My dear Sir

I send you herewith the amount of your two drafts for £40 Sterling each, a portion of which is in Napoleons, & on which you will gain something on the Continent, the remainder is in Spanish Dollars.

I shall have much pleasure in furnishing you with the Letters of Credit you require, & will do so as soon as ever you let me know the sums you may be likely to ~~require~~ need of.

Enclosed you have also a receipt for Mrs Pater's account. I intend doing myself the pleasure of calling on you before your departure in the near future.

Jr. (1)

I received your letter on yesterday, and beg to inform you that I have your pleasure and shall be happy to have the pleasure of doing anything you may require. In regard to the Credit, twelve months, is the general term I expect my Bills paid me, if paid before I take off a discount, as you will see by the subjoined statement. In regard to the Price I cannot so well give an Estimate for a Reg^d Coat, as it depends so much on the Quality of the Linn, and if they are lined with Felt they generally are from 11 to 13 Guineas, In regard to the Coat that also depends on the quality of the Cloth, and as you can almost have one at any Price you please to become I have on the other side put the different Prices of Reg^d frock Coats, and trousers by which you will be able to judge of the other things, the quality of every thing to be good and done in the best manner, I must not omit to state that I am not particular as to a Month, or two in regard to the Credit and that what I have stated is only as a general guide, I shall be most happy to hear from you, and you may depend on everything being executed in the best manner and in the shortest time possible

Yours Most Respect

Sir

I very much regret that you place me under the disagreeable necessity of addressing you again respecting the non payment of your Account & still more so that you have not thought proper to fulfill your engagements to me for I find instead of sending me an Order to receive your Cheque Money that you have drawn it yourself in consequence of which and your intention to arrange the payment although the account is standing over so many years. I have to inform you that if the account is not paid before Wednesday next. I shall feel myself compell'd by your indifference to hand it to my Solicitor on Thursday night

W. Lindsay Esq
Sir

It is with extreme reluctance that I feel myself compelled in justice to myself and creditors to inform you that your Bill for £62-10-0 payable at Mr Crossdals due the 25th ultimo was refused payment this not being any effects - and as I have waited with the utmost patience for some years till at last I expected you had finally arranged the settlement of the account by giving me the above Bill at a long date which I certainly should not have taking had not you assured me in your letters that it should be regularly paid - I cannot help feeling myself very ill treated in this business for you must have known all along that it would not be paid - and if you found a difficulty in paying it when due you ought to have remitted me all the money you could - as part payment instead of which this Bill has given you a respite for a 12 month but as I cannot go on any longer and I am determined to bring this affair to a settlement - I have to inform you that if you do not not permit me home immediately on receipt of this some thing satisfactory. I shall most certainly address your Commanding Officer on the subject. previous to applying to His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief. for I will not let the business rest as it is at present — waiting your reply —

I remain

Sir

Sir,

Being informed that your Regiment is about immediately to embark for Malta it induced me to examine the Draft you sent me for £62. 10. 0 but the 10th day of March next and I am sorry to observe there is one sad omission in it and that is the Bill is not made payable at any place or address to any house - it answers for nothing but a mere acknowledgement of the debt and as you are ~~about~~ to embark for Foreign Service where you may remain for many Years - it will be impossible to send the Bill to you for payment when due - I must therefore request you will be good enough to arrange the payment in any manner you please that will effect the payment without any impediment either by giving me

Bills

Bill on your Agent or any other respectable person. and perhaps it would be more convenient to you to divide the amount into three Bills at 3, 6 & 12 months date the first to be accepted and due on the 10 July next being 3 months from the date of the Bill you last sent me - indeed I am much disappointed at not having received any remittance from you before this on account of your Bill which you promised to have sent me some time ago I must therefore again insist that some satisfactory and decisive measures are taken by you to settle this long standing account waiting your reply -

and such other Articles as may be commissioned.

Upon these he merely charges the usual Merchants Commission.

When shipped to India, he draws Bills for the amount of the Invoice, upon the Agents of the Regiments there, at the exchange of the day.

These Stores are always purchased at the best Market, and as the Officers are only charged the same price as Foreign Agents pay to their Correspondents in London, they save the whole of their Profit.

The undersigned will be happy to receive the Orders of the Mess Committees of any of His Majesty's or the Honorable Company's Regiments, and he will forward the supplies at such times, and in such ways as they may direct.

Dear Sir

I trouble you with the enclosed letter for my Correspondent at Corfu, Mr. Wm. Petty, which on your arrival I will thank you to deliver to him: I have no doubt that he will do any thing in his power to serve you while you remain there.

With respect to your Bills, pray bear in mind that you may always avail of my best services.

When you say Mr. McCabe & his family do me the favor to give them my best respects; & tell

Mr. McCabe that his silence has induced me to think that he follows up the old Proverb "Out of sight,

out of mind."

As I, with other cheap, import Wine spirits, & perfumery here, I trouble you with 2 sheets of such papers, conscious that, if you can send any orders my way, you will not forget me.

Always at your Commands Remain most truly

Your most Obedient humble servant

Wm. Camp. Cormack
