There's no puzzle about getting children to take 'Pineate' Honey Cough-Syrup—it's so nice: they love it!

Coughs, croup and whooping-cough have no chance with 'Pineate'. One dose stops the cough at once, clears away phlegm and congestion, and soothes and heals the delicate lining of the throat and chest. 'Pineate' Honey Cough-Syrup can be given with perfect safety to the youngest child—and it's just as effective for a man's-sized cough, too! 1/6 of all chemists.
