his mental faculties were impaired from the cause already assigned as well as from some disappointments he has lately met with. The insanity rose to its present height on Monday

He has made no attempt to injure himself but he has frequently struggled to get out of bed & he has made frequent is wrong on every subject.

 6th Since admission he has been perfectly quiet & ever since the effects of habitual intoxication were carried off by a sound sleep long continued, by abstinence from liquor & by regular food which in a short time he took tolerably well, no sign of insanity appeared, tho' he showed signs of bodily & mental weakness as is common to habitual Drunkards. Let him take moderate exercise & live as he is doing.

13 Continues quite well. On enquiry it is found that his affairs are involved beyond his power to extricate himself, & that from the state of his house in which spirits are sold by one in whom he has no confidence, & of whose associates he is very suspicious by being confined here he is in danger of being utterly ruined. Tho' he is confident that merely by being dismissed he could set every thing to rights, the Physician has advised him to take some preliminary steps, by consulting a legal Adviser, & in due form appointing Butlers to manage his affairs to wh. he agreed.

By appointment Messrs. Far quhar & Buchanan Spirit Deal ers Clockwell, met the Physician at the Asylum, & agreeing to get proper arrangements made for his future safety, it was resolved to dismiss him on ~~Tuesday~~ next, ^{day} in which resolution all parties were confirmed by a letter received from one Richardson of which a copy is preserved.

William Cleland, weaver admitted Oct. 4th 1818 Short, thin, sallow complexion, grayish hair blue eyes. Aged 47 years Some years prior to his derangement, he had a nervous fever from the effects of which he never wholly recovered and this is the only cause to which his insanity was imputed. It is now near twenty years since he was first deranged, but nothing appeared peculiar in his conversation before that time - His sister has laboured under a similar malady for about 6 years she is at present so far well that she can manage her own affairs - He was of a quiet temper and religiously inclined - At first he attempted to hurt himself & others; but for many years he has been very inoffensive, except when his meals are not served the moment he calls for them, in which case

He sometimes assumes a very threatening aspect but seldom proceeds to violence - He does not at present destroy any thing - He forms wrong judgements on almost every subject - He has partial lucid intervals At the commencement of his disease he was attended by Dr. J. A. Watt he was bled, blistered & used the Cold Bath when relieved him he has not been by any means so furious since - He generally rises at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 7 in the morning. Walks out whether it be wet or dry for an hour or longer comes home to breakfast after which he ties pieces of yarn together which he has picked up while walking. After this he writes passages from the Bible on small pieces of waste paper he picks up in the streets.

He uses urine instead of ink.
Walks out at 1 o'clock for an hour before dinner -

After dinner resumes his writing, takes another walk before tea, & again after tea - sups at 9 & then goes to bed - Often before he walks & afterwards, he will take out the bottom of a chair go within the chair & push himself through it, this practice he has
years. For a long time past Friday was his Sabbath day, when he regularly put on his best apparel and every

Captain Millar, Admitted Oct 17th 1810 Tall, very stout made, swarthy complexion, blue eyes, dark hair, aged 44 years Declaration of Mary High sewark to Capt. Millar residing in Fenwick;
That she has been 7 years sewark with Capt. Millar That she has heard her Master say that he was deranged in his mind since he had a fever in the West Indies, that at Portsmouth he was in a state of Disengagement of mind for 5 or 6 weeks, during which time to her certain knowledge he never had access to Spirituous Liquors That he was placed in a house of confinement by order of the commanding officer of his Regt Col: Sigbee the house is called Ephraim House kept by a M^r Phillips. He was liberated in consequence of his being pronounced cured That when any thing vexes him, his mind always becomes disturbed, without having been excited by drink which obliges his friends to be particularly cautious in their treatment of him.

Taken before Tho^s White. who further adds from his own knowledge that Captⁿ Miller has been repeatedly outrageous in this neighbourhood for years past, that insanity appears the cause of it.
Oct 10th He seems to have been most dreadfully beat, he complains of great pain of his right side, his eyes are so complicated that that he is unable to see the surrounding parts are violently bruised

Nov 14 Became composed & polite even to a fault, but betrayed great impatience of constraint & confinement even on the most moderate degree, for which purpose he brought hither his wife & his servant to whom he imparted a large share of his own impatience, particularly to the former, who with much evasion, & segregation, denied every part of his violence & outrages to herself & others. The fatthood of this was perfectly apparent, as was his violence on the trifling delay occasioned by the doubts about dismissing him; however, from the circumstances attending his original admission, it was judged most expedient to who dismiss him, giving warning is all concerned of the circumstances, & taking the wife, who is an ignorant, violent, Coquareous woman, bound, to keep him in safety, or to give warning when she can no longer do so, so that the subjects may incur no risk from his being at large.

Several weeks ago the Servant called back, retracted all she had said in favour of her Master in concurrence with her mistress, whom she now flatly contradicted ed avowing the extent of his insanity in the most ample manner, & imploring him to be admitted again immediately, promising to advance the money as soon as it should become due.

To this Mr Drury very properly replied, that without proper security, a medical certificate, & a proper application, the case could not again be admitted, & so the matter rests.

He was of quick temper & pious character formerly

He has burnt those attending him & broke & destroyed all within his reach - The raving is chiefly confined to the ill treatment he thinks he received in the Kirk session on account of what was before stated. but he now seems to form erroneous judgements on every subject. He has hitherto had no fixed interest. He has been twice freely bled; his mind had been blistered - his bowels have been purged; & Pills of Digitalis & Antimony were prescribed but few could be given.

Previous to that time they seldom occurred - The wanderings have been for a month past in continual succession upon different subjects.

er done subjects and the most person insignificant circumstance which, though will bring one or other of them the Paroxysm into action - If any part threaten of his body is touched by any person near him he will suddenly start ask what they mean & what new scene of torment that was the signal to bring upon him - If no notice is taken of this question he goes on to some other thing; but if the person should endeavour to convince him, that the touch was accidental - He gets into a violent fits which last summer from ten to twenty minutes expending itself in incoherent language - The lucid intervals have of late been much shorter than formerly - During the course of last summer he was frequently not out for days but weeks, and for six or eight months during last summer year he enjoyed the society of his family & friends but it was some time ago found necessary to make him keep his own room & not associate with the family - He now has adopted the idea that the family the servants & every person coming to the house are seeking occasion to torment him. It crosed what may the torment him his ans - is the knows well enough - He has been always of hasty temper easily excited & as easily calmed -

Dec 24th - 1810 Since his admision into the asylum he has conducted himself with the greatest propriety - Let his head be shaved - His bowels
