Major Orders.

1 — The Colonel Commanding is desirous of preparing his report at the departure from his Command of Staff Surgeon Hall Lieut. Mills Fort Assistant - He is very sensible how much the Garrison owes to an Officer of Dr. Hale's standing and merit, a Gentleman so experienced and successful in his profession and so justly esteemed in private life Nor can the Colonel Com^d allow Lieut. Mills to leave the Colony without expressing the sense he entertains of the intelligence & ability of that Officer and without acknowledging the efficient aid he has received from him -
