Capite viæ dixi, quia non eo negatum, quin, ea in plures mox semitas secta, violenta una est, qualis mea profecto nunquam, quia Te adit, qui cõtra sinceriorem Religionem (est hæc Domui Tuę privata gloria) nihil fers à quoquam, ne quid de me sperem, qui Tuus sum, & in Tua Terra natus. HIERON. WOLFIVS IN APPEND.

Op. Cypr. Iervitii.

PRofectò fieri aliquando solet, ut Cœlum & Terra, & quæ iis continentur, fato urgente, adversari videantur. Succuri posset valetudini diætâ & medicinis, salubri cibo & potu nullâ ratione licet, pro Medico veneficus offertur. Pharmacopola opium pro apio miscet. Amicorum ope liceret vitare malum? at amici aut absunt, aut ipsi rerum suarum satagunt, aut perverso studio, dum juvare conantur, lædunt, aut cum fortuna mutant fidem. Liceret domi manendo evitare latrocinium aut naufragiũ? at urget inevitabilis necessitas, ut iter facias, & navim conscendas. Invidos & inimicos officiis placare, & beneficiis conciliare studes? at illi modestiam tuam & benignitatẽ motum interpretantur, & occasionẽ maledicendi & malefaciendi urgent. Imò sæpissimè accidit, ut eâ ipsâ ratione, quâ infortunium vitare studes, in infortunium incurras. &c.

H. Cardan. Segm. 1. Aph. 24.

Stulti negligunt & contemnunt Astrologiam. qui contradicit, ambitiosus est: qui maledicit, fatuus: divinum enim est arcanum. ob id, qui naturalibus relictis causis, illi tantùm inhæret, levis est: oportet igitur adjuvare.

Peũ-

Vix artem reperiri posse existimo, cui omnes ita insultent, ac Astrologiæ. Sic enim sè res habet cum divinationibus, ut si in minimis fallant, tota ars propterea vana esse arguatur, & aliqui vitiis suis artem in abusum retorquent, quod nimis superstitiosè Astris fidem habent.

Memorabilis est Aphor. apud Astrologos; Luminaria vtraque, aut alterutrum cum stellis nebulosis & opposita ad inuicem, afflictaque à maleficis, præsertim ex angulis, cæcitatem, vtriusq; vel alterius oculi priuationem minantur. Cuius Aphorismi certitudinem etiam præsens exemplũ confirmat. Sol enim cum stella nebulosa præsepe ex angulis quadrato Martis partili, & ☽ platica affligitur, vtriusq; oculi effossionem portendebat, cui & euentus respondebat. Huic enim Hippolytus Cardinalis Estensis, filius legitimus Herculis, vir Mauortius, oculos, velut amoris sui æmulos erui iussit, amabat enim Cardinalis iuuenculam sibi sanguine coniunctam, quæ non minore ardore etiam Iulium ob oculorum venustatem (propter Venerem in via lactea, Solem in Leone & in 1.) prosequebatur, sicut Hippolyto fassa est, vnde odium hoc inter fratres extitit. Exoculatus est igitur stylo ligneo acuto ab equitibus fratris, cum esset in venatione, oculos vero pendulos ad nasum propria manu in locum suũ reporeposuit, & in dextro visum recepit, in altero transuersim collocato amisit, (anno Christi 1505.) quod Luna luminare conditionarium, supra terram lucens, oculumq; dextrum designans, iam ☌☿ & ☍♂ ac Solis □ & ☌ ad Veneris auxilium confugiens euaserit, effossionem quidem non, at cæcitatem euitare potuit, Sol vero sinistrum oculum sub terra designans, modo currit ad □♂ partilem ♑ maleficis aspectibus obsessum & ☌☽ platicam, eo euidentius & certius excæcationem ex effossione ortam in sinistro oculo, nihil, & ne Venus quidem, in via lactea posita, nimis dissita à ☉✶. interuenientibus □♂ & ☌☉ impedire potuit. Saturnus in cuspide 3. fratris iussu & odio, in □♀. propter amasiam, causæ fuerunt effossionis. Venus tandem in ♊ dextro oculo magis fauorabilis, ob propiorem Lunæ præsentiam, propriis manibus dextrum restituit. Luminare alterum in angulo, à maleficorum altero læsum, carceres, in quibus 36. Annos vidisse, & ibidem obiisse Geuricus scribit, meo tamen certe iudicio, non naturali, sed violenta morte, designauit. Hoc tempus natale habet M. Hieron. Henning in Genealog.

Eiusdem Iulii, L. Geuricus l. 6. natiuit. Annum & Diem natalem quidem nostro concordantē, sed diuersam horam, videlicet 12. M. 56. p. m. propriam ponit. Schema enim euentibus nihil aut parum respondet, insuper etiam admodum oscitanter Saturnum in ♑, alium locum, quam reuera fuerat reposuit non recordatus quod in reliquis omnibus Thematibus ad annos 78. & 79. ab ipso prolatis, Saturnum (& quidem rectius) in virginem collocauerit: quî fieret, Saturnum alias tardissimi gradus (repente veredus effectus) tam celeri gressu ad ♒ peruenire potuisse. Non igitur quemadmodum margini annotauit Saturnus est in □☌ sed ✶♂, nec idem Soli oppositus est. Hæc de Geurici errore satis.

Epilepsiæ morbo obnoxius fuit hic, (quo etiam mortuus est M. Septembr. eiusdem Anni) quod aperte significabat ♂ illa ♄ & Lunæ, in ☥ cũ corde ♏ & angulo M. C. in ♌ partilissima ad Solem, cum oculo ♉. ex signis bicorporeis (in ipso enim Eclipsis Lunaris fere medio natus est, eiusmodi autem morbis solent vt plurimum tentari, qui Luna plena nascuntur) non aspiciente Luna neq; Mercurium, neq; Horoscopum, Iuppiter quoq; Retrograd. & pulsat ☿ ♏, Dom. 6. & 8. cum ♂. ♀. & capite Medusę.

Vitæ breuis fuit. Luminaria enim quamuis in angulis, nihilominus tamen hîc infeliciter cõstituuntur. 1. ratione oppositionis mutuæ. Nati enim in nouilunio aut plenilunio raro sunt durabiles, aut prospera valetudine vtuntur, hi quidem propter nimiam humiditatem, illi ob nimiam siccitatam. Quare inquit Cardanus, si tum Sol & Luna simul infecti à Saturni vel Martis radio malefico fuerint, omnino de nutritione desperabimus.

2. Vtrumq; luminare, Sol & Luna à Saturni Domini 1. malignis radiis enormiter læditur, Luna quidem vtpote Hyleg, ☌ ☉ ☍, Sol autem insigniter læditur à Saturni ☍. teste Gaurico.

3. Luna nondum transiuit ☍ ☉. ergo vita fuit periculi plena, quia illi aspectus potissimum lædunt, ad quos accedunt luminaria, non à quibus recedunt.

Iuppiter dispositor Hylegii siue Alchocodon, in cadenti dat 12. annos, caput Draconis intra 12. gradus, dat quartam partem annorum Alchocod. nempe 3. annos. Hinc, nempe ex annis 15. solus ♂ suo ☍ aspectu admittotos 15. annos. Insuper vt non remaneat quod 20. anni, etiam ob ☍ ☿ subtrahantur.

Eclipsis præterea præcise fere in tempus genituræ incidens, & tantum Min. 10. subsequens, decimam & quartam inficiens, breuem vitam portendit.

Non autem citiùs mori potuit (inquit Dominus Fr. Rüttellius) quam cum directio Lunæ luminaris conditionarii & Hylegii ad ☍ ☉. & locum verum Eclipsis peruenit: Sol enim & Luna Saturnum iam præterierunt. Mars & Venus sunt in propria domo.

Coniunctio benigna Iouis & Veneris, fortunarum in dō propria Veneris.

Sextilis aspectus Veneris & Iouis ad Lunam & Mercurium, ex 7. Cardinali domo, in 4:

Coniunctio Mercurii & Lunæ in quarta dō Cardinali.

Caput Draconis & Fidicula in secunda dō.

Coniunctio Solis & Saturni in Ariete infortunata est.

Cætera omnia bona, feliciaque sunt.

Directi & veloces sunt omnes Planetæ excepto Mercurio Retrogrado.

Omnes Planetæ sunt in Planetarum Exaltationibus: Ergo honores ipsi promittuntur: & sub terra, exceptâ Venere, quæ & ipsa occidit, quod ingenii vires occultas designat, & longam vitam.

Oppositio præcedens Natiuitatem, cadit in 10. domum.

Nam Luna fuit in 18. Gr. Virginis supra terram, id significat etiam honores.

Sol in Exaltatione excellentes honores, atq; dignitates largitur.

Duo Planetæ in propriis domibus faciunt illustrem, splendidam ac celebrem fortunam & in maxima vitæ parte, & in suis actionibus felicem & fortunatum.

Mercurius in angulo dat alacritatē Ingenii', literarum atq; disciplinarum studium, in primis v. rerum Mathematicarum & naturalium.

Coniunctio Mercurii & Lunæ, in quocunq; signo fiat, excellentia facit ingenia, in quibus non tantum est Indolis Prestantia, sed & industria atq; sagacitas eximia, verum Retrogradus Mercurius actiones, non Ingenia impedit.

Mars morborum significator, calidas & siccas infirmitates corporis adfert, quas etiam expertus est.

Iuppiter generalis significator Diuitiarum in 7. ex coniugio diuitias durabiles, per omne vitæ tempus largitur, præsertim cum sit fortis & fortunatus coniunctus Veneri in proprio signo.

Septima domus cum suis significatoribus bene constituta felicissimum mum dat Coniugium, præsertim cum benefici Planetæ in 7. existentes sint felices & potentes, nobilem, diuitem & opulentam atq; benè moratam coniugem promittunt.

Itinerum significatores promittunt honorifica Itinera ob res Iouiales talesq; actiones, & ad personas, vel propter personas regias cõstitutas.

Mars in 5. dõ, cum Saturno in proprio signo, etsi in hoc loco hi solent negare filios: tamen cum Mars sit Dominus Natiuitatis Ascendentis, & 5. domus, in sua Triplicitate & Termino fortis, dedit filios, & datos nonnullos seruabit, eruntq; potentes. Nam Saturnus propter loci h. e. quintæ domus præstantiam nihil mali perpetrare poterit in domo Martis, circumdatus à Sole & Marte, quorum alter in Exaltatione alter in domo sua existit: genuit enim cum vxore sua septem filios, & quinq; filias.

Diuturnam autem fore vitam Henrici Ranzouii, ostendunt Iuppiter & Venus in septima, quæ felicem plerumq; designant senectutem. Atq; idem constat ex Ascendente & Luna, quæ est Hylech. Deinde ex Almuthen Genituræ scilicet Marte: & Lunæ signa sunt humida, & satis humidi radicalis suppeditant ipsi: Dominus vero Ascendentis & Almuthen scilicet, Mars, & per se feruens est, & feruidum signum, domicilium proprium occupat, vnde æquali mensura natiuum calorem humido radicali proportionatum præbet, ita vt neque humoris retundantia calorem subitò extinguat, neq; consumi ab ipso possit. Habet etiam omnes Planetas sub terra felices. Illi tamen Anno climacterico L V I. astra mortem minata sunt. Ascendentis enim Profectio eius Anni peruenit ad 8. domum & ad quadratum Solis. Saturni & Lunæ, quæ est Hylech, ad oppositionem Solis, Saturni & Martis. Deinde Directio Ascendentis contendit etiam ad quadratum Solis, quem tamen, vt à me, ac ipso prædictum fuerat, superauit, sed non sine graui morbo.

Et quamquam diu sit victurus, tamen quantum ex significatione Astrorum colligi potest, ominantur illa Ranzouium morte mirabili vel subitanea esse periturum. Nam Sol, Saturnus & Mars sunt in signo violento, & Cauda est in 8a. domo, cum Stella violenta Hercule. Quod vt DEVS auertat, eique concedat, vt omnibus animi sensibus integris spiritum, vnde accepit, reddat, & in vera ac pia nominis diuini inuocatione, ex hac vitæ colluuione ad æternam immortalitatem, feliciter emigret, ex animo precor. Hactenus Dasypodii iudicium.

Hæc prædictio consecuta ferè fuisset euentum suum hoc Anno Christi 1592. quando septem latrones conducti quatuor vicibus vitæ meę insidias bombardis struxerunt: cum tamen nemo se ex professo hostem

IVDICIVM ASTROLOGICVM.

D. Ioan. Cratonis, à Crafftheim, Archiatri Cæsarei.

Sapienter monemur ab Epicteto, vnam quamlibet rem, habere suam causam, ea si apprehendatur & teneatur, commodissimè homines tenere & vsurpare posse. Id, vt in omnibus rebus in vita verum est, ita de Astrologicis Prædictionibus verissimum. Multi autem ac potius plurimi non amplectuntur, & comprehendunt, vera ansa, sed nescio curiositate quadam arripiunt. Proinde fit, vt non rectè iis vtantur Artifices, se etiam non continent intra præscriptas metas, dum pollicentur, ea q̃ à cœlo peti nõ possũt, vel neglectis primis Causis, ad remotas illas homines deducũt. Verũ de his longũ est scribere. Ad rẽ ipsam venio, & ea, q̃ in Natura causas habere vidẽtur, & ad vitã instituendã vtilia esse possunt, ꝓpono. Vsus autem tem prædictionum circa 3. versatur: 1. vt valetudinem meliùs tueri liceat. 2. vt vitæ genus rectius eligamus, & naturæ quosdam vitiosos motus reprimamus. 3. vt quosdam tristes casus, de quibus cœlum nos admonet, euitemus, vel saltem vim & impetum eorum declinemus.

Ad corporis curam præcipuè cognitio Temperamenti requiritur. Habet autem temperamentum aliquas cœlestes causas conseruantes & alterantes. Hîc ex Figura cœlesti ostenditur, Temperamentum esse calidum & humidum, sunt enim omnes Planetæ in calidis & humidis signis constituti. Oppositio autem Martis & Lunæ, item quadratus Solis ad Ascendens, significant adustionẽ & acredinem humorum: ab iis igitur Tẽperamentum Naturale mutabitur. Quare opera danda erit, vt si morborum causas euitare voluerit, vt victus rationem, quæ aduſtos humores auget, vitet.

Virtus Naturalis benè se habet, & probè alteratur nutrimentum, & membra nutriuntur, sed propter humiditatem expulsiua est fortis, præsertim stimulantibus acribus humoribus. Vitalis virtus, propter debilem positum Solis, & quadr. ad Ascend. non est fortis, facilè enim resoluuntur Spiritus propter tenuitatem. Animalis, quã in cerebro ponimus, quo ad Imaginationem, benè se habet: nec ratiocinatio, præsertim cum Mercurius sit satis commodè positus, malè potest esse affecta. Memoria vtcunq; valet. Porrò, de harum operationibus, paulò post plura dicemus. Quia vero aliarum rerum consideratio superuacanea est, nisi vitæ spes sit, ideo metas, quas Natura præscribit, inuestigabimus, nec Creatori & Conseruatori in hoc, leges præscribemus.

Sequar autem rationalem doctrinam ex Direct. Ascendentis ad Stellas interfectrices, nec insistam viæ Arabum, de Hyleeh, & Alcochoden, quæ nihil rationis habent. Si igitur Ascendentis Gradus est verus, vt ego opinor, loca interficientia sunt 1. oppositus Solis, ad quem proueniet Ascendens, an. ætat. nati 49. currente. 2. est Caput Algol. ad quod perueniet Ascendens an. æt. 60. completo, currente. 61. Has igitur 3. metas ℞ Arte statuere possumus, reliquas Deo permittemus.

De Dominatoribus Natiuitatis, Ingenio & Moribus.

Præcipuas dignitates in locis Hylegialibus habet Saturnus. Is igitur est Dominus huius Genituræ, verum in dominio cum ipso participant Mars & Mercurius. Cum autem vita sit talis, qualis est Animus, sequitur vitam esse inquietam, solicitam, & labo-

De oppositione a. Veneris & Iouis sic pronunciant Astrologi,quod efficiat aliquo modo pronos ad libidinem, sed fideles, neque nocendi cupidos, faciles ad præmia cumulatius danda, liberales. Sed de his dicere non attinet.

De vitæ Genere, & Actionibus.

Non neceſſe eſt multa de his recenſere, cum pleraq; nota ſint, Inclinationes aliquas conſiderabimus. Venus in cœli Medio, ſignificat hominem hunc maxime delectari in rebus, q̃ ad ornatum pertinẽt, item odoriferis, proinde talium tractationem illi commiſiſſet, Mercurius in dõ Veneris in 8. admodum inclinat ad Poeticam, proinde ſi operã dediſſet bonis artib. haud dubie factus fuiſſet, egregius & excellens Poeta, maxime a. in Amatoriis valuiſſet. Abſtinebit mea ſententia, à Mercatura, quia Mars eſt in aſpectu Lunæ. Muſica ab hoc homine magis expetitur, quam perdiſcitur, valebit tum in Inſtrumentis Muſicis, quæ manu tanguntur, & in iis cum quadam ſuauitate & gratia ludet: Quia Iuppiter eſt in Geminis agricultura illi mediocriter proderit ſed multas moleſtias exhibebit. Grata aliis faciet, & ſibi ac ſocietati cõmunia, quia Iuppiter eſt in domo ☿ii, & ☿m reſpicit. Proinde ſcriptionibus & ſimilibus operationibus Mercurialibus magis poterit prodeſſe ſibi & aliis, quam emptionibus, & mercium commutatione.

De Fortuna in Honoribus, Diuitiis, Amicitiis, Itineribus & aliis Accidentibus.

Qui ſapit ille animum fortunæ præparat omni: inquit Poëta. Sunt a. noſtræ Prædictiones nihil aliud, q̃ commonefactiones, q̃ iſtam animi præparationem iuuant. Honores non eſt quod ſpes, nec vt arbitror, optabis, depreſſio erit aliqua, ſed modica. Cæpit a. hoc malum initium, A. 15. completo, 16. currente.

Diuitias habebit relictas, non partas. Nam Mars cum ♂ parum augent rem. Pars a. celati, quæ in hac Genitura, ſecundum Arabos cenſetur, Pars Fortunæ, auertit grauia incommoda, & conſeruationem bonorum indicat. Oppoſitus Saturni in 4m. ſignificat immobilia, ei, per technas & aſtucias ſenum, vel maiorum in ſua familia, adempta. Verum, ipſe potiorem partem hæreditatis habebit, & q. Conſanguineis ſuis præerit, hæc non ſcribo, quod ſciam, verum manifeſtè ſignificatur hoc per Iouem, qui in æſtimata, (correcta n. hæc eſt) natiuitate, cum Cingulo Orionis 4. domum tenet, magno a. conatu, pauca lucrabitur, quia Iuppiter eſt Retrogradus. Tempus Diuitiarum eſt ipſum Senium. Magis particularia tẽpora augendæ rei non poſſum ſignificare, ſed tamen Anni maxime faciendæ rei invtiles ſunt. 25. 37. 49. quia tunc Profectio Aſcendentis deuoluitur ad ♂, etiam ſimul attingit Martem, ſed hæc ſignificatio poteſt etiam attingere Ann. ſequentes, videlicet 26. 38. 50. &c.

satis multos, verum sinceros & vtiles paucos, quia Iuppiter est Retrogr. & ex opposito aspicit xiim. Conuersabitur cum Potentibus hominibus, vnum & vulgare illud ei accidet: contemnunt spinam, cum cecidêre rosæ. Doctorum & Mercurialium Amicitia erit vtilis & iucunda, & propter eos, huius nati fama celebrabitur, quia Mercurius respicit ✶ aspectu 7m. & 11m. De Personis singularibus, nihil licet dicere, nisi duæ Genituræ inter se conferantur.

Inimici a. non multum erunt aperti, sed caueat sibi à senibus Saturninis, item Martialibus, aulicis, Mulieribus, rusticis. Saturnini maxime præualebunt aduersus te. Cum mulieribus Nobilibus satis ei conueniet, sed plebeias vitet. Cæterum ipse omnium hominum beneuolentiam studebit retinere singulari humanitate, & in eo nonnunquam erit nimius.

De Itineribus nihil attinet dicere, nam maxima iam sunt exacta, nec significatur in iis aliquid incommodi. Nam in peregrinis Regionibus cõtraxit vtiles, & fructuosas amicitias cum multis, sicut in patria multorum simulatum beneuolentiam tuetur. Versus occasum & Meridiẽ, maxima fuerunt Itinera, respectu suæ patriæ, ad septentrionem & ortum breuiora. Possem de Fortuna Locorum aliquid dicere, verum cum in Patria illum pene victurum spem, non arbitror hoc modo amplificanda esse iudicia. Cum a. in Ascendente Capricornum habeat, sub quo sita est Augusta, haud dubie in patria viuet, sed quia vltimi gradus Capricorni ascendunt, & maior pars Capricorni est in 12. domo, multa ingrata & molesta ei in patria accident. Commodior a. habitatio erit in locis sagittario subiectis, vt sunt quidem in Gallia & in Germania, ac secundum sententiam Werneri, Norimberga. Sed Norimbergæ, inprimis Venus erit potens, sese que exeret, cum illa reperiatur in ♃. Verum de his nihil amplius.

Quod ad Fortunam in coloribus, Metallis, animalibus & diebus attinet, pauca generalia proferemus. Inter colores fortunati censentur, cęruleus, viridis, purpureus, niger mediæ fortunæ, reliqui non satis fortunati, inprimis albus. Ex Metallis fortunata sunt, cuprum, æs & stannum. In animalibus significatur exigua fortuna. Verum cum Mars non adeo sit infortunatus, nullum insigne damnum ab equis significatur, modo Lunæ oppositus illi non noceat. Dies feliciores censentur, Veneris, Iouis, ac post hos Saturni, cum Seruis nulla significatur fortuna singularis, erant satis fidi, sed minus commodi. Hæc de ista parte.

De coniugio, Liberis & propinquis.

Multi sunt, qui has prædictiones propter hanc vnicam causam expetunt, vt de Coniugio certiores fiant, & nonnunquam Artifices temere & stolidè promittunt, de Tempore coniugii, forma coniugis, numero earum, item de nostro Liberorum. Etsi a. quædam in scriptis Astrologorum extent, tamen manifesta experientia istis repugnat, nos a. aliquam, quę ars monstrat, recensebimus. Primum quod debent cœlibem vitã agere, nonnulla sunt in hac genitura Indicia manifesta. De coniugio a. nihil aliud possumus dicere, quam sæpe eum tanquam in coniugio vixisse. Ac sub finem An. 17. cum Luna ad ✶ ♀is peruenit, forte talis viri fuit Ratio. Itẽ, A. 23. cum ☽ peruenit ad △♑s. Et tunc quidem potuisset contrahere matrimonium, nisi fuissent obstacula. Nunc quæ spes est? parua quidem, & exigua ex astrorum significatione. Verum cum voluptas magis gubernet actiones voluntarias, quam Astra, poterit aliquid contra Astrorum, aut præter cœli inclinationem facere. Sed quæritur, an id, sit futurum felix & fortunatum? Plane hoc statuo. Nam, ex coniugio nihil habiturum hunc natum mali, certo mihi persuadeo. Mediocres etiam diuitias ratione cõiugii eum habere posse indicio est Iuppiter, sed eas cum mora & difficultate. Quantum a. ex Astrologorum decretis liquet, Virgo, nati vxor futura est, sed satis annosa, quia Saturnus respicit ☽m. △. staturæ & formæ etiam mediocris. Reliqua non possunt indicari.

De Prole spes certa est. Numerum ignoro, sed si natiuitas hęc vera est, primo genium masculum affirmare ausim. Tempus filiorum ex Reuolutionibus Annuis petendum est. Quod v. in senio sit habiturus liberos, satis ostendit Iouis Retrogradatio.

De Parentibus huius nati, sunt manifestæ significationes, sed cum sint è vita sublati, non necesse est aliquid scribere.

De fratribus & sororibus, nulla sunt certa indicia.

Quæ v. de cognatis & propinquis, ex Astrologorum doctrina afferri possunt, ea volens, tanquam dubia omitto.

De Læsionibus, & Morbis. Item de fine vitæ.

Priusquam de Morbi iudicia recenseamus, morborum causæ interiores videndæ sunt: Posuimus a. vnã videlicet humorum adustionem, quã sequentur multæ affectiones, vt spiritus turbidi, humores in superficie cutis acriores, qui etiam nonnunquam pilorum radices corrumpent. Epar quoq; iusto calidius esse, necesse est, ac nisi temperatura ventriculi esset humida, procul dubio laborasset hypochondriacis doloribus; caput

infirmum esse, satis declarat res ipsa. Est autem temperamentum cerebri calidum & humidum in hoc corpore, non tam à nãli constitutione, quam propter epatis, subinde fumosos vapores à toto Venarum ambitu mittentis, in caput caliditatem. Sol, Luminare temporis oculum dextrũ lęsit. Principium huius læsionis est factum cum Ascendens peruenit ad ♍, videlicet An. 33. Anno a. in sequente videlicet 1534. directio Ascendentis peruenit ad ☌☽, tum ergo suffusio fuit completa. At si tunc siniſter oculus non fuit magis læsus, nunc non valde ei metuo. Cæpit a. & is non nihil lædi, A. ætat. 4. cum directio Lunæ peruenit ad oppositum Martis, & isto Anno mortua est mater; quemadmodũ, cum Sol puenit ad Saturnũ, id quod factum est, An. 15. æt. pater abiit, Maximas quoque habuit animi affectiones, cum Luna peruenit ad corpus Solis, videlicet An. 29. æt. compl. Ann. 13. currente, habuit graues dolores capitis, & q. febriculam, tunc peruenit Profectio Ascendentis ad ♍ & ad corpus ♂. An. 23. completo, Ascendens peruenit ad ♂, tunc n. ex insidiis, vehementer in capite vulneratus est. Præterea nihil video periculi ex Directionibus. Nam quod ad Directiones Solis & Lunæ ad □♂ is attinet, illud longius est futurum, quam vt se eo vita possit extendere. Ratione a. Reuolutionum posset aliquid incommodi valetudini accidere, A. 38. completo, vel currente 39. Item 43. 47. 51. 55. hæc v. in annuas Reuolutiones referenda sunt. De morbis a. generalibus, paucæ sunt significationes. Originem ducũt à catarrhis, & molestabunt ventriculum & pedes: Renes etiam erunt subcalidi, proinde haud dubio renum calculo laborabit. Febribus raro vel nũquam laborabit, sed ad extremum laborabit febre acuta cum profluuio alui. Periculosa tempora supra indicauimus. Mortis a. Tempus Astrologi se ignorare fatentur. Caueat etiam aquas & casum ab alto, annis periculosis.

Hæc potui nunc de cœlesti Figura, quæ fuit tempore Natiuitatis, referre. Ea vt grata habeat, & tanquam documentum studii & obseruantiæ meæ, accipiat, rogo.

HORARVM NATALIVM GENITVRA III.

De hoc homine nullum accidens fuit exploratum. Rectificaui igit, figuram æstimatam, per Dominatorem Oppositionis præcedentis Martem, secundum doctrinam Ptolomæi, & de eius gradibus constitui Medium Cœli, vt in præsenti figura videre est.

IVDICIVM ASTROLOGICVM.

Vt in Ciuili vita turpe est, aliquid polliceri de se, ꝙ pstare nequeat, ita Optimarum Artium Cultoribus plane ignominiosum, si de artib. plura permittant, qm̃ ipsæ artes pstare possint. Hoc n. est, ex vero falsum facere, & diuina dona & pñdia vitæ infamare. verum quẽadmodũ ille in Comędia inquit: Se vera dicendo, ambos fallere velle. Sic ñunq̃ seq̃t, si veritatem in his artib. sequmur. Hæc possem magis pspicue dicere, sed ñ necesse est multa præ-præfari. Illud vnum proferendum est, non inepte facere Cardanum & alios quosdam Mathematicos qui ignotis personis non scribunt iudicia. Verum ego homini amico morem gerere volui, & experiri, quantum ars sola præstare posset. Ideoq; rem ipsam aggrediamur.

Dominator in hac Genesi est Mercurius, participantes in dominio Venus & Iuppiter. Temperamentum est sanguineum, verum vt arbitror, caliditate & siccitate quadam humorum corruptum, ita vt magis cholericum sit dicendum. Virtus Naturalis bene est affecta. Sed Epar aliquomõ generabit aduſtiores humores, qui virtutem naturalem turbabunt. Nam Intemperans Natura significatur & sibi ipsi noxia. Vitalis optime se habet, sed feruentior quodammodo est iusto, quia Sol cum Oculo ☌ reperitur. Aïalis in suo est vigore, licet cerebri tempatura videat siccior, & ppea virtus aïalis minus perduret: hæc a. paulo post declarabimus. Nunc, vt iudiciorum ordini satis faciamus, inuestigabimus, quamdiu hõ, sub tali cõstitutione cœli natus durare possit, nec diuinę voluntati in his aliquid derogabimus. Quorsum n. attineret longa scribere iudicia, si nulla spes vitæ esset? Cum a. Luminaria non possint habere Hylegialem dignitatem, aut vix possint, accipio locum Ascendentis, loco Hylech. Is, si verus est, vitæ terminus erit Annus ætat. 58, currens, 57. ꝑpemodũ cõpletus. Nam tum Ascendens perueniet ad oppositum Martis. Sed, si hęc directio debet esse vera, necesse est, eum fuisse in vitæ ꝑiculo, circa A. æt. 9. cũ Ascendens peruenit ad cor ♏, & ad oppositum Solis. Ideoq; si tum temporis nihil sensit mali, & in tota vita fuit absq; morbis & ꝑiculis, ꝙ mihi non vr̃, necesse est, tempus Natiuitatis mihi exhibitum non esse verum, & consequenter debere alios gradus signi ascendere: verum, omissis his gñralibus, ad specialiora quædam perueniemus. Astrologi in Natiuitatibus ignotis, nituntur hominis figuram inuestigare, ex signo, Dominoq; Ascendentis; sæpe a. aberrant, cum multa sint, quæ corporis figuram mutent. Hic igr. natus, cũ Luna in)(existat, habebit oculos paruos, subnigros, ♏ dat faciem rotundam plerumq;, nec bene proportionatam, habebit capillos nigros, raros, propter Saturnum in Ascendente, & forte fiet caluus. Corporis statura erit mediocris, & signum in pedibus illius erit. Sed non volo, pluta de his colligere, ad magis necessaria perveniemus.

De Ingenio & Moribus.

Summa est huius nati suauitas, ingenium acre, quodque valeret vbique, si intenderet. Sed valde negligens videtur esse suarum rerum, vel certe intempestive curare, multa accumulare neglectu, & deinceps cum quodam tædio vix perficere. Iudicio admodum valebit, eiusque Autoritas apud homines satis erit magna, sed illam neq; augere, neq; conseruare studebit. In beneuolentia & officiis nonnunquã erit minimus. Ad omnem vitæ conuersationem aptus, suauis, iucundus, gratus apud æquales, in sermone & conuersatione modestus, amores variorum gestuum, ludorum, cantilenarum. Affectus in hoc homine sunt valde temperati & lenes. Pronus quidem ad iram est, propter Martem in Cancro, sed ira minime durabilis. Cæterum amabit iustitiam, honestatẽ, prodesse pluribus conabitur, nemini se præferet, suspicionibus resistet. Aliquando inuitus offendet amicos, sed facile cum illis redibit in gratiã. Domini spirituum sunt Iuppiter & Venus, qui moribus singularem gratiam affundunt, & quicquid potest iucundum esse, in moribus tribuunt, solam libidinẽ deformat ☐9. Hæc de Ingenio & morib. satis esse iudico.

De Actionibus & vitæ Genere.

Ita mihi Canonici, aut Sacerdotis vitam, hæc Genitura referre videtur, vt nihil vnquam viderim similius. Nam Iuppiter in 9. sign. regio, religionis studium, & aliquam propterea dignitatem indicat. Cõiunctio Veneris & Mercurii ocii amantem reddit, item Musicum, commessatorem, & suauiter perfruentem voluptatibus. Saturnus in 1. significat nonnunquam vitam solitariam, & cum sit in domo Iouis, victũ significat. Ex redditibus annuis, item ex agris & piscinis, & Luna in domo Iouis, in 4. significat possessiones Ecclesiasticas. Venus in 6. cum Mercurio, vitam cœlibem. Amatorem mulierum maximum, verum qui nihil possit. vide obsecro, quid desiderari possit, quod non Canonico, vt nostra fere ætas, tribui potest. Proinde, nisi scirem, T. Ornatissime W. H. cuius gratia hæc scribo, parum cum Canonicis conuenire, affirmarem & deierarem esse hanc natiuitatem hominis Ecclesiastici: sed facile possunt ista mutari, non n. astra actionibus necessitatem inferunt. Mercurius Dominus 10. studium Philosophiæ & Oratoriæ indicat, præsertim cum sit in domo Veneris, & ab ea recipiatur in Tauro. Hæc a. receptio nãliter inclinat, ad Musicam, Poeticam, Eloquentiam & similia studia. Ac, si hic homo, studiis est adhibitus, haud dubie mediocriter profecit. In Mercatura ei significatur exigua fortuna, ac propemodum nulla, seriam operam nulli dabit, ac quiduis potius facere studebit, quoniã libertatẽ amittet. Verum tamen, in mediocri etiam fortuna & dignitate constitutus, q. aliorum voluntate, & iudicio regetur: quia Sol in occasu reperitur. Sed nunc de reliqua fortuna dicemus.

De Fortuna in Honoribus, Diuitiis, Amicitiis, Itineribus & reliquis Accidentibus.

Plus bonæ, quam aduersæ fortunæ hic natus habiturus est. Iuppiter

in 9. in signo regio, promittit ei aliquã dignitatem, & si operã dabit studio iuris, ad quod est inclinatus, non solum Doctoratus consequetur Insignia, sed summi viri vtentur eius opera. Erit enim Eloquens, & maxima negotia, naturali quadam felicitate & industria potiùs, quam doctrina, optimè & fortunatissime proficiet. Ac etsi summum locum obtinebit, tamen multis q. difficultatibus obnoxius erit, ratione officii sui. Si autem vitam Ecclesiasticam sequetur, haud dubiè in ea erit felix: omnium in quocunq; tandem vitæ sit genere, ad aliquos honores perueniet.

Diuitiæ nunquam ei deêrunt: sed rem magnam facere non poterit, quia ☿ est in 2. Intempestiua autem eius erit liberalitas & parsimonia. Erit autem aliquando attentus ad rem. Paulò pòst prodigo liberalis. Præcipuam partem suarum facultatum habebit ex reditibus: hæreditas etiam ex matre ei multùm proderit, habiturus præterea est prędia, piscinas, quia ☽ est in 4. & in illis satis magnam fortunam. In summa non deerunt illi diuitiæ ad vitam necessariæ, quia Iuppiter in hac genitura dominium habet, non enim vnquam ad paupertatem deuenire potest, in cuius natiuitate Iuppiter aliquo modo dominatur.

Quod ad amicitiam attinet, multos hic natus amicos habiturus est, iucundos & suaues sed parum vtiles, nec singulari dignitate præstabunt, cum Venus sit in 6. vita autem voluptaria illi amicos iunget. Etsi autem subitæ sit iræ, tamen amicis multa condonabit, multa in illorum gratiam faciet, non libenter quemquam offendet. Vitet autem ludos & iocos, præsertim cum amicis. Nam periculum est, ne quem contra suam opinionem lethaliter lædat, aut sibi ipsi ludo armorum malum accersat.

Inimicos apertos habebit pauciss imos, sed tamen quidam insidiosè amici erunt, nocebunt & obtrectent: horum iniuriis etsi grauiter mouebitur, redibit tamen cum illis in gratiam. Ac falletur isto modo à quodam, cui ille omnia sua arcana credet, idque ratione mulieris accidet, hęc res variè & multum illum perturbabit, aliquod etiam malum valetudinis afferet, vel saltem graues & melancholicas cogitationes.

In itineribus nihil significant mali, quàm ab aquis. Cæterùm profectiones illi erunt vtiles & honorificæ. Deueniet in amicitiam multorum, & rem suam augebit. Est enim Pars Fortunæ cum Ioue in 9. Proficiscetur autem vel studiorum gratiâ, vel tanquam legatus. Crebræ non erunt Profectiones, quia signa fixa sunt in 9. & 10. Ac longissima itinera erunt, versus Occidentis, ratione situs suæ patriæ, meridionalia loca etiam adibit. Augustæ satis feliciter viuet, quia Capricornus est in 2. sed propter ☿ rem non faciet. In Germania autem præcipuè illi conueniet Basilæa, Heidelberga, Erphordium, Vratislauia, & si quæ sunt præterea loca sita ſub Virgine, ita loca ſub Leone, vt Vlma, Confluentia, Lincea, &c. In Italia feliciter viuet, Papiæ, Romæ, Rauennæ. In Galliis Lugduni, Pariſiis Lutetiorum, in his locis habebit maximam fortunam. In Germania infortunata eſt Berna, Lubecum, Magdeburgum, Genua &c. In Gallia S. Andreas. In Hiſpania habebit graues contentiones. Item Norimbergi, Louani, Moguntiæ, vitet etiam Londinum Angliæ.

Cum ſeruis & Animalibus, ſatis bonam habiturus eſt fortunam. In Metallicis quoq; erit felix, & maximè in fodinis argenti. Ex coloribus conuenientes illi ſunt, cæruleus, flauus, purpureus, niger eſt mediocris, item albus. Ex gemmis fortunæ erunt, Smaragdus, Saphirus, Amethiſtus, vitet Carmelum, & Adamantem: Iaculatoriam artem, præſertim cum bombardis non exerceat. Dies Martis præcipuè erit infortunatus, reliquis ſignificationibus non repugnantibus. Quando ☽ tranſit ♏, ♉, ♋ & ♓ non ordiatur res, quarum felicem cupit exitum. Anni fortunati erunt 23. 35. 46. Infelices 21. 33. 38. 50. 57. His autem tanquam monitis, non præceptis vtatur, nec diuinæ benignitati, quæ moderatur aſtra, diffidat.

De Coniugio, Liberis, Cognatis.

Si hic natus non viuit in coniugio, nullam de coniugio, vel liberis ſpem habeo, & cauſam exponam paulò pòſt.

De Parentibus nati ſunt quædam iudicia. Matrem melioris fortunæ fuiſſe conſtat, ſed ea obiit, non multo pòſt, hunc hominem natũ. Pater extinctus eſt, circa 11. ætat. annum. Habiturum ſorores & fratres, ſignificationes ſunt, ſed non ſatis fortunatos, quia Saturnus Dominus 3. eſt infauſtè poſitus. Cum propinquis habebit quaſdam lites, & cum præcipuis familiæ ſuæ, ratione tutelæ malè gubernatæ. Defraudatum enim eſſe bonâ parte hæreditatis paternæ oportet, quia Mars eſt in 8. Affinitates quoque non erunt illi vtiles, quia Sol eſt ſit infortunatus in 7. cum Aldebaram, imò graue periculum illi ab affine imminet. Sed hęc, quę extra natiuitatem ſunt, incerta & dubia eſſe putamus.

De Morbis, læſionibus & fine vitæ.

Primùm conſtitutionem membrorum præcipuorum conſiderabimus. Cor ☿ in Aſcendente, in æſtimata natiuitate, oppoſitus Solis in 1m. ſignificant conſtitutionem cerebri ſiccam. Senſus igitur omnes erunt maximè vigentes, niſi fortè Saturnus auditum grauaret. Cor erit temperatum, inde moderati & ſuaues affectus. Epar eſt ſubcalidum, propterea facilè patietur obſtructiones, febriculas leues, & ebullitio ſanguinis puſtulas excitabit. Renes, partes genitales & Veſica ſunt malè affecti: eſtq; hoc proprium Veneris & Mercurii, quod in 6. corruptionem partium genitalium ſignificant, aſpectus tamen Iouis videtur d in icare ſanationẽ, cum autem Venus sit in 6. magis obnoxius erit læsionibus, quam morbis. Et morbos, quos habebit, erunt vehementes, & cirò finientur, vt Pleüritis, peripneumonia, sed tamen ad diutinos morbos quoq; inclinatus est, vt ad colicam, calculum & stranguriam, hos sibi accerset Intemperantiâ, verum Iuppiter moderatur Intẽperantiam, nam etsi nonnunquam peccat amicorum causâ, tñ agnoscens malum se reprimit, sicut fit amoribus, vt Poëta monet, inquiens:

Ad mala, quisque animum referat sua, ponet amores, Grauiter esse læsum non arbitror, sed vitet iocos, vt antea monui, & ludos armorum. Nauigationi se non committat, nam grauia & singularia pericula sunt submersionis. Et mirum videtur, si non est periclitatus in Aquis. Annī Infortunati & cauendi sunt, propter directiones, lu. A. 33. videlicet hoc ipso Anno, ascendens perueniet, ad ☌, & adferet dolores capitis, oculorum, rei familiaris aliquam iacturam, si natiuitas æstimata est recta, verùm si rectificata est certa, vt arbitror, hoc satius accidet. Annus letthalis est 57. licet & 48. aliquid sit metuendum. Astrologi de morte varias habẽt sententias. Multi ex tali constellatione pronunciant suffocationem in Aquis. Schonerus refert (p. 71. sui operis, de Natiuitat.) ♂m cum ☌ significare suspendium, verùm ego iudico periturum Peripneumonia. Hoc est minimè dubium, vt Aldebaran in occasu significat, rerum suarum, quæ in initio & progressu felices sunt, non satis speratũ exitum, hic quoque vitæ exitus inopinatus futurus est.

Hæc ex Astris, Deo autem omnipotenti, Astrorum Domino, tùm Natum, tùm nos ipsos commendemus.

Cauda de nat. ♂. & signum ♈ interceptum, ex causa Martiali, igne ferro, sclopoque bombardico, malum significat. Anno 1522. in prima Martii hebdomada, interfecit vxorem, ex Marte in septima. Ego circa diem 9. Causa cædis arbitror fuisse vxoris scortationes & adulterium, propter ☌☿m. ☿m. in 7a signo humano, ac Lunam in 7. & domo ♂. Generaliter enim adunatio Planetarum in aliqua domo, peculiare quippiam, de ipsius domus signi, & in ea, existentium Planetarum natura portendit. Anno eodem Augusti 3. die, in ciuitate Mantuana, in conflictu duellico, Equester interfecit Comitem Cerriti Carraphæ. Et hunc conflictum fœminarum causa, (fortè etiam ob interfectã conjugem) accidisse arbitror, nam eo ipso die Venus oppositionem Saturni præcisissime transibat. Cauda vero locum Veneris radicis, eratque oppositio Martis & Lunæ ex cancro & capricorno, in quadrato Iouis Radicis existentis in 7a. In bello vniuersali plus quam centum pedites interfecit. Mars in angulo centraliter positus, cõiũctus ☌ in signo humano, semper sanguinis effusorẽ significat, accedente præsertim oppositione ♃, & stellulis ✣ in medio cœli, in quadr. Ego idcirco eum, vel veneno exhibito, vel potius peste, in febrem melancholicam incidisse, mortemque obiisse arbitror, quia ambo Luminaria in signo venenoso Scorpii, 8m obsident, & Sol, lumen conditionarium in 8. de signi natura mortis genus demonstret, & Saturnus author siue promissor mortis in)(signo venenoso, in 12. forsan ab inimicis, vel quia horoscopi signum venenosum, ad quadr. In primis Annis ex Directione Horoscopi, quædam de natura Saturni & Iouis procul dubio sustinuit accidentia, non tamen, vt arbitror, lethalia fuerunt, quod nullus horum fuerit Dominus octauæ. Ingenium eius erit admodum, & ad fatuitatem ac stoliditatem vsque pertinax, raroque à contentionibus & rixis explicitum, ob retrogressum superiorem in angulo 7. & Capricornum Ascendentem; Coniugium erit varium & infelix, ob adulterium, vel fornicationem vtrinque suspectum, vnde rixæ, metusque diuortii, & coniugis interfectionis, ob Saturnum & Iouem in septima, & Cancro Retrogrados. Sol & oppositum Martis.

Omnium denique malorum, vitæque simul finem imponet Mors violenta, ob supra positas malignas Constellationes, maximè etiam, quod Mars alter maleficarum, ambo Luminaria, alter verò Saturnus, Mercurium & Venerem 8æ. dominatores infestet, Marte & Lunâ existentibus in signis, & cum Stellis fixis violentis oppositis, oculo Tauri, & corde Scorpii, Ioue dispositore vtrorumque Luminarium similiter in angulo & violento signo, coniunctione Saturni Retrogradi, Domini Ascendentis laborante.

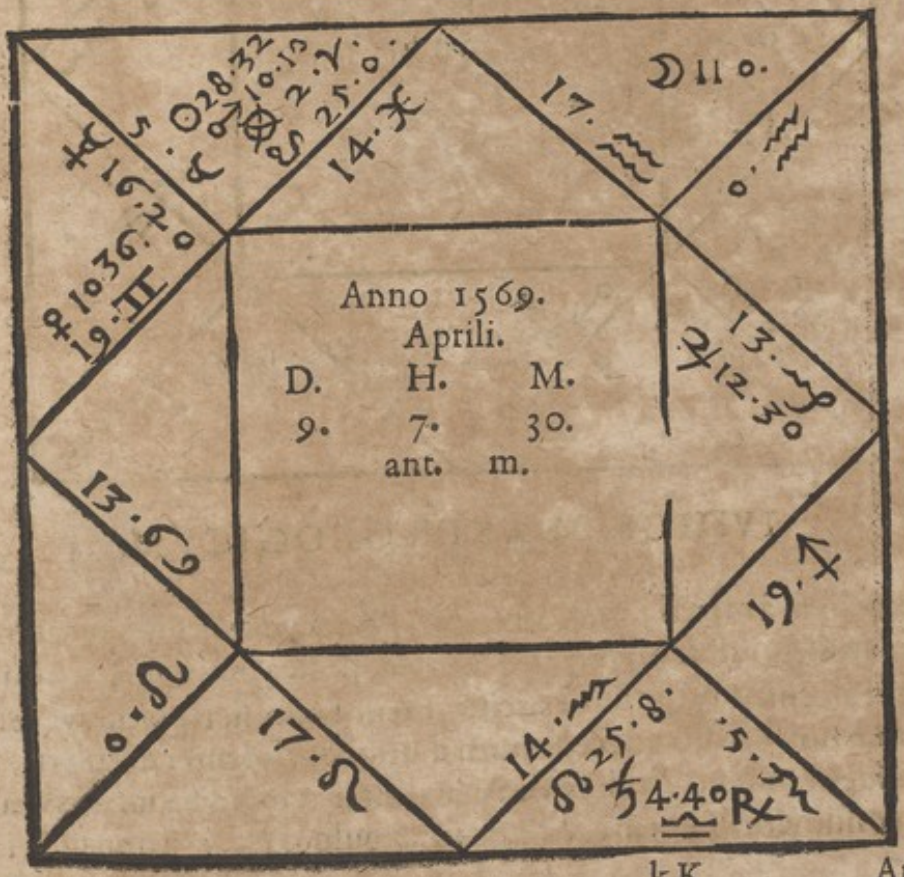
Saturnus in Cancro, signo aqueo, suffocationem, in aquis submersionẽ, vel copiâ vini hausti. Mars verò oppositus Lunæ ex signis humanis, Mercurio dominante signo Martis, ab hominibus, vel Mandato Principis, iudicio Magistratus, ob hominem fortasse (vt constellatio minatur) interfectum, Vterq; autem maleficus in angulis, Mars in 4. Heliſæi Rößlini, Med. D. & Mathematici clariſſ.

Fœminam iſtam ſecuri percuſſam ob ſtuprum & parricidium 5. Aug. An. 92. iudico ego natam An. 69. d. 8. April. hor. 19. ½ circ. vt aſcendat 19. gr. ♊ circ. non 3. gr. ♋. Si enim 3. gr. ♋ aſcenderet, tum Horoſcopi directio fuiſſet in primis ſtatim annis in □ ♄ aſpectu, & deinceps peruenisſet ad □ ♂. per quas directiones non potuiſſet ſuperuiuere primos annos vel nutritionis, vel infantiæ, ſed intra decennium ætatis obiiſſet. Sed altero poſito ſchemate, directio Horoſcopi modo peruenit ad □ ♂. anno æt. 23. ½ Quę infelici fœminę vitę finem denunciauit, eumq; violentũ, vt ſequitur.

Venus

Venus in signo Horoscopi in ✶ aspectu ♂ ex 12. domo, designat veneficam & meretricem. Idem, Mercurius Dominus Horoscopi, in signo ☌. in 12. cœli loco Saturnus in 5. domo liberorum, non longe à ☊ facit veneficã in proprios liberos. Hoc iuuare potest, quod ♄us secundum longitud. sit cum Algorab, stella de nat. ♄ & ♂. & ☌ est cum sinistr. hum. Orionis, de nat. ♂ & ☿ ☽ cum Delphino de nat. ♄ & ♂ Sol cum cornu ♈ stella de nat. ♄ & ♂ Mercurium ego iudico non procul abesse à capite Algol, stella violenta: obseruaui enim aliquoties, Mercurium circa stationes non respondere Tabulis, sed vlterius progredi; vt non longe abfuerit à stella violentissima & infortunatissima. Sic Planetæ positi cum stellis de nat. malefica malum & prauum animum denunciant, & infortunia magna & mortem violentam.

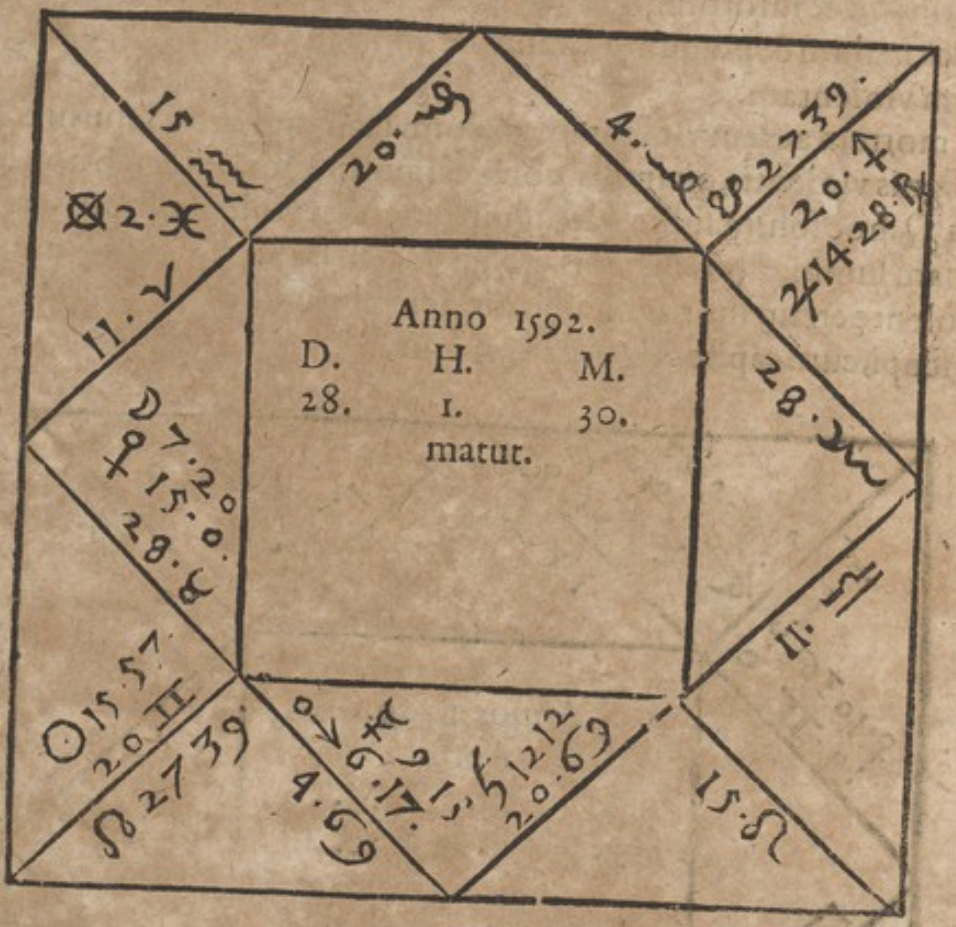
Ad mortem autem violentam multum facit oppositio Saturni & Martis ex signis violentis, quamuis non ex angulis. Quia tamen ♄ non longe abest a ☊. hoc solum sufficit ad significationem violentæ mortis, ambobus etiam luminaribus in signis violen. & cum stellis violentis constitutis. Ad violentę etiam mortis significationem plurimum facit ☿. vt Dominus Horoscopi, cum capite Algol stationarius.



Annum mortis violentæ □ ♂ aspectus apportauit, præsertim, quod Canis maior Sirius circa illa tempora Horoscopo quoq; occurrat, quod publicum q. mortis genus denunciat.

GENITVRA VLTIMA.

Thema infelicis partus, in quo, filiolam natam, impia mater, obtorto collo mox interemit.



IVDICIVM ASTROLOGICVM.

Fœmellam à matre illa in partu oppressam, ego non iudico natam hora $2\frac{1}{2}$. matut. diei 28. Maii A. 92. sicut mater postea indicauit, sed hora $1\frac{1}{2}$. matut. vt ascendat 11. gr. ♈. vel circiter. Facile enim fieri potuit, vt vel mater horam non obseruarit, vel parum diutius & violenter distulerit, cum non adfuerit obstetrix, vt hoc verũ natalitium tempus sit, infelicis partus.

Sic coniunctio Saturni & Martis in angulo cœli, etsi non sit in signo vio-violento, cum ſtella tamen violenta, cum Cane maiore, arguit mortem violentam. Et Mercurius decurrens inter vtramque maleficam malitiam auget. Et cum Horoſcopus ſit in malefico aſpectu prædictorum maleficorum, denunciat hoc miſerum mortis genus infanti in primis annis, in ipſo partu. Matrem ab hac morte ſaluare ne Iuppiter in 8. potuit, cum ſit in caſu, læſus à Martis quadrato aſpectu.

Sic omnia ſe habent violenter, & bene quadrante aſtra cum euentu.

FINIS.

Not only as the Native from a Private Gentleman (in a manner) came to be advanced to the Honour and Power of a Throne, or Kingdom, as he was; and that by a strange accident too, viz. By the Resignation of Queen Christina of Sweden, his Uncles Daughter. I mention it only for a proof of the thing in queſtion, and to fortifie the Aphoriſm impugned by my Antagoniſt. But this not to exclude the Force and Power of other eminent Arguments very obſervable therein. Here are, you ſee, no leſs than three Planets in Cardinal Signs, beſides their poſſeſſion of the Angles: The Sun is in his exaltation, in Horoſcopo, in Sextile to the Moon; Saturn is in Aries, in Sextile of Luna likewiſe. The Invidious long Parliament designing to curry Favour with, and please the Multitude, at length agree to make an Ordinance, whereby this admirable Man is Murdered. I know that there is something else besides Cardinal Signs on all the Angles, to countenance these violences. I will also grant my Antagonist that such nice and curious, nay, astonishing particulars, could not be foreseen by Astrology: Nor know I any Astrologer that ever did pretend to go so far in his prædictions. Howbeit, He must be most stupidly blind that cannot plainly discover the cause of a popular Rage, and general Violence, in this Prodigious Nativity. My ingenious neighbor Mr Tycho Wyng to satisfy his own curiosity & mine, made the preceding calculation & sent it to me with a table of Directions & the Lunar transits & the Astrological judgm.t upon the nativity 7. feb. 1734-5.

Tho' I am a stranger to Astrology & therefore cannot pretend to say any thing for or against it: yet in complaisance to my friend Wyng I considerd his table of Directions & compar'd them with the memoirs of my past life, & sent them to him this year 1735. when I happend on this book, wherein I find the physicians in Germany above a century ago, cultivated this art very much. & since then Astronomy has been exceedingly improv'd; which being the basis of astrology, (whatever certainly it has) must needs give an opportunity to improve that too, whenever a proper genius applys to it.

Rabbits & Aves!

I have my self observd, & as far as I know, the first that observd it, that the menstrual flux of women, is performd in exactly the 12th. part of the Zodiac, or whilst the sun runs over one intire sign. I have observd that the time of gestation in utero in women, is exactly 9 of those periods, or 9 intire solar signs: the sun beholding at the birth the place of conception, with a quartile aspect, as the astrologers call it. I have further observd, that the gestation in utero in other animals, is limited to certain numbers of such parts of the zodiac, as dogs & cats to 2 zodiacal signs, cows to 9, mares to 11. &c. & I suppose if those observations were extended, there might in nature be examples found, that would comprehend every duodecimal division of the suns annual circle.

Again, every contemplative person that studys the nature of men & things, cannot but observing, that there is somewhat real in what the antients & we call Fortune. that great genius Julius Cæsar took much notice of it, often mentions it in his works. so his successor Augustus when he sent his grandson Cajus into the East, wished him the valor of Alexander, the success of Pompey & his own Fortune.

doe we not often see Men without Art, cunning, industry, merit, succeed well in every thing they doe; or even without seeking, prosperity unaccountably attends 'em: whilst others of great qualifications find every step adverse, every scheme abortive & a looming malignity of the stars, as often call'd, attending their best concerted measures & thro out their whole life.

This is what we call good or bad Fortune: & if as Christians ought to doo, We call it the direction of providence, I see no difference at bottom, tho' we attribute the whole to the preordained influence or direction of the stars. the stars are not the efficient cause of our actions any more than an astronomers calculation of an eclipse is the cause of an eclipse: & it appears not unworthy of the goodness of God thus to lay open the book of Fate, where those that can read, may learn many useful hints to guide them thro' the wilderness of life. no one of sense can think the stars irresistibly dominoer over him & his actions. they impeach not his free-Will, any more than the divine prescience: yet I see no absurdity in admitting, they may in some degree prefigure the events which generally flow from a combination of many cau-causes & incidents. the attraction of the heavenly bodys, electricity, magnetism, the flux of the tides, Dr. Moads book de imperio solis & lunæ, & very many appearances in nature, with many of the astrological aphorisms which have been verified by long experience: all indicate that there possibly may be somewhat in the art more than what the generality of the learned now allow.

However with a mind perfectly free from prejudice, I attempted to explore in this method the terra incognita of curiosity which has had many great men for its factors. I thought, at least I should thereby afford an opportunity to my friend Wyng who understood the art, of judging how reasonable were its pretensions, & how much experience favord its predictions, or showd its precariousness & uncertainty at present, or whether whether we might hope for improvem.t in it hereafter.

Mr Wyng when he delivered me the observations he had made on the nativity, with the Table of directions & lunar transits, whereby they judg of the chief accidents that are to attend our whole life: told me withall, that as a long □ ♄ the present year would not prove very pleasant & agreable to me. I found his suggestion too true, for in. august Bennit revengeful wits to work, to raise a late Election. accordingly they set up G. Goodwin a bold rascally fellow under a judgment of him, were to have swoopt out of this they cookt up 12 actions of battery at the Stamford sessions: besides a bill in Chancery against me: & moreover sued me in the Kings bench for £6000 on the bribery act, making Goodwin take a false oath that I bribd him to vote for Cust. those vile oppressions were very expensive to me.

Again this same year, a prebend of the Church of Lichfield, (a very good one) which the Archbishop of Canterbury made his Option, with an intent to give it to me, as he intimated to me, happend to fall. but thro' his Graces indisposition & infirmity, not being capable of any business, it was given to Dr. Bateman the chaplain.

At the end of the year a prebend fell at Lincoln Cathedral, which the Duke of Ancaster askt for me. the Bp Moreover I made application to Lord Chancellor Talbot, at Barrington Glocestershire for Bracebrough Living, thro' the Duke of Ancasters interest, but could not succeed.

Upon those misfortunes sufficiently verifying my friend Wyngs predictions, I began to have an opinion of his art.

I looked backward in his table of directions & observ'd a like □ h when I was in utmost danger of being ruin'd by the South Sea. & when my affairs went very ill for some time.

I find that Nature in fixing the period of Womens Menses, purposed exactly the 12th. part of the Zodiac, which is a compleat sign, run over by the Sun. Ten of those Zodiacal signs exactly, is the time of gestation in Utero in women: from the time of conception ofo the time of birth, which is 273 days; the Sun at the birth, beholding the place of concepsion exactly in what the Astrologers call a quartile aspect. Those matters give hints not obscure, that probably those learned men who decry altogether any notion of Astrology, without understanding it, are to blame: as much as those who are too fancifull & credulous in admitting all the drogs of it, voyded by ignorant Scioliſts.

I find by careful observation, that females of the dog kind goe exactly 2 solar signs: cows goe 9 solar signs, mares goe 11 solar signs. I suppose all animals measure that time by the like parts of the Zodiac. whence tis reasonable to believe the Zodiac or suns annual course became divided into 12 parts, from highest antiquity. rabbits whares goe one month or solar sign, asses goe.

So that the duodecimal division of the Zodiacal circle, which is the foundation of all astrology, is no chimæra, but made by natures self, that in her noblest production, the generation of animals. then tis no absurdity to think this circle may have some regard to the life

Macrob. Som. Sc. I. 12. gives the ancient notion of the planetary influences at birth.

In all circles there are 8 remarkable points, particularly regarded by astrologers, these are called aspects. the first is conjunction, the other end of its diameter is opposition. a third part of a circle is calld a trine aspect. a fourth part is quartile, a sixth part is the sextile aspect.

from long observation they find, these aspects have some a good, others a bad influence. these are they that chequer the life of the native. good is only given to us by God almighty, as wholsom food; the other as phyfick, wholsom tho distastful. as the seasons of the year render the whole of nature beautiful, even the severe & uncomely parts of it, agreable by change: so are the ill influences of planets to be understood. they are lessons monitory to reclaim reclaim us into the right path, to give us warning of, not to bring us into misfortunes, & cross accidents, which are the necessary concomitants of life.

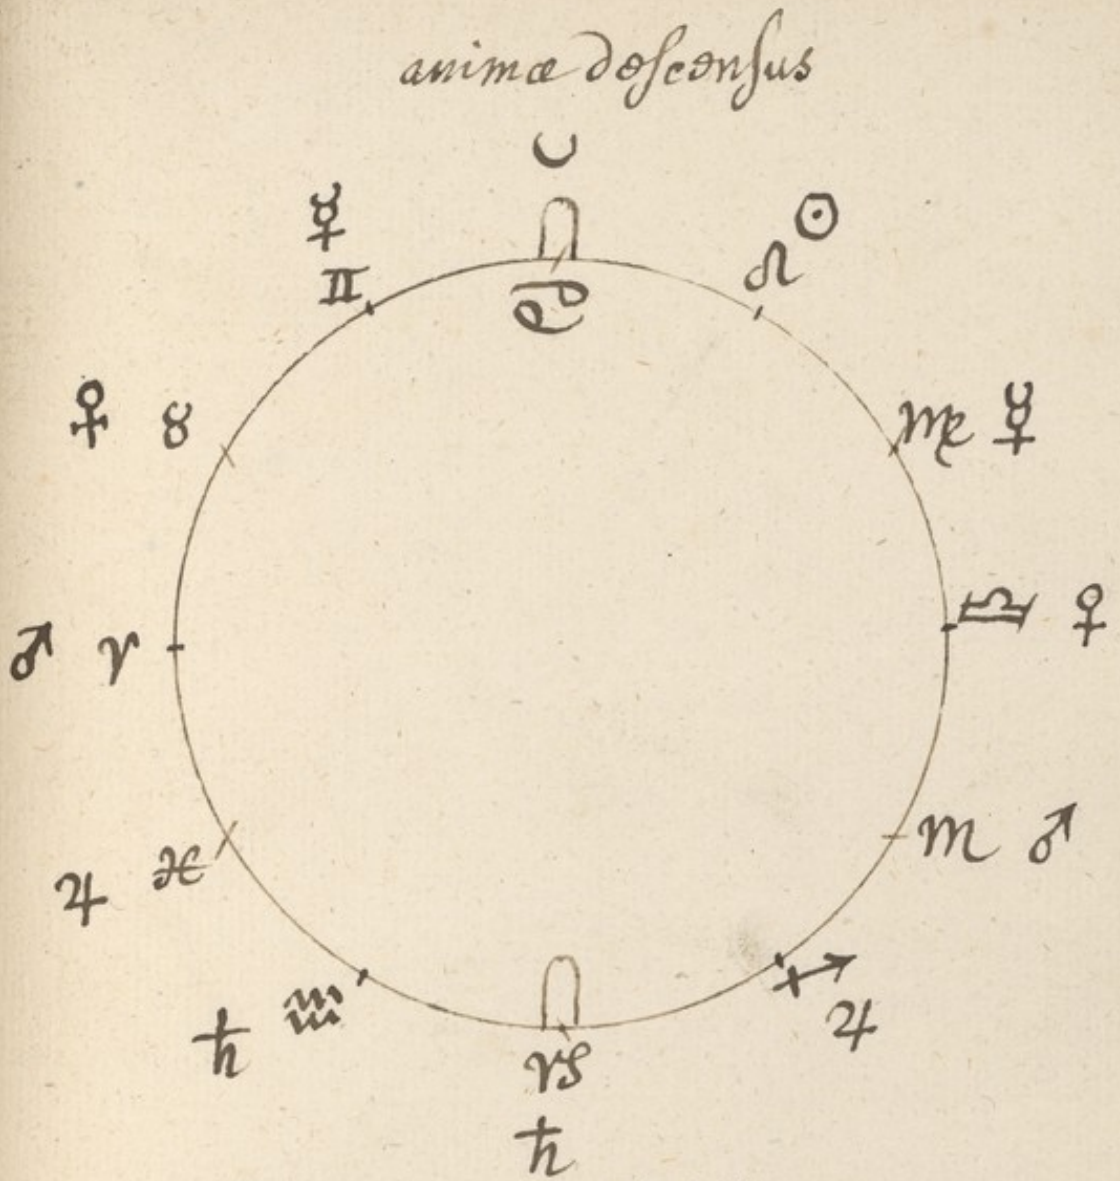
Thus I apprehend are the influences of aspects to be understood in general.



Porphyrys schema de antro nymph.

The mutual action & affection of all the parts of a human body, make what we call the human nature or constitution. So the mutual action & affection of all the parts of our system may be call'd the mundane nature or constitution. as the human nature or constitution regards every individual part of the compositum of a human body, in its proper way, & in common with the whole: so does the cosmic system, by the parts of the mundane frame. a series of those affections that pass between the human constitution & the mundane constitution, or a history of events, we may call fate. the whole of this history lyes open to the infinite wisdom of the almighty. he has indulg'd our industry & curiosity in knowing some parts of this history beforehand, particularly in regard to the motions of the great great collections of matter that make up the cosmic system, the planets. as to fore-knowledg of events in a nearer view, God has been very munificent in his communi-cations to mankind, by the gift of prophe-cy. this is in the extraordinary way. but in the ordinary way, & in comon life, every wise man, that has liv'd past youth is natur-ally endowed with a good deal of this fore-knowledg of comon events. more or less according to the degree of his wisdom, expe-rience & acutenes in observation. but it seems highly rational to expect that God almighty indulge us further with a kind of book of the whole series of general events that are to happen to each man, during his whole life, as far as is consistent with mans free will & action. & there is no book of this sort pretended to from all antiquity, but what we call astrology. & this must be allowed to be from all antiquity. all the most antient nations historys hinting at it.

The

The most rational part of this book, I take to be that of the aspects. there is something in it so agreable to nature, to the chequerwork of life, that is like the discordant harmony of musick. the beautiful variety of its intervals & powers courts ones attention; & when that is applyd to the obvious variety of the planetary bodys as to their magnitudes, distances, faces & revolutions, it strikes a considering mind with great pleasure: & tempts us at least to wish it were agreable to truth & fact.

neglecting therefore the vulgar & seemingly irrational jargon of astrology, I applyd my self to a review of those aspects, as they affected my whole life, deduced from the horoscope or point of birth. I considerd, that supposing there was any truth in it, the superior planets of slowest motion, must be indicative of the more considerable changes of my life. such are

I lay it down for a true maxim that religion is not at all affected by it, at least in an evil way. I reject all force, necessity & fatality in the stars. we may safely admit of a bias, proponsity & tendency. this is no more than what we all feel in our own passions, inclinations, or as we say, nature, the constitution of our being. we know, this we are to regulate by reason, morality & religion. & so I think the like of starry influence. On this ground the vulgar calumnys against astrology cease, & it becomes us to examin into it. otherwise astronomy & its modern improvements & scrupulous nicetys in observation, seems nothing more than speculation & curiosity, with very little use.

Bromeley, who being a very learned Lawyer, was by Queen Elizabeth made first her Solicitor General; and upon the Demise of Sir Nicholas Bacon, Lord High Chancellor of England, in which high Station he so demeaned himself, that Bacon, tho' thought incomparable, was not missed, while Bromley sat in his Place. He happened to sit Judge upon the Queen of Scots Trial; and after he had answered her Protestation, that she was not subject to the English Laws, thus: That all Persons whatsoever that offend against the English Laws in England, are subject to them, and may be tried by them, and heard her Defence, he said, That his Sentence against her had three Things in it, Justice, Security and Necessity; but added withal, That it should no ways prejudice King James her Son's Title or Honour.

Sir Clement Edmonds's Nativity in this Parish is enough alone to make it famous, for he was a most learned Man, generally skilled in all Arts and Sciences, and eminent as well for military as politick Affairs, and therefore esteemed by all an Ornament to all the Places he officiated in, which were many, for he was made successively (by his Father's Interest at first, for he was Comptroller of the King's Household) Secretary for the French Tongue to Queen Elizabeth about 1601; Remembrancer of the City of London, Master of Requests, Muster-master at the Brill in Zealand, one of the Clerks of the Council, and a Knight. He wrote a Comment upon Cæsar's Commentaries, Lond. 1600. He died in St. Martin's in the Fields near London, 12 Oct. 1622, and was buried in the little Chapel belonging to his Manor of Preston near Northampton, under a comely Monument, with a Latin and English Epitaph, setting forth his Learning, Industry and Piety. His Brother Thomas (bearing the Christian Name of his Father Sir Thomas Edmonds) was Treasurer of the Household in 1617, and sent by his Majesty King James I. Embassador to Brussels, and elsewhere.

Stanwardine, a Village of some Note for the Birth of Sir Roger Acheley, the Son of Thomas Acheley, of this Town. He was bred a Draper in the City of London, and God so prospered him in his Business, that he was chosen Lord Mayor for 1511, in which Office he looked upon himself not only the chief Magistrate, but Provider; for Corn happening at that Time to be both scarce and dear, so that the Poor wanted the common Necessaries of Life; he like a second Joseph bought up great Quantities of Corn, which he reposited in Leaden-Hall (which was from thence called for a while the common Granary of London) and sold it to the Rich and Poor at such moderate and proportionable Rates, that he was highly commended by the Rich, and obtained a Blessing from the Poor for it.

Tershull, or Tashole, the Estate of Sir Hugh Burnell, who died seized of it, 27 Nov. 8 Hen. V. with many other Lordships in this and other Counties, but most in this and the Marches of Wales. There are many other Villages in this Hundred, which we are forced to pass over unmentioned for want of proper Information, and therefore shall conclude these Northern Parts of the County with what we have observed in

IV. The Hundred of Oswestry.

This Hundred of Oswestry lies on the Western Side of the County North, and is encompassed on the East with the Hundred of Pimhill; on the South, with the Severn River, which parts it from the Hundred of Ford; on the West, with Part of Denbigh and Montgomery Shires in Wales; and on the North with the former Shire. The Fee of this Hundred was anciently in the Fitz-alans, Earls of Arundel, but now is in the Crown, and the Government of it is under the Sheriff and his Officers. The Name of it is taken from the chief Town of it, viz.

Oswestry, or Oswaldestre, in Welch Croix Oswalde, a small Market-Town, inclosed with a Wall and Ditch, and fortified by a little Castle. The Market is on Monday weekly, and on it is a great Traffick for Welsh Cottons, especially those that are of a fine Thin, or if you will, slight Texture, of which great Quantities are here sold every Market-Day, to be carried into the further Parts of the Nation; and the Fair on the Feast of SS. Philip and Jacob, 1 May. It takes this Name from Oswald King of the Northumbrians, (for before it was called Maserfield) whom Penda the Pagan Prince of the Mercians, (after he had slain him in an hot Engagement) tore Limb from Limb with inhuman Barbarity; but his Death was soon after revenged upon Penda, by his Brother and Successor Oswy, who with a far less Army slew him, and discomfited his great Host, as a Poet of our own has elegantly expressed it. After this Battle, the Town was built (as is supposed) out of a superstitious Conceit of a peculiar Holiness in the Place, from the Blood of the holy Man Oswald, (whom the Christians of that Age admired living, and reverenced dead) which Opinion was much confirmed, as Bede tells us, by many famous Miracles, which were wrought in the Place where he was killed. Caradocus Lancabernensis assures us, that it was built by Madoc the Brother of Mereduc, of whom we have no further Account.

After the Conquest, Alan the Son of Flatbald, or Flauld, obtained by the Gift of the Cenqueror the Town and Castle of Oswaldster, with the Territories adjoining, which belonged to Meredyth ap Blethyn, the Britain. William Fitz-alan was his Heir and Successor in this Manor, and his other Estate; and in 33 Hen. II. 1188, gave a large Entertainment in this his Castle of Oswaldester to Balouin, Archbishop of Canterbury, in his Journey into Wales. He was High Sheriff of Shropshire from 2 Rich. I. to the 3d of John. He died 16 John, and was succeeded in his Estate by his Son William, a Minor, for whom John de Mareshall was appointed Governor of this Castle of Oswestre; but he dying soon after, was succeeded by his Father's Brother John. He obtained a Charter 12 Hen. III. for a Fair to be kept yearly on this his Manor on the Eve, Day and Morrow of St. Andrew, and two Days after. He died 24 Hen. III. and left his Estate to his Son John, who as Heir to Hugh de Albini Earl of Arundel, was upon the Death of that Earl assigned for his Purparty the Castle of Arundel. He upon paying a Fine of a thousand Pounds, was admitted to the Possession of his Castle here, 38 Hen. III. and died the 54th of the same King, leaving Richard Fitz-alan his Heir, then 5 Years old, whereupon the Custody of this Castle was committed to John de Oxenden, and after to Bogo, or Bevis de Knovill; and the Wardship of his Person to Roger de Mortimer; but his Mother Isabel obtained both, 8 Edw. I. yet with some Opposition from Edmund de Mortimer, who, two Years after, procured a Grant of the same King for them, and held them till Richard was out of Ward. He had the Title of Earl of Arundel without Creation, because as the Act of Parliament, 11 Hen. VI. declareth, All that had been possessed of the Castle and Honour of Arundel, were Earls thereof, without any other Creation. This Manor and Castle continued long in the Fitz-alans; but at length in the Reign of Queen Elizabeth it became extinct. Some of this Family walled it about.

Mr. Camden tells us, That it is very observable, that the Eclipses of the Sun in Aries have been very fatal to this Town; for in the Years 1542 and 1567, when the Sun was eclipsed in that Planet, it suffered very much by Fire, viz. the first two long Streets, with great Riches, were wholly consumed; and by the later, two hundred Houses, viz. seven Score within the Walls, and threescore without in the Suburbs, besides much Corn, Cloath, Cattle, &c. and all destroyed in the Space of two Hours, to the great Admiration of all People.

The Church here is a very fair Building, covered with Lead, and dedicated to St. Oswald, but it stands without the New Gate, so that there is no Church within the Town. It was anciently a

But besides this kind of Computation, we may look back as

And here by the way give me leave to add a word or two, for the Information of the young Students. All Men that advance in the World, either in Fortune or Honour, must have Positions sutable for the success of such Undertakings. And for Honour and Grandure, they ought to have the Luminaries in Regal Masculine Signs, and in Angles, especially the first, or tenth Houses; and the most principal of the Lights befriended by the Rays of the other five Planets, Oriental to the Sun, Occidental to the Moon; and they also friendly beholding the M. C. or in it; and the Lights, or any of these Stipatores being with Regal fixed Stars, make the Honour and Grandure more eminent. Men thus born, either attain to a Throne, or else great Power and Command over others: But if the Lights are in obscure Houses, and feminine Signs, the five Planets out of their Dignities, ill placed, and not befriending the M C. those Persons will be of a mutable Fortune, and live in a low abject Condition. But where-ever you find Saturn in the Tenth, Fourth, or Seventh, or in Opposition to the Lights, those People meet with Misfortunes more than enough.
