between, sm. 4to, original velum, [M.7] 1613-17 The author of this important unpublished MS. was a member of the noble family of Ruthven, probably Patrick, fourth Earl, or if not him, a cadet of this family. The first chapter is headed "De Mercurio Vi av Varia ex relatione D[ominus] Ruthven." A selection of the chapter and paragraph headings is as follows: Spiritus vitae aureus, etc., Oleum Foeniculorum, Insigne decus Vitae Quinta Essentia Margaritarum, Pilulae Clementis Fairfaxe, Oleum Salis Olla (Mr. Pott), Arcanum Singulare sive Tinctura, Epilipsia Vires et Virtutes Florum, Aqua Mirabilis, Anatomia Terrestris Medicinae, Digestivum, Emetica, Rosa Vitae vel Rosa Mineralis, Pilulae Doct. Poe, Pilulae Sir G. Bowes, Sudorifica, Hypnotica, Lauda-num Huxt qderat D. Taylor, Aurum Potabile, Anti-dotum contra Arsenicum Cornacchini Pulvis Comitis Warwick, Polypus Morbus, De Urina, Sequentia ex varijs confabulationibus habitis cum D. Ruthven. For the running of the Reines in Man or Woman, Emplastrum ad Podagram, Pilulis purgativus Sir Andrew Graye, The receipt of the Syrup restorative, A Pretious Water farr exceeding all others, a water more pretious than gold, My Lord of Leycesters Water, My Lord Cobhams Water, Ambrosia Water (Levines), Mr. Joslines Water, Diaphoreticum Sir Walter Ralye, Laudanum paracelsi Sir Walter Ralye, The forme for Sir Walter Raulyes cordiall, Chiurgia

Walter Ralye, Laudanum paracelsi Sir Walter Ralye, The forme for Sir Walter Raulyes cordiall, Chiurgia Emplastra, An excellent healing, dryeing and Skinning plasteri, Experimenta Equitis D. Rob. Killegrew (Sir Robert Killigrew famous for his concoctions of drugs and cordials, see D. N. B.]. To quicken Mercurie, The Pall of Ellebor, Great Cordiall Sir Robt. Killegrew, etc., 1630, To make the tincture of Corall, To make the Diaphoratick of Sr. Walter Rawly's, etc., etc., etc. These headings selected at random will give an idea of the scope of this wonderful manuscript. Being the work of an Elizabethan Nobleman who had access to the recipes of Sir Walter Raleigh, Lord Cobham, Earl of Warwick, the Earl of Leicester and other court favourites, the manuscript is invested with an interest qute out of the ordinary. The usual astro-logical signs accompany the herbs and drugs.
