BRITISH MUSEUM (NATURAL HISTORY),

CROMWELL ROAD,

LONDON: S.W.

Oct. 11th

Dear Mr Harrison

That copy of the list of Fulton's
works - is unique
I was entrusted to me on condition that it is returned - as
it is the only copy
known to its owner. I think

the award of medals
— especially of the Copley medal — is a sufficiently serious & important matter
for the justification
of some expenditure.

If a candidate
were to apply himself
— he would have a
list of his works
printed. I think that the Society might
adopt the practice.
But it is for ever
a matter for the officers

to consider & decide.

I myself think
they could not do wrong in spending a few pounds to ensure proper considera-tion of a really
weighty matter.

Yours very truly

Wm Lawkster.

TELEGRAMS, OAKLEY STATION.

Dear Prof. Pearson,

As you are no
doubt aware Galton
is one of the Medallists at our Linnean Society celebration of the Darwin-Wallace Jubilee.

No one knows Galton's
work better than you,
and I should be most grateful if you could,
in a few lines,

Give me the essential
points to mention in presenting the medal.

It is a formidable duty which the President has to discharge on July 1st and any kind help from those with special knowledge will be greatly appreciated.

Of course time will not allow of a few words
in the case of each medallist.

My address from Monday
to Thursday will be:

c/o Prof. S. H. Vines, F.R.S.
Headington Hill,
Oxford.

Hoping that you will pardon my troubling you
in this matter,

Yours very sincerely,

D. H. Scott.
