

Crichton Royal Institution Case Book vol. 12 Enclosures

Publication/Creation

c.1859-c.1864

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/hbgjwfds>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org <https://wellcomecollection.org>

DGHI/5/21/1/12a

Janet Young

CR1 vol. 12 p. 126

Dr. Adam

I confess that I
came here with the
deliberate design of
doing as much mischief
to the minds or bodies
of the inmates, and have done ^{so} by crying out what was within me of wicked ness. I have hated God and good men. I never loved a human being neither Father or Mother sister or brother, husband nor children. I never loved anything but
mental infirmity.

I have been a drunkard
I wasted my husband
money, and when he
remonstrated I used
to strike him and
threaten to tell how vile he was, how under cover of marriage, he indulged in the most abominable acts, not what is right and proper in married persons, but what no one who was not lost to all sense of decency could have done. I was ~~an~~ idle and did not know, and was not willing to learn how. I should I hate both him & them

Kard I have ^{been} a reader of vile stories. In short I know that I had a vile life, have rejected the only means of salvation and in fact do not care for
any thing but drink
and to distress others with my outery. I have been perfor. Practising frauds upon you
just to get a little
wine and to stave off disconeygale the
artful & practices we have had recourse to

Now, murderers are allowed to confess
and I confess what I have done, was done
deliberately to injure
those under your charge.
I did not think you
would allowed me
to continue deceiving
you. and beg
you will take steps
if I have me removed.

J. Young

Wm. Young
Cene Book

52
24
76