Aune Watson
SCA vol. 10 P. 146

Miss Watson presents her Compliments to Dr. Butcherford, & lest she should cause him any unnecessary trouble, begs to say to say, that it was in the year 1877 - she was discharged from the Crichton Institution, and that it was in 1867 - she was admitted the last time she entered it as a patient - However, it may save trouble also, to state, that the first 3 years of her stay, she was a private patient in the Southern Counties Asylum, only the latter 7 years were spent in the Crichton Institution, properly speaking - However it will

Greatly oblige Miss Watson if Dr. Matherford would (in addition to her request of this morning) kindly observe upon what-charge or particular phase of illness - she was originally admitted -
- that is to say the full ten years ago upon first-entrance to the S. C. A. - as private patient. -
