Massage Association.

Objects.

- 1.—To establish a system of registration of recognised Masseurs and Masseuses.
2. To establish a uniform system of training and examination.
3. To promote the interests of members of the Association.

Rules.

CONSTITUTION AND ELECTION OF OFFICE-BEARERS.

1. The governing body of the Association shall be a Council. The first Council shall consist of a President, Hon. Secretary, Hon. Treasurer, and six members elected at the inaugural meeting, together with a Vice-President and six members elected by the New South Wales members, and a Vice-President and six members elected by the South Australian members. The President, Vice-Presidents, and two of each of the six members shall be Registered Medical Practitioners.
2. The Council shall have power to form Branches in the different States of the Commonwealth, and in New Zealand. Such Branches shall elect their own Office-bearers, their Presidents shall be ex officio Vice-Presidents, and six selected members shall be members of the Council as already provided.

3. Each subsequent Council shall be a Federal Council, elected by and representative of all duly constituted Branches in such manner as members shall hereafter determine.

GENERAL MANAGEMENT.

4. The Council shall have the general management of the affairs of the Association, and power to frame By-laws, subject to confirmation at a subsequent meeting of members. It shall carry into effect the directions of such meetings, and attend to all matters affecting the interests of the Association. It shall also arrange for the holding of the Annual Meetings of the Association in the capitals of the different Branches as circumstances shall admit.

5. All Members of the Council shall retire annually, and shall be eligible for re-election.

6. The Council shall meet at such time and in such place as it may determine. At all meetings of Council six shall form a quorum.

7. The Council shall have power to temporarily fill any vacancy if it think it desirable to do so. A member of the Council shall forfeit his or her seat if absent from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Council without leave of absence.

8. The Association shall meet yearly, or oftener, as occasion may require, on such day and at such place as the Council may appoint, with power to adjourn from time to time. At all such meetings ten shall form a quorum.

9. The President of the Council, or in his absence a Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings, and in case of their absence the majority of those present shall appoint a Chairman.

10. In the event of a desire on the part of members for a special meeting of the Association, they shall submit to the President a request in writing, signed by not less than twenty members, and he shall direct the Hon. Sec. to convene such special meeting, giving at least twenty-eight clear days' notice, and enumerating the subjects to be dealt with.

11. Every question shall be decided by a majority of the members present, the Chairman having a vote in his right, and a casting vote by right of his office.

12. Voting by post shall be permitted, under such conditions as may be prescribed from time to time.

13. No rules shall be made, altered or cancelled, nor shall any motion involving an important change in any By-law be considered by the Association, except at the Annual or Special meeting.

14. Whenever it is proposed to alter, add or cancel any rule, it shall be the duty of the Hon. Sec. to have such proposals printed and posted fully twenty-eight clear days before the Special or Annual meeting.

15. Members of the Association shall receive from the Hon. Secretary twenty-eight clear days before the holding of the Annual General Meeting ; notices of all businesses to be transacted at such meeting.

16. Subject to ratification by the Council, the Branch Councils shall, as hereinafter provided, have power to deal with all local applications for registration, and to make all local arrangements for the efficient training of future practitioners.

QUALIFICATIONS AND PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERS.

17. The Association shall consist of Masseurs and Masseuses, Registered Medical Practitioners elected to the Council, Registered Medical Practitioners and others who have been appointed Examiners and Lecturers, or who have been elected Honorary Members.

18. Up to the 31st day of July, 1906, any Masseur or Masseuse in the Commonwealth of Australia and New Zealand shall be eligible for registration.

A—Who holds a Certificate of massage from a training school recognised for the purpose by the Council of the Association.

B—Who produces satisfactory evidence of having been engaged as a masseur or masseuse in a recognised Hospital or Hospitals for a period of not less than two years, together with Certificates of competency from three reputable Medical Practitioners.

C—Who shows, to the satisfaction of the Council, or where a Branch has been duly constituted, the Branch

Council, that he or she has been engaged for a period of not less than one year in the bona-fide work of the profession, either in the Hospital or private practice, and produces satisfactory Certificates of competency and good conduct from at least three reputable Medical Practitioners.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that the Council, or where a Branch has been duly constituted, the Branch Council shall have power in any case to direct that the applicant for registration be examined in practical massage by three examiners appointed by the Council or Branch Council.

19. All persons who, prior to January, 1906, have been duly apprenticed in writing to a registered masseur or masseuse, shall be entitled to registration upon completing such training, and passing such examinations as the Council, or where a Branch Council has been duly constituted, the Branch Council may direct.

20. All applications for registration shall be in writing, and shall be verified by affidavit or statutory declaration.

21. No person shall be registered who has followed or is following the calling of a spiritualistic or medical medium, clairvoyant, hypnotist, or fortune teller, or who being other than a legally qualified Registered Medical Practitioner has prescribed remedies for the cure of disease; nor shall it be permissible for any member of the Association to accept work for the relief of any ailment from any person practising under these or similar titles.

22. No member shall act in a professional capacity except under the direction or supervision of a Registered Medical Practitioner approved by the Council.

23. No member shall advertise professionally except in a manner approved by the Council.

24. The Council shall have power to place upon the register any masseur or masseuse trained outside Australasia, whose training or certificate shows, to the satisfaction of the Council, a course of training and examination equal to that prescribed and recognised by the Association.

25. The Council shall cause to be kept a Register, on which shall be entered the names and addresses of all members registered by the Council, and shall grant to members a Certificate of Registration. No person shall be deemed to be a member of the Association until he or she shall have paid the registration fee and annual subscription, and obtained the Certificate of Registration, and all members shall be bound by the rules of the Association by enrolment on the Register.

26. The registration fee shall be one guinea, and the annual subscription one guinea. The former shall be paid to the Hon. Treasurer of the Association; the latter to the Hon. Treasurer of the Association, or of the local Branch wherever such Branch exists. All registered members of the Australasian Massage Association of Sydney, on the 15th day of February, 1906, shall be accepted as members of this Association without registration fee.

27. The Council shall annually print a list of the members, and circulate it amongst Medical Associations, Public and Private Hospitals, and the Medical Profession in general.

28. The Council shall have power to remove from the Register, or suspend any member who has not paid his or her annual subscription at the close of the financial year, which shall be the 28th day of February in each year. Any member who by reason of default of payment of the annual subscription becomes suspended for over a period of three months shall pay the usual entrance fee before his or her name is restored to the Register.

29. The Council shall have power to suspend, or remove from the Register the name of any member, who, after full inquiry, may in the opinion of the Council prove himself or herself hereafter to be unfit to remain a member of the Association. Provided always that before any name is removed, due notice of the Council's intention shall be given to the member, who shall have the opportunity of making any explanation that he or she may deem desirable, and provided also that this action shall be confirmed by a two-thirds majority at the next meeting of the Association.

30. The Council shall have also the right to restore any name removed from the register on satisfactory proof being given that the causes which led to the removal no longer exist, and shall report their action to the next general meeting of the Association.

HONORARY TREASURER

31. The Hon. Treasurer shall keep a record of all monies received, and shall place the same in some established bank as the Council may appoint. All payments ordered by the Council and made by him or her shall be by cheque for all sums over twenty shillings, and such cheques shall be signed by him and such other officer as the Council shall appoint.

HONORARY SECRETARY.

32. The Hon. Secretary shall prepare and supervise all papers of the meetings, and keep a record of all minutes, correspondence and all other documents, and shall carry out the instructions and directions of the Council and Association in a proper manner. He shall be the official medium of communication between the Association, its Branches, and the Council, and shall be under the immediate direction of the President in all matters of emergency that may arise between the meetings of the Council.

FUNDS.

33. The expenses connected with the general management of the Association, including the actual and reasonable expenses of delegates or members of the Council, shall be defrayed from the entrance fees and subscriptions, or any donations received.

34. Half of all income earned in any State of the Commonwealth and New Zealand, where a Branch of the Association shall exist, shall be retained by the executive of such Branch for its maintenance, but any such Branch shall be liable to contribute to the general expenses of the Council or of the Association, as the Association may determine.

35. The Council shall decide as to the investment and employment of any accumulated funds that may accrue.

TRAINING TO BE ACQUIRED BY FUTURE PRACTITIONERS.

36. On and after the first day of August, 1906, all applicants for registration, other than those provided for by Rules 19 and 24, shall produce evidence satisfactory to the Council—

(a) That they have undergone a recognised preliminary general education.

(b) That they possess an approved physical and general fitness.

- (c) That they have undergone, in a recognised public institution, a recognised professional training during a period of not less than two years; the curriculum of which shall comprise :

- (1) Two courses of Anatomy ; (2) two courses of Dissections ; (3) one course of Physiology ; (4) one course of Elementary Medical Electricity ; (5) one course of Medical Gymnastics and Swedish movements, and (6) not less than twelve months' Hospital training in the theory and practice of Massage.

37. The Council, or where a Branch has been duly constituted, the Branch Council (subject however to ratification by the Council), shall have power to frame the necessary regulations for the performance of the curriculum, and appoint the necessary lecturers and examiners in conjunction with the authorities of the recognised public institutions.

38. All candidates who have fulfilled the foregoing requirements, and who have passed the prescribed examinations, and who have satisfied the Council that they are over 21 years of age, shall be entitled to registration and to receive the Diploma of the Association.

HONORARY AND LIFE MEMBERS.

39. Honorary members may be elected annually, or for any term of years, who shall be Registered Medical Practitioners or registered members of the Association, or members of the governing body of recognised public institutions, or others who have done special service in the interests of the Association, but no Honorary member shall be entitled to vote except when holding some position in the administration of the Association.

40. Life Members may be elected from the general body of members upon the payment of Ten Guineas.

HONORARY SOLICITOR.

41. The Honorary Solicitor shall be elected at the Annual Meeting, and he shall be consulted in all legal and other business when the Council shall deem it necessary.

AUDITOR.

42. The Council shall employ a registered Auditor, and have the accounts of the Association audited annually.
