Friar's Carse.

March 10th

1859

Dear Sir
I hope that Mr Adams has informed you that Mr Douglas will be some a Director in our an Interist in its publish Institutions - we must regret Mr May's leaving us - but I respect, and Honor any man who acts boldly in defence of the religion he professes.

Mr Douglas is living at present at Glen-Stuart so that he can easily attend any meeting at the Lyfham
- I hope Mr Gladstone is quite well - I beg my kind regards to her - and believe me Dear Sir very sincerely yours

J. (Richardson)
