COURT PRODUCTS - Aristocrats among Foods

A few facts will give you an idea of the pains taken to make our products unsurpassed in quality.

The Danish Hog is the world-renowned "Landrace", a strain dating back over 100 years. Well-fed with a daily diet of barley and skimmed milk, it is slaughtered at an age when its meat is most tender.

A staff of experts controls the processing of the raw materials right from the moment the pig is slaughtered.

From every lot manufactured sample tins are taken at random and their contents are subjected to minute laboratory tests in order to ensure maintenance of superior quality and hygienic standard.

These are a few facts which contribute to make COURT Products Aristocrats among foods.
