Excerpt from the Rules of the Crichton Royal Institution.
Regarding Southern Counties Asylum Boards.

The Board must be paid to the Treasurer, in advance, Quarterly, on 1st February, 1st May, 1st August, and 1st November.

Upon the admission of a patient the full board for the quarter then current must be paid to the Treasurer, no part of which board will be returned. In the event of the patient remaining till the commencement of the next quarter, the full board then due in advance for such next quarter will be reduced by the unexpended amount paid for the quarter of entry.

In the event of a patient's recovery, or discharge with the sanction of the Medical Superintendent, during any subsequent quarter, unexpended board, if any, will be remitted from the date of discharge, if applied for within three months thereafter.

In the event of a patient's death the same rule will apply, subject to the deduction of a fortnight's board.

In the event of a patient's removal without the sanction of the Medical Superintendent, repayments will only be made at the option of the Directors.

The rates of Board include all charges for each class except clothes, stationery, and such other extras as may be agreed upon by special arrangement.

Interest at the rate of per cent is chargeable on all Quarterly Accounts unsettled within 14 days after the above terms.

Triple board will be charged for Patients not removed from the Asylum at the date fixed by the Medical Superintendent for their discharge.

James Barront Treasurer.

Excerpt from the Rules of the Crichton Royal Institution
Regarding Southern Counties Asylum Boards.

The Board must be paid to the Treasurer in advance, Quarterly, on 1st February, 1st May, 1st August and 1st November.

Upon the admission of a patient, the full board for the quarter then current must be paid to the Treasurer, no part of which board will be returned. In the event of the patient remaining till the commencement of the next quarter, the full board then due in advance for such next quarter will be reduced by the unexpended amount paid for the quarter of entry.

In the event of a patient's recovery, or discharge with the sanction of the Medical Superintendent, during any subsequent quarter, unexpended board, if any, will be remitted from the date of discharge, if applied for within three months thereafter.

In the event of a patient's death, the same rule will apply, subject to the deduction of a fortnight's board.

In the event of a patient's removal without the sanction of the Medical Superintendent, repayments will only be made at the option of the Directors.

The rates of Board include all charges for each class except Clothes, Stationery, and such other extras as may be agreed upon by special arrangement.

Triple board will be charged for patients not removed from the Asylum at the date fixed by the Medical Superintendent for their discharge.
