More and more Housewives each year are coming to rely on Ice Cream for their sweet course during the summer months. That this is so, is amply demonstrated by the increasing sales of Wall's Ice Cream, particularly in their large and small Bricks which so admirably lend themselves to cutting up and for making fancy dishes. This year the prices of these two lines have been drastically reduced—the quality and size remaining the same.

If you have not already tried one of these bricks we think you should do so without delay.
