

Abraham May : May lost his eyes and right hand while blasting on the Utica & Black River Railroad, August 10th, 1871.

Contributors

Francis A. Countway Library of Medicine

Publication/Creation

Gloversville, N.Y. : Standard Print, [1873?]

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/mcj7d2jt>

License and attribution

This material has been provided by This material has been provided by the Francis A. Countway Library of Medicine, through the Medical Heritage Library. The original may be consulted at the Francis A. Countway Library of Medicine, Harvard Medical School. where the originals may be consulted. This work has been identified as being free of known restrictions under copyright law, including all related and neighbouring rights and is being made available under the Creative Commons, Public Domain Mark.

You can copy, modify, distribute and perform the work, even for commercial purposes, without asking permission.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

ABRAHAM MAY.

May lost his eyes and right hand while blasting on the Utica & Black River Railroad, at Redwood, August 10th, 1871.

Good Christians, ever true and kind,
Whose eyes this page doth see,
Pity a brother, poor and blind,
And truly thankful be
That God's rich mercy saves us from
A sorrow that would blight
Your fairest hopes and make your life
A journey through the night.
O can there be a heavier cross
Than this your brother bears?
A blind man's fate were bad enough
Without a poor man's cares;
Without the need of seeking for
The children's bread each day,
And groping find the means wherewith
To keep the wolf away.
O God! be merciful and save
Us from all thanklessness!
A grateful heart will not refuse
The poor blind man to bless.
God's promises are ever sure,
The Scripture doth record
That what is given to the poor
Is lent unto the Lord.
Then will this blind man ever pray
To God, both day and night,
To guide you safely on your way,
And long preserve your sight.
And that he may your wealth increase.
While you on earth remain,
And give you comfort, health and peace,
And heaven at last your gain.

Mr. May has a wife and six children dependent on him for support. Before being disabled he was always a sober and hard-working man. What sum you may choose to give him will not be misplaced.

O. C. WEST,

Pastor German Lutheran Church, Redwood.

W. W. BUTTERFIELD, Ex-Assembly.

C. A. CATLIN, P. M.

And heaven at last your gain
 And give you comfort, health and peace,
 While you on earth remain,
 And that he may your wealth increase
 And long preserve your sight,
 To guide you safely on your way,
 To God, both day and night,
 Then will the blind man never pay
 Is lent unto the Lord.
 That which is

to give him will not be misplaced.
 working man. What can you may expect disabled he was always a sober and hard pendent on him for support. Before being
 Mr. Ray has a wife and six children de-

PN

1083.86

A15