OBSERVATIONS ON THE WEATHER.

We shall present our readers with some brief rules for ascertaining the state of the Weather, which are the result of long experience and observation: the following are from the Philosophical Disquisitions of the late Rev. and learned W. JONES, of Pluckley.

MISTS.—A white mist in the evening, over a meadow with a river, will be drawn up by the sun next morning, and the day will be bright.—Five or six fogs successively drawn up portend rain.—Where there are high hills, and the mist which hangs over the lower lands draws towards the hills in the morning, and rolls up to the top, it will be fair; but if the mist hangs upon the hills, and drags along the woods, there will be rain.

CLOUDS.—Against much rain the clouds grow bigger and increase very fast, especially before thunder.—When the clouds are formed like fleeces, but dense in the middle, and bright toward the edges, with the sky bright, they are signs of a frost, with hail, snow, or rain.—If clouds breed high in air, in thin white trains, like locks of wool, they portend wind, and probably rain.—When a general cloudiness covers the sky, and small black fragments of clouds fly underneath, they are a sure sign of rain, and probably it will be lasting. Two currents of clouds always portend rain, and, in summer, thunder.

DEW.—If the dew lies plentifully on the grass after a fair day it is a sign of another. If not, and there is no wind, rain must follow.—A red evening portends fine weather; but if it spread too far upwards from the horizon in the evening, and especially morning, it foretells wind or rain or both.—When the sky in rainy weather is tinged with sea green, the rain will increase; if with deep blue, it will be showery.

HEAVENLY BODIES.—A haziness in the air which fades the sun's light, and makes the orb appear whitish, or ill defined; or at night, if the moon and stars grow dim, and a ring encircles the former, rain will follow.—If the sun's rays appear like Moses' horns, if white at setting, or shorn of his rays, or goes down into a bank of clouds in the horizon, bad weather is to be expected.—If the moon looks pale and dim, we expect rain; if red, wind; and if of her natural colour, with a clear sky, fair weather.—If the moon is rainy throughout, it will clear at the change, and perhaps the rain return a few days after. If fair throughout, and rain at the change, the fair weather will probably return on the fourth or fifth day.

WIND.—If the wind veers about, much rain is pretty sure. If in changing it follows the course of the sun, it brings fair weather; the contrary, foul.—Whistling, or howling of the wind, a sure sign of rain.

METEORS.—The Aurora Borealis, after warm days, are generally succeeded by cooler air.—Shooting stars are supposed to indicate wind.

ANIMALS.—Before rain, swallows fly low; dogs grow sleepy, and eat grass; water-fowl dive much; fish will not bite; flies are more troublesome; toads crawl about; moles, ants, bees, and many insects are very busy; birds fly low for insects; swine, sheep, and cattle are uneasy, and even the human body.

THE TWO FOLLOWING OBSERVATIONS ARE FROM THE INGENIOUS DR. KIRWAN.

1. When there has been no particular storm about the time of the Spring equinox (March 21),—if a storm arise from the east on or before that day, or if a storm from any point of the compass arise near a week after the equinox, then, in either of these cases, the succeeding summer is generally dry, four times in five.
2. But if a storm arise from the S. W. or W. S. W. on or just before the Spring equinox, then the Summer following is generally wet, five times in six.

HOLIDAYS KEPT AT THE PUBLIC OFFICES.

At the BANK, the only Holidays in the Dividend Offices are Good Friday and Christmas Day; in the Transfer Offices, besides the above, May 1 and Nov. 1 are observed.

At the East India House and Exchequer, Good Friday and Christmas Day are the only Holidays.

At the Custom House, and the several Public Dock Companies, by 3 and 4 Will. IV. cap. 51, the Holidays are Christmas Day and Good Friday, any days appointed by Her Majesty's Proclamation for a General Fast or a General Thanksgiving, and the Day appointed for the Celebration of Her Majesty's Birthday.

At the Excise and Stamp Offices, the Holidays are the same as in the Customs, with the addition of Whit Monday, March 25, and May 29.

 All Holidays that fall on a Sunday (except the Saints' Days) are kept on the Monday following.

TRINITY TERM beg. Thursday, May 26. Ends Thursday, June 16.

WEATHER TABLE.

The following Table, constructed upon philosophical considerations of the attraction of the Sun and Moon, in their several positions respecting the Earth, and confirmed by experience of many years' actual observations, furnishes the observer, without farther trouble, with the knowledge of what kind of weather there is the greatest probability of succeeding, and that so near the truth, that in very few instances it will be found to fail.

New and Full Moon.	Summer.	Winter.
If it be new or full Moon, or the Moon entering into the first or last quarter at 12 noon or between 12 and 2	Very rainy	Snow and rain.
2 and 4 aftern.	Changeable	Fair and mild.
4 and 6 even..	Fair	Fair.
6 and 8	{ Fair, if wind at } N. W.	{ Fair and frosty, if wind } at N. or N. E.
8 and 10	{ Rainy, if wind at S. } or S. W.	{ Rain or Snow, if S. or } S. W.
10 and 12 night..	Ditto	Ditto.
12 and 2 morn.	Fair	Fair and frosty.
2 and 4	Ditto	{ Hard frost, unless wind } S. or S. W.
4 and 6	Cold with showers.....	Snow and stormy.
6 and 8	Rain.....	Ditto.
8 and 10	Wind and Rain	Stormy weather.
10 and 12	Changeable	{ Cold rain, if wind be } W.; snow, if E.
	Frequent showers	Cold, with high wind.

The nearer the time of the Moon's change, First Quarter, Full and Last Quarter, is to MIDNIGHT, the fairer will the weather be during the seven days following. The nearer to MIDDAY or NOON these Phases of the Moon happen, the more foul or wet the weather may be expected during the next seven days.

ABSTRACTS FROM ACTS PASSED IN THE RECENT SESSION OF PARLIAMENT,
24 & 25 VICT. 1861.

CAP. CXXXIV.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Bankruptcy and Insolvency in England.

Sec. 1. The Court of Bankruptcy shall have and exercise, for the purposes of this Act, all the powers and authorities of the superior Courts of law and equity, and the jurisdiction & powers of the Court for the relief of Insolvent Debtors in England.

2. The present commissioners of bankruptcy to continue to be commissioners of the Court; and future vacancies are not to be filled up until the number in London shall be reduced to less than three.

3—5. The judge of every County Court (except the Metropolitan) to have within his district the same jurisdiction and powers, in respect of all matters coming before it by virtue of this Act, as are vested in the provincial commissioners of bankruptcy; and in cases of vacancy in the office of any commissioners, where there shall be no longer a commissioner for such district, her Majesty is empowered to transfer all the jurisdiction and powers held by them to the judges of the County Courts within such district. In case it shall appear expedient at any time, additional County Courts may be created in any of the country districts, invested with full powers of jurisdiction in bankruptcy.

8, 9. The persons now discharging the duties of registrar, taxing-master, and official assignees, either in the London Court of Bankruptcy, or in the several district Courts, are to retain and hold office during good behaviour, and additional registrars, if needful, may be hereafter appointed.

10, 11. The registrars of County Courts shall discharge the duties of registrar and official assignee under this Act within their several districts, and give security in respect of the same, and all the enactments herein with respect to official assignees shall apply to the registrars of County Courts. The high bailiffs of the said Courts are to discharge the duties of messenger in bankruptcy within their several districts, at such amount of remuneration as the general orders to be made shall direct.

12—14. On the first vacancy, the office of Accountant in Bankruptcy is to be abolished, the duties thereafter to be discharged by the chief registrar. All bills of costs, charges, and disbursements under this Act in London are to be taxed by the master, subject to the review of the Court; and in the country districts they are to be taxed and settled by the respective registrars, subject to an appeal to the Courts in which they severally act.

16. Upon any vacancy in the office of official assignee, the same is not to be filled up, unless the number be thereby reduced to less than five in London; or one in a provincial district.

17. Present messengers in bankruptcy to continue in office in such manner as the general orders may direct. On any vacancy arising, the office is not to be filled up until the number in London be reduced to two, or to one in any country district.

19, 20. The jurisdiction, authorities, and functions of the commissioners of the Court and the judges of County Courts for relief of Insolvent Debtors in England to cease and be discontinued; provided that all matters pending at the commencement of this Act shall be proceeded with and completed therein.

21, 22. The provisional assignee of the Insolvent Debtors Court to be an official assignee in the Court of Bankruptcy in London: and the chief clerk, taxing officer, and clerks of the Insolvent Courts shall be transferred to, and act as the general orders shall direct, in the London court.

28—30. The chief commissioner of the Insolvency Court to receive his full salary during life, and the registrar, clerks, and other officers to be secured the full amount of their present salaries and allowances.

31. Each of the present official assignees in the London district shall receive an annual salary of 1200*l.* payable quarterly, and in the country districts 1000*l.*; to be reduced, on all future appointments, to 1000*l.* and 800*l.* respectively.

32. The messengers of the London district to be allowed an annual remuneration by way of fees not exceeding the sum of 500*l.*, and in the country of 400*l.*

37—39. The Court fee heretofore payable in respect of public and private sittings in bankruptcy is abolished. The per-centage heretofore payable to the chief registrar's account is also abolished. The general orders may from time to time direct what fees shall be paid in respect of any proceedings under this Act.

41. In lieu of all fees, documents required for the purposes of this Act are to be printed on vellum, parchment, or paper, with the proper stamp-duty impressed or affixed thereon. When consisting of more than one sheet, the first only to be stamped.

43. If any judge, commissioner, registrar, or other officer of the Courts of bankruptcy shall, for any thing done or pretended to be done under this Act, fraudulently or wilfully demand or take or otherwise receive any fee, gratuity, or any thing of value whatsoever, other than is allowed by this Act, he shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay the sum of 500*l.*, and be rendered incapable of holding any office or place under her Majesty.

45—47. The Lord Chancellor shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, frame general orders for the following purposes:—

For regulating the practice and procedure of the courts of bankruptcy, and the several forms of petitions, orders, and proceedings to be used in the said courts;

For regulating the duties of the various officers of such courts;

For regulating the fees payable, and the charges and costs to be allowed with respect to all proceedings before such courts;

For regulating the practice and procedure upon appeals;

For regulating the filing, custody, and inspection of records;

And, generally, for carrying the provisions of this Act into effect.

And all general orders so framed shall be laid before both houses of Parliament within one month after their official approval.

48, 49. The Courts of Bankruptcy to sit daily throughout the year for the dispatch of business, Sunday, Christmas-day, Good Friday, Easter Monday and Tuesday, and days of public fast or thanksgiving excepted. During the time appointed for the vacation, the Lord Chancellor to regulate the sittings of the Courts, and appoint the attendances necessary for the due administration of justice.

52. 66. Every decision or order of the judge of any County Court acting in bankruptcy shall be subject to appeal in Chancery.

69. All debtors, whether traders or not, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act; but no debtor who is not a trader shall be adjudged bankrupt except in respect of some one of the following acts: If, not being a trader, he shall, with intent to defeat or delay his creditors, depart this realm or continue abroad, or shall with such intent make any fraudulent conveyance or gift of his real or personal estate, or any part thereof, such person will be deemed to have thereby committed an act of bankruptcy: Provided always, that before any adjudication thereon the following rules be observed:—

- I. A copy of the petition for adjudication must be served personally on the debtor, either within the jurisdiction, or in such place or country, or within such limits abroad as the Court shall direct.
- II. Such copy-petition shall have endorsed thereon a memorandum specifying the time within which the debtor is to appear on such petition.
- III. In no case is the time for appearance to be less than thirty days after service.
- IV. If such personal service be not effected, the Court must be satisfied that every reasonable effort was made so to do; and that such attempts to serve had been designedly defeated by the conduct of the debtor.
- V. If at the expiration of the time limited for appearance the Court shall be satisfied that an act of bankruptcy has been committed within the meaning of this section, it may adjudge such debtor to be a bankrupt:

Provided always, that no non-trader who shall be abroad at the time of passing this Act shall be deemed to remain abroad with intent to defeat or delay his creditors until the expiration of six months after the passing of this Act.

71. If any debtor, whether a trader or not, having been arrested for debt, or any attachment for non-payment of money, shall lie in prison, being a trader, for fourteen days, or not being a trader for two calendar months, or shall escape out of prison or custody, or having been arrested for any cause shall lie in prison as aforesaid, he shall be deemed to have committed an act of bankruptcy.

72. If any debtor, whether a trader or not, shall file in any bankruptcy Court a declaration in writing that he is unable to meet his engagements, he shall be deemed thereby to have committed an act of bankruptcy, provided a petition for adjudication shall be filed by or against him within two months.

73. If any execution shall be levied by seizure and sale of the goods and chattels of a trader-debtor upon any judgment recovered in an action for debt exceeding 50*l.*, he will have committed an act of bankruptcy.

75. The filing of a petition by or against a debtor, whether a trader or not, in any Court of bankruptcy or insolvency in any of her Majesty's dominions or colonies, and the adjudication of insolvency or bankruptcy on such petition, shall be accounted and adjudged conclusive evidence of an act of bankruptcy committed by such debtor at the time of filing such petition : and any creditor or creditors of such debtor may, at any time within two months after notice given in the London Gazette, petition for adjudication of bankruptcy under this Act against such debtor.

76. Every judgment creditor entitled to sue out against a debtor a writ of ca. sa., or to charge the debtor in execution, in respect of any debt amounting to 50*l.* exclusive of costs, shall be entitled, at the end of one week from the signing of judgment, to sue out against the debtor if a trader, or not being a trader at the end of one calendar month, a judgment-debtor summons, requiring him to appear and be examined respecting his ability to satisfy the debt.

81. If service of the summons be not effected, by the debtor keeping out of the way to avoid service, the Court may order notices to be inserted in one or more newspapers, requiring him to appear on a day named, being not less than fourteen days.

82. Upon the appearance of the debtor he may be examined on oath respecting his ability to satisfy the debt, and for the discovery of property applicable in that behalf, and shall be bound to produce all books and documents in his possession or power relating to the same ; and in case of refusal to be sworn, or wilfully failing to discover fully and truly all his property, real and personal, and to produce the books & papers relating thereto, will be liable to be committed as in the case of a bankrupt.

83. If after service of such summons, or due notice thereof, the debtor shall not pay or satisfy the debt and costs, the Court may adjudge him bankrupt.

86, 88. Any debtor may petition for adjudication of bankruptcy against himself, and the filing the same shall be an act of bankruptcy without any previous declaration of insolvency ; every such petition to be filed and prosecuted within the district of which the debtor resided or carried on business during six months preceding.

contracted after the passing of this Act; and the judgment debtor summons must be in respect of a debt or liability incurred after the passing of this Act.

93, 94. Every debtor petitioning against himself shall file in Court a full and accurate statement of his debts and liabilities of every kind, with the names and residences of his creditors, and of the causes of his inability to meet his engagements; if resident in the metropolis, and where such debts shall not exceed the sum of 300*l.*, in the London Court of Bankruptcy, and if resident in the country in the County Court of the district wherein he resided for the previous six months.

108. Immediately on adjudication the official assignee is to take possession of the bankrupt's estate, and keep possession thereof until the appointment of a creditors' assignee.

109. As soon as conveniently may be after adjudication, the Court shall appoint a meeting of the creditors, of which ten days notice must be given; and the majority in number and value of the creditors then present may determine if the proceedings shall be transferred to the County Court of any district; and shall also determine whether any or what allowances for support shall be made to the bankrupt up to the time of passing his examination.

110. In case at such meeting any proposal be made by or on behalf of the bankrupt, which shall appear to the major part in value of the creditors then present ought to be accepted, or if it shall appear to them to be desirable on any ground to resolve that no further proceedings be taken in bankruptcy, the meeting shall be adjourned for fourteen days; and if at such adjourned meeting a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the creditors present shall so resolve, the proceedings in bankruptcy shall be suspended, and the estate and effects wound up in such manner as such majority shall direct; and the bankrupt, after making a full discovery of his estate, shall be entitled to apply for an order of discharge.

116, 17. At the first meeting of creditors, it shall be competent to the majority in value of the creditors who have proved debts to choose one or more assignees of the bankrupt's effects; when all the estate, both real and personal, of the bankrupt shall be devested out of the official assignee, and vested in the creditors' assignee.

120, 21. The Court shall give such directions as it may deem expedient with respect to the custody and inspection of the books and documents relating to the estate; and no person shall be entitled to withhold possession of the books of account of the bankrupt, or to claim any lien thereon.

127, 28. The creditors' assignee shall manage and realize the estate belonging to the bankrupt, and convert the same into money, to be paid into the Bank of England, or such other bank as the Court may direct, to the credit of a special account to be opened by such assignee; the official assignee is to collect and recover every debt due to the estate not exceeding 10*l.*, & for such sums he shall be sole assignee.

134, 35. The Court may order a portion of the pay, half-pay, salary, or pension of the bankrupt to be applied in payment of his debts; and if any bankrupt be a beneficed clergyman, the assignee may apply for a sequestration of the profits of the benefice, which shall form part of the bankrupt's estate: Provided always, that whilst the bankrupt performs the duties of his parish or place, he shall be allowed such a sum as the bishop of the diocese shall direct.

139. If the creditors' assignee shall wilfully fail to observe any of the directions contained in this Act, or shall be guilty of any neglect in the performance of his duty, or other reasonable cause, the Court may either appoint an official assignee to act jointly with such creditors' assignee, or remove such assignee and direct a choice of another, or appoint an official assignee alone to wind up the estate under the bankruptcy.

140. The Court, after the choice of a creditors' assignee, shall forthwith appoint a public sitting, at a time not later than sixty days, for the bankrupt to pass his last examination.

141. The bankrupt is to prepare a full statement of his accounts, and file the same in Court ten days at least before the day so appointed, and verify the same on oath whenever required so to do.

143. In the preparation of such statement of his accounts the bankrupt shall be assisted by the official assignee, who shall prepare a report on the state of the bankrupt's affairs, setting forth such facts and particulars as it may be important should be known: under special circumstances, the Court may direct further aid to be rendered in preparing the accounts, the expense thereof to be charged on the estate.

144, 45. Every creditor of the bankrupt may prove his debt by sending through the post a full and complete statement of such debt, or other account between them, together with a declaration that the debt thereby appearing to be due from the bankrupt's estate is a just claim. Persons wilfully and corruptly making a declaration untrue in any material particular, will be guilty of a misdemeanour, and liable to the pains and penalties attached to persons guilty of perjury.

146. Every creditor of the bankrupt may also, after adjudication, prove his debt, by deposition in Court or in chambers, or before a registrar at any meeting of creditors, or by affidavit, upon his own oath, or on that of any clerk or other person in his employ.

157. All classification of certificates is hereby abolished; and in every case where the release of a bankrupt shall be suspended, the discharge, when allowed, is simply to state the period and the reasons for which it was suspended; and if the bankrupt shall have incurred the penalty of imprisonment under the provisions of this Act, the discharge shall set forth the fact and the period of such imprisonment.

158. After the bankrupt has passed his last examination, the Court shall appoint a sitting for the purpose of considering the question of granting his discharge. Fourteen days' notice to be given of such sitting, when the assignees, or any creditor who has proved, may be heard against such discharge.

159. If on the hearing the bankrupt be accused of acts amounting to a misdemeanour under this Act, and shall be convicted of the same, the commissioner shall, in addition to the punishment awarded to the offence, have power to direct that the order of discharge be either wholly refused, or suspended upon such conditions as he shall think fit. If the bankrupt shall not be so accused, or if he shall have been accused and acquitted, but there shall be made to appear that objections exist to the granting of an immediate discharge, the Court shall proceed to consider the conduct of the bankrupt, and the circumstances under which his debts were contracted; and if it shall be of opinion that the bankrupt has carried on trade by means of fictitious capital, or that he had at the time his debts were contracted no reasonable expectation of being able to pay the same; or that, if a trader, he has wilfully omitted to keep proper books of account, or whether trader or not, that his insolvency is attributable to rash and hazardous speculation, or unjustifiable extravagance in living, or that he has occasioned unnecessary expense to any creditor by frivolous or vexatious defence to any action for debt, the Court may either refuse an order of discharge, or suspend the time from which it shall take effect, or may grant an order subject to any conditions touching any salary, pay, profits, wages, or income which may afterwards be come due to the bankrupt, and other after-acquired property of the bankrupt, or may sentence the bankrupt to imprisonment for any period not exceeding one year: Provided always, that no person shall be subject to any criminal proceeding or penalty in respect of any matter that may have occurred before the passing of this Act, to which he would not have been previously liable.

160. With respect to all persons heretofore bankrupt, and whose certificates have been refused, the Court may, at any time after the expiration of three years after such refusal, hear and determine the application of any such bankrupt, and grant if it shall think fit an order of discharge, either absolute or subject to any conditions, in the same manner as if the bankruptcy of such applicant had taken place after the commencement of this Act.

161. The order of discharge shall, upon taking effect, relieve the bankrupt from all debt, claims, or demands proveable under his bankruptcy, save as hereinafter provided; and the said order of discharge shall be sufficient evidence of the same.

166. Any contract, covenant, or security made by a bankrupt or other person with any creditor for securing the payment of any money as a consideration for forbearing to oppose the order for discharge, shall be void, and any money thereby secured shall not be recoverable: Provided always, that such security shall not be void as against a bond-fide holder thereof for value without notice of the consideration for which it was given.

167. If any creditor of a bankrupt shall obtain any money, goods or chattels, or security for money, from any person as an inducement to forbear opposition to the discharge of such bankrupt, every person so offending shall forfeit and lose for every such offence the treble value of the money or goods so obtained.

171. At any time within thirty days after an order of discharge has been allowed or refused, any creditor of the bankrupt, or the assignee, or the bankrupt, may apply to the Court of Appeal that such order may be granted, or recalled and cancelled.

174. At the expiration of four months from the date of the bankruptcy, or as much earlier as the Court may appoint, the creditors' assignee shall submit to a meeting held before the registrar, of which ten days notice shall be given, a statement of the whole estate of the bankrupt as then ascertained; and the meeting shall, by resolution, declare whether any and what part, after making proper allowance for contingencies, of the net produce shall be divided amongst the creditors; and also whether any and what allowance shall be made to the bankrupt out of his estate on obtaining his discharge.

185—7. At the first meeting of creditors duly convened held after adjudication, three-fourths in number and value of the creditors present or represented at such meeting may resolve that the estate ought to be wound up under a deed of arrangement, composition, or otherwise; and the Court, after hearing the bankrupt and such creditors as may desire to be heard for or against the resolution, if it shall find that its terms are reasonable, and calculated to benefit the general body of the creditors, shall confirm the same, and make order accordingly.

199. In case any petition shall be presented for an adjudication in bankruptcy against any debtor after his execution of an authorized deed of arrangement, and pending the time allowed for the registration of such deed or instrument, the Court may direct all proceedings under such petition to be stayed; and on the due registration of such deed of arrangement, the petition shall be dismissed.

221. Any bankrupt who shall do any of the acts or things following, with intent to defraud or defeat the rights of his creditors, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to punishment by imprisonment for not more than three years, or to any greater penalty attached to the offence by any existing statute:—

a. If he shall not on the day limited for his surrender, and before three o'clock of such day, or at the hour and on the day allowed him for finishing his examination, after due notice thereof in writing, surrender himself to the Court (having no lawful impediment allowed by the Court) and sign or subscribe such surrender, and submit to be examined before the Court from time to time;

b. If he shall not upon his examination fully and truly discover, to the best of his knowledge and belief, all his property, real and personal, inclusive of his rights and credits, and to whom, and for what consideration, and when, he disposed of or assigned any part thereof, except such part really and bond-fide before sold or disposed of in the way of his trade or business, if any, or laid out in the ordinary expense of his family, or shall not deliver up to the Court, or dispose as the Court directs of all such part thereof as is in his possession, custody, or power, except the necessary wearing apparel of himself, his wife, and children; and deliver up to the Court all books, papers, and writings in his possession, relating to his property or affairs;

c. If he shall after adjudication, or within sixty days prior thereto, with intent to defraud his creditors, remove, conceal, or embezzle any part of his property to the value of 10*l.* or upwards;

d. If, in case of any person having to his knowledge or belief proved a false debt under his bankruptcy, he shall fail to disclose the same to his assignees, within one month after coming to the knowledge or belief thereof;

e. If he shall, with intent to defraud, wilfully and fraudulently omit from his schedule any effects or property whatsoever;

f. If he shall, after the filing of the petition for adjudication, with intent to conceal the state of his affairs, or to defeat the object of the law of bankruptcy, conceal, prevent, or withhold the production of any book, deed, paper, or writing relating to his property, dealings, or affairs;

g. If he shall, after filing the petition for adjudication, or within three months next before adjudication, with intent to conceal the state of his affairs, or to defeat the objects of the law of bankruptcy, part with, conceal, destroy, alter, mutilate, or falsify, or cause the same to be done, any book, paper, writing, or security, or document relating to his property, trade, dealings, or affairs, or make or be privy to the making of any false or fraudulent entry or statement in or omission from any book, paper, document, or writing relating thereto;

h. If, within the like time, he shall, knowing that he is at the time unable to meet his engagements, fraudulently and with intent to diminish the sum divisible amongst the general body of his creditors, have made away with, mortgaged, incumbered, or charged any part of his property, of what kind soever, or if after adjudication he shall conceal from the Court or his assignee any debt due to or from him;

i. If, being a trader, he shall, under his bankruptcy, or at any meeting of his creditors within three months next preceding the filing of the petition for adjudication, have attempted to account for any of his property by fictitious losses or expenses;

k. If, being a trader, he shall, within three months next before the filing of the petition for adjudication, under the false colour and pretence of carrying on business and dealing in the ordinary course of trade, have obtained on credit any goods or chattels with intent to defraud;

l. If, being a trader, he shall, with intent to defraud his creditors, within three months next before the filing of the petition for adjudication, pawn, pledge, or dispose of, otherwise than in the fair exercise and ordinary way of his trade, any of his goods or chattels which have been obtained on credit and remain unpaid for:

222. If at any time it shall appear to the Court that the bankrupt has been guilty of any of the offences above set forth, the Court shall have and may exercise such jurisdiction, rights, and powers for the summoning, apprehending, committing, and otherwise proceeding in respect of such bankrupt, as are exercised by her Majesty's Justices of the Peace against persons charged before them with any felony or indictable misdemeanour committed within the limits of their jurisdiction.

226. If any person shall wilfully disobey any rule or order of the Court duly made for enforcing any of the purposes and provisions of this Act, the Court may commit the offender to the Queen's prison, or to the common gaol of any county, city, or place where he shall be found or where he usually resides, there to remain, without bail or mainprise, until the Court shall make order to the contrary.

The commission chargeable for Money Orders is Three Pence on sums not exceeding Two Pounds, and above Two and not exceeding Five Pounds, Sixpence. No Order will be given for sums beyond this amount. All persons transmitting money or valuables unregistered, risk its loss. Money Orders may be obtained of all Post-masters. They should be presented for payment without delay; the lapse of two calendar months will entail a second charge for commission, and the lapse of twelve months the loss of the whole sum for which the order is drawn.

The morning mails are despatched at $\frac{1}{4}$ -past 9 A. M. Letters to pass by the evening mails can be posted at the receiving-houses till 5.30 P. M.; at the Branch offices until 5.45; or at each, with an extra postage stamp, until 6 o'clock; at Lombard-street and St. Martin's-le-Grand till 6, or with an extra stamp until 7, and with a fee of 6d. in postage stamps affixed, until 7.30 o'clock. For the morning mails the box at St. Martin's-le-Grand closes for newspapers at 7.45 A. M. & for letters at $\frac{1}{4}$ -past 8 o'clock.

Newspapers (stamped) to pass free by post must be made up in covers open at the sides, have the stamp exposed to view, be posted within fifteen days of publication, be not above 4 oz. in weight, and have no mark or writing (other than the address which may be written on the paper as well as c over) thereon, nor any thing enclosed, which would subject them to letter postage. Unstamped papers having a postage stamp affixed likewise go by post.

Newspapers and other registered periodicals going abroad (whether stamped or not) must have the full postage prepaid by stamps or in money, and be posted within 15 days of publication.

To or from the British Colonies & Possessions, France, Belgium, Prussia, & other states viâ Prussia, the postage is 1d. under 4 oz.

OVERLAND EAST INDIA MAILS.

It is optional with the senders to transmit their correspondence to and from India viâ Southampton or viâ Marseilles, but the postage in every case must be pre-paid.

Letters are sent from London viâ Southampton on the 4th, 12th, and 20th of each month. The postage of a single letter under half an ounce weight is 6d; 1 oz. 1s.; 2 oz. 2s.; and 1s. for every additional ounce, however numerous the enclosures.

Letters, viâ Marseilles, are despatched the 2nd, 9th, 18th, and 25th of each month; if either happen to fall on a Sunday, the Mails are forwarded the following day. Letters should be written on thin paper, and sealing-wax dispensed with, in order to limit the weight of letters, the charge on which will be if not exceeding $\frac{1}{4}$ -oz. 9d.; $\frac{1}{2}$ -oz. 1s.; $\frac{3}{4}$ -oz. 1s. 9d.; 1-oz. 2s.; $1\frac{1}{4}$ -oz. 3s. 3d., and above $1\frac{1}{4}$ -oz. and not exceeding $1\frac{1}{2}$ -oz. 3s. 6d.

The postage, whether by the Marseilles or Southampton route, is the same from any part of the United Kingdom as from London, and must be pre-paid. The Mail by Marseilles will overtake that sent by the previous Southampton packet, and they will arrive at Bombay together; there would be no utility, therefore, in writing by both.

Newspapers to pass free overland, viâ Southampton, 1d. each; or by the closed mail through France, marked viâ Marseilles, 2d.

OCEAN POSTAGE.—A uniform rate of sixpence is charged on ship letters between the United Kingdom and her dependencies in the East and West Indies, Australia, Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward's Island, Newfoundland, Bermuda, Gibraltar, Malta, Cape of Good Hope, St. Helena, and the Gold Coast.

LORD MAYOR'S COURT.

JUDGE,—The Recorder of London, Russell Gurney, Esq.
Registrar,—W. Brandon, Esq.

The Court is open to all Attorneys of the superior Courts.

The jurisdiction of this Court extends to all places within the City and Liberties, Its sittings for the trial of causes are held in the Guildhall, and are appointed by the Recorder, who acts as judge.

The Mayor's court is a Court of Record, and is of a double capacity, possessing an equitable as well as a legal jurisdiction, which it exercises by a primary original authority inherent in it, and holds concurrent authority with the courts of common law at Westminster-hall over all actions of a civil nature arising out of the common or general law of the land within its jurisdiction; and holds pleas of a variety of causes of considerable importance, in exclusion of those courts, arising out of the City customs,—as Foreign attachment, Sequestration, Disfranchisement, Defamation, &c.; as also penal actions under acts of Common Council. It has also the power of removing causes from the Sheriffs Court, and adjudicating upon them. The equitable power of the Mayor's court, within its jurisdiction, is concurrent with that of the Court of Chancery, and is used for the discovery of property in the hands of garnishees; also bills for account, &c., &c. It has likewise the exclusive privilege of awarding restitution of apprentice-premiums.

THE CITY OF LONDON

is divided into twenty-six Wards; the principal officers of the Corporation are, the Lord Mayor, and twenty-five other Aldermen; the Recorder, two Sheriffs, 206 Common-Councilmen, the Chamberlain, Common Serjeant, Town Clerk, &c.

The Lord Mayor is elected annually on the 29th of September from the body of Aldermen, and must have served the office of Sheriff; two Aldermen are chosen by the Livery, and the Court of Aldermen must elect one of the two. He is sworn in and takes office on the 9th of November.

The Aldermen, twenty-six in number, are elected for life by the Freemen of the several Wards, and are the representatives of those Wards in the Court of Aldermen.

The Recorder, who is the legal adviser of the Corporation, is elected for life by the Court of Aldermen.

The Sheriffs are elected annually by the Livery on Midsummer-day, and enter on their office on Michaelmas-day, and are Sheriffs also for the County of Middlesex.

The Common Councilmen are elected annually by the Freemen of the several Wards, on St. Thomas's Day. They represent the Ward for which they are chosen in the Court of Common Council; there are from four to sixteen Councilmen for each Ward, according to its extent.

DUTIES ON LEGACIES

Amounting to £20 or upwards. Husband, Wife, and Royal Family are exempted.

1. A will must be in writing, and signed or acknowledged in the presence of two or more witnesses present at the same time, who must subscribe their names in the presence of the testator. Obliterations, interlineations, or other alterations must be executed in like manner as a will; that is, signed by two or more witnesses, being present at the same time. Legacies to attesting witnesses, or to the wife or husband of either, are void.

2. A will is revoked if the testator (whether male or female) marry after executing it, and whether the testator so intends it or not; and if the testator wishes to reserve it, he can only do so by re-executing it in the same manner as originally made, or by means of a codicil similarly executed, showing an intention to revise. Before the marriage act of 1838, both marriage and the birth of a child were necessary to revoke a will.

3. When a person dies without a will duly executed, the Stamp duty is half as much more. The property is then administered to by the next of kin, and disposed of by the

STATUTE OF DISTRIBUTIONS,

22 & 23 CAR. II. The eldest son or his issue inherits, as heir at law, the landed property of a person dying intestate.

If the deceased leave a widow and children, after the expiration of a year one-third of the personal property goes to the widow, and the remaining two-thirds in equal proportions to the children; or if any of the children be dead, to their issue in equal portions. If the intestate leave no children, nor lineal descendants of children, a moiety goes to the widow, and the residue to the nearest of kin to the deceased, or their representatives.

If the intestate leave children but no widow, then the whole is distributed among the children; or if any of them be dead, among their representatives. The heir at law will have his full distributive share, notwithstanding the land he may receive by descent.

If there be neither wife nor children living, nor representatives of children deceased, the whole property is given to the father of the deceased. If he has no father living, the whole goes to the mother, brethren, and sisters of the deceased in equal portions. If there be neither brothers nor sisters, the whole goes to the mother. If the mother be dead, the whole must go to the brothers and sisters, and their children; but if there are neither mother, brother, nor sister, then the whole will go to the grandfather or grandmother. After these, uncles, aunts, and nieces of the intestate are admitted in equal portions. And in failure of all the above-mentioned relatives, then the whole shall go to the nearest of kin who shall be alive.

FRENCH AND ENGLISH COMMERCE.

Official value of British Exports to France.

In 1784	£208,000	In 1788, 89	£1,100,000
1785, 86	439,000	1790	606,000
1787	850,000	1791, 92	856,000

These returns show that the commercial treaty of 1786 trebled our exports to France in a very short time,—a progressive tendency interrupted by the disastrous events of the Revolution. This treaty, however, did not increase the value of our imports, so much as it did the amount of our exports to France, which were,—in 1786, £386,000; 1787, £700,000; 1792, £516,000.

The official value of Imports from France were

In 1815	£754,000	In 1848	£7,130,000
1824	1,556,000	1849-51	8,000,000
1827-37	2,500,000	1852	6,000,000
1838-45 ..fr. 3½ to	4,000,000	1853	8,150,000
1846, 47	4,560,000

The real value of merchandise was not determinable until the Customs' Act of 1854.

In 1854 real value	£10,447,000	In 1858	£13,250,000
1855	9,200,000	1859	16,870,000
1856	10,350,000	1860	17,704,000
1857	12,000,000		the date of the new tariff.

The interchange of gold and silver bullion between the two countries in 1860 amounted to £15,354,000.

1	W	Circumcision	The year is beginning : think now of every thing to be done, and provide betimes for the business before you. During this month, however, little can be effected except digging & manuring. In dry mild weather put tulip-roots into the ground three inches deep, and six or eight inches apart. Plant also, where wanted, hardy flowering shrubs. Bulbous and tuberous flower-roots in pots, for blowing in a house, should be placed near a window. Prune flowering shrubs, & clear away suckers. Complete the beds intended for anemones. Auriculas & the polyanthus now require careful attention; air and water must be given in suitable quantities. Pinks may now be planted out in beds for blooming; they are fragrant, hardy, and more easily propagated than most others. Great care must be given to the tender kinds of seedling trees, and other young plants, to preserve them from frost. All kinds of bulbous roots may be planted in mild weather, in ground not too moist.

In mild weather dress auriculas in pots, and transplant carnation-plants raised last year from layers, if tolerably strong. Finish pruning. Sow choice hardy annuals in flower-borders. If box-edging is required, plant it now. Keep the garden free from weeds; clear away dead leaves, sweep lawns and walks, and let spring advance in its natural order. Prune apple, pear, plum, cherry, peach, nectarine, apricot, & other trees; dress vines, and protect the roots in frosty weather. Destroy weeds, and dig and trench vacant ground. Gooseberries and currants may be planted any time this month; and towards the end, sow the large sorts of beans, peas, savoy, spinach, brocoli, salad herbs, rhubarb, and main crop of onions. Fruit-trees may be planted this month in open weather.

Defend tulips, hyacinths, & anemones in beds from cold rains & frost. Sow hollyhocks, honeysuckles, heliobore, & other sorts, perennial and biennial; and plant deciduous flowering shrubs. The skylark now warbles delightfully, and the blackbird gives out his mellow notes,—a sure token of the advance of spring. A true Solar Day is the time from the sun's leaving the meridian of any place till its return there next day, as shown by a correct sun-dial. It is subject to constant variation, arising from the obliquity of the ecliptic and the earth's unequal motion, at times exceeding, at others falling short of 24 hours.

Take great care of the choice kinds of carnations; should any of the flower pods advance irregularly, they may be assisted by opening the buds a little, to promote equal spreading. Cut down the stems of plants now past flowering. Transplant the seedlings omitted last month, to remain till October. Gather herbs for drying & distilling: also flowers of medical and pot-herbs for family use. Plant slips of hyssop, lavender, rue, sage, &c. Many wild-flowers of heaths & woods are now in bloom. The Fixed Stars are so called, because they usually keep the same distance with respect to each other.

Planets are opaque bodies, similar to our earth, which move round the sun in certain periods of time. They shine not by their own light, but by reflection of that derived from the sun

Cabbage, brocoli, endive, spinach, Welsh onions, turnips, parsnips, & radishes should now be sown; likewise greens for winter use, as savoys, Scotch kale, & Brussels sprouts, all very hardy. Gather the seeds of such flowers as are ripe. Plant autumnal flowering bulbs, as colchicums, late narcissus, & the Guernsey lily, autumn crocus, &c. Sow auricula & polyanthus seed on a warm dry day, & remove carnations to a warm place to strengthen till October. Remove all bulbs that have done flowering; cut and trim edgings of box, & clip privet & other hedges. Plants in pots must be well supplied with water; shift all succulent plants that require larger pots. Gather on a dry day all the ripe flower-seeds; preserve cherry & plum stones for sowing, to raise stocks for grafting.

This is the proper time to transplant strawberries; choose moist weather if possible. Prepare beds for the best ranunculuses and anemones; plant choice hyacinth and tulip roots for spring bloom. Transplant in showery weather biennial and perennial plants; propagate by layers all fibrous-rooted plants and shrubs. Transplant peonies, monk's-hood, fraxinella, the iris, evergreens, &c. Winter spinach must now be carefully hoed; pull your onions as soon as the tops appear dying, or the bulbs will be injured by shooting out fresh roots; prick out cabbage plants, earth up celery, plant brocoli and winter greens. 1	S	All Saints	At this time of the year draining and trenching should be well attended to. Prune the vine and other fruit trees; plant fruit, ornamental, and evergreen trees & shrubs. Clear flower borders from dead annuals, & cut down all decayed stems & stalks. Bulbous roots may now be planted in water-glasses, to blow early in-doors. Frame early peas; lettuces should be planted out under frames or glasses; sow short-top radishes, & different sorts of small salad-ing. Cover up sea-kale, & dress artichokes for the winter. Various species of chrysanthemum ornament our gardens, & a few pansies, stocks, & dahlias are in flower. Form compost-heaps for a new year by raking dead leaves, light mellow earth, soil, sand, &c.; turn it occasionally, adding brine, soap suds, &c. from the house. As the weather gets colder, larks, fieldfares, starlings, and other small birds are seen in flocks, and insects seek winter quarters under leaves, in the crevices of trees, in their cocoons, or deep in the ground.

1	M	Twilight ends 52m p 5	The trying season of dark winter is now at hand, and the vegetable kingdom affords but few charms either in the garden or the field. We have already had nights of sharp frost; the flowers are decayed and gone. All nature is now in repose; earth, air, and water, so lately teeming with active life, shrink before the chilling breeze, and all is silent save the turmoil of the elements. Care is now requisite to protect choice plants from frost. Earth up celery and chardoons; lift cabbages and winter brocoli, & shelter them in a warm corner or trench; bank up early endive, lettuce, &c. Slight hot-beds may be made for sea-kale, salads, peas, carrots, &c. Keep in mind previous directions for tender crops, dredging them occasionally with dry or charred dust. Carnations, picotees, auriculas, &c. &c. demand special care; give them plenty of air and light, watering sparingly. Select bulbs for water glasses: by successive sorts a constant blow may be secured from January to May.

Patrician Privilege.—Peers are free from all arrest for debt, and cannot be outlawed in any civil action, nor can any attachment lie against their person.

When arraigned for any criminal offence it must be before their peers, who return a verdict not upon oath, but upon honour, and are tried in courts erected specifically for the purpose,

Any one convicted of spreading a scandalous report regarding a peer of the realm, no matter whether true or false, is subject to an arbitrary fine, and imprisonment till paid.

The eldest son of a peer is as of the degree next to his father on each created dignity; and such eldest sons of nobles as enjoy a plurality of titles, take and use the second one by courtesy.

All peers carry supporters to their arms as incidental to their hereditary dignity, and otherwise adorn them exteriorly with their respective coronets and mantles.

The Crown prerogative, in respect of Ireland, is limited to the creation of one Peer only on the extinction of three Peerages.

By the Acts of Union the Peers of Scotland and Ireland are Peers of Great Britain, and enjoy the same privileges, except sitting in the House of Lords. Scottish nobles are ineligible for a seat in the Commons.

Scotch Peers take precedence of English Peers of the same rank created since the Union, 1707. Irish Peers, in like manner, take precedence of British Peers of the same rank created since the Union in 1800.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Returned 31st May, 1859, to serve in the 18th Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the 6th of Queen Victoria.

HACKNEY CARRIAGE REGULATIONS.

THE BADGE.

Every cabman during employment must wear conspicuously on his breast a badge, and allow the number to be taken when required.

THE TICKET No.

On no account should the hirer neglect to take the ticket, which the cabman is bound to deliver, specifying the number of the cab, &c.

THE HIRING.

A cab is to be considered as plying for hire whether on the stand or in the streets; and the driver is compellable to drive any person, unless he is already hired, the proof of which lies with the cabman. The hirer must state, at the time of hiring, if he desires to be driven by time; but the driver cannot be compelled to drive by time after 8 o'clock in the evening, or before 8 in the morning.

THE JOURNEY.

The hirer may require to be driven to any distance within six miles from the place of hiring, or for any time not exceeding one hour. The cabman is bound to take the number of persons marked on his cab, and to carry a reasonable quantity of luggage. If hired by time, the driver can be compelled to go at a speed of four miles per hour; and if hired by distance, he must drive at least six miles per hour, but less if required.

THE FARE BY DISTANCE.

Not exceeding Four miles from Temple-Bar.

For two passengers the fare is 6d. per mile, and any portion of a mile is charged 6d.; for more than two persons, 6d. (not 6d. per mile) can be demanded for each extra person, in addition to the whole fare that would be paid for two persons. Two children under 10 count as one person.

BACK FARE.

For a distance exceeding Four miles from Temple-Bar.

The cab being actually discharged beyond the four-mile circle from Temple-Bar, back fare can be demanded at the rate of 6d. for every mile or portion of a mile that exceeds the four-mile circle, the distance to be estimated from the nearest point of the circle; but no addition to the sixpenny mile fare can be demanded for any distance, unless the cab is discharged beyond the circle; and only sixpence extra (not 6d. per mile) can be demanded for each person exceeding two.

EXTRA FOR WAITING.

The cabman can only demand 6d. in addition to his fare for each complete 15 minutes that has elapsed in waiting; for less than 15 minutes nothing can be demanded; and in the case of a number of stoppages, the whole time occupied must be calculated for at the rate of 6*d.* for every complete 15 minutes. The driver is compellable to wait less than 15 minutes without any charge whatever.

FARE BY TIME.

For two persons the fare is 2*s.* per hour, and 6*d.* for every 15 minutes after the first hour; for more than two persons, 6*d.* for each extra person can be demanded, in addition to the whole fare that would be paid by two persons.

LUGGAGE.

For two passengers a reasonable quantity of luggage can be taken without additional charge to the fare. When more than two persons are carried inside, 2*d.* per package is to be paid, in addition to the fare, for every package carried outside the cab.

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES.

In the case of disputes about fares, the Table of Distances signed by the Commissioners, and which every cabman is bound to have, will be conclusive evidence. If a dispute cannot be settled by these authorities, the course will be to drive to the nearest Police court. Application for a summons must be made within seven days of the offence.

Any property left in a cab must be taken within 24 hours to the nearest Police station, where the owner can receive it on payment of a reasonable sum.

LOSS OF LUGGAGE.

☞ If any luggage is lost through the carelessness of the driver, the owner may sue the proprietor of the cab in the County Court or the superior Courts.

CAUTION.

The No. on the Ticket should be compared with the No. on the Cab, not the No. of the Badge; and in every case the delivery of this ticket should be requested, as it is an important document in the case of lost luggage, disputes, or misbehaviour.

RATES OF PARCELS FROM INNS IN LONDON.

For any parcel not weighing more than 56lbs. and when the distance does not exceed a quarter of a mile, 3*d.*; half a mile, 4*d.*; a mile, 6*d.*; a mile and a half, 8*d.*; two miles, 10*d.*; and 3*d.* for every additional half-mile. Porters exacting more, to be fined 20*s.* or not less than 5*s.*; misbehaving 10*s.* to 20*s.*

A Ticket to be sent with every parcel, with the charge for carriage and portage marked on it, under a penalty of 40*s.* or not less than 5*s.* Parcels are to be delivered within six hours after arrival, under a penalty of 20*s.*, or not less than 5*s.* Parcels arriving between 4 in the evening and 7 in the morning to be delivered in six hours from the latter period, under the like penalty.

A Brief Discourse on Wine; how to Choose it, and how to Use it. Embracing an Historical and Descriptive Account of the Vine, its Culture and Produce in all Countries, Ancient and Modern. (Longman & Co.; Denman, 65, Fenchurch-street.)

"This is precisely the kind of little book which modern circumstances require,.....it is decidedly the most popular work of the kind published."—Court Journal.

"As a literary production, apart from its utility as a treatise on wine, this small volume has many claims to public attention. Wine has a literature of its own, and has always had its poets. Historians, philosophers, and bards have all joined in celebrating the virtues of wine, and must, of course, have tasted of the best. A volume might be filled of all the good and evil things which have been said and written about it. The author of this discourse is perfectly master of his subject, and knows the vine as it grows in the vineyard, and not as it may be read of in books, and speaks of wine as if he had tasted of every different quality; and as he professes in his fly-title respecting wine 'how to choose it, and how to use it,' one will be readily disposed to listen to his counsels."—The Field.

"This little volume is well-timed, and worth the reading."—Notes and Queries.

"It contains a large amount of valuable information on a subject of general importance."—Blackburn Weekly Times.

"It comprises much of the pleasantest possible reading about the grape in all its varieties, and the delicious nectars which are produced from it under the generic name of wine."—

Manchester Times.

"Within a brief space this volume affords as much intelligence about wine as might make the reputation of half-a-dozen men through half-a-dozen after-dinners, provided only they can contrive to speak colloquially, and not altogether by the card. The compiler has put together much interesting and profitable matter, less learned, perhaps, than some others who wrote largely on the pleasant subject, but with scarcely less profit to his readers, thirsty or otherwise."—Athenæum.

Weather Table.

The following TABLE, constructed upon philosophical considerations of the attraction of the SUN and MOON, in their several positions respecting the Earth, and confirmed by experience of many years actual observation, will in very few instances be found to fail.

New and Full Moon.	SUMMER.	WINTER.
If it be new or full Moon, or the Moon entering into the 1st or last quarter at 12 at noon, or between 12 and 2	Very rainy.....	Snow and rain.
2 „ 4 aft. ..	Changeable	Fair and mild.
4 „ 6 even..	Fair	Fair.
6 „ 8	{ Fair, if wind at N.W.	{ Fair and frosty, if wind N. or N.E.
	{ Rainy, if wind at S. or S.W.	{ Rain or Snow, if wind S. or S.W.
8 „ 10	Ditto.....	Ditto.
10 „ 12 night.	Fair	Fair and frosty.
12 „ 2 morn.	Ditto.....	Hard frost unless wind S. or S.W.
2 „ 4	{ Cold, with frequent Showers }	Snow and Stormy.
4 „ 6	Rain	Ditto.
6 „ 8	Wind and rain.....	Stormy weather.
8 „ 10	Changeable	Cold rain, if wind be W., snow if E.
10 „ 12 noon.	Frequent showers....	Cold, with high wind.

The Two following Observations are from the ingenious Dr. Kirwan:

1. When there has been no particular storm about the time of the Spring Equinox (March 21.)—if a storm arise from the East on or before that day, or if a storm from any point of the compass arise near a week after the Equinox, then, in either of these cases, the succeeding Summer is generally DRY, four times in five.
2. But if a storm arise from the S.W. or W.S.W. on or just before the Spring Equinox, then the Summer following is generally WET, five times in six.

The Gardener's Calendar.

JANUARY.

In the kitchen garden, trench and manure. Prepare hot-beds for cucumbers, potatoes, and small salad. Rhubarb and sea-kale may now be forced in pits or under large pots: kidney-beans in a stove. Plant asparagus, early mazagan beans, beets and cabbages for seed. Sow carrots and onions on warm borders; peas under a south wall; lettuce, radishes, spinach, parsley, &c. Earth up celery. Cover mushroom beds with dry straw. In the fruit garden trench and manure. Prune and train vines, currants, gooseberries, and raspberries. Plant gooseberry and currant trees.

FEBRUARY.

The ground destined for early crops must now be prepared, and hot-beds multiplied for cucumbers, and early melons. Repeat the January directions for rhubarb, sea-kale, and kidney-beans. Celery may be sown on a moderate hot-bed. Sow most of the table vegetables. Cabbages, chives, shalots, garlic, onions, and horse-radish, now fit, must be transplanted. Protect all blossoms.

MARCH.

Force cucumbers and melons in frames, still, and make moderate hot-beds for sowing celery. In open borders, asparagus, carrots, cabbages, parsley, kale, onions, and parsnips may be sown. Plant out such vegetables as have been already sown. Sow radishes, spinach, and small salad every week. Now graft apples and pears. Finish pruning all fruit trees.

APRIL.

Plant the vegetables which have been sown, artichokes in warm borders, and pot-herbs. Make hot-beds for cucumbers and melons. Force kidney-beans and rhubarb. Plant out roots of scarlet kidney-beans which have been retained since winter: these produce shoots very rapidly. Sow love-apples and capsicums on hot-beds. Sow asparagus, beets-cabbages, radishes, Dutch turnips, celery, beans, peas, lettuce, pot-herbs, nasturtiums, and small salad. The peach and nectarine blossoms should be protected; the insects on all fruit trees must be carefully removed. Finish planting perennials.

MAY.

Sow Cape broccoli, peas, kidney-beans, lettuce, &c. Plant out love-apples, capsicums, and winter greens; and transplant cauliflowers. Prick out celery, and thin the other plantations of vegetables in common use, as leeks, carrots, turnips, onions, parsnips, &c. Hot-beds for cucumbers and melons may still be prolonged. Wall-fruit ought now to be thinned; and strawberry beds weeded and trimmed, and covered with straw. Pick curled and blistered leaves off the peach and nectarine trees.

JUNE.

Sow Cape broccoli, peas, kidney-beans, radishes, lettuce, spinach, rampions, small salad, &c.; the best peas for sowing now are Knight's marrow peas, which will bear till October. Steep all seed now sown several hours in water, which will much assist their germination. Hoe the beds of table vegetables. Prick out the most curled plants of curled parsley, cress, and chervil for seed. Asparagus should not be cut after this month; and seeds should be procured from a few of the earliest and largest heads. Cut herbs for drying. Attend to all grafts, and remove superfluous shoots from the wall trees. Cut off the tendrils of the vine, reducing the lateral shoots to two joints.

JULY.

Broccoli, kidney-beans, spinach, carrots, lettuce, turnips, and endive, should now be sown again, and those beds in which they have risen should be carefully hoed. Celery ought to be planted out in rich land in trenches. The mushroom spawn must now be prepared. Garlic, onions, and shalots should be taken up as the leaves appear to decay. Look to the wall-trees and espaliers, and divest them of their superfluous wood. The runners of the strawberries should be taken off, and the young plants transplanted and well watered.

AUGUST.

Early York and dwarf cabbages, broccoli, endive, Welsh onions, spinach, turnips, and radishes, should now be sown. Fresh celery should be planted; and that planted before, as well as cardoons, should be earthed up. Make mushroom-beds under sheds, or in the mushroom-house. Cauliflowers to be planted out under hand-glasses in October, may now be sown. Caterpillars should now be carefully picked off cabbages, &c. Hoe and thin turnips sown in June or July.

THE GARDENER'S CALENDAR.

SEPTEMBER.

Now make a clear riddance of the remains of the last crop; stalks, leaves, &c., should be removed, and their places put in order for the reception of cabbage plants, winter greens, savoys, coleworts, brocoli, lettuce, &c. Make strawberry, and mushroom beds. Hoe turnips. Nail up wall-fruit trees, plant cuttings of gooseberries, currants, and raspberries. Pull up onions, as soon as the tops shew symptoms of decay. Earth up celery and cardoons. Sow cauliflowers and early purple brocoli for frames.

OCTOBER.

Sow frame peas and mazagan beans on a warm south border. Lay into the ground purple and white brocoli within a few inches of their lower leaves, letting their heads face the north. Transplant cauliflowers and purple brocoli under frames and hand-glasses; cabbages, garlic, lettuces, and shalots under frames. Tie up endive and celery. Make up mushroom beds. Borders should now be trenched, fruit trees transplanted against walls, also plant out cuttings of gooseberries and currants.

NOVEMBER.

Frame peas. Mazagan beans may still be sown on a warm south border. Lettuces should be planted out under frames of hand-glasses. Sea-kale and rhubarb may be forced this month by placing over them earthen pots, on which horse-dung is placed; by this treatment some of the young heads will be fit for the table at Christmas. Asparagus beds should be now covered with mould about three inches deep, after the stems have been cut down. Any savoys, &c., not yet set out, should be now planted without delay, that they may take root before winter. Dig all ground from which crops have been gathered, and which it is not intended to plant till spring.

DECEMBER.

Cardoons and celery should be now earthed up, so as not to require the operation again; if the weather be severe, cover the ridges of celery with either litter or soft meadow hay: the tops of the celery should be occasionally examined to see if they rot, for then the decay is sure to proceed through the whole of the plant. Expose the plants, under glasses, to the sun and air every fine day. Prune and train wall trees, espaliers, &c.; look well to the stakes supporting them. Dig vacant ground, collect manure, or ditch-scrappings, for future use. Be careful to throw litter over young lettuces, cabbages, and every thing that is likely to suffer from frost.
