John W. Francis, M.D. of N. York

J. W. Francis is not wholly ignorant of the state of the Lunatic Asylums in North America, and he has visited almost all the institutions for the Insane that are established in England. He now embraces this opportunity of stating that after an examination of the Retreat for some hours, he should do injustice to his feelings were he not to declare that this Establishment far surpasses any thing of the kind he has elsewhere seen and that it reflects equal credit on the wisdom and humanity of its constructors. Perhaps 23 it is ~~no~~ inconsiderable honour to add that Institutions of a similar nature and on the same plan are organizing in different parts of the United States. The New world cannot do better than imitate the Old so far as concerns the management of those who labour under mental infirmities
