Dear Dad

Just a few lines to let you know am in perfect health and getting on alright.

I think the course will terminate in a week or two.

Have received two letters from you, the last was dated 4th May.

We have shifted again it is a much better place than where we were last, in every way. I received a letter from Alf this other day, he intends to write you soon. I here Alfie is going down to Blackdown for a while it will do him a lot of good. Well Dad, must close now, will write again soon. Hoping this finds you ^{quite} well.
Your affectionate son
Bill
