- 13. Eusebius-Augustinus-Cyrillus, epistolae de vita et miraculis beati Hieronimi. 47 leaves.

13 manuscripts of the 15th century partly rubricated with initial letters painted in red. 4to. Pretty original binding, L. 1400. wooden boards covered with vellum, clasp.

- This remarkable manuscript (1) is principally compiled from the works of Avicenna and written for the greatest part in Latin, a small part in German. Contains e.g.: De cibo, potu, sompno, balneo (e.g. a German balneary-recipe), de flebothomia, vomitu clisteri, de regimine temporum cum rectificacione aeris. Half of leaf 12 is cut off (con-taining probably a chapter De coitu), on leaf 21 part of the text is blotted with ink (containing probably prescriptions for the sexual life). On the same leaf the following passage: Haec supra notata recepui et rapui ex quodam nobili libro in Constancia, videlicet ex libro magistri Johannis Pollin, qui erat tempore consilii prolocutor totius consilii Constanciensis. totius consilii Constanciensis.
- Leaf 1 recto: Incipit compendium de regimine sanitatis tradi-tum a multis. Sicut scribitur ab Avicenna primi canonis ca-pitulo de causis sanitatis et necessitatis et aegritudinis mortis.... fol. 19 verso: magistra omnium medicorum est abstinencia, quoniam compendium de regimine sanitatis editum a multis.
- The other manuscripts, written partly by the same hand, deal (2-6) with natural sciences, the other have theological contents. Very interesting manuscript in fine state in its original binding. Provenience: Convent Buxheim.
