (then proposed for Longmore) in order that him might be the future D.G. —

He put these reasons much more strongly than I could myself.

And, more than this, after Sir G. Lewis' death, he made these a reason why he should be his successor.

Your only hope is with people whom you have to convince. But what is your hope when people are convinced already? In this case you have not even to take the horse to the water. He has taken himself there already. But you can't make him drink. I have communicated with the W.O. since I had your letter. And I enclose an Extract from their answer.

What you have to say to Lord Grey is, it seems to me, to nail him to this. And I have no objection if you choose to communicate it to De Longmore. We must not lose him at the School. And I need not say I will do my best to keep the W.O. to this pledge. But I am weary of seeing them break their pledges. And I have told them that no pledge shall ever be conveyed through me more — ever yours truly
F. Nightingale

(here follows "Extract" (retained))

I send you this as I have received it. I need not say that I do not agree with it. I think Longmore very harshly used. And I have drawn up his case not less than 12 or 15 times in the last 15 months for the W.O. at their own desire. [I have even said that his was the "grossest piece of magnanimity" I knew.]

I force all sorts of difficulties. E.g. there is always to be one Temp. Genl in the three branches of the D.G.'s office. Now already Balfour has put in his claim (a most rightful one) to be the next T.G. when Logan retires. He uses the self-same argument that Longmore does. (a most legitimate one) viz, that it is too hard, because he is the only man to fill the statistical branch, therefore he should lose promotion by it - he being also a married man, with a child (or children) & having relinquished a better pecuniary post (at our request) for this, F. N.

It is 3 years today since Sidney Herbert sent me the news of Cavour's death, by telegram, with these words: "This is the life I should like to have lived: this is the death I should like to die." In less than 7 weeks he had his wish.

How incalculable is the mischief, more apparent every day, of the loss of those two men, more regretted every day by those who know anything of the incalculable mischief

25th June/66

My dear Mr James Clark

I have been intending to write to you, especially since about a week ago when I received officially the decision of the Sec. of State in War regarding my promotion, but I put off my letter from day to day, for I had hardly made up my mind what to write. A conversation with Dr Parker today has made me now write without further delay. The official decision, which was sent to me by the Dir. Genl., seems to correspond with the decision expressed in Capt. Gallton's note to yourself, viz, that when the time comes for the Dep. Insp. Junior to supersede on the list to be promoted I shall get promotion also. This decision is very different from a statement, made (but unofficially) in a W.O. Letter in June 1864, that there was no reason to doubt I should succeed to the next vacancy in the Insp. Genl.'s rank; & even this ^{last} decision leaves open to doubt whether the promotion by selection of any one junior to me would carry my promotion with it.

I consider it however a great advantage to have an official record that I am not to be passed over in regular promotion by any one below me in the list of Dep. Insp. on account of the position I hold at the school, though I do not understand Capt. Gallton's argument that the increase of my income - which was given to me in common with my colleagues after 5 years' service - is to be looked upon as a settlement of ~~personal~~ the special personal matters which formed the grounds of my expectation of promotion. I am quite satisfied with the emoluments of my position, I have been so ever since my income at the school ceased to be less than it would have been anywhere else as a Dep. Insp. of 5 years' service; it has never been in respect to current income so much as contingent advantages that the Insp.^l rank would have been a gain to me.

But I feel that after the official decision of the authorities, further agitation of the subject would be only irritating to them, & that any attempt to alter the decision would be almost certainly fruitless. I therefore write to ask you not to take any further steps in the matter. I am well aware of the continued efforts you have made, with much expenditure of time & trouble, to obtain a different result, & I am as sincerely grateful to you for the concern you have felt in my interest as if I had got the promotion asked for.

very sincerely yours

It is now more than two years since, Dr Logan went in his retirement, and Mr Director General recommended, and the Sir ~~Lawrence~~ Judge Lewis approved, of my being promoted to be his Successor. As you are aware Dr Logan's retirement & my promotion were stopped chiefly for the purpose of retaining me at the School, and you more kind enough, as President of the School be a loser by the steps which had been taken in the matter. Difficulties however were met

In April 1864 the following proposals

1. "That I should have the Inspectorship at the "2. "That till a vacancy occurs I should receive house allowance as Inspector"

"3. "That when Dr Anderson left in the natural course of service I should be P. M. O., assistance being given me as Professor" and in June 1864, an extract, which I was permitted to retain, from a War Office letter, stated

"When a vacancy in the Insp. Genl occurs, there is no reason to doubt that Longmore will succeed to it, in which event the Treasury have consented to his receiving the emoluments of an Insp.

Genl, in lieu of those of his Professorship."

"Dr Longmore would have good reason to complain if passed over in promotion by some one else - but none so long as no one is promoted for want of a vacancy."

With regard to these several points:

As to No. 1. as well as the War Office extract, ^{Dr} Monet has ~~been~~ ^{now} promoted to an Inspectorship ^{in Colonel's Lodge.} He is at present supernumerary, I believe, but will, of course, fill the next vacancy.

As to No. 2. The house allowance of a Deputy, (2nd Inspector) was allowed to me at the end of April 1864. And a question is now raised whether the full allowance of a Deputy Inspector was intended, or only a modified allowance.

As to No. 3. Dr Anderson has left, and Dr Tanner is P. M. O.

With regard to these several points:

 the circumstances ^{connected with myself} which occurred in 1963 when quoted above bears no signature, & indeed I have no authority for making ^{official} ~~public~~ quotation of Without some such definite understanding I feel it to be ~~to be too~~ ^{a premature}

Dear Sir James Clark

Mr. Parkes has made me acquainted with your letter of the 16th Instant. I regret that I shall not have the opportunity of speaking with you, both on account of the Cause which prevents it, & also for my own sake, for I feel repugnance to troubling you again about my affairs in writing. In April of the following year the following proposals were conveyed to me from Dr. Sutherland through Dr. Parkes: -

"1. That I should have the Inspectorship at the next vacancy."

"2. That till a vacancy occurs I should receive house allowance as Inspector."

"3. That when Dr. Anderson left in the natural course of service I should be P. D. C. assistance being given me as Professor!" -

With regard to these several points -

As regards No. 1, as well as the War Office extract, Dr. Monat was promoted to an Inspectorship in October 1864. As at present ~~the~~ Inspector is Immunity, I believe, but will I presume fill the next vacancy as a matter of course.

As regards No. 2. The house allowance of a Deputy Inspector (not Inspector) was allowed me at the end of April 1864.

And a question is now raised whether the full allowance due of a Deputy Inspector was intended, or only a

As regards No: 3. Dr. Anderson has left Seeing how these several points with security for the future. I saw the War Office document quoted above bears no signature, and indeed I should not be authorized in making an official quotation of it - it was only conveyed to me

With this - some such definite under-from Mr. Galtier enclosing a new proposal by Mr J. Gibson. - It is to promote you & put you on half pay at once. You are to be made permanent Inspector as a Supernumary.

The half pay to be for ten years.

In the meantime you are at home, in addition to your half pay, the salary of the other Officers, that is to take place at the end of the ten years half pay, he does not say. I would have sent you Gollens's letter, in place of Parker's, but I was rather doubtful about your address. I enclosed it to Parker, telling him that I had written to you recommending you to go over to Parker, to see him, in order to discuss the matter at your leisure, & that we know what I am to say to Gollens, which must come from myself, but of course nothing can be done till you are consulted, & it was therefore of little use to write me, as I cannot possibly give an advice upon a subject when I do not understand -

Guller does not seem

Dear Sir James Clark

After further consideration of the case of Dr. Longman, Sir James Wilson suggests that we might deal with him by promoting him to be an Inspector General, permanently superannuating to the ~~establishment~~ necessary establishment for the administration of the Department, and in the same Gazette place to place him on Half Pay (it might be temporary for 10 years) as is done in the Navy, giving him the half pay which he would be entitled, and in addition the same pay that may be allowed to the other Inspectors.

There appear some other objections even to this course, but will you kindly let me know what you think of it?

Yours very truly

Dear Sir James Clark

I am writing this reply to your letter, which I received this morning at ~~Hamble~~, at Dr Parker's.

The proposal contained in Captain Galtton's letter ^{will} ~~is~~ be fully acceptable to me supposing I understand it rightly, viz, that I am to be promoted to be Inspector General, ^{reduced to} ~~that~~ in the same Gazette I am to be placed on half pay by ~~reduction~~ ^{on account of my} ~~from~~ being superannuated to the necessary establishment, and that I am to receive the ^{Inspector General's} half pay ~~to which I would be entitled~~ ^{there} in addition to my pay as Professor. It would suit me better that the half pay should be temporary say for 10 years as Captain Galtton writes, than to fix it to be permanent, as there does not appear to be ^{any good reason, either} ~~as~~ ^{as regards the government or myself,} for shutting the door to any change after the expiration of that period should circumstances occur to make a change desirable in my duties or position desirable -

I shall be very glad indeed if this proposition ~~should~~ be carried out, not only on its own account, but also that ~~the~~ the great trouble which ~~the~~ my affairs have unfortunately caused you may at last be brought to a conclusion

Very truly yours

My Dear Sir,

I enclose a note from Dr Sutherland, which you will perhaps enable me to answer. One of the complaints which I made to Lord Alfred when I saw him the last week was that the Ship had been made a ~~proad~~ to keep a medical officer from occupying the space at the top of the. His reply was that the Ship had always been convinced a proad. I could only expressing surprise, as I had understood it had been done since the 'Warrant' was issued. He must have derived his information I presume from some good authority - You must know how the matter stands -

With respect to your own matter I had hoped that it was settled as at a previous interview with Lord de Grey he told me that he had recommended both you & Dr. Williams to be made Inspectors & that it was before the House of Lords. I am to see him to-day again before the Warrant was addressed & published. I will then speak to him strongly in your favour, but to enable me to do this with effect - but the circumstances of your position, as briefly as possible, on paper - contrast the advantages of your present position with what it was at Colchester on the one hand, and ^{on the other} what with the position the Director General offered you.

Dr. Nelson would do the same as regards his present position & what it would be had he remained in his former position - The thing I presume will be to get you made Director General with all the advantages of that rank? Or of course I will keep the matter of reciprocity - but I should hardly will see the justice of your claims.

I asked Parker to talk with you & send me any other pencil that appears to you them important - to mention to the Minister of War -

I do not expect to see Lady here after Christmas, but you may let me hear from you soon as I may have to ask a question or two on the points you send me on your own affairs, & that of the Med. War -

Yours very truly

Dear D. Seymour,

I have been just reading some pamphlets sent me by Webster on his experience in the antislavery system, with great interest.
I think they cannot fail to interest you likewise, & I shall transfer them to you. Many thanks for your advice, like any many that you write do you have good sense -

Very truly yours
J. C. Clark
