Dear Sir,

Your letter of the 10th October addressed to Mr. T.W.P. Lawrence was submitted to the School Committee at their meeting yesterday, and I was directed to inform you that this Committee is willing to lend the Liston Collection of Surgical Instruments to the Historical Medical Exhibition, 1913, on the understanding that insurances are effected by the Exhibition Authorities on the exhibits so lent, and that the numbers at present fixed to the various items in the collection be not disturbed and provided that the School do not require the collection for any exhibition which might be organised during the International Medical Congress.

I am,

Yours faithfully,
