RECOMMENDATION.

THE Bible is a Book of such transcendent worth, and so happily suited to all the parts and purposes of Christian Life, that it can never be too much recommended to the world: every thing that allures the world to peruse it is a blessing to mankind. And though it is hard for our narrow capacities to grasp and take in the several distinguishing excellencies of it at one view, yet if we take a separate survey of the doctrines and duties, the promises and threatenings, the prophecies and histories, which are contained therein, each of them will afford us an awful or a delightful prospect, with lessons for special improvement.

The worthy author of this collection, whom I have long known with esteem and honour, has chosen to reduce all the most useful and important promises of the word of God into order, and set them before us here. These are the most powerful motives to duty; these are the constant food of a living Christian, as well as his highest cordials in a fainting hour. And in such a world as this, where duties perpetually demand our practice, and difficulties and trials are ever surrounding us, what can we do better than to treasure up the Promises in our hearts, which are the most effectual persuasives to fulfil the one, and sustain the other. Here are laid up the true riches of a Christian, and his highest hopes on this side heaven.

The materials which are collected here are all Divine, and the disposition of them is elegant and regular; so that it is an easy matter to find something suited to the frame of our souls, or our present wants, on every occasion; and that soul, who knows what a suitable promise is worth in an hour of darkness or temptation, will never think such a work as this, and such a various treasure, can have sufficient value set upon it.

Those who have little leisure for reading, may find their account in keeping this book always near them: and with the glance of an eye, they may take in the riches of grace and glory, and derive many a sweet refreshment from hence, amidst their labours and travels through this wilderness. It is of excellent use to lie on the table in a chamber of sickness, and now and then to take a sip of the River of Life, which runs through it in a thousand little rills of peace and joy.

May the Holy Spirit of God, who indited

all these Promises, and our blessed Mediator, who by his ministry and by his blood has sealed and confirmed them all, render them every day more and more powerful and prevalent, to draw the hearts of men towards God, and to fit them for the enjoyment of these words of grace in their complete accomplishment in glory. Amen.

thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken. 21. But there the glorious Lord will be unto us a place of broad rivers and streams, wherein shall go

they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake. Ver. 17. No wea-

If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the Lord, then the seed of Israel shall cease from being a nation before me for ever. 37. Thus saith the Lord, If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel, for all that they have done, saith the Lord.—See also chap. xxxiii. 20—26.

And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them : for I have mercy upon them ; and they shall be as though I had not cast them off ; for I am the Lord their God, and will hear them. 8. I will kiss for them and gather them : for I have redeemed them ; and they shall increase as they have increased. 9. And I will sow them among the people, and they shall remember me in far countries, and they shall live with their children and turn again.—See the whole chapter.

Zech. xii. 6. In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf ; and they shall devour all the people round about on the right hand and on the left ; and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again, in her own place, even in Jerusalem : Ver. 10. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications ; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, &c.—See the whole chapter.

Rom. xi. 2. God hath not cast away his people, which he foreknew. Ver. 12. If the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fulness? Ver. 15. For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? Ver. 23. And they also, if they abide not in unbelief shall be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again. 24. How much more shall these which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree? 25. For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery (lest ye should be wise in your own conceits), that blindness in part has happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. 26. And so all Israel shall be saved; as it is written, There shall come out of Zion the deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob. 27. For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins. 28. As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes; but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. 29. For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. (See vers. 30—32.) God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all. 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and his ways past finding out.
