Dear Sir,

Thank & thank you for your return the bound copy of my paper on William Archdeacon which came safe & hand & the Photo. Yours faithfully

August 27. 1904

Dear Sir,

I have now received the photos taken by Mr. Brinley, of the oil painting of the old William Brockedon in the Guildhall. I regret that they have turned out very badly, as you will see, but I enclose a print of one, as promised.

I am,

Yours very truly,

Edward Winderatt Esq.,
Heckwood,
Bridgetown,
Totnes.

August 19, 1904

Dear Sir,

Mr Wallace desires me to express his most cordial thanks to you for the loan of the bound copy of your paper on William Brockedon, which I now send you per registered post. He has been most interested in the perusal of it.

I enclose you, as promised, a print of the photograph which you kindly allowed to be taken from your engraving. I regret to say that the photographer has made a failure of the photograph he took from the painting in the Guildhall, as he centred his efforts on the frame instead of the picture. I have asked him to try again, and if successful will forward you a print of that also.

Again thanking you for your kindness in the matter,

I am,

Yours very truly,

Edward Windcott Esq.,
Hackwood,
Bridgetown,
Totnes,
Devonshire.

Dear Sir,

I thank you for the photograph you so kindly sent me. I am sorry they have turned out so badly, but I expect that the picture should have been properly cleaned before it was photographed.

Yours faithfully,

Monsieur,

Nous vous serons très obligés si vous voulez nous dire le prix des reproductions des photographies du Professor Metchnikoff et du Professor Roux, semblable à ceux que vous avez exposés dans une case de verre dans l'Avenue de l'Opera. Un de nos clients les a vus à Paris récemment, et veut en avoir des copies si vous pouvez citer un prix raisonnable.

Veuillez agréer, monsieur, nos salutations distinguées,

E.&Co.

Dear Sir,

I shall be glad if you will procure for me, in addition to the other portraits, a photograph of Clement Shorter, Editor of the "Sphere"; photographs of the three Wakleys, (the son who died recently, his father and his grandfather, founder of the "Lancet"); and also one of Dawson Williams, Editor of the "British Medical Journal".

I am,

Faithfully yours,
