On the occasion of my visit from Ireland to a beloved Brother in Law now residing in the Retreat of York, I should not be doing justice to my feelings of respect for this Noble Institution were I not to Express my admiration of its Management the Elegance & Cleanliness of its Interior, The Kindness Care

1828.

Care, Attention, & Social Qualities of those persons who are placed over it.

I return to my own Country gratified so far with my visit & Impressed with the highest notions possible of its founders & present supporters

Doctor Hawley Physician of Edinburgh and Lady F. R. C. P. E. - Sept 21, 1828

I have visited this Retreat with some Expectation of Stability & Conviction - but Certainly my Expectations are very far exceeded by the Res-ults on a view of it - I have felt in my Soul the Tear of ~~Excitement~~ <sup>Excitement</sup> Start for the Ruin of the Human Intellect around me and have been a good deal consoled by seeing a Retreat so safe, so skillfully managed, and so full of Comfort as well as Indulgence to the Poorer Invalids - I find with pleasure that several outgrow their Weakness - and depart recovered - and that at present it is the Case with Some of the Patients has had the pleasure of seeing this place the neatest cleanest and ~~the~~ most elegant place of this kind in the world and may say so for he has travelled through the most part of Europe.

9200
9/28/71 Mrs J. P. Thorne. His Excellency his perfect admiration of this Retreat, & its management in all its branches,

Colonel Clithrow. This establishment is undoubtedly the best I have ever seen, & when I recollect that the present mild treatment of the unfortunate Lunatic, originated within these Walls, I cannot sufficiently express my gratitude as an Individual to the original Founders of the Retreat and to those who in the present day superintend the institution —
