My dear Sir

I duly rec'd your favour, with Dr Thurnam's Report, which am sorry to see - as I had some Hopes of a little positive improvement in my poor Daughter's Health but this does not appear to be the case, and I must bow to the Will of Providence & must wait his decession, poke this I am sure to have the Pleasure of seeing her Recovery or I am doomed to disappointment, it has been this for a great Trial to me as well as to her Mother and other Members of the Family - it would be a great Pleasure to all her Friends provided a favourable change were to occur and am Hopes we shall be again united, we must wait the Event with Patience - I have enclosed a Bank Note - which I take up at Hand - and I purpose seeing you on Thursday when you will have the Balance I shall send the other part by the next Post - expect you will examine both Letters & Case, and I shall be obliged by your Acknowledgement in the Course -

Sir,

May I request the favor of your informing me what are the lowest terms on which you would receive a middle-aged female into your establishment - The reason of my application is that my mother, a widow, in consequence of great depression of spirits, is at present labouring under a state of mental derangement, and I am afraid of the result if she be not immediately placed in confinement.

I have applied to various institutions in this neighbourhood, but they either have no vacancy, or their terms are so very high, as to preclude the possibility of my availing myself of them -

Should you have a vacancy, please forward to me any documents which it is necessary to get filled up -

A reply by return of post will oblige,

Enclosed I forward thee a Bank Draft for £5..17..6 in payment of the quarterly account for my daughter Lucy's Board and disbursements

We are glad to learn she is again comfortably settled in, as her conduct whilst out of the Retreat was a source of continual anxiety and alarm for her safety, and being quite unmanageable by her relations her readmittance into the Retreat, it was a great relief to our minds, and I have no doubt has added to her own happiness, but I am fully persuaded she requires strict care to keep her under proper restraint, and we shall be obliged by thy preventing her obtaining any articles in future without thy sanction or authority, as she appears to have no idea of the value of money

With the next quarters account we shall be obliged if thy wife would have the kindness to forward a list of such articles of clothing as Lucy may require for the summer and her mother will get them made up and forwarded

Please to give our kind love to Lucy

A young man named Robt. He is under the care of Dudley Friends and John Williams of that place has left it in charge with the advice of the medical man thought it desirable for him to be placed in an Asylum he wrote to them to request them to send a suitable person to convey him to the Retreat which we should be much obliged by they doing as speedily as may be, or if there is any difficulty in the way to write by first post to let us know

In reply to thine of the 25th ult. I can only say, that certain subscriptions in aid of the Retreat were collected* and forwarded to S Tuke for the year 1846. I cannot find any document containing the names of the subscribers or the amount, nor do I know that I preserved any. Thus much I remember very well, that whatever the sum was, it was forwarded to

Respected Friend,
Samuel Tuke,

As I am not acquainted with any other Friend who takes so great an interest in the affairs of the Retreat at York, or in the well-being of its inmates, as thyself, I make free to trouble thee with a little matter affecting the comfort of a dear friend in this neighbourhood, whose son, John Harris, has been for some years in that establishment. More than three years ago my Uncle P. Bedford queried of my husband, if he knew of any fee in this County, to whom a recommendation into the Retreat on reduced terms would be a relief, as he possessed a privilege, in consequence of some trust, that would enable him to offer aid in this way.- Soon afterwards my Husband wrote to Uncle on behalf of a dear friend, a Minister in this, Pardshaw, Monthly Meeting, stating how very much his limited pecuniary means were decreased by the necessary provision for his Son. Uncle in reply said he thought J. B's case quite suitable for such an application, but owing to the state of the Funds, he felt a delicacy of availing himself of his privilege, & nothing further was done Lately, when we were favoured with the company of our friend James Backhouse, the situation of our friend J. B. was adverted to, and a fear expressed that he & his wife were deprived of needful comforts, now in advanced age, from the circumstance alluded to. J. B. expressed his opinion that it would be desirable to write again to Uncle, as he saw no reason for his withholding now from the state of the Funds. My Husband did so, & received for reply that he had disposed of his privilege. As we feel considerable interest in our dear aged friend, I have ventured to apply to thee, principally to

My dear Friend

My letter concludes this morning with its very satisfactory report, thou will find that my husband had written to Charles by yesterday's post with a proposition for his cattle which we hope will quiet his anxiety about them and the which fully meets our own views for tho' we know the kindness that we yield to his request we also have found while at Jamestown that they often proved from one cause or other sources of more excitement than was good for him, but was grateful in the hope of furnishing some pecuniaries pleasures which his ~~situation~~ circumstances could not immediately admit of with us —

My husband is quite satisfied with the proposition to board dear Betsey as we do satisfied that you have come to the decision after allowing for our dear child having all the comforts which his malady admits of — as well as securing to the Institution a liberal remuneration both which objects it is our sincere desire to obtain and which we feel thankful in being able to allow —

My dear sisters case must I fear now be considered quite a hopeless one but to believe that is from fear of depriving any kind friends of any appearance of mercy — and as John Thornton remarks it is no small alleviation in our dear Charles' case that he retains such a portion of patience interest in his nearest relations

Please to thank Dr J — for his letter — which my dear friends to answer with a remittance the Canary —

I hope thou will excuse my they Judgement; should'st thou consider it proper to give it me and be willing to do so.

I have been informed that a person is wanted at the Retreat, as House Steward, & that some of those superior qualifications, which have found scope for exercise, and which I have in the been required, will not, individual, who shall fill that situation, be, indispensibly necessary.

Would'st thou be so kind as to give me the opinion as to whether I might be considered suitable, and if I may be so considered, could I there bring my application for the situation under notice with any expression in favor of it. I think certainly, I can supply testimonials in my favor, indeed I have no doubt of it. Though not a member of Society, as thou mayest know, yet I never be-have, I am, in principle a Friend. My wife sometimes attends meeting on first day, with me. Still she likes occasionally to attend the preaching and Worship of other Religious Societies.

Esteemed Friend

John Candler,

Robert Staniland who is now I expect under thy care, having been sent to the Retreat in consequence of the state of his mind as developed, chiefly, in a conversation I had with him, & which induced me to ask the advice of some other friends here, I cannot but feel desirous of knowing how the change has effected him & what is his present state of mind & health, and the opinion entertained of his case. And I should have written to thee before now; but the friends who were associated with me in caring for him united in my opinion that in writing to thee I had better inform thee the result of our investigation, so far as we have been able to make one, into the truth of what appeared most heavily to press upon his mind when he spoke to me - and I could not do that till now.

I had procured him a situation with a friend here where he appeared to be comfortable for a few weeks when he became gloomy & one day absented himself altogether from business which his Employer having complained to me of, I sent for Robert, and enquiring why he had acted so without leave he stated that his mind was very unhappy and after much pressing he said he was miserable "because of a guilty Conscience said in the course of a long & very painful interview he accused himself of having robbed his Employers in Jamaica (three in succession) of Money & goods to a large amount in the whole - the goods he said had given partly away in presents - two hundred pieces to his mother since his return to England - part of them he said were in his Trunk at his lodgings and part in two Trunks at Manchester. and as to the Money he thought he had brought from Jamaica about £40 not his own - Our conversation ended in his giving me permission to have the Trunks sent from Manchester to my care - and giving me leave to Examine them & also his luggage at his lodgings - He had accordingly written to Manchester desiring his friend there to send me the Trunks and £15 in money - both of which Degarmo to have been complained with - the money I appropriate to the payment of his Bill at his lodgings. the Doctors' Bills - and the expenses of having him conveyed to York. and the Banks have been often examined in the presence of John Williams & Thurlow Weed Esqrs at my Office where they now remain. but we found nothing which in our opinion, went to sustain his self accusation - which we thought it right for them to know - as it may serve to show in some degree the character of his malady - we were certainly surprised to find him disposed of so much money - as his connections & friends then in the Penitentiary represented that he was very differently circumstanced we could not examine the luggage

Dear Friend J. Candler

I have to thank thee for the necessary papers to be filled up for the admission of my son which arrived yesterday and for thy letter received this morning. We think it best to lose as little time as we can with convenience & therefore propose that a person to take charge of him be sent from you to arrive here on 2nd. day next the 1st of 3rd. month and to return the next morning. It is desirable that he arrive at Hitchin as early in the day as may be: he can come by Bedford or Leighton / I do not know which affords the earlier opportunity. / The messenger on his arrival at Hitchin should enquire for Joseph Sharples' & be set down there.

As we do not intend to mention the subject to Joseph before the arrival of your messenger it is of course in some degree uncertain whether he may be most agreeably set forward on his journey on third day or fourth.

The messenger will please to hire a gig at either place that he leaves the train.—

It is very relieving to me that an attendant can be spared from you which I hope will not put you to much inconvenience.

Should you write again please direct to Joseph Sharples.

ADDRESS OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE BRITISH AND FOREIGN ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY TO THE FRIENDS OF THE ANTI-SLAVERY CAUSE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD ON THE DISUSE OF SLAVE PRODUCE.

The abolition of slavery and the slave-trade through every portion of the territorial possessions of Great Britain, is, perhaps, the greatest event which has marked the progress of the present age. In it we cannot fail to discover the triumph of Christian philanthropy and national justice, over a system of heartless selfishness and inhuman oppression. By the laws which have been passed, millions of slaves have been emancipated, and their posterity, through successive generations, declared free. To measure the misery from which these liberated slaves have been relieved, the degradation from which they have been raised, the privileges to which they have been exalted, and the blessings which they enjoy, would be impossible.

But whilst we are permitted to rejoice in this triumph of justice, humanity, and religion, we have still to deplore the existence of slavery and the slave-trade to an enormous extent, and under the most aggravated circumstances, in foreign countries. So long as they exist, we consider it to be the duty of philanthropists to use every practicable means for their removal; and hence, we earnestly call on the friends of the slave throughout the United Kingdom and the World, to combined and persevering efforts in promoting this great and good work.

The number of Africans and their descendants now held in bondage under professedly Christian governments, is estimated at upwards of seven millions. In the rice swamps and cotton plantations of the United States, nearly three millions of innocent human beings languish in slavery and chains. An equal number are compelled, under the dreadful stimulus of the slave-whip, to cultivate the vast territory of Brazil, and to work its mines; and about 800,000 more are driven to their toil on the sugar and coffee plantations of the Spanish colonies. To these we may add 400,000 who pass a wretched existence in the colonial possessions of France, Holland, Denmark, and Sweden. The variety and intensity of the privations and sufferings endured by these poor slaves can only be fully known to HIM who is omniscient, and "whose ear is open to their cry;" yet enough is known of their sorrow and degradation to excite the tenderest compassion for them, and the most earnest prayers and efforts for their deliverance.

In this brief statement of human wrong, one melancholy fact should not be forgotten. Nearly one half of the millions of the human race now held in slavery, are women; and on them it falls with dreadful severity. Within the grasp of their brutal masters, neither the innocence of youth, nor the virtue of womanhood is respected. No law protects them from the deep pollution to which, in most cases, they are subjected.

The great extent and multiplied horrors of the African slave trade have engaged too much of public attention to require more than a mere reference. At the least computation, from 80,000 to 100,000 men, women, and children are torn from Africa annually, to meet the demands of the slave-markets in the Spanish colonies and Brazil. Yet these form scarcely more than one-third of the whole number of victims of this dreadful traffic. From 150,000 to 200,000, besides those led into hopeless captivity, are estimated to perish in the wars engendered by it in the interior of Africa, in their transit to the coast, in their detention at the barracoons for sale, and in their conveyance across the Atlantic to their place of final destination and bondage.

In all countries where slavery prevails, especially in the United States, an immense internal slave-trade is carried on, under the most revolting circumstances. There, husbands and wives, parents and children, are publicly exposed to auction, handled and examined like cattle, and sold and separated without compunction or remorse; and in some States, they are reported to be raised like brute beasts for the markets.

Our friends are aware, that during the past year an act of the British legislature was passed, which allows of the introduction of slave-grown sugars into the home market for consumption. The tendency of this measure is to extend and strengthen the system of slavery, and to give a dreadful stimulus to the slave-trade, by affording increased profits to the inhuman traffickers in their fellow-men, as well as to those who build up their fortunes on the uncompensated toil of the slave. Under these circumstances, it is for philanthropy, influenced by a deep sense of moral obligation, to counteract the effects of a commercial intercourse which invades human liberty, retards civilization, and destroys the life and the happiness of men.

This consideration induces us to direct your serious attention to the fourth rule of the Society, where, among the means referred to for promoting the abolition of slavery is the following, viz. :—"To RECOMMEND THE USE OF FREE-GROWN PRODUCE (AS FAR AS PRACTICABLE), IN PREFERENCE TO SLAVE-GROWN." This is a practical measure which all can adopt; it would be an efficient one were all who love the freedom of the human race, to follow it. Under any circumstances, as auxiliary to other measures, it could not fail to force the conviction on the minds of slaveholders, that we would not voluntarily be partakers of their crimes. In asking you to adopt this recommendation in your daily practice, permit us to suggest it as a matter of consideration, whether those who needlessly purchase slave-produce are less accessory to the crime of the slaveholder, than is the purchaser of stolen goods, to the robbery by which they are obtained? Slave-holding involves in itself nearly every crime by which the physical and moral nature of man is wronged and outraged. The slave is robbed of his person and the fair reward of his toil;—he is, in a multitude of instances, deprived of all means of mental and moral improvement; and doomed, after a life of suffering, frequently to a premature death. It must be obvious to all reflecting minds, that it is the demand which exists for slave produce, which is the chief support of slavery. It is this which keeps open the slave-markets. May it not, therefore, he said, that to the commission of a great amount of crime; and the infliction of unparalleled sufferings on a large portion of mankind, do the consumers of slave produce, however unintentionally, furnish the motive?

The articles produced by slave labour, in common use in this country, are principally cotton, rice, coffee, and tobacco, to which sugar has recently been added. With the exception of cotton and tobacco, a supply of these articles, the produce of free labour, can be readily obtained. So far as we are individually concerned, we can lessen the demand for slave produce by steadfastly and conscientiously refusing, where we have the power, its consumption. To carry this determination into effect, may involve acts of self-denial, and the substitution, for a season at least, of other fabrics for those of cotton; but the conviction that by so doing, you lessen the toil of the slave; and withhold a great incentive to the slave-trade, will prove an abundant compensation for any sacrifice that may be made. It may also deserve remark, that in proportion as you limit the demand for slave produce, you increase it for free, and thus give a stimulus to human industry and commerce in the right direction. There is reason to hope that the experiments which are now being prosecuted in British India, and other parts of the empire, to increase the quantity and improve the quality of cotton will succeed, and that the difficulties which at present exist in manufacturing cotton goods wholly from the produce of free labour, will be removed.

It is an important and encouraging circumstance, that in the United States a society has been established for the especial purpose of promoting the use of free-labour produce only. As a personal and standing testimony against slavery, it is already producing excellent moral effects. We rejoice greatly in this fact, and would encourage our friends in that country, both in this, and all other legitimate efforts, on behalf of the slave.

To the female heads of families we would especially and earnestly appeal on this important subject, under the well-grounded persuasion, that their judgments and feelings will alike combine to lead them to the adoption of the course suggested in this address. They will not, we are convinced, turn a deaf ear to the cries of Africa, ravished of her children; or consent, by their practice, to add a pang to the sorrows of the slave in the land of his captivity and exile.

In conclusion, we would observe, that it is far from our intention, by pressing on your consideration the disuse of slave produce, to induce a suspension or relaxation of other efforts for the abolition of slavery. It is to be regarded simply as one among the various means which may be used to awaken the conscience of individuals and the justice of legislators, and thus to promote the extinction of one of the greatest crimes by which humanity is afflicted, and Heaven defied.

Dear Friends

John & Maria Candler

Many times have I thought of writing to you, and as often has the thought passed away without any thing further. I should be sorry to be unmindful of you and your kindness — the latter has been frequently mentioned by my still afflicted R.A. whose state you will like to hear of. You may recollect that it is now fully months, since she left York, during which time we think we cannot report much improvement. It is very evident at times that her complaints are deeply seated, and that they cause her much suffering, which consequently is trying to her friends. Whenever we can divert her mind, from her own ruminations, it has a temporary and salutary effect. Our Dear Grandson has been with us some months, and being very active, as well as mentally forward, he has very much plague with his Grandma, whom he is almost continually calling into his service — very often to run to him for and she gives him ready compliance. The weather has been so long unfavorable that there has been but little getting out of doors; little for my Self and less for myself from having a sore on my foot.

A friend or friends dropping in upon us, tho' but for a short time is relieving to us all. My Sister living so near to us, my poor afflicted one is frequently induced to go there. She often speaks of the kindness of all at York to her which is pleasant.

She is now gone to my Sisters with her little boy - Please remember me kindly to Dr. Thurnam & Maria Wilton.

My mother wishes me to write to thee as agent for the Retreat at York to know what course it is necessary to take in order to get a person admitted who has for many years been maintained by the Monthly Meeting. — The individual ~~in~~ referred to is a Jane Batchelor sister to Ebenezer Sharp's wife. She is rather to be considered as imbecile mind than strictly insane. She was for many years under the care of the late

Catherine Chantler of Charlwood who managed her petty mill by having acquired a kind of moral influence over her. - I may here observe my mother had her placed with the old couple at Ifield Mutiny Spence who cannot manage her so well and of late she has become increasingly troublesome and the old people wish to be relieved from this office as they are too old & feeble to do for her. They have been paid 8/- per week for her but it is not likely we can find any one suitable to take her without a considerable advance on that sum. Indeed we shall find it difficult to find suitable private quarters for her at any price and Friends are quainted with the case are of opinion that it would be much best to get her into the Retreat if it can be managed and that as soon as possible. I dare say you think such a course proper and what steps it is necessary to take to bring it about.

My wife is now writing to Hannah Sharp on the subject and as the case will most probably be brought before the next Mutiny which occurs next week there seems no time like the last in making the necessary enquiry.

Perhaps thou will kindly think it over and let me know thy opinion and if thou approves of the suggestion please to furnish us with the necessary forms to be filled up &c.

I am very respectfully thy Friend

Seeing that no improvement takes Place, I have been advised to make a change, and have resolved to send my dear Daughter with Asylum and Dumfries, you will not be more surprised at this than I regret having to take him from you and the other Friends at York where he enjoyed health not soon to get. I write this in much haste as time for this Morning's Post, but shall have to write you again on the subject. I shall know any request you will have the goodness to try as early as possible (say by return of Post if you can do so) if he could be ready by Friday or Saturday, and whether it would be necessary that I should come down, with any other information which may be most useful. Waiting your Answer, I remain.

Dear Friend J Handler

I have been long hoping the renewed necessity for applying for an asylum, such as the excellent one thou art kindly superintending affords, might be avoided, but lately my son Joseph has become so much more unsettled as in the opinion of his friends makes it needful to endeavor to get him from his nearest connections, and under more regular care than can be suitably obtained in any other than such a place as the Retreat.

It is as thou mayst readily believe under very trying feelings that I am led to this conclusion, and I may say that although no outrageous conduct has been evinced still the often repeated strong expressions and conduct towards all his near connections, in degree apportioned to the kind interest and intreaty they show to him, have been of late considerably increased. The doctor who formerly attended him is quite prepared to sign a certificate of his unsoundness of mind. Will thou be so kind as inform me if there be room in your Institution. I do apprehend J. will not be troblesome inmate for you: and canst thou or Dr Thurnam suggest what may be the better mode of getting poor dear Joseph to York as I fear he will be very reluctant & obstinate about coming to you for a residence, have you any one at liberty to fetch or entice him to travel so far: I know he has an idea of changing his residence very shortly but seems determined not to take any advice on this point or indeed of any kind from us which makes it so very difficult to manage for him in any way.

Thy early reply with all necessary particulars will much oblige

Esteemed Friend,

I am interested in the case of a young lady in very limited circumstances not a member of our Society, & having any connection with it, & whose friends are obliged to place her under medical care, on account of the state of her mind - I believe she has been incapable of taking care of herself for two or three years, but I do not know to what extent she is insane.

I believe her friends are now paying $100 a year for her at some institution, which is a very large sum under the circumstances of the family - My object in writing is to know whether she could be received at the Retreat at a lower charge than the one therein mentioned - She has been at present - and of course would require the sort of accommodation which she has been accustomed.

I beg to enclose to yaw a letter of introduction from our mutual friend Mr. Longdon –

My object to see yaur justly celebrited Establishment, the Retreat, is not one of mere curiosity, I have an eligible object in view & that is to obtain every possible information on its Inmates, arrangements &c– of I to the particular interest in the subject, & as I expect to have the care of such Patients I am particularly desirous of every opportunity that may lead to any information on the subject I have been a long time resident at Gräfenberg & think that a judicious hydropathic aliments would be of important advantage to patients of that class —

Should the information I am

In your last Communication you inform me of the Box having been forwarded by Messrs Pickford & Co. I ought to have acknowledged it's safe arrival, but Business having interposed, have no apology for deferring it to the present Time. You mention having heard from D.r Browne and were kind enough to express a wish to know how Sarah had performed the Journey. D.r Dumpries, I went from D.r Brown immediately on her arrival say on the Day following her leaving York - (Wednesday) that she had arrived safe that Morning - and had travelled the Distance very well and with little or no Trouble & the Attendance - I have since heard from him in acknowledgment of a Remittance and in reply to my Letter to that Time (his Letter bears date Saturday the 15th Inst.) she was Tranquil, industrious and Tractable - I must sincerely hope to hear that she continues in this (what the D.r calls) unusually Stable and that she may improve. I cannot expect after what I have seen to hear of entire Recovery - though such things have been and may be again in other Cases - but my Fears are lessened and may be again in her Case - but my Fears are lessened and my Hopes & Fancy naturally [illegible] able Change takes Place - you shall not fail to hear from me

I knew it would give her good and kind Friends

My dear Mr Candler

In my late correspondence with Mr Candler respecting my poor dear Sarah's departure from York, I omitted to say anything regarding her present Wardrobe. Mrs Holt begs to join me in kind Respects to you and to request you will examine the Goods to see what may think will be necessary or which you may deem necessary for her, and pack them in the Small tin Box, perhaps Mr Candler would have the Goodness to put a Direction upon the Box and send it by Pickford & Co to me, writing me at the same time, and saying how my poor Child left you, this is another heavy Trial for her Parents I can assure you I feel it very severely, as well as Mrs Holt who has with much difficulty been kept away from York ever since the Kindly removed to you and if ever you pass through Rochdale shall be exceedingly happy to see you or Mr Candler and one Night you will not pass through or come near Rochdale without giving us a Call Will you have the Goodness to take an Inventory of the Clothes with her & Dimples and see our poor Child well covered with warm Clothes for the Journey giving the Nurse particular charge to take special care and keep him warm and comfortable, I hope he will be kind and attentive - I have no doubt you will agree with me as to Ammonia &c - and that Dr Brown will have made a good choice - I shall remain in my dear

Esteemed Friend,
John Candler,

I received thine in due course & in reply to thine will tell thee candidly how I am circumstanced in trade from the unprecedented dry weather which has been so bad, that for the last 3 months we have found it impossible to get money from our customers, & those who used to pay their Bills at 2 months, now ask 3 months & where as in some instances we have very seldom had more than 1 month, that was the reason why I delayed writing to you, in fact quite expecting to have sent a Remittance ere this — I am much obliged to the respecty. meeting & the Committee what I shall do through them by this post — as Lancy & Children to maintain & educate with other expenses it does make it as the observe press very heavy upon me — Now I may say I can do this & in all probability it will be sooner but not later than I mention — I will settle 2 Quarters by the beginny of next month & in the 4th Month & I by the end of the 5th & — & I trust the Committee will be satisfied by my only owing 1 Quarter at Xmas next as it will be heavy work to pay all up & a month in advance by that time; but I shall trust here from thence, & of this is not satisfactory, I must try to settle it sooner. — The scarcity of money is so great that Bankers will not renew some of them discount bills; it is what we never did since we have been business but if the money is required sooner than I mention we must get them so — I am sorry to hear Elyza is but poddly at times, the weather lately has been very disagreeable & very trying for persons affected with pulmonary complaints — My dear Children are all now well — With kind Regards to Thy Wife & Family — I am Thy sincere Friend P.S. Upon second consideration Henry Taylor I shall not write to the Committee tile I hear from Thee

My dear Sir

I take pen in hand on behalf of my brother George I Phillips Board also have been encouraged by several of their relations and friends to make application for the Office at the Retreat likely soon to be vacant I cannot say they had not occurred to me and indeed I believe it has to some others, but we had been ready to fear George's deafness might be deemed an impediment, and were it to fill exactly they part it might perhaps be so. but from what I said above at our house of residence at accounts. being the principal qualification required. we have thought perhaps the deafness might not stand so much in his way. I believe there are several prepared to come forward and testify to his capability in that respect - he is considered we understand by those capable of forming a judgment, a good accomptant. writing a clear neat hand, and very correct and particular in his Books &c - It is needless an occupation of which he is fond. and would like to engage in — he has one of those long Indian Rubber tubes in the use of which he is become very perfect. and can hold a conversation without any difficulty even in an under tone —

With regard to Louisa Phillis his wife. you know her qualifications. she is industrious energetic and a good manager. and I know enough of her to believe her capable of superintending the domestic arrangements, particularly when freed from anxiety respecting their own pecuniary difficulties. and all her energies can be directed to the duties of her station —

Both Ann and myself have thought much of it since it has been suggested to us — and the more we think of it, the more we incline to believe they may fill the Office with satisfaction to the committee and benefit to themselves —

They feel rather diffident of inviting themselves and therefore have requested me to apply to the committee for them that they — after which they will perhaps communicate with them — and if I can do any thing further by way of information or reference — I shall feel much pleasure in doing it

With respect to the two friends Brother & Sister we were speaking of when you were in town I did mention it to Mrs. when ~~in town~~ the last time. but first all they seem to feel quite settled & and not at inclined to make any change — like Aunt Marsh they seem filling a useful sphere where they are, must persevere in the same. and I believe in their place = I should have written before to have said so much. but the death of our dear Aunt Marsh of which no doubt ere this hast no doubt heard, has so much occupied my attention particularly in the writing way. there having been a deal to do as there usually is on such occasions and their asking me to assist them a little, that it prevented me, and I had no doubt thou would'st conclude from not hearing they had declined —

Our dear Aunt quietly and peacefully passed away about 8 o'clock on 2nd day evening the 22nd of last month so peacefully indeed that those who stood round her bed scarcely knew when she drew her last breath — we all feel that on her account there is no cause to mourn, but rather to rejoice that she has changed a state of considerable trial and suffering for such it has been the last few acts from extreme weakness & debility. per one we doubt not of eternal rest and peace The funeral took place here at Stade Mountain on 2nd day last at 4 o'clock — a quiet solemn time our friends John & Joseph Sewell gave us their company on the occasion very ac-ceptably — my sister Ann unites in love to thy self and Marcia — and hoping if it be right, these applicants may obtain the Selection

I remain thy affectionate Samuel Aller

One thing I omitted

My sister herewith encloses a letter to our dear mother, her not taking any notice of our communications feels trying to us, and has discouraged us from being quite as prompt in writing as heretofore; but we cannot be satisfied longer to omit what we hope may afford some degree of pleasure. Comparing the accounts we hear with the state of our mother prevents us from thinking there is any considerable improvement,

My Dear Cousin
Maria Candler

Hearing my Sister Shillito was much depressed in mind, which affected her bodily health, I went to see her yesterday. I will not attempt to convey an idea of the conflict the emotions - bourd up till the present with the prospect of her Beloved Son's restoration, it seems as if her debilitated frame, would scarcely sustain the shock - yet it is a source of satisfaction she should be placed under your judicious care. I did not consult her as to this step, but retiring last Evg deeply sympathizing with these dear afflicted Relatives, I believed thou wouldst excuse me for troubling thee, I am not unmindful of thy numerous engagements, but if thou wouldst oblige us or them with a line, just to say if he is more calm, seems reconciled to the change, and your view of his situation - it would be felt particularly kind, and for which we should feel much obliged.

Uncle Reed's family are about as usual Cousin Elizabeth meets of an Invalid — Have you heard of the death of Dorcas Coventry, she was at Meeting and walk'd in her Garden a few days before the solemn event. She was about 78 died last 4th day —— My dear aged Mother who is entrusted to our care is very feeble and forgetful. — Much of trial continues our lot amongst other sources, our Eldest Son is in America, another a fine young Man about 18 on his passage thither, with some probability of his going to Calcutta, he left us a week since hoping Thyself and Husband are well, I will not longer intrude on thy time than with a feeling of love to subscribe myself your friend

I almost fear being troublesome with my communications but am most satisfied to submit the enclosed, rather more minute account than I have yet sent my dear mother, hoping it may relieve her mind. Upon some things she appears to have been dwelling upon. The circumstance of breaking up her establishment having occurred since her absence. To which though she had recently brought her mind it had taken a long time we cannot be surprised that her naturally anxious mind should be picturing rather gloomy circumstances attending it. Thy cousins visit has been a satisfac

I was sorry in the hurry of sending you Joseph off a few omissions in the necessary document were made, & hope the revised one will be sufficient many more circumstances could be related but the medical ones are fully satisfied that from their own observations & the accts they have heard from others the Retreat is much the best & safest place for him.

Please with my love to J Cantlin tell him I will pay the £22.6.6 — to Hoo the Bankers tomorrow. —

I forwarded thy certificate of Westchester Stone to Thos. Ormsbee & Lyman Lee, and it is returned to me with a memo that it will not pass the Accountant General's office; they say "affidavit of donation deed is required, sworn before a Master Extraordinary" I am sorry to give additional trouble but I cannot avoid it. I presume that in case of a Friend an affirmation will be accepted but this must be made before a similar authority and the reason for the absence of an oath stated — perhaps you have other Chancery cases under your care which may serve as a guide

This is to state that I purpose setting off with my wife Elizabeth Hodgkinson - on 4th day morning by the York train - and should arrive at York at 20m. past 11 A.M. -

Her health is as good as is usual with her - - and she has performed her household work, and appears to grow in stoutness of body - - - -

I am sorry to find you have not room in the department I desired for my son in law, but I think it is of small importance to him in his present state, for he has in the last two weeks become so unmanageable, that it is now needful to seclude him from the family he is with, and he sits in his bedroom – sometimes in quietness sometimes very talkative & now and then, when his attendant has without any lucid interval – If you can place him, elsewhere than the Lodge, temporarily, I should be glad to avail of it, and I leave it to thee to inform me on what day you can send a person to accompany him down from London, which had better be on or after next 4th day – I have engaged a Brother in law of his to go with them; and I should propose their travelling by the night Mail to York which leaves Euston Station at 9 o'clk P.M. – Your attendant might be waiting at the Victoria Hotel near the Station, and I would take care his patient was there in has gone in with his meals, he has been violent in trying to get out – so that it is quite evident that he cannot remain, safely, where he is – I did not hear of this till within a few days, & on going to see him I was so much alarmed at his altered condition that I requested an attendant from the Asylum at Highbeech to be procured immediately, to take care of him, & then wrote to thee – Under his circumstances I think he might be, and ought to be removed as soon as possible, for tho' I have some hope that he will regain his better state, under right management; he will not while he remains where he is. – Up to the end of last year his amendment had gone on satisfactorily, even so much that it was thought he was scarcely an object of care – but a bodily illness from Cold, like Influenza, set up some of his old symptoms – silence, loss of memory, & a degree of imbecility, followed by delusions and excitement – until his present unhappy state – He was, two days since, a confirmed Lunatic.

We have paid into the Bank at this place in thy name to be received at the York City & County Bank the sum of £9. 11. 7. We felt Dr Thurnam's report of our dear parent rather discouraging than otherwise. He says there has of late been little appearance of further improvement in the health and no better report of the state of the poor mind,

I think thou will so far enter into a daughters feelings as to excuse the expression of a desire to hear a little more particularly of thee or Dr. I would tenderly favour us, and of your view of the case, there need be no reserve as we are fully prepared to believe that so far as human probability goes, this trying dispensation may terminate only with the life of our dear sufferer which if such should be the case I hope we shall gratefully appreciate the privilege of the alliance thou afforded us by her being placed as She is. If Thyself or any other friend able to give me information should be at the Yearly Meeting, I should be glad of that opportunity of a little personal communication Will thou inform me if such is likely to be the case. My dear Sir,

Since Posting my letter to you to-day, I find that there may be a delay in the arrival of the Patient ~~Saturday~~ or Monday, owing ~~to the~~ Partners of her Husband who is a medical man, having been unexpectedly called to Scotland ~~to attend~~ a dying Brother - He may return this week, but until he does it will be impracticable for M^r Macmeikan to leave home; I therefore wish to know if a few days grace could be afforded in case of delay, as the Certificates were signed last Monday, & I perceive it is your regulation that the Patients should be received within 7 Days of the date thereof -

If this can be accomplished we should feel greatly obliged, as it is very important that the Husband should be the person to commit his poor Wife to your care, for she has quite set her mind upon it -

But, if it is actually impossible to depart from your regulations in this instance, then, however trying, some friend will have to be appointed to take his place; therefore I shall be glad to have a line by return of Post -

Mr. Candler,

Sir,

Having a Friend whose Wife gives evidence of unsoundness of mind & who is medically advised to place her in some establishment, & wishing to ascertain the mode of treatment at the Retreat, I enquired of my dear & valued Friend Mr. Robt. Howard of Tottenham, who supplied me with your last report, & kindly referred me to yourself as the medium through which I could obtain any other information which might be required -

From the high recommendation he has had of this establishment & from the perusal of the report, my Friend is perfectly satisfied as regards the mode of treatment; but, as the individual is one who belongs to the established Church of England, he is anxious to know what religious privileges would be afforded in this respect, as much of the unsoundness of mind is upon certain religious scruples, & it appears therefore most important in all intercourse with her, as well as in forms of worship, to avoid anything that would cause perplexity in the mind, but lead to that which refers simply to the fundamental points of the Xtian religion as regards the safety of the soul -

In the next place, are those ~~Patients~~ Patients in this establishment who do not belong to the Society of Friends kept distinct, as regards intercourse? for it appears that the sudden transition from ordinary society would be likely to disturb an over scrupulous mind; for instance the phraseology of the Friends &c., & the difference in measure of accomplishments &c. - He wishes particularly to know whether ~~the~~ such Patients are allowed the free use of a Piano, fancy needle work &c. to which the individual has been so much accustomed in the sphere of society in which she has moved; also whether there is that accommodation in the way of comforts &c. usually ~~attendant~~ upon those in the better days of life -

Begging an answer, at your earliest con-venience, stating the Terms &c. of the establishment,

I remain,

Sir,

Your Obedient & Humble Servant,

Capel B. Berger.

Dear Sir

I send you a Draft on London for £14. 13. 9 to y^e^ Rev^d^ Mary Bennell. The small sum overpaid in last y^r^, I intended to go to the funds of the Institution, having obtained, (as I think I mentioned to you) the consent of the Relations to apply the whole of Mrs B's income to her maintenance at York.[x] But as you have carried it to our Cr as it is, be it so, the sum I now remit is more than I have in hand by a trifle. If the disbursements on my a/c^t^ are yet short be quiet & they will make me right again.

Please acknowledge by

It is consoling to find that you are able to report some degree of improvement in the state of health of my dear F. Do you consider that the present state of her suffering warrants the conclusion that this may be the case, & that it affords ground to hope that recovery may ultimately be effected? May I again ask the favor of a more

Dear Friend,

I have thought that in your present residence at York you may frequently be applied to by parties, who wish to place a relative in a private family where the comforts and health would be strictly attended to, without the unpleasant feeling consequent to a Lunatick Asylum. You are perhaps aware

I should select a residence away from the bustle of the Town, as I am aware it is more pleasant to have such persons where the house is detached; please to give our kind Regards to your wife who I hope is well & should either of you have it in your power to recommend me I shall feel truly obliged

I Recd Your Letter this morning, and likewise the Attorney with the Petition and intend returning it in a few days. He says that if Dymond is entitled to the money absolutely (which He do's) it should be paid into Court, and not as You mentioned, in Your former Letter; that, the Principle would remain in the Hands of the Trustees, and that the Petition was to obtain an order from the Lord Chancellor to enable them to defray the debts, and pay the dividends out of the remaining Property to the institution. It appears from the Petition that there is 78. 15. 10 in the York Savings Bank which I suppose are the Dividends out of the profits but it does not state up to what time, neither am I in possession of what Interest the property brings in Yearly, but as it is paid into the York Savings Bank perhaps you could inform me who pays it in and what it amounts too, which would greatly oblige Yours respectfully you will be kind enough

John Yeamish & Alcon Ja 1st 1847

I feel some difficulty at Earlham was of so different a character.

But I have no hesitation in recommending her as a believe, to do her duty faithfully.

I know nothing to the contrary of her being economical, and parted with her, on the grounds of her services being no longer needed here - But I should be very glad to hear of her having a good situation, and should quite hope she might prove as well qualified to fill the one now vacant at one likely to apply for it.

Her age is I think about 42 -

When poor Robert Stanilan was taken to the Retreat he was accompanied by Christopher Cheatle who appeared to manage his charge very nicely, and as he does not get on in his present occupation, so as to obtain a livelihood, it has occurred to some of his friends here, that it might be worth while to enquire, if you could find him employment at the Retreat He is a stout man and I believe is of a kind disposition, and I think would probably be much more useful in such an occupation than either in trade or in his present employment with the temp rance Provident Institution — but he does not know of my writing and therefore I should be obliged by any communication in reply being addressed to me.
With kind regard I am Thy sincere friend suitable attention to him— My own feelings were held in check, by what I understood from thee, was the Doctor's practice, viz. to write to the Friends of patients once in 3 months, & I feard to give unusual trouble— Thou mayst give as much of this explanation for me as the case may seem to require.——

In the retrospect of my short visit, I find comfort in having witnessed that no care on your part has been withheld, and in the belief that your poor Patient's life has been made as comfortable to himself, as it could be, or more so, probably, than it would have been in any other situation. When the melancholy information of my Son in law's departure, has to be communicated to his Family, may I ask the favour of thy dropping two or three lines to my dear Daughter Ellen Shillito, at No. 7 Clifton Terrace, Brighton, by the earliest post after the event; & at the same time, a Letter to myself, and two Lines to my Son William Allcard, Warrington— The same should be sent to his parents at Tottenham; but if I am am imposing an unreasonable Task upon thee, be free, & leave it to me. I propose it, only, that the earliest information may be given to those interested, that if the time of interment should, unavoidably, be an early day after the death, none may be prevented attending it, by the late notice - A day might be lost, if left to me to communicate with Brighton & Warrington - We do not receive our morning letters in this Village till past 11 o'clk. a.m. & thine direct to Brighton would arrive there about 12 o'clk. In asking this correspondence from thee, I by no means desire to preclude the friendly attention of Dr. Thurnam, & hurt his feelings thereby; thou will therefore permit him to take as much of this on himself, as he may be willing to undertake - My Daughter Sarah sent the Dr's Letter to me to Tottenham, first, after reading it - She tells me, that in it, was a remark implying somewhat of indifference on the part of poor Wilkin's Friends in not enquiring about him - This on my part arose from hearing firstly Dr's Letter to his Fr'd C. Warner, & then to thy Kindness in writing, which possibly the Doctor did not know of, & lastly thy communication at the Yearly Meeting - We were not conscious of having omitted any

Between Rugby & London I was alarmed but the paroxism went off & we got to the place of Rendezvous - Green Dragon Bishopsgate where Edwd joined us. His taciturnity & dejection are painful. I fear he can not be trusted without some one as a companion - we shall see what two quiet days at Fallow will do, but if he becomes very unquiet then I shall think it should be needful for him to have an attendant for a few weeks might we apply to you for a steady person who can sleep in his dressing Room. I now inclose a Check £6-11-10 in discharge of Thomas B Lakey's Quarterly account at the Retreat, due in 4th mo. last.
I was not aware 'till this afternoon that it was undischarged, as I had handed the acct to duly to J. B. — the delay has occurred (if my information be correct) through inadvertance of the Attorney employed to assist in the execution of Richd Blakey's Will; the transactions of which are now pretty near wound up, leaving a considerable residium; Thos. Blakey's share of which may probably amount to most of £100- to be invested with his Legacy of £350, that I hope it may yield as much as will defray his cost at the Retreat, if it be found necessary that he should remain there. — I am with Love

I have been applied to today onbehalf of a woman Friend of this meeting under the following circumstances - She has been seriously unwell of abilious attack which is now followed by an attack of insanity rendering her at times violent and difficult to manage - her bodily health does not permit her being removed but stile she requires the care of some person of experience until she is sufficiently recovered in body to bear the journey - I am therefore requested to enquire if you could at once send a female attendant to take charge of her now in her own house with a view of taking her to the Retreat as soon as she is able to travel (probably in a week or ten days) - And I am instructed further to enquire whether you have room in the superior apartments of the Retreat for such a patient —

If the first regard can be complied with speedily it will be esteemed a favour the attendant should be despatched at once by Railway — to come to my house No 5 Edge Lane Liverpool — Upton House my house is called for distinction —

The medical attendant will advise removal as soon as she can travel & will sign the Certificates — — The Directors of the Retreat have I understand agreed to the money directed to be expended in the purchase of an Annuity being paid to them, to provide the needful care maintenance & clothing of Mr Blakey whilst an inmate of the Retreat; and also to pay to Mr Rich^d Blakey's Executors, as Mr T. My Dear Sir

Will you please to place the enclosed Dft. of £5.0.0 to the credit of my Son Josh's account. Hope he continues in a favourable state: my love to him.

Whenever D. Thurnam thinks it will do for him to come home or to go with me to the Sea side for 2, or 3 weeks I shall be quite ready to receive him or to go with him: — I hope D. J. & all your own family are well as we all are. I beg my kind remembrance & remain my Dear Sir

Dear Friend

I have considered the question of the proposed annuity on the life of Thomas Blakey. I understand his age to be 56 last Birthday and assuming this to be correct the amount of annuity which £453.18.0 would purchase in the F.P.S. would be £34.18.8 if payable ½ yearly or £35.7.10 if payable yearly. —

The mode of securing the annuity which I should suggest would be a simple agreement between the Directors of the Retreat & the Exors of Rd Blakey whereby the Directors would agree to pay the annuity during T. Blakey's life in case of his removal from the Retreat but that so long as he remains an inmate the Annuity should be retained by the Institution and appropriated for his maintenance clothing &c. — This would only require a 2/6 Stamp on each part and in conjunction with the 6 Rule Chapter I would I think be considered satisfactory security by the Executors. — An annuity Bond would require a Stamp of £2.0.0 - and in legal strictness it ought to be inrolled in Chancery - but neither of these I should imagine would be thought necessary in this case

I enclose a Check for ninety pounds being the Legacy of the late J. Willis to the Retreat after deduction of the Legacy Duty.

I also enclose a Legacy Receipt which I trust will have thy due attention. With respect to the word "Trustees or Managers" as expressed in the clause of which I enclose a copy, no difficulty need be made. Thou canst sign the Receipt as "Treasurer", and if thou like, add the word, "and Trustee", for I presume thou art a registered Trustee in some, if not all, the Deeds of the Institution. I do not wish any additional Signature.

Illness in our family, Ozenia, my own — which prevented my attendance of the Yearly Meeting (thou but recently allowed the resumption of my ordinary avocations —) has prevented my uniting with my friend Jos. Bowden in the Statistics we were to have prepared for the meeting of the Educational Society. They may possibly be ready, but the early period this Year of that Meeting may not admit of their being presented. Should this be the case, I would prefer completing them rather than to lay them aside, as considerable labour has been bestowed by our friend James Bowden. We had attended to the Business before the End of last Year, since which time I have not had opportunity of joining him.

Hoping that thy family enjoy better health than I have had of late the pleasure of knowing — I remain with Love

Your Letter addressed to my late Father (who died on the 22d Nov. 1843) respecting Dinah Peacock, has been put into my hands. He, Mr. Wm Manly (of Devonshire House) & John Swinburn were the attornies for receipt of the Dividends which have been paid to the Retreat for the support of Dinah Peacock. & during my Father's illness I wrote to Mr Manly to receive & pay the dividends in future which I presume he did. I have some idea that I have heard of his death. If he is dead, Mr Swinburn (whose address was "the Commercial Road near the West India Docks, Middx. Corn Dealer") will be the proper person to pay the dividends in future.

I think the day fixed for the interment is considerate for all interested; but I am afraid, lest this warm weather, should create an inconvenience; & to obviate it, I suggest to thee whether instructions had not better be given to lay the body in Lead, for which I give thee full authority if time admit of thy attending to it, & if not, that thou will order the needful.— I hope the post mortem examination of the Brain &c will have been remembered — on which points he is almost monomaniacal, & invincibly self-willed, — & he is generally beyond control by his relatives. His Emaciation is extreme, & his weakness great; & owing to the difficulty of managing him as to diet & regimen, I do think his case of sufficient urgency for present admission.

His mental powers seem clear, on all points save his own health, food & medicine.

In the way of accommodation his requirements would be moderate.

Though I have given thee these few particulars, I have also filled up the certificate — as now returned: & I shall be obliged by ~~that~~ stating in reply whether it be not needful that two Med. men should see him separately on the same day, & certify as to his state, giving reasons for their opinion.

I fear I have been tedious in my answers — pray say so, if it be the case, — as a guide for the future.

His Brother Henry Ellis, who is a commercial traveller, will have to be responsible for him: & A.E. will thank thee to lose no time in the case, & at once to send an attendant for him, when his admission is allowed. A. E. could not undertake to bring him himself. No doubt his circumstances, & the patient's, will favorably influence the Com.ee on the score of charges.

The patient in question Jno. Ellis, is a young man, a member of our Society, of the middle class. His ailment has been coming on during the last 12 or 18 mo.s, & has shown itself most decidedly in a refusal to take food at times, or to adopt medical measures, take medicines,

Esteemed Friend:

In answer to thine of yesterday I may state it as my opinion & that of T. Clark (a brother practitioner) that the state of Jno Allis's bodily health is not such as to prevent his recovery. Under judicious care & control we believe he would do well. If therefore

Rev.d Friend John Thurnham

Since this Morng I had a Letter from Wm Wilson informing me that my Son Thomas has been so much excited lately as to be unfit to be any longer at large: — that he has been taken to the Retreat by some kind Person near York — He is now again one of the regular Patients — this is quite the best way, — as he has been considerably more unsettled for some months back than he was at one time. — Wm Wilson informs me that it was necessary for me to say on what terms he is to be again entered; — to this I may observe — that I was from Home when he was first obliged to be sent to the Retreat, & on my hastening to York (Stopped with our Kind Friend Sam.l Tuke) I was informed that his Case could be particularly considered, & the result mentd to me — I think it was the next Day; — but it so happened — that to this Moment I never knew what class he was in, nor do I recollect having any Paper in my Hands stating the Sum to be paid by each Class, so that I do not know the terms; — the Report (in a Pamphlet) sent to me last Year does not mention the terms — on otherways I have overlooked it. —— I shall therefore be obliged by thy kind attention in sending me a Jun Rate stating the terms for each of the Three (or whatever the number is) Classes; & I can then send a Reply by return of Post: — premising in the mean time — that it probably must be one of the Low ones, as in case of my decease my Son's accommodation will have to be governed by the sum any which I have already settled to pay several Years since — Perhaps then with Jay — he may at any rate be on similar terms to what I have pd. — Concludes — in reply to such a remark, should it be made, I may observe, that can not be done in case of my decease; — nor probably even if I live, — as the revulsion of the last few Months has materially impoverished my Income, without any present prospect of amendment —

Hoping for thy early reply — I am — Thy affte Friend

Having been recently informed by a friend that a short time since the Retreat Committee came upon the look out for a suitable person to fill the Situation of House Steward in that Institution — I thought I would drop thee a line to enquire if the situation is still vacant & also what would be the nature of the duties required &c &c — —

Thomas Blakey's ~~Policy~~ Annuity

Since thy father was here two or 3 letters have passed between ~~I the~~ Mr Topham & myself on this subject - He appears to have been under some difficulty about carrying out the directions of R.ᵈ Blakey's will which points to the F. P. I. as the office in which the annuity was to be purchased and he wished to be informed what was the practice of the office in granting annuity Policies & by whom the Policies are signed &c: - This information I have furnished him with and yesterday he sent me back the Drafts of agreements stating that he is quite satisfied with the plan proposed but that in order that it may assimilate as nearly as may be with the F. P. I. he thinks it is desirable the Agreement should be signed by 3 Directors of the Retreat i.e. 2 besides the Treasurer - To this I apprehend there can be no objection and I have therefore had the Agreements engrossed leaving blanks for the names of 2 other Directors which thou will please to fill in & get the Agreements signed & return them to me when I will forward them for signature of the other parties. - The annuity is calculated for 5 7 last Birth day according to the instructions in thy letter of the 2 inst: - Please to say now the money should be paid. -

Dear Sir,

The time appointed for the return of Thomas Wilson to your Establishment is fast approaching, but as he conceives the most insuperable objection to being again placed in the Retreat, his Sister has urgently requested me to ascertain, whether in case she should conclude to board him with some Friends family, she could do so without infringing the Rules of your Institution? — For my part I cannot perceive much change in his case either for better or for worse and I have abstained from giving Deborah any positive Opinion as regards any future arrangement she may make - It is somewhat singular that his intellect is always the clearest after going to bed - infact - ~~when~~ he frequently, after laying down appears to be as rational as he ever was; but in the morning he again betrays that peculiar restless disposition which characterizes his case -

Perhaps you will have the kindness to write soon, either to D. Wilcox or myself stating your opinion on the subjects I have alluded to, and whether if she had ever so decided an objection to her brother's return to York, she would suffer the Convents to place him in private lodgings? -

Circumstances not subject to my control & contrary to my wishes occasion me to defer coming to York till quite the beginning of next month, beyond which time it is my full intention not to defer it. The Medical Man whom we have consulted on the subject of my former letter, has, we suppose written to Dr. Thurnam in reference to the case of Mary Haycock, one of the Friends for whom application was made to be received into the Retreat

Her case is at present one, which would be very likely to be much benefitted by the kind treatment she would experience in this excellent Institution.

Mary Haycock is a person who, for many years respectably filled the situation of a domestic servant in friends families, but has lately been engaged in business which there is every reason to suppose has in great measure occasion'd the aberration of mind under which she is now labouring.

— Her's a case which, we think will be much benefitted by early care, we hope you will be able to receive her very soon, I remain

I am as thou Monday at suppose of thereby sorry that we have occasion again to avail ourselves of the benefit of your Institution on behalf of our dear Ann which I believe will be necessary — we feel obliged to thee for thy kind reply to a letter my daughter Caroline wrote to thee a little time ago on this subject, & as there is a probability of Caroline going into your neighbourhood in the course of ten days or a fortnight, it would be a good opportunity for C to take the charge of her down to York; Dear Ann expresses a wish that if she should go, she hopes that she would be accomodated ~~in with~~ the same Gallery in which she was before as a resident — could this be accomplished? I think that she would be more reconciled to go, if this arrangement could be made it would be a great comfort to her & also to us; an answer at thy earliest convenience will oblige thy affd friend

Sir. I have according to your request inspected the Verandah at the Retreat, and consider it quite practicable to cover it to satisfaction, with the Best Bangor Duchess Slates — the Pitch of the Roof is flatt but to content with that we shall give the Slates — Extra Lap — should you consider to take it I would suggest — that the Laths — which are laid on the Top of the Boarding be removed — but let the Boarding remain — and at each joint where the circular part of the Roof unites with the straight — we insert a — small lead Gutter — The expense of Slating including Laths &c will be — Seven pounds — Seven shillings & sixpence I could do it with the smaller sized Slates — for considerably less — but could not with any degree of confidence recommend them wearing in this Climate —

I enclose you a letter from Mrs Carroll for my sister Mrs Grier. There is nothing in it but an acct of how we got on after we left York. It tells about news here. If you think it right not to give it to her when you receive it you could keep it till you think it prudent to give it or you could return it if you think it better not give it at all. Mrs Carroll says in it she would be pleased to hear from her when she has leisure to write, if you see no objection perhaps it would do away with the feeling she expressed to me of being forgotten by her friends. My dear Sir.

I am sure that you will kindly bear with me for troubling you on a matter in which I am deeply interested. I have another Brother in Law who is now bordering upon derangement, & for whom I am seeking some place of retreat & sanatory treatment. he is a Clergy: man about 56 years old, was originally an Officer in the Navy, but has been in the Ministry about 25 years. he had 10 children by my sister, 9 of whom survive. she died some years since. he is a man of reserved & gloomy constitution of mind. his father & 2 sisters died deranged. he has had a struggle with great difficulties in bringing up so large a family upon an income, which does not reach £300 per ann. he has been a conscientious painstaking clergyman, of Evangelical sentiments. her mind is now entirely unequal for her duties, & distressed a multitude of anxious trifles. I took him yesterday to Harley Hospital in hopes that as he had formerly been in the Naval service, he might be admissible, but though Dr Anderson & Sir Edward Parry, the Governor, have used their influence with Sir Wm Burnett, his case is considered as one which does not fall within the scope of that Institution. Dr Anderson considers his case a very decided one. Under these circumstances my mind has turned to the Retreat at York where I have witnessed the excellent effects of your management, & have proved your kindness. will you inform me whether he can be admitted to the Retreat, & if so, upon what terms.

My poor sister Mrs Schlesinger is, I fear, in a very precarious state of health, & I believe that it is ascertained that her lungs are decidedly affected. I beg leave to be most kindly remembered to Mrs Candler & remain, my dear Sir,

Most truly yours

Dear Friend

I am desired by Friends of this place to apply to the managers of the Retreat on behalf of a Poor Friend of this Station, and supported by it, ~~in consequence of her present~~ ~~state of mind~~: her name is Hannah Moore aged between 50 & 60. She has long been in a restless state & by her desire removed to Camden in Gloucestershire to live with a Friend. She name of John Ellis. By letters received from him we find that after a sudden attack which appeared to endanger her life she became ungovernable & it was found necessary to restrain her by force under the direction & advice of a Medical man. Under these circumstances it appears absolutely necessary that she should be placed in an asylum to be under proper care. We therefore naturally look to the Retreat & I trust there will be no obstacle to her being received there & we shall be obliged by being furnished with the needful documents to be filled up & for instructions how to proceed in the case. Seventh day night

Repton Oct 27, 1847

Dear Sir,

A patient of mine the wife of a respectable Tradesman is in a state of mental derangement - I have recommended her friends to remove her to your Retreat, and will thank you to send a proper attendant a female, if you can, to [redacted] accompany her.

It is a case of Religious mis-anity, She has been in a desponding way on those subjects for some months, but never manifested decided symptoms of insanity before Friday last - She had a premature confinement in the early part of summer, which weakened her, and made her very low, but her recovery was satisfactory and she was at the Sea side and appeared to have recovered her strength, but she never got over the feeling of religious gloom. She has been subject to an eruption on her head and behind her Ears for years, ~~but~~ which discharges considerably at times; within the last few months this has disappeared, I fancy from the application of some preparation she had procured somewhere. I may mention that she had a cousin a female who was confined on account of derangement, and her attack also came on immediately after some application used to relief an habitual eruption on the hands. She has never complained of pain in her head, but she frequently complained of a sense of weight in the forehead & top of the nose. She is not very violent, and has occasional lucid intervals. I shall be obliged, if you will occasionally communicate with me on her case, and remain,

Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully

Dear friend,

It is with feelings of deep regret that I am again obliged to require the services of some one from your valuable establishment to come here with as little delay as possible to take to the Retreat provided you have received my brother in law Wm. Libbey's symptoms of mental derangement have only very lately been exhibited, but as early care in such cases have proved so much more beneficial our medical adviser has advised that a post be not delayed, which has caused this hasty note—Let the party come to travelled for Saml Lake—How is my poor Sister?

Dear Sir

We do not anticipate that you will have to carry in any proof before the Master as to the amount due for your care and maintenance &c of the late Mr John Harrison - It may however be sometime before the business is settled as Mr Myles Harrison had twelve months allowed for raising the money to pay debts Legacies & costs - We think it will be well for you to send us the account so that we may know what amnts to charge on your behalf We suppose Dr Thurndn duly received the Certificates we sent to him -

Respected Friend,

I write by agreement with the agent Thos Newman on behalf of Matilda Baker the second person mentioned in his first letter but about whom no further arrangements could then be made on account of the reluctance of the relation with whom she lives to part with her this being now overcome by the evident necessity of placing her under proper care friends are anxious that if the needful arrangements could be made she might be admitted at the same time as Mary Haycock in order to lessen the travelling expences — Nothing having been said about the sum friends would be glad to be informed the lowest rate at which she could be received as her means as well as those of her friends are very limited — she is not subject to fits, neither is she in a state of health requiring any particular attention, she has been under the care of Dr Hastings who considers it highly desirable that she should be placed in an Asylum — she is in a state of considerable excitement, and continually threatens to injure herself and others, but has not attempted any act of violence.

An early reply will much oblige

Dear Friend

I am in receipt of thy favor of the 22nd Inst & gratifyingly regret there should be any difficulty in the immediate admission of Hannah Mead into the Retreat. She has no relations to whom we could look for assistance, having lost me sister not a friend & in low circumstances. The Wife of the Friend with whom this is intended is in a weak nervous state & it is quite requisite that she should be removed from thence, no private family could receive her the only alternative would be to place H. Mann in some Lunatic Asylum which we should feel much reluctance to do when there is one purposely instituted for the reception of our Members afflicted with that malady

Since my last I have rec.d the inclosed from the Medical Attendant on H. Mann from which there will be seen that it is his opinion that she should be forthwith removed. The friends therefore who have been consulted in this painful case avail themselves of the suggestion in those words of the "judgment there is a necessity of sending her" & trust that no little inconvenience will prevent her being removed to the Retreat without delay, we shall be obliged by the needful documents being sent to John Elles, Camden Gloucestshire, whom I intend informing by this post the cause of the delay & point out the way of proceeding direct to York without coming through

Stephen Brown

Thy letter this morning was indeed of a very painful nature, and I think I may say the friends with whom I have communicated as well as myself feel sympathy for thee - and we wish thee to do as thou wouldst in thy own case and I have no doubt thou will agree with us in thinking that if no improvement he should be immediately sent to the retreat at York, which thou will please undertake to do in the most economical way thou canst I write by this post to his Brother in Law at Banbury, requesting him to communicate the intelligence to the Lads father - I never heard any thing of Frederick being at all in this way before - but I believe his father was once when quite a young man

Hoping to hear from thee in a day or two I am the mean time

Thy friend Robert Sessions -

If sent to the retreat at once & being young I should hope there was a chance of his speedy improvement

Esteemed Friend
Sam'l Tuke

Our sympathy has been much excited towards our friends Stephen & Sarah Ann Brown under the trying circumstances in which they are placed by the affecting and pitiable state of their poor apprentice. We do not know if the rules of the Retreat will permit of the immediate admission of a patient, on the receipt of the medical certificates. but in the present case of such as it is admissible, there are various reasons we would respectfully submit, which would render it an act of important kind ness both to these Friends and to the poor patient. — Independant of the great importance of early suitable care, the medical attendant considers treatment needful which with a prospect of speedy removal, he cannot suitably follow out. S Brown's house is also small and so connected with the adjoining ones, that not only his own family but his neighbours are much tried with the cries & screams of the patient. And as no relative of the patient is with them, they feel a delicacy in removing him from under their roof, until they can give him up to a proper caretaker.

If on receipt of the certificates the Committee kindly grant admission — it would be a great relief to our friends could a suitable person be sent from the Retreat, London whom immediate care, and in whose charge, the Patient might be removed —

On behalf of the Overseers of Sudbury Meeting

I am respectfully

Thy friend &c.

I would feel oblig.
by information if Patients to the Retreat can be sent at any time by attending to the Queries required to be answered after being sent for filling up. The Patient for whom I am now making application is in the occupation of an Apprentice with me in the Seed Trade, known to me by the Monthly Meeting of Witney in Oxfordshire, his Father & relations being in as he is frequently striking individuals. His bodily health is good & has generally been so while with me who is about 8 years now 17 yrs of age. As it appears probable that he must be removed somewhere very shortly I would feel oblig. by an early reply, with a copy of the Queries

required to be answered.

to send him on behalf of needy circumstances

Smith The Complaint appears to be some affection of the brain wh we are trying the medical aid if the use of Medicine & bleeding &c will be of service as the Complaint appears rather of a sudden nature & the medical man is desirous of having a few days to ascertain the the probability of it's being likely to be permanent Altho he has frequently been much excited of late, we have not till first day last had suspicion of derangement of mind wh then show itself very strongly & since then violently so as to render it unsafe for him to be left night or day His mind is chiefly occupied with a Religious kind of frenzy supposing himself to be infallibly right He yesterday rose very early with the determination of going to Norwich, with the thought of calling a concourse of persons together to tell them of their ill deeds & he cannot look towards any probability of amendment from the trial wh is making by the

he submit to it & his conduct is now assuming more of a furious & furious character wh makes it painful

Respected Sir

Last Night

I have this evening received your reply to my letter respecting the admission of my apprentice into the Retreat & wish to inform thee that the two medical men who have seen him state that no time should be lost in getting him into an Asylum, as they consider the case a very severe one for so young a person

I would therefore feel obliged by thy giving it the earliest attention, & should be glad with arrangement being made for some person to be sent immediately to take charge of him to York ~~from~~

I enclose answers

Wanstead, 12th 11mo 1847.

My dear friend.

An affecting case of mental aberration has lately claimed our attention for the last two or three days, in the person of a young woman, the mother of five children, the youngest, twins of about 3 months old, who married out of our society & is living in this neighbourhood. She has not been before similarly affected that I know of, & we are not acquainted with her family. my belief is that it has been brought on, in great measure, by the pressure of outward circumstances from limited means & from the want of sufficient recreation & assistance in the bringing up of her family.

My wife's desire & my own with that of her friends is strong for her being placed at the Retreat, if she can be admitted to partake of the benefits & kind care she will there experience.
If I can have a line of information as to a vacancy, should her removal be considered needful, it will be a great relief to us. my own impression is favorable to her being restored, as I am not aware that there is in her family or in herself a temperament of mind to indue such a malady.

I am with love thy friend

On my return home yesterday after an absence of several weeks, I found thy letter with the three mo's acct. for my Daughter Mary Ann — Whereas it has been brought up hitherto, I believe invariably, to the end of 6th mo: & 12th mo: in every year; and the half yearly remittances have been made accordingly — I therefore conclude it has now been sent me in error, not having heard of any alteration in the Rules ——

We observe with concern the increased affliction & consequent illness of your dear Daughter; but it was consoling to find she was again progressing towards her usual state of health — We feel obliged by thy informing us, and hope to hear again should any decided alteration take place —

Sir,

I duly received your acknowledg for the £45, and an account of any Sister Stansfields, apprenced from the first, I am very sorry you have had so much trouble, and it might have been prevented if you had informed me, you desired a quarters board in advance again, I did not know it would be expected. as Mr Cavedler, only sent an account for three months, when I expected one for six months, in the 4th month 1846. and he expressed everything paid on her account, so I understood from that, the advance would not expect after the first year.

I inclose you, the half note of £45, and a post office order for £1-6-7, also the half notes of £25 and will send the remaining as soon as you can acknowledge them, you should have had it all remitted to-day if I could have got a post office order, in time to post it to day.

You will oblige me by

Sir

I received a second account last morning, and am glad to say I can now find out the mistake, the account for the 30th of 9 month 1846. was sent when due, and paid, acknowledged by Mr Bassett, on the 8th of the 10th month, that is the only mistake in the account, that of putting one quarter too much in the account due on the 30 of 9 month 1847. which is £46-6-7 I hope you will find this correct, the £70 and £46-6-7 is the Board, and disburse for the year, and all previous accounts are paid, but the first time we come to see my Sister we will bring the accounts with us, as it will be more satisfaction to Dr Thurnall, to see them, as well as to our family.

I inclose you a the bankers of £45 and will send you the remaining and a post office order for £1-6-7 as soon as you have acknowledged them, which will be the amount due to the 30th of 9 month 47. please to remember to send the next account when the quarter is expired,

Our united regards, to Dr Thurnall, accept the same yourself Freeman, Since I wrote to you last, it has been ascertained by reference to my late Father's Papers, that Dinah Peacock & Sarah Peacock her Sister held an annuity in the Government Life annuity Office of £10. 1.

It has therefore become necessary for me to trouble you to procure from the Minister of the Parish in which the retreat is situated, his signature to the enclosed Document headed "No 1 Certificate" - the blanks therein being previously supplied.

This no doubt the Minister can do from the information you can give him:
