Rev. C.

After a great deal amongst my numerous books I found "Diseases of Infants" Printed 1694, it ought to be worth 2/6
or 2/- . it belongs to my grandfather (a doctor).

Yours faithfully

Mr. C.

I now send you my very rare old Benbury Agua-terro - Handicraft &
the price I mentioned in my last letter is the best I care to accept.

The old Green Mountain
Flagon - Lancel Cone cost me originally more than

I never ask for it so don't let me give away
me less for it.

Yours faithfully

E. F. Moore.

MOORE, G.F.

101, Westmoreland Road,

Camberwell Gate, S.E.,

7th January, 1909.

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for sending the old engravings, I regret that they are practically of no value, and as I have most of them already, I am returning them to you herewith.

Faithfully yours,

(signed) T. Brett.

Dear Sir,

In reply to yours of the 1st inst., if you will kindly send me the articles you mention for inspection, I will at once forward you a cheque for the amount you ask if approved of. Also kindly send me a list of the old medical works you have to dispose of, giving titles and dates of publication, and stating if they contain any cuts.

Faithfully yours,

(signed) T. Brett.
