Mary

Mary Hill, Benedicta Cheatly wife of John Cheatly, Mary Alcock wife of Arthur Alcock, Johanna wife of Benjamin Mitchell, Anne Rowny, Martha Lawson, Margaret Guy, and Anne Jenkyns; I do hereby order, that the said annuities, and stock so given to them respectively as aforesaid, shall be paid or assigned to their own proper hands, or order, respectively, and for their own separate use and benefit, whether sole or covert; and that their respective receipts alone shall be sufficient discharges for the same, notwithstanding their or any of their covertures.

And my mind and will is, that the several legacies, share or shares of stock, or so much thereof as shall not have been applied to the uses last above mentioned, of such of my above mentioned legatees as shall depart this life before they shall arrive respectively to their age of twenty-one years, or be married as aforesaid, shall from and after, and in case of their decease as aforesaid, go to, and be deemed part of the residuary part of my estate herein after devised, and shall by my said Executors be applied or assigned to and for such uses, intents, and purposes, as are in this my last Will directed, and appointed, in respect of the said residuary part of my estate.

Item, I give and bequeath unto Charles Joye, John Kenrick, and John Lade, Esquires; Mr. Thomas Dance, Mr. John Sprint, and Mr. John Osborn, the sum of one thousand pounds sterling, upon this special trust and confidence, that they or the survivors or survivor of them shall within twelve months after my decease, or sooner, if it may be, dispose and disburse the same, for the releasing and discharging charging of poor prisoners for debt, out of any prisons within the city of London, or counties of Middlesex and Surry, not exceeding the sum of five pounds for the discharge of any one person.

age, as my said Executors, or the said intended Corporation, and their successors, shall think fit, with preference to my relations, as often as any such shall offer themselves; who shall be received into the said Hospital, and have the maintenance and education thereof, and be continued therein in like manner as other children are maintained and educated in the said Hospital. And my Will is, that in case, and as often as the said President and Governors of Christ-Church-Hospital, shall neglect or refuse to take in and maintain the said number of boys and girls to them nominated and qualified as aforesaid, it shall be lawful to my said Executors, and the said intended Corporation, and they are hereby directed and desired to apply the said annual sum of four hundred pounds to the education and maintenance of such four poor children as aforesaid, in such other school or place, and in such other manner as they shall think fit.

And whereas the Masters, Keepers, Wardens, and Commonalty, of the art or mystery of Stationers

of the city of London, are, in and by one bond or obligation, under their Common Seal, bearing date on or about the third day of February, anno dom. 1717, become bound unto the Governors of the Hospital of St. Thomas the Apostle in Southwark, in the county of Surry, in the penal sum of five thousand five hundred pounds, conditioned for the payment of one hundred and twenty-five pounds, by them and their successors for ever, by half-yearly payments, free from all manner of deductions whatsoever, in manner following, viz.

To me the said Thomas Guy, during my natural life, and from and after my decease to such person and persons, uses, intents, and purposes, as I, by my last Will and Testament in writing, or any other writings under my Hand and Seal, subscribed in the presence of three or more credible witnesses, should declare, limit, and appoint, as in and by the said obligation and condition, relation being thereunto had, may more fully and at large appear :

Now

Now I give and devise unto John Cheatly and John Blood yeomen; Joseph Blood and Arthur Alcock clothiers; Thomas Orton yeoman; John Radford, Robert Blood, and the said John Osborn, citizen, and stationer of London, all that my Alms-House or building, containing sixteen rooms, fourteen of which said rooms are now used and employed for the habitation of fourteen poor men and women, and the other two rooms being laid together, are used for a Library, with the House-of-Office, Gardens, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, situate, lying, and being partly in Gumgate-street and partly in School-house-lane in Tamworth, in the county of Warwick, to hold to them the said John Cheatly, John Blood, Joseph Blood, Arthur Alcock, Thomas Orton, John Radford, Robert Blood, and John Osborn, their heirs and assigns for ever, in trust, nevertheless, and to and for the uses, intents, and purposes herein after mentioned; that is to say, that my said trustees, and the survivors of them, and such others others as shall succeed and be chosen in their room or place, by virtue of the clauses herein after in that behalf mentioned, or the major part of them, shall and do, from time to time, admit and place in the said rooms, Fourteen poor Persons, men or women, inhabitants of the towns, villages, or parishes of Wincoate, Glascoate, Bole-hall-Street, Ammington, Wiggington, and Hoppus, or any of them; my poor relations being first to be admitted, in case any such shall offer themselves, whom they shall think proper objects of such charity; and as often as any of them shall die, to place others in their stead. And in case any such of the said poor persons shall misbehave themselves, my said trustees for the time being, or the major part of them, shall, from time to time, displace such, and put others in their stead, as they shall think fit. And that the two rooms, above mentioned, to be used for a Library, shall continue to be so used; or for such other uses, for the better accommodation of the persons that shall dwell in the said Fourteen Rooms, as the said trustees for the time being, or the major part of them, shall think fit.

And my mind and will is, that when and so often as any of the said trustees shall happen to die, the survivors of them shall choose in another person to succeed and be a trustee; who shall act with them, in all respects, as if he had been particularly named with the other trustees in this my Will.

And to prevent the legal interest of the said last mentioned premises from going to the heir of a surviving trustee, it is my mind and will, that as often as my present or future trustees, in whom the legal estates of the same premises shall rest, shall be by death reduced to Two; that such Two, or the Survivor of them, shall forthwith convey the same premises to such other trustees and their heirs, upon the trust aforesaid, as my then acting trustees or the major part of them shall think fit or direct. And I do hereby order, limit, declare, and appoint, point, that the said yearly sum of one hundred and twenty-five pounds, be paid by the Masters and Keepers, or Wardens and Commonalty of Stationers above mentioned, and their successors, by half-yearly payments, at the feast day of Saint John the Baptist, and the Birth of our Lord God, in every year for ever, to my said Executors, until such intended Corporation, as aforesaid, shall be obtained and take effect; and then to such intended Corporation, and their successors; to the intent that my said Executors, or the said intended Corporation, and their successors, do and may thereout pay the sum of one hundred and fifteen pounds per annum, part thereof, by like half-yearly payments unto the said John Cheatly, John Blood, Joseph Blood, Arthur Alcock, Thomas Orton, John Radford, Robert Blood, and John Osborn, and the survivors of them, and such as shall succeed them, as aforesaid for ever, in trust, and to and for the uses, intents, and purposes, herein after mentioned; that is to say, in respect of eighty pounds per annum, part of the said

yearly sum of one hundred and fifteen pounds, upon trust, and to the intent that they do, and shall pay thereout, unto each of the said fourteen poor people, and such others as shall from time to time be chosen in their stead, the sum of two shillings per week, for their maintenance; and what shall be remaining of the said eighty pounds per annum, over and above such weekly payments, shall be expended and applied by my said trustees, for reparation of the said Alms-houses and premises; and for such other uses relating thereto as my said trustees, or the major part of them, shall from time to time think fit and appoint.

And for and in respect of the sum of thirty-five pounds, remainder of the said yearly sum of one hundred and fifteen pounds, upon trust, and to the intent that my said last mentioned trustees, and such as shall succeed them, as aforesaid, for ever, shall and do apply the same to the putting out children apprentice, nursing, or such like charitable deed, of four, six, or eight such poor persons persons of the family of the Vough- tons, or Woods, or proceeding therefrom, as they shall think fit. And if none, or not sufficient of such can be found, then of such other person or persons, as they shall find to be proper objects of charity.

And for and in respect of ten pounds per annum, the remainder of the said sum of one hundred and twenty-five pounds per annum, afore mentioned, my Will is, that my said Executors, and such intended Corporation, and their successors, shall, and do pay the same, from time to time, by like half-yearly time to time be elected and chosen in their room and stead, as any of them die, in like manner as is above mentioned concerning the trust of the aforesaid Alms-house, for ever, in C trust,

trust, that they apply the same to the putting out of children apprentice, nursing, or such like charitable deeds, of two or more such poor persons, of the family of the Guys, or proceeding therefrom, as they shall think fit: and if no such can be found, then of such other Person or persons as they shall find to be proper objects of charity.

Item, I give and bequeath unto Charles Joye, John Lade, John Kenrick, Esquires; Mr. John Darby, Mr. Thomas Dance, Mr. John Sprint, and Mr. John Osborn, the sum of one thousand pounds sterling; two hundred pounds, part of which shall be paid unto them, or to such person or persons as they or the major part of them shall appoint, by writing under their hands, at the end of three months next after my decease, and so from time to time, at the end of every three months, until the said sum of one thousand pounds be fully paid, in trust, that they, the survivors or survivor of them, shall, and do, from time to time, distribute the same for the relief lief and maintenance of such poor people, being housekeepers, as in their judgment shall be thought convenient; and my mind and will is, that my said last mentioned trustees shall not be accountable to my Executors for the same, and shall be allowed their charges in the execution of the same trust, out of the monies to be paid to them, from time to time as aforesaid.

Item, I give to the said John Osborn stationer, the sum of one hundred pounds, desiring him to assist my Executors in the execution of this my Will.

Item, I give to Anne Gorton, servant of Mr. Osborn, the sum of fifty pounds, if she be living in the house with me at the time of my decease.

nal, after the payment of my debts, legacies, and funeral charges, as aforesaid, and subject to the payment of the said several annuities and yearly sums, herein before bequeathed; I give, bequeath, and devise unto Sir Gregory Page Baronet, Charles Joye Esquire, Treasurer of the present Hospital of Saint Thomas, William Clayton of Marden in the county of Surrey, Esquire, Mr. Thomas Hollis senior, John Kenrick and John Lade Esquires, and Governors of the present Hospital of Saint Thomas; Doctor Richard Mead, Moses Raper Esquire, and Mr. John Sprint, Governors likewise of the same present Hospital, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, respectively upon the trust, and for such uses, intents, and purposes, as are hereinafter, by this my Will, directed and appointed: and I do hereby likewise, ordain, constitute, and appoint the said Sir Gregory Page Baronet, Charles Joye and William Clayton Esquires, Mr. Thomas Hollis Senior, John Kenrick and John Lade Esquires, Doctor Richard Mead, Moses Raper Esquire, and Mr. John Sprint, Sprint, Executors of this my said last Will, on Trust, as aforesaid.

And my mind and will is, that until such incorporation, by letters patent, or Act of Parliament, as herein after directed, can be obtained and take effect, they my said Executors and last mentioned Trustees, their heirs, executors, administrators and Assigns; and afterwards such Corporation shall and do, out of the Residuum of my Estate, or the rents, interest, or other profits thereof, carry on, erect, finish, and fit up the two new Squares of Building in Southwark, by me some time since began and intended for an Hospital, for the reception of such sick Persons as are herein after mentioned; and such other erections, offices, and Buildings, as shall, in the opinion of my said Executors and Trustees, be for that purpose further necessary; and also provide and furnish the same with beds and all other conveniences for the reception of, and receive and entertain therein, four hundred poor persons or upwards, labouring under any distempers, infirmities or disorders thought capable of relief by Physic or Surgery; but who by reason of the small hopes there may be of their cure, or the length of time which for that purpose may be required or thought necessary, are or may be adjudged or called Incurable, and as such, not proper objects to be received into or continued in the present Hospital of St. Thomas, or other Hospitals, in and by which no provision has been made for distempers deemed or called Incurable: of whom my mind is, that they receive and entertain Lunaticks, adjudged or called, as aforesaid, Incurable, not exceeding Twenty in number at one time; such poor persons to be chosen and appointed by my said Executors and Trustees out of such patients and persons who shall be discharged out of the Hospital of St. Thomas, or Bethlehem, or other Hospitals, on account of the small hopes of their cure, or the great length of time for that purpose required or thought necessary, and on such or any other account, adjudged and called Incurable, and not fit to be continued in the said Hospital of St. Thomas, or Bethlehem, or other Hospitals, or such other poor sick persons, or Lunatics, as, under such or the like circumstances, shall apply to my said Executors and Trustees for relief, at the discretion and pleasure of my said Executors and Trustees to whom I submit the several species or kinds of sick persons deemed or called Incurables, who shall be admitted into the said intended Hospital; and that my said Executors and Trustees shall and do provide suitable and proper diet, Physic, and all other necessaries for the maintenance, relief, or cure of such sick persons, during their lives, or for so long time as my said Executors and Trustees shall think fit to continue them under their care in the said intended Hospital.

And my Will is, that such poor sick persons received into and entertained in the said intended Hospital shall be subject, at all times, to my said Executors and Trustees, and to such rules and orders as they shall think fit to make for their behaviour in the said intended Hospital; and liable to be expelled from thence, and removed at the pleasure of my said Executors and Trustees, and other like sick persons admitted and entertained in their room.

And my mind and will further is, that if my said Executors and Trustees shall not find cause, or shall on any account whatsoever, not think fit to keep all or great part of the beds or wards in the said intended Hospital filled and supplied with sick persons deemed or called Incurable, as aforesaid; it shall and may be lawful for them, to cause any number of the said beds or wards to be filled and made use of, in like manner, and with like patients, as the beds in the Hospital of Saint Thomas are ordinarily used: for all which patients so to be received and taken in, from time to time, into the said intended Hospital, as incurable or otherwise, my mind and will is, that my said Executors and Trustees should provide in all things, as near as may be, according to the course, customs and usage of late years prevailing and practised in the said present Hospital of St. Thomas.

And my mind and will further is, and for the better and more regular disposition and management of the affairs and business of the said intended Hospital, and for perpetuating the Charity hereby intended, and the provision for the same, I do hereby order and appoint, and earnestly desire and intreat my said Executors and Trustees, forthwith after my decease, by humble application to His Majesty, or to the Legislature, to endeavour to obtain Letters Patent under the Great Seal, or an Act of Parliament, incorporating them, my said Executors and last named Trustees, together with Mr. Benjamin Brain senior, Mr. Thomas Clarke, William Cole Esquire, Doctor Thomas Crow, Doctor Francis Fauquier, Mr. Joshua Gee, Mr. Matthew Howard, Doctor Edward Hulse, Mr. Samuel Lesingham, Mr. Henry Lovell, Mr. Samuel Monck, Mr. Joseph Paice senior, Mr. Daniel Powle, Mr. Thomas Stiles senior; and also Robert and be answered unto, by such name or names, as aforesaid, in any Court or Courts of Record, and elsewhere, and with such other powers, privileges, and capacities in law, as to His Majesty or the Legislature shall seem meet to be granted. And my Will is, and I further desire my said Executors, and last named Trustees, by such humble application as aforesaid, to His Majesty or the Legislature, to endeavour to obtain and procure, that by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament, as aforesaid, a Committee be appointed of Twenty-one of the Members of such intended Corporation, for the more constant and ordinary management and application of the said residuary part of my Estate, and of the Charity hereby intended; to which Committee, or to such number of them, as shall be thought convenient, when convened and assembled, by and with the President and Treasurer of the said intended Corporation, or one of them, my will and desire is, that my said Executors and Trustees, by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament, as aforesaid, said, endeavour to have granted, and appointed, such powers as may enable them in the most effectual manner to manage, settle, and apply the said residuary part of my Estate, and the rents, interests, dividends, or other profits or produce thereof, to such uses as by this my last Will are directed and appointed; and that by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament, it may be provided, that Seven of the said Committee of Twenty-one, or One-third part thereof, at the least, may yearly and every year go out of, and be excluded their respective places as members of the said Committee, by the appointment of a general Court or assembly of the Members of the said intended Corporation, to be assembled and convened by the President or Treasurer of such intended Corporation yearly and every year, at a time or times in such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament to be appointed: And that for that purpose, at such General Court or Assembly, as aforesaid, Fourteen of the Members of the said Committee for the year next preceding such General Court

And that in and by such Letters Patent, or Act of Parliament, it be further provided and appointed, that the management and accounts of the said Committee of Twenty-one be from time to time subject to the approbation or disallowance of a General Court or assembly of the Members or Governors of such intended Corporation, to be from time to time convened and summoned by proper and convenient notice by the President or Treasurer of such intended Corporation for the Time being.

And

And my mind and will further is, and I desire my said Executors, by like humble application, as aforesaid, to endeavour to procure and obtain, that by such Letters Patent or Act of Parliament as aforesaid, the said Sir Gregory Page Baronet be appointed the first President of the said intended Corporation; and the said Charles Joye Esquire, the first Treasurer thereof; and the said William Clayton Esquire, Mr. Thomas Hollis senior, John Kenrick and John Lade Esquires, Doctor Richard Mead, Moses Raper Esquire, and Mr. John Sprint, and the said Mr. Benjamin Brain senior, Mr. Thomas Clarke, William Cole Esquire, Doctor Thomas Crow, Doctor Francis Fauquier, Mr. Joshua Gee, Mr. Matthew Howard, Doctor Edward Hulse, Mr. Samuel Lesingham, Mr. Henry Lovell, Mr. Samuel Monck, Mr. Joseph Paice, Mr. Daniel Powle, and Mr. Thomas Stiles, be appointed the first members of the said herein before mentioned and intended Committee, for the more constant and ordinary management of the said residuary

And that, by such Letters Patent, or Act of Parliament, as aforesaid, it be provided and granted, that the future elections of the President and Treasurer of the said intended Corporation, and also the election of the Physicians and Surgeons, and of the Register, or Clerk and Solicitor, and of the Chaplain, to be employed in and about the Charity hereby intended, be referred to, and reserved for the Members and Governors of the said intended Corporation, or the major part of them, in General Court assembled as aforesaid; as also their removal, displacing, and filling up; and that the Offices of Apothecary,

Steward, Matron, Cook, Sisters, and all other Officers, to be employed in and about the said intended Hospital and Charity, be referred to the election of the said intended Committee, and their Successors, and by them, and at their pleasure, to be altered, and the respective Officers to be removed, displaced, supplied, and filled up.

And my mind and will further is, that as soon as such intended Corporation can be obtained and take effect, my said Executors do forthwith pay, assign, transfer, and in due form of law convey and make over all the said residuary part of my Estate, herein before devised to them, or so much thereof as shall not have been applied and expended in and about the execution of this my Will, to and for the uses thereby directed and appointed, subject to the payment of the several annuities herein before devised to the said hereby intended Corporation and their Successors, upon the Trusts, and to be by them applied from time to time, to and for such uses, inand entertained in the said intended Hospital, and for defraying and answering all other the constant necessary charges and expences in and about the same; and that until the said residuary part of my personal Estate shall be laid out in purchases, as aforesaid, the interest, dividends, and other incomes or profits thereof, be from time to time applied to such purposes as are before appointed for the application of the rents and profits of such purchases, as aforesaid.

And my mind and will further is, that if it shall appear to the said President, Treasurer, and Governors, to be incorporated as aforesaid, that the yearly, and other rents and profits of the said residuary part of my real Estate, and of the Lands, Messuages, or other Estates, to be purchased as aforesaid, shall be more than sufficient to provide for, and answer the maintenance and cure of such poor sick persons, as are hereby directed to be received into and entertained in the said two new squares of Building, and other necessary charges and expences upon or about the said intended Hospital, it shall be lawful for the said President, Treasurer, and Governors, incorporated as aforesaid, in General Court to be assembled and convened, as aforesaid, or the major part of them, to lay out, expend, and apply, or direct and empower the said Committee to lay out, expend, and apply such surplus of the rents and profits of the said residuary part of my real Estate, and of other the Messuages, Lands, and other Estates to be purchased, as aforesaid, to and for the relief of such other poor sick persons, or such other proper objects of compassion, as from time to time to the said President, Treasurer, and Governors incorporated, as aforesaid, shall appear most worthy and deserving of pity and relief; or for such other public and charitable uses and purposes, as they shall think convenient.

And I do hereby revoke, and annul, and declare to be null and void, all, and every other Will and Wills by me, at any time or times heretofore made, declaring this to be my only
