Dear Sir I thank you for the card of admission to the Historical Medical Museum.

I enclose what is supposed to be a Urinary Medical Instrument in Hindustani for exhibit.

I do not think it is of any value
it need not be returned.

Yours truly

Dear Sir,

I understand from a representative of Messrs. Burroughs Wellcome & Co. that you have an old medical book in French that you kindly offer to present to the Wellcome Historical Medical Museum. We should be most pleased to avail ourselves of your kind offer, and if you will be good enough to let me know I could send a messenger for it if it is inconvenient for you to call here.

Thanking you in anticipation,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

While in here today mentioned that he had an old French medical book that he did not want, and will give to the H.M.C. if it be of any interest. He had not time to see you about it and I said that I would ask you to communicate with him on the matter.

Will you kindly deal with it?

Dear Sirs,

17 Orchard Street. W

This well known Dental Surgeon & Antiquarian enquired after our MHE & desired me to inform you that in some old Books he recently bought - are a number of bound volumes of The London Medical Gazette 1830 & about that time.

If they will be of any interest to us he would be pleased if we will accept them from him.

Please enquire when we can collect them from him when thanking him for this offer, which no doubt we shall take advantage of unless we already have them.

Yrs faithfully
