PREFACE

IN introducing a new Edition of the "UPPINGHAM SCHOOL ROLL," the Editors would, in the first place, draw attention to the new matter embodied in it, which, it is hoped, will increase the value and interest of the work. This consists (1) of corrections and additions to the earlier edition; (2) of a continuation of the Roll, and of the list of Assistant-Masters, up to the end of the year 1893, besides the addition to the latter of a list of the Ushers under the old régime; (3) of the addition of the name of the Boarding-House after each name, from the year 1874 onwards; (4) of appendices, containing lists of Entrance Scholars, Captains of School, Leaving Exhibitioners, Cricket Elevens, Football Fifteens, Shooting Eights, holders of the House Challenge Cups for Cricket, Football, Fives, and Champions in the Athletic Sports.

Secondly, the Editors wish to apologise for any omissions and mistakes, which are almost inevitable in a work where information has to be gathered from scattered sources, and where facts are peculiarly difficult to verify.

Last, but not least, while thanking all those who have already sent them corrections or information, they would beg all lovers of the School to co-operate in the attempt to make as correct and complete as possible the next Edition of the Roll, which should, they feel, be not merely an interesting record, but also a practical help towards the maintenance of union and intercourse between all who rally round the name of Uppingham.

Communications for the Roll should be addressed to the Editors, West Deyne, Uppingham.

UPPINGHAM, June 1894.

UPPINGHAM SCHOOL MISSION.

THE UPPINGHAM SCHOOL MISSION was started in 1869, and was the first Public School Mission. It arose from a suggestion made by the Rev. J. FOY, in a lecture given in the schoolroom in April 1869, that the School should "found and maintain a separate centre for home missionary work."

Mr. THRING supported the idea, and St. Mark's Parish, Victoria Docks, North Woolwich, was chosen as the mission parish. The Rev. H. BOYD (now Principal of Hertford College, Oxford) was Incumbent, and the Rev. J. W. ALINGTON (O.U.) went to him as Curate. The impetus given to the work resulted in the building of a new church—St. John's, consecrated Sept. 27, 1872 (Uppingham School Magazine, 1872, p. 268), on which occasion Mr. BOYD started the idea of a second church, and St. Luke's was consecrated, April 19, 1875 (Uppingham School Magazine, 1875, p. 116). By this time Rev. W. F. WITTS had become Vicar of St. John's, where J. W. ALINGTON was still Curate. He resigned in 1878, and in 1883 the School transferred its mission to the parish of St. Saviour's, Poplar, where the Rev. V. E. SKRINE was Incumbent, and where it still remains. The present Vicar is the Rev. J. BEARDALL (The Vicarage, Arcadia Street, Poplar). The Rev. R. R. TRAILL is working the Uppingham mission district, and the Rev. F. J. BARBER (O.U.) is on the staff of clergy. The School provides £100 a year, from the offertory, towards the stipend of the Mission Curate. The clergy are most thankful for any help, personal or by gift, towards working and maintaining clubs, providing treats, &c.; and contributions of old clothes, especially boots, are most welcome.

UPPINGHAM SCHOOL SOCIETY.

THE UPPINGHAM SCHOOL SOCIETY was founded in 1879, by the late Rev. EDWARD THRING. The object for which it exists is—as expressed in Rule 11—"to help old Uppingham boys or masters in any good public work which they may have on hand."

Thus it really serves a double purpose, since by being a means whereby old Uppingham men may help each other in life, it becomes at the same time a bond of union between them. An annual subscription of not less than five shillings constitutes membership. Any one may become a life member by a payment at any one time of a sum of not less than three pounds. Any one who has been at school at Uppingham, or is otherwise connected with the school, or interested in it, may become a member of the Society. Grants are made annually. Applications for help must be made to the Secretary before the end of November in each year. The Committee welcome the request of laymen for help in their work; they are particularly anxious to let it be known that it is not clergymen alone who receive grants.
