Valed of the last year Augustus (Sancti) the first before the Supreme Congress I Augustus by Divine Providence and by reiteration of the Congress of the representation of the nation, Congress of Mexico swear by God and the holy Evan-gels that I will defend and preserve the Roman Catholic and Apostolic Religion, without permitting any other in the Empire of Mexico - That I will not exact funding money or aught else without a decree of the Congress, that I will not take from any one his property, and especially that I will respect the political liberty of the nation and personal liberty of each individual - Thus may God be my aid and my defence.

Held by Lord Liverpool in the House of Commons.

King James I. Disgraced himself and his Country by his Book of Sports, in which he dictated to his Subjects, That dancing, Archery Leaping, Hawking, May games, Whittling Wells, Peas Morris, Dances were lawful and commendable, that such lawful mirth or recreation should not be forbidden to his Subjects on Sunday after evening service - In the 1st year of the reign of Charles I. the law was repealed - In the year 1622, Aug 11th - 1622

In a Village not far from Leek, in this County, on the production of the annual accounts by the Constable a few days since, a curious item was found. He had occasion, during his official term, to refresh a travelling plougher with meat and drink, and had entered the expense in this way — "To eating a man 18". A hearty laugh being raised, the unconscionable squire, much amused, "that if he had known, he would not have done it for double the money".
