CRICHTON ROYAL INSTITUTION.

P. C. A.
Obligants' Book

(1884 to 1888)

(Supplementary)

CRICHTON ROYAL INSTITUTION, DUMFRIES.

Rates of Board for Persons belonging to Dumfries and Galloway.

I. ORDINARY GALLERIES—For persons in humble circumstances and those chargeable to parishes (inclusive of clothing),	... £25 0 0
II. SPECIAL GALLERIES—Second Class,	... 32 0 0
III. SPECIAL GALLERIES—First Class,	... 40 0 0
IV. Higher Rates,	... £70, £80, £100, £150 and upwards, according to accommodation and requirements.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

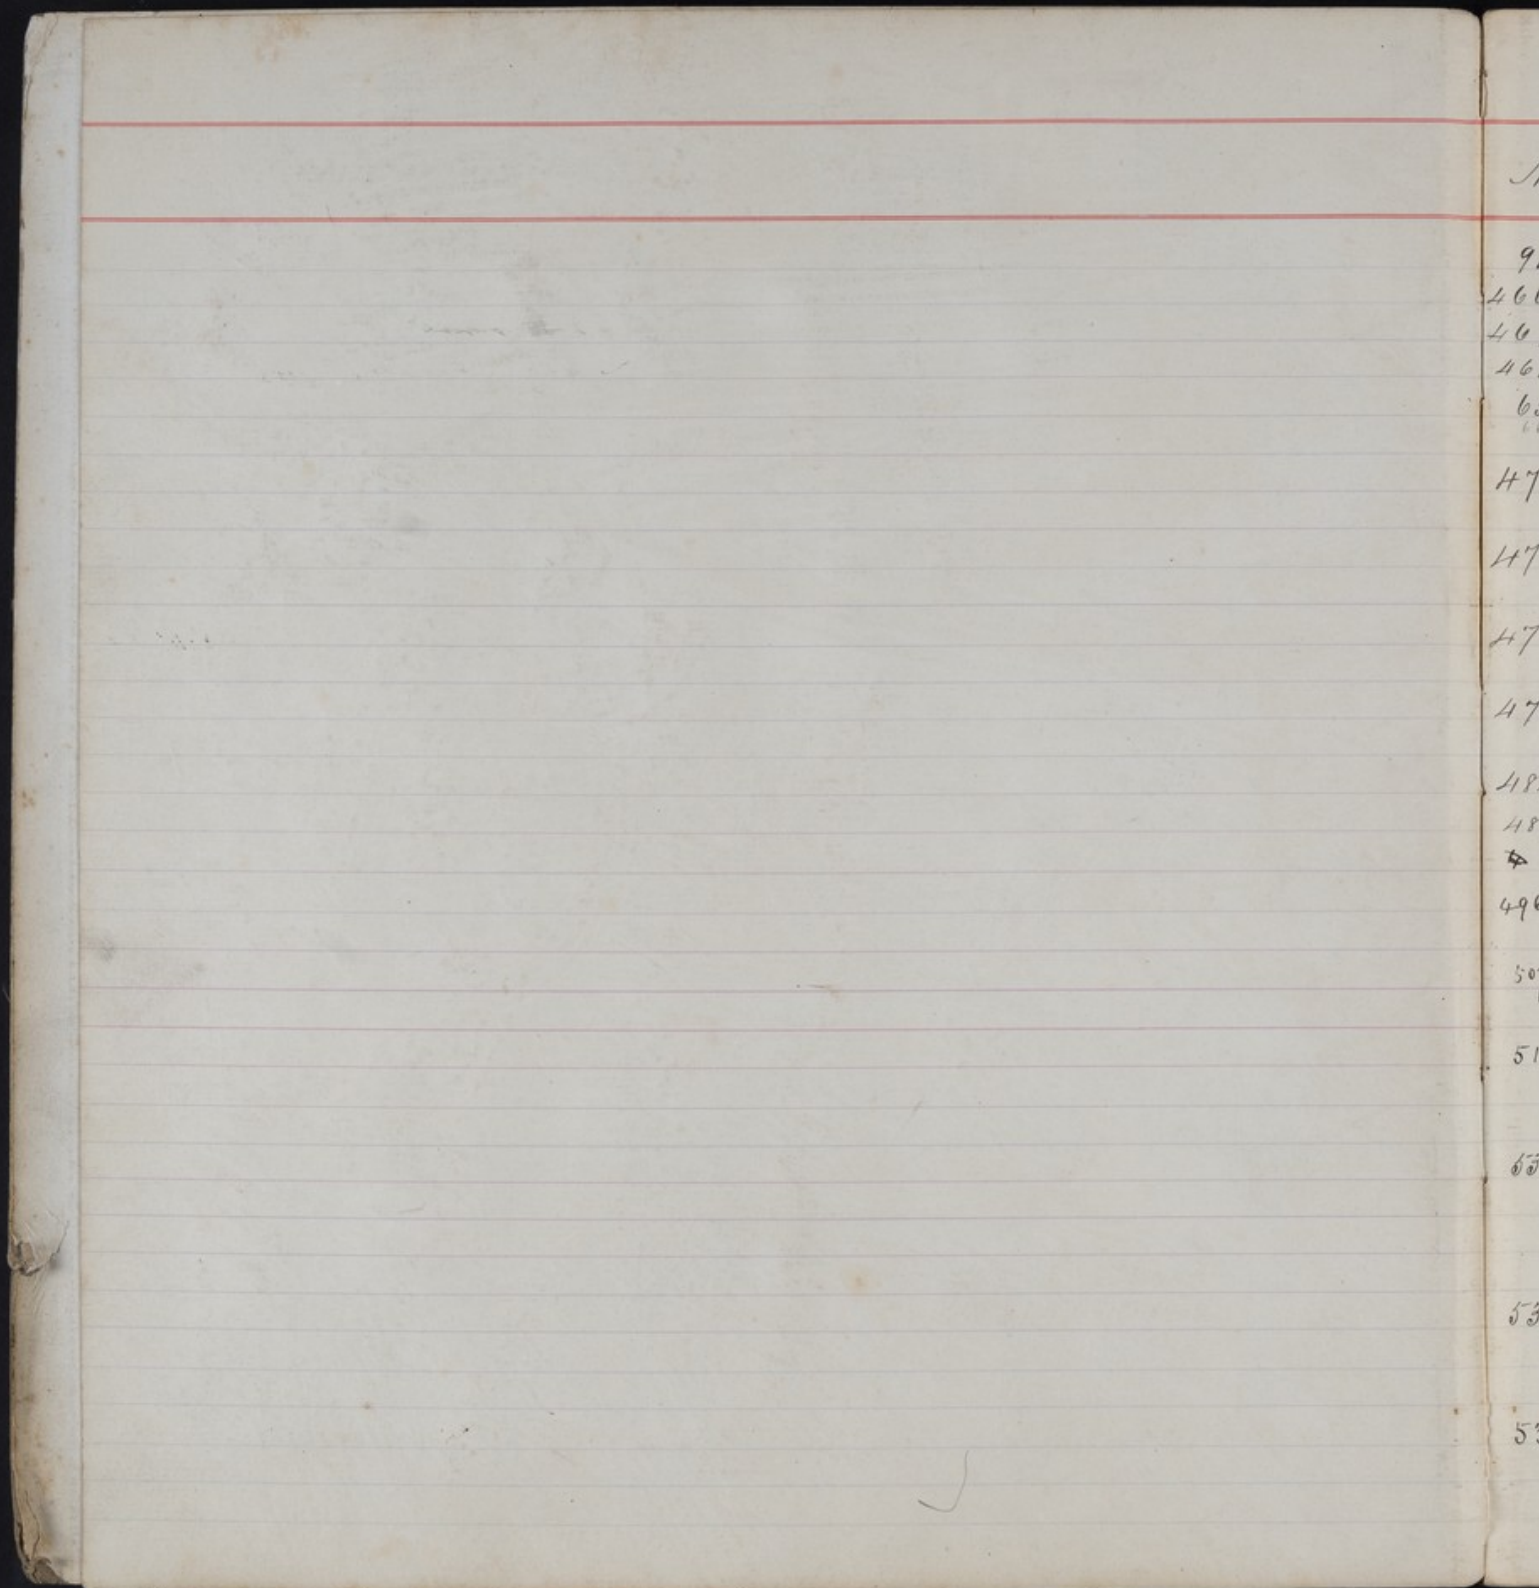

- I. Before a patient can be admitted, it is necessary that, in addition to the Sheriff's order and statement for the Physician, an obligation for the payment of Board be given by a responsible person approved of by the Trustees and Directors.
- II. The Board is payable quarterly in advance, to the Treasurer, JOHN SYMONS, Esq., Writer, Dumfries; and if it is not paid within fourteen days after notice is given, sixpence in the pound will be added to the amount of Board due.
- III. No part of the first quarter's Board can be returned. In subsequent quarters unexpended Board will be remitted from the date of discharge, if applied for within three months thereafter. In the event of death the same rule will apply, subject to the deduction of two weeks' board.
- IV. Patients, excepting those of class I., are required to provide and maintain a sufficient supply of clothing.
- V. All clothing and other articles belonging to patients who have died, or who have been removed, must be claimed within three months, otherwise the Institution will not be responsible.
- VI. Letters regarding Admission, Removal, or Health of patients should be addressed to Dr. RUTHERFORD, Medical Superintendent, Crichton Royal Institution, Dumfries.

CRICHTON ROYAL INSTITUTION,
DUMFRIES, 1st November, 1884.
