PREFACE.

THE grammatical compendium of which this is a translation is current among the pandits of the North-west provinces, and of most of the other provinces of India. The translation is one of a series of attempts to encourage and facilitate the interchange of ideas between the pandits and the senior English students of the Government Colleges. How different the arrangement of a Sauskrit treatise on Grammar is from that of an English treatise on the subject, may be inferred from the facts stated in the subjoined extract from the preface to the Hindí version of the same compendium.

The groundwork of the grammatical literature of the Sanskrit is comprised in Pánini's eight Lectures, entitled "The Ashtádh-yáyí." Each of the lectures is divided into four sections, and each section into a number of sútras, or succinct aphorisms. On these Mr. Colebrooke remarks:—"The studied brevity of the Pániníya "sútras renders them in the highest degree obscure; even with "the knowledge of the key to their interpretation, the student "finds them ambiguous. In the application of them when under-"stood, he discovers many seeming contradictions; and with every "exertion of practised memory, he must experience the utmost "difficulty in combining rules dispersed in apparent confusion "through different portions of Pánini's eight Lectures."

The same accomplished scholar adds:—The outline of Pánini's "arrangement is simple; but numerous exceptions, and frequent "disgressions, have involved it in much seeming confusion. The "first two lectures (the first section especially, which is in a "manner the key of the whole Grammar) contain definitions; in "the three next are collected affixes, by which verbs and nouns "are inflected. Those which appertain to verbs occupy the "third lecture:—the fourth and fifth contain such as are affixed "to nouns. The remaining three lectures treat of the changes "which roots and affixes undergo in special cases, or by general "rules of orthography, and which are all effected by the addition, "or by the substitution, of one or more elements. The apparent "simplicity of the design vanishes in the perplexity of the structure. The endless pursuit of exceptions and limitations so distipoins the general precepts, that the reader cannot keep in view "their intended connexion, and mutual relation. He wanders in "an intricate maze, and the clew of the labyrinth is continually "slipping from his hands."

Such a work as that above described being obviously unsuited for a beginner, a different arrangement of Pánini's sútras was attempted by several grammarians, "for the sake of bringing into one view the rules which must be remembered in the inflections of one word, and those which must be combined even for a single variation of a single term." This arrangement, Mr. Colebrooke adds, "is certainly preferable; but the sútras of Pánini, thus "detached from their context, are wholly unintelligible; without "the commentator's exposition, they are indeed, what Sir Wil-"liam Jones has somewhere termed them, 'dark as the darkest "oracle."

Such an arrangement as that here referred to, is adopted in the Siddhánta Kaumudí of Bhaṭṭojí Díkshita and in its abridgement the Laghu Siddhánta Kaumudí of Varadarája. One of the first objects of this edition of the Grammar is to explain each term and each process, on its first occurrence, with something of that fulness of illustration, which the pandits think it better to defer imparting until a later stage in the pupil's course. According to the established system, the juvenile pupil, who has only commenced learning the language in which the Grammar is written, cannot proceed three lines in advance of the point at which his preceptor's last lecture broke off. If he can proceed half a line in advance of it, it is more than was to have been expected.

Another omission of the native Grammars is supplied to a certain extent in this edition. When a word is given as an example under a rule, perhaps six or eight rules have previously had a share in bringing the radical word into the form to which the ultimate rule applies. For instance, when we wish to determine one particular pronoun, (to quote from Mr. Wollaston's preface to his practical Grammar of the Sanskrit) "six rules are to be referred to "in forming the word, and the student must be able to remember "them all before he can do it, for there is no reference to them "whatsoever. Yet such references are much more necessary than "those that are annexed to the propositions in Euclid, because the "solution of these words is genearly more complicated than that "of the theorems."

References are supplied in this edition, not to every rule required, yet to more than the attentive student is likely to have forgotten.

PREFACE

TO THE THIRD EDITION.

The translation of the Laghu Kaumudí by the late Dr. Ballantyne, which, as Professor Max Müller observes, "has enabled even beginners to find their way through the labyrinth of native Grammar," has been for many years out of print, and is continually inquired for by those who wish to obtain a well-grounded knowledge of a language the students of which, in Europe alone, may be counted no longer by tens but by hundreds.

For the publication of this edition, such students are indebted to the enlightened liberality of H. H. the Mahárájah of Vizianagram K. C. S. I., who has already munificently encouraged Sanskrit and, English scholarship in this country by his endowments to the Queen's College at Benares and the Universities of Calcutta and Madras.

The Sanskrit text and English translation have been carefully revised and corrected by Pandit Bechan Ráma Tiwárí, Librarian of the Sanskrit College, and Bábú Mathurá Prasáda Miśra, Second Master of the English College.

Several of the corrections and alterations which appear in this edition were either made, suggested, or approved years ago by Dr. Ballantyne himself; and it is hoped that no change has been made in which he would not have thoroughly concurred.

For the greatly improved type, paper, and general appearance of the book we are indebted to the spirited publishers, Messrs. E. J. Lazarus and Co.

THESE groups of letters are the aphorisms of Maheśwara or Śiva; designed for the formation of names or pratyáháras such as an and the like, by which whole classes of letters can, severally, be designated. See No. 8.

एषामन्या इतः।

No. 2.—The final letters of these aphorisms are termed 'IT.' For example, in the aphorism a i un the letter n is called 'it.' See, further, No. 7.

चकारादिष्ठकार उच्चारणार्थः।

No. 3.—The short vowel A, in the terms HA, &c., is in order to the articulation of the letters h, &c. For instance, by ha, ya, va, ra, &c., the bare consonants h, y, v, r, &c. are intended.

जण्मध्ये त्वितसंज्ञकः।

No. 4.—Put, in the body of the sixth aphorism of No. 1, viz. LAN, it, i. e. the short vowel a, is termed 'it.' The design of this exception will appear in No. 37.

इलन्यम्।१।३।३।

उपदेशेऽन्त्यं हलित् स्यात् । उपदेश त्राद्योच्चारणम् । सूरेष्वदृष्टं पदं सूत्रान्तरादनुवर्त्तनीयं सर्वत्र ।

No. 5.—Let A CONSONANT FINAL in an upadeśa be called 'it' (No. 7,). An upadeśa is defined as signifying an 'original enunciation'—that is to say, an affix, (pratyaya, No. 139,) or an augment (ágama No. 102,) or a verbal root (dhátu, No. 49,) or, in short, any form of expression which occurs only in technical treatises on grammar, and which is not a word ready for use, but one of the supposed original elements of a word.

A word which is not seen in a sútra, but which is necessary to complete the sense, is always to be supplied from some other sútra. The reason of this is as follows. In the treatises of the Sanskrit grammarians, brevity is regarded as a primary requisite. According to the author of the Mahábháshya, or Great Commentary, 'the grammarians esteem the abbreviation of half a short vowel as equivalent to the birth of a son.' Accordingly, Pánini in his Ashtádhyáyí or 'Grammar in Eight Lectures,' avoids repeating in any sútra the words which can be supplied from a preceding one. When the original order of the sútras is abandoned, as in the present work, it becomes necessary to place before the student, in the shape of a commentary, the words which Pánini left him to gather from the context. Thus, to complete the sútra before us (viz., hal antyam), the words 'upadeśe' and 'it' are required; and these are supplied from a previous sútra, which, in the present arrangement, will be found at No. 36.

म्बदर्शनं लोपः । १ । १ । ६० । प्रसत्तस्यादर्शनं लोपसंचं स्यात् ।

No. 6.—Lopa (elision, or the substitution of a blank) signifies

DISAPPEARANCE. Let this be the term for the disappearance of anything previously apparent.

तस्य लोपः । १। ३। ८।

No. 7.—In the room OF THAT which is called 'it,' let there be A BLANK. Thus all the final consonants in the Śiva-sútras are left out of view, when these are employed to designate any class of letters; the use of the n and the rest of the fourteen being to assist in forming the brief names of these classes, as explained in the rule here following.

स्रादिरन्त्येन सहिता। १।१।७१। स्रन्त्येनेता सहित स्रादिर्मध्यगानां स्वस्य च संज्ञा स्यात्। य-याऽणिति स्र इ ठ वर्णानां संज्ञा। एवमच हिन्त्यादयः।

No. 8.—Let an initial letter, with an 'it' letter as a final, be the name of itself, and of the intervening letters. Thus, let 'an,' formed of 'a' as its initial letter, and of 'n' (No. 7.) as its final, be the name of 'a' itself and of 'i' and 'u' which intervene betwixt 'a' and 'n.' So let 'ach' be the name of 'a,' 'i,' 'u,' 'ri,' 'lri,' 'e,' 'o,' 'ai,' 'au,' that is to say, of all the vowels; let 'hal' be the name of all the consonants between 'h' inclusive in the fifth Śiva-sútra, and the 'l' which closes the list; and 'al' the name of all the letters together, both vowels and consonants; and so of other pratyáháras, or names of classes of letters.

उश्च जश्च जश्च वः वां काल इव काला यस्य साऽच् क्रमाद्-इस्वदीर्घमृतसंज्ञः स्यात् । स प्रत्येकमुदातादिभेदेन विधा ।

No. 9.—Let A VOWEL WHOSE TIME (or prosodial length) is THAT OF short U, long Ú, and prolated Ú, be called accordingly SHORT, LONG, and PROLATED. These again are severally threefold, according to the division of 'acutely accented, &c.,' here following.

उचैरदात्तः।१।२।२८।

No. 10.—A vowel uttered WITH A HIGH TONE is said to be ACUTELY ACCENTED. (The grammarians describe this accentuation as being the result of employing, in the utterance of the vowel, what they call the upper half of the organ, that is to say of the palate, lips, &c., see No. 14).

नीचैरनुदात्तः। १। २। ३०।

No. 11.—A vowel uttered WITH A LOW TONE is said to be GRAVELY ACCENTED.

समाचारः स्वरितः । १। २। ३१।

स नवविधे।ऽपि प्रत्येकमनुनासिकाननुनासिकत्वाभ्यां द्विधा।

No. 12.—When there is a combination of the acute and grave accent, the vowel has the circumplex accent. The application of the three accents to the three several prosodial lengths gives nine varieties of each vowel. This nine-fold variety is further doubled by the presence or absence of nasality, which is next to be defined.

No. 13.—Let THAT WHICH IS PRONOUNCED BY THE NOSE ALONG WITH THE MOUTH be called NASAL. Thus, of the letters a i u ri, there are severally eighteen different modifications. Of the letter lri there are only twelve, because it does not possess the long (but only the short and the prolated) prosodial time (No. 9). Of the letters e ai o au also there are only twelve modifications, because these have not the short prosodial time.

Kátyáyana remarks on this: 'The homogeneousness of ri and lri, one with another, should be stated.' This form of expression—viz., 'should be stated'—distinguishes the supplementary remarks (vártika) of Kátyáyana.

Of the nasal letters NA MA NA AND NA, the NOSE ALSO is an organ, in addition to the organ of the class in which each respectively appears above. The organ of E and AI are the THROAT and the PALATE; OF O and AU, the THROAT and the LIPS; OF VA, the TEETH and the LIPS. The organ OF JIHWÁMÚLÍYA, as visarga is called when it is written in the form of two semi-circles before ka or kha, is the ROOT OF THE TONGUE. The NOSE is the organ OF ANUSWÁRA.

No. 16.—The effort in utterance is twofold, that which takes place WITHIN the mouth, AND that which is EXTERNAL as regards the mouth, belonging to the throat. THE FORMER IS OF FIVE KINDS-ACCORDING TO THE DIVISION OF TOUCHED, SLIGHTLY TOUCHED, SLIGHTLY OPEN, OPEN and CONTRACTED. The EFFORT when the organ is TOUCHED by the tongue, BELONGS TO the five classes of consonants SPARSA; when it is SLIGHTLY TOUCHED TO the semi-vowels (called ANTASTHA, because, in the common arrangement of the alphabet, they stand between the five classes and the sibilants); when the organs of speech are SLIGHTLY OPEN, TO the sibilants and the aspirate USHMAN; when the organs are OPEN, TO the vowels SWARA. IN ACTUAL USE, the organ in the enunciation OF THE SHORT A is CONTRACTED: but it is considered to be OPEN only, as in the case of the other vowels, when the vowel A is IN THE STATE OF TAKING PART in some operation of grammar. (The reason for this is, that if the short a were held to differ from the long á in this respect, the homogeneousness mentioned in No. 14 would not be found to exist between them, and the operation of the rules depending upon that homogeneousness would be debarred. In order to restore the short a to its natural rights, thus infringed throughout the Ashtádhyáyí, Pánini with oracular brevity in his closing aphorism gives the injunction 'AA,' which is interpreted to signify "Let short a be held to have its organ of utterance contracted, now that we have reached the end of the work in which it was necessary to regard it as being otherwise."

The effort in utterance EXTERNAL as regards the mouth is OF ELEVEN KINDS—viz, EXPANSION of the throat, producing hard articulation; CONTRACTION of the throat, producing soft articulation; SIGHING; SOUNDING; LOW PREPARATORY MURMUR; ABSENCE OF SUCH MURMUR; SLIGHT ASPIRATION; STRONG ASPIRATION; and the effort of ACUTE, GRAVE, and CIRCUMFLEX accentuation. In the case of the letters in the pratyáhára KHAR (viz., the hard consonants kha pha chha tha tha cha tu tu ka pa śa sha sa,) the effort is that of VIVÁ-RA, ŚWASA, and AGHOSHA. In the case of the letters in the prutyáhára HAS, (viz., the soft consonants ha ya va ra la na ma na na na jha bha gha dha dha ja ba ga da da,) it is that of SANVÁRA, NÁDA, and GHOSHA. (We may here remark, that, as these two classes of consonants, the hard and soft are effectually discriminated by the vivára and sanvára difference, the additional distinctions of śwasa, nada, ghosha, and aghosha whatever may be their utility or import elsewhere, are of no consequence here. With reference to the low preparatory murmur and its absence, the soft and hard letters are sometimes termed 'sonants' and 'surds.' THE FIRST AND THIRD LETTER IN each of THE FIVE CLASSES, in the ordinary arrangement of the alphabet (viz., ka cha ta ta pa and ga ja da da ba), AND the letters denoted by the pratyáhára YAN (viz., the semivowels ya va ra la), are UNASPIRATED. THE SECOND AND FOURTH LETTERS OF the same CLASSES (viz., kha chha tha tha pha and gha jha dha dha bha,) AND the letters denoted by the pratyáhára SAL, (viz., the sibilants and the aspirate, sa sha sa ha,) are ASPIRATED. The letters in the ordinary arrangement of the alphabet, BEGINNING WITH KA, AND ENDING WITH MA, are the five classes of consonants SPARSA. Those denoted by the pratyáhára YAN are the semi-vowels ANTASTHA; those denoted by SAL, the sibilants and aspirate USH-MAN; those denoted by ACH are the vowels SWARA. A character LIKE THE HALF OF VISARGA, when standing BEFORE KA OF KHA, is called JIHWAMULIYA and when standing BEFORE PA or PHA is called UPADHMANÍYA (No. 15). A character, in the shape of A DOT, FOL-LOWING A VOWEL, is called ANUSWARA; and one in the shape of TWO DOTS, or small circles, VISARGA.

द्वादशानाम् । अनुनाधिकाननुनाधिकभेदेन यवला द्विधा । तेना-ननुनाधिकास्ते द्वयोद्वयोः संज्ञा ।

No. 17.—Let a letter, denoted by the pratyáhára AN, NOT propounded as AN AFFIX or operative agent, but as something to be operated upon, AND let in like manuer A LETTER FOLLOWED BY AN INDICATORY U, be the name of (and so imply) its homogeneous letters also.

Here the pratyáhára an is made by the latter n (of the sixth of the sútras of Śiva, viz. lan, and not by the n at the end of the first sútra. The pratyáhára is therefore held to denote the semi-vowels as well as the vowels.) The letters above referred to, with an indicatory u, are ku chu tu tu pu; (ku represents the guttural class, chu the palatals, tu the cerebrals, tu the dentals, and pu the labials). Hence a is the name of (and implies) its eighteen several varieties (No. 13): and so i and u. The vowel ri is the name of thirty (for it denotes its own eighteen varieties, and the twelve varieties of lri, No. 13). So lri also (for it denotes its own twelve varieties, and the eighteen modifications of ri). The diphthongs e ai o au (ech) are each the name of twelve. Through the distinction of nasal and non-nasal, ya va and la are twofold; and, by this rule, the non-nasal form of each implies both.

So much for the chapter on terms. We now come to the conjunction of vowels.

अवसन्धिः।

द्रको यणि । ६।१।७७।

इक: स्थाने यण् स्यादि संहितायां विषये । सुधी उपास्य इति स्थिते ।

No. 21.—Instead OF a letter denoted by the pratyáhára IK, let there be one denoted by the pratyáhára YAN, in each instance WHERE one denoted by the pratyáhára ACH immediately follows.

In the case, for example, of the word sudhi (meaning "the intelligent") followed by the word upisya ("to be worshipped").

It is to be observed that the foregoing aphorism consists solely of the three pratyáháras ik yan and ach, the first having the termination of the genitive or sixth case; the second, that of the nominative or first case; and the third, that of the locative or seventh case. The force of these terminations is to be ascertained from other aphorisms; because, although the author of the Kaumudí, in his vritti or expansion of the aphorism, has collected all that is required, yet the student, not content to receive anything on a lower authority than that of Pánini must be enabled to verify the interpretation offered to him. Holding, therefore, that we have merely got three pratyáháras, with different terminations, we proceed to enquire (1st) which is to give way, (2nd) which is to take its place, and (3rd) which is to be regarded as the cause of the change. For the sake of brevity we may now drop the term pratyáhára, and speak of yan, ach, &c. simply.

तिसानिति निर्दिष्टे पूर्वस्य । १ । १ । ६६ । सप्रमीनिर्देशेन विधीयमानं कार्यं वर्णान्तरेणाव्यवहितस्य पूर्वस्य बाध्यम् ।

No. 22.—When a term is exhibited in the seventh case (No. 137.) the operation directed is to be understood as affecting the state OF WHAT immediately PRECEDES that which the term denotes.

In the present instance, the term exhibited in the seventh case is ach. In the example sudhí upásya, the u of upásya is the vowel which that term denotes; and that which is to be affected is the final i (ik) of sudhi, which immediately precedes the u. By the foregoing rule, yan is to be substituted for the ik, but yan is the common name of the four letters y v r and l, and the question occurs—which of these is to be the substitute? The next rule supplies the answer.

स्थानेऽन्तरतमः । १।१।५०।

प्रसङ्गे सित सद्गतम आदेश: स्यात्। सु ध य उपास्य इति जाते।

No. 23.—When a common term is obtained as a substitute, let THE LIKEST of its significates, to that IN THE PLACE of which it comes, be the actual substitute.

Of the four letters denoted by yan, y, being a palatal, is the likest to i. Thus we have got sudhyupásya, which furnishes an occasion for another rule to come into operation.

म्राचिच। ८। ४। ४०।

ऋच: परस्य यरे। द्वे वा स्ता न त्विच ।

No. 24.—Of yar, after ach, the reduplication is optional; BUT NOT IF ACH FOLLOW.

In sudhyupásya the dha is yar (this denoting all the consonants except ha), and it follows u (ach), and it is not followed by ach, being followed by ya. Therefore, if we make the optional reduplication, we get sudhdhyupásya. This calls another rule into operation.

भाजां जश्भिशि। ८। ४। ५३। स्पष्टम् । इति धकारस्य दकारः ।

No. 25.—Instead of the letters called JHAL there shall be JAS IF JHAS FOLLOW.

Thus, instead of the first dha (jhal) of sudhdhyupásya, since dha, (jhaś) follows it, there must be jaś; that is to say, ja ba ga da or da. Of these the likest (No. 23) is da. So, we get suddhyupásya; and the process might here terminate, did not another rule start an objection.

संयोगान्तस्य लोपः । ८ । २ । २३ । संयोगान्तं यत् पदं तदन्तस्य लोपः स्यात् ।

No. 26.—Let there be Elision of the final of that pada (No. 20) which ends in a compound consonant.

In suddhyupásya the pada suddhy ends with a compound consonant; and, according to the rule, the whole pada ought to disappear. The rule, however, is limited by the qualification that follows.

त्रातीऽन्त्यस्य । १ । १ । ५२ । षष्टीनिर्दिष्टान्त्यस्यादेशः स्यात् । इति प्राप्ते ।

No. 27.—Let the substitute take the place of only THE FINAL LETTER of that which is denoted by a term exhibited in the genitive or sixth case.

An instance of elision (lopa No. 7) is regarded by the Sanskrit grammarians as the substitution of a blank. So a blank is directed to be substituted for the y, the final letter of the word suddhy, which is denoted (in No. 26) by a term, in the genitive or sixth case, viz. "of that pada which ends in a compound consonant." But here Kátyáyana interferes, and remarks as follows:—

यणः प्रतिषेधा वाच्यः । सुद्युपास्यः । मद्धरिः । धाच्नंगः । चाक्रतिः ।

No. 28.—"The PROHIBITION of the rule (No. 26) in the case OF YAN SHOULD BE STATED."

So the elision does not take place, and the formation of the word Suddhyupásya (a name of God—"He who is to be worshipped by the intelligent") is completed.

The sur

By a like process are formed the three words Maddhwari (a name of Vishnu—"the foe of the demon Madhu,") Dhátransa (a name of Brahmá—"a portion of Vishnu the cherisher") and lákriti ("the form of the letter lri") in which the other letters denoted by yan are successively exhibited. The student, after making himself familiar with the process in the instance of Suddhy-upásya, should exercise himself in applying it to these and similar instances, not referring to his book except when his memory fails him.

We now proceed to consider the changes that depend upon the diphthongs (ech).

एचेाऽयवायावः । ६ । १ । ७८

एचः क्रमादय् अव् आय् आव् एते स्युरचि ।

No. 29.—Instead of ECH, when ach follows, let there be in due order, AY AV AY AV.

The due order is ascertained by the next rule.

यथासंख्यमनुदेशः समानाम् । १ । ३ । १० । समसम्बन्धी विधिर्यथासंख्यं स्यात् । हरये । विष्णवे । नायकः पावकः ।

No. 30.—When a rule involves the case of EQUAL NUMBERS of substitutes and of things for which these are to be substituted, let their mutual correspondence (or the assignment of each to each) be according to the order of enumeration.

Thus ech denotes the four diphthongs e o ai ou, and the four substitutes enumerated in the preceding rule are distributed among them thus—ay is the substitute of e, av of o, áy of ai and áv of au. Example: hare+e=haraye "to Hari," vishno+e=vishnave, "to Vishnu," nai+aka=náyaka "a leader," pau+aka=pá-vaka, "a purifier, i. e. "Fire."

A similar change, under different circumstances, is directed by the next rule.

वान्तो यि प्रत्यये। ६।१। ७८।

यकारादे। प्रत्यये परे त्रोदौतारव् त्राव् एते। स्तः । गव्यम् । नाव्यम्।

No. 31.—There shall be substituted WHAT ENDS IN V (viz. the two substitutes av and av) for the corresponding o and au, WHEN AN AFFIX (No. 139) beginning with the letter YA FOLLOWS.

Thus go + yam = gavyam "belonging to a cow;" nau + yam = návyam "belonging to a boat."

The following vártika provides for a solitary case.

श्रध्वपरिमाणे च । गर्व्यात: ।

No. 32.—"And when the compound is employed in the sense of a measure of distance," the o of go, followed by yúti (though this is not an affix, No. 31) becomes av. Thus go + yúti = gavyúti, when it signifies "a distance of about four miles;" but the substitution does not take place when it signifies a "yoke of oxen" (goyúti).

ऋदेङ्गुणः । १ । १ । २ । । । । अत् ग्रङ च गुणसंज्ञः स्यात् ।

No. 33.—Let short A and EN (that is to say e and o) be called GUNA.

But why is the short a alone understood here in seeming contradiction to what was said in No. 17? The next rule will account for this.

तपरस्तत्कालस्य।१।१।७०।

तः परो यस्मात् स च तात्परश्चोच्चार्यमाणः समकालस्यैव संज्ञा स्यात् ।

No. 34.—Let a vowel FOLLOWED BY THE LETTER T, and a vowel following the letter t, be the name only of the letter which has the same prosodial length. (Nos. 9 and 17.)

The letter a is the representation of eighteen varieties (No. 17); but when it is followed by t, as in the preceding rule, it represents neither the long nor the prolated modifications:

त्राहुणः । ६ । १ । ८० ।

श्रवणादिचि परे पूर्वपरयारेका गुणादेश: स्यात्। उपेन्द्र:। गङ्गादकम्।

No. 35.—When ach comes AFTER A (or a), let GUNA be the single substitute for both.

Example upa+indra=upendra (a name of Krishna—"born subsequently to Indra");  $ga\acute{n}g\acute{a}+udakam=ga\acute{n}godakam$  ("the water of the Ganges").—In these examples the  $guna\ e$  is substituted for a and i, and the  $guna\ o$  for  $\acute{a}$  and u, because the organs employed in the pronunciation of e (the throat and palate) are those severally employed in the pronunciation of a and a (Nos. 16 and 23); and the organs employed in the pronunciation of a (the throat and lips) are those severally employed in the pronunciation of a and a.

उपदेशेऽजनुनासिक इत्।१।३।२।

उपदेशेऽनुनाविकोऽजित्मं चः स्यात् । प्रतिचानुनाविक्याः पाणि-नीयाः । लण्यूचस्यावर्णेन महोच्चार्यमाणा रेफा रलयाः संचा ।

No. 36.—In an upadeśa (No. 5), let a nasal vowel be called "IT" No. 7).

In Páṇini's Grammar there is no visible sign of the nasality of a vowel—hence we can know a vowel to be nasal only from Pánini's explicity asserting that it is so, or from our finding that he treats it in such a way that we must conclude he regarded it as nasal. When speaking of the Śiva-sútras, it was mentioned that the vowel in the sútra lan is called "it." According to No. 8, therefore, this vowel may be employed as the final of a pratyáhára, and the ra in the next rule (No. 27) is held to be this pratyáhára, the name common to the two letters ra and la.

उरण् रपरः । १ । १ । ५१ ।

ऋ इति विंशतः संज्ञेन्युक्तं तत्स्थाने ये।ऽण् सरपरः सन्नेव प्रवर्तते। कृष्णिधिः । तवल्कारः ।

No. 37.—An, substituted in the place of RI, which (No. 17) is the representative of thirty varieties, is always followed by the pratyáhárá RA (No. 36). Example: Krishna+riddhi=Krishnarddhi ("the growth of Krishna"), tava+lrikára=tavalkára ("thy letter lri").—The pratyáhára an denotes a, i and u. The a in the two preceding examples is the guna directed by rule No. 36. [As examples of i and u, directed by other rules, we may notice kri+ati=kirati, "he scatters," and dwaimátri+a=dwaimatura, "having both a mother and a stepmother."] The guna substitute of ri is a, because a, like ri, has only one organ of pronunciation, whereas e and o, having two each, are less like ri. (No. 16.)

लोपः शाकल्यस्य । ८ । ३ । १८ । अवर्णपूर्वयोः पदान्तयोर्घवयोवी लोपोऽणि परे ।

No. 38.—In deference to the opinion OF ŚÁKALYA, let the ELISION be optional of the letters ya and va preceded by a or a, and at the end of a pada followed by as.

Thus hare iha, by No. 39, becomes harayiha; then the ya at the end of the pada haray, being preceded by a, and followed by i (as), may be optionally elided by this rule—the optionality of which is delicately implied in the aphorism by its being rested on the authority of the ancient grammarian Śakalya, the propriety of whose injunction Pánini does not deny, although he does not admit it to be absolutely obligatory. The form of expression hara iha would then appear to furnish occasion for the operation of rule No. 35—but the rule here following debars this.

पूर्ववासिद्धम्। ८। २। १।

सपादसमाध्यायों प्रति विषाद्यसिद्धा विषाद्यामिष पूर्वे प्रति परं शास्त्रमसिद्धम् । हर इह । हरयिह । विष्णा इह । विष्णविह ।

No. 39.—As far as concerns what precedes them, the three last chapters of the Grammar of Pánini are as if the rules contained in these three chapters had never taken effect; and further, in these three chapters, a subsequent rule is as if it had not taken effect, so far as any preceding rule is concerned.

To understand this, it must be recollected that the grammar of Pánini is divided into eight Lectures (adhyáya), each Lecture into four chapters (páda), and each chapter into a number of succinct Aphorisms (sútra). When the correct formation of a word is to be ascertained by the rules of this grammar, each sútra is conceived to present itself, or to be found (prápta,) when an occasion for its operation occurs. Now in the case of hara iha (No. 38), an occasion for the operation of No. 35 occurs, because no consonant intervenes between the a and i. But the elision of the intervening consonant (y) was the effect of a rule (No. 38) which stands as the nineteenth aphorism in the third chapter of Pánini's eighth Lecture; and therefore, so far as rule No. 35 is concerned, which is the eighty-seventh aphorism of the first chapter of the sixth Lecture, the elision is as if it had never taken effect. Thus we have optionally hara iha or harayiha "to Hari here," and so also vishna iha or vishnaviha "Oh Vishnu! here."

वृह्यित्व । १।१।१।

No. 40.—Let LONG Á (No. 34), and AI and AU, be called VRID-DHI.

वृद्धिरेचि। ६।१। ८८।

श्रादेचि परे वृद्धिरेकादेशः स्यात् । गुणापवादः । कृष्णेकत्वम् गङ्गीघः । देवैश्वयम् । कृष्णोत्कगळ्यम् ।

No. 41.—When ech follows α, let vriddhi be the single substitute for both.

This is a contradiction (apaváda), of the rule No. 35, which directs guna to be substituted in such a case. This rule takes effect, to the limitation of No. 35, because the latter has still a sphere left for its operation; whereas if No. 35 were always to take effect, the operation of the present rule would always be forestalled. Such a rule as the present is tantamount to an exception to a more general rule. The Sanskrit Grammar acknowledges no irregularity, or exception to a rule—holding that a word which differs from all others of its class is "sui juris," and must have a rule of its own. (No. 32.)

Thus we have kṛishna+ekatwam=kṛishnaikatwam "oneness with Kṛishna," gaṅgá+ogha=gaṅgaugha "the torrent of the Ganges," deva+aiśwaryam=devaiśwaryam the "divinity of a God," kṛishna+autkanṭhyam=kṛishnautkanṭhyam "a longing after Kṛishna."

एत्येधत्यूट्सु । ६ । १ । ८८ ।

अवर्षादेचाद्ये।रेत्येथत्ये।हृिं च परे वृद्धिरेकादेश: स्यात्। उपैति। उपैथते । प्रष्टाहः । एचाद्योः किम् । उपेतः। मा भवान् प्रेदिधत्।

No. 42.—When the verbs eti and edhati, in those forms which begin with ech, follow a, and when the substitute úth (No. 282) follows it, let vriddhi be the single substitute of the concurring vowels.

This rule limits No. 51, which had previously limited No. 35.

Hence we have upa+eti=upaiti "he comes near," and upa+edhate=upaidhate "it increases." In the example prashthauhah (the accusative or second case plural of prashthavah "a young steer training for the plough,") the elements prashthavah and sas are (by Nos. 137, 156, 185, 282, 281, 5, and 283) brought to the form prashthavah, to which the present rule applies, the result being prashthavah.

Why do we say (of the verbs eti and edhati) "in those forms which begin with ech?" Because other parts of these verbs, not beginning with ech, are not affected by this rule. Example: wpa+ita=upeta "approached"—(No. 35); má bhaván predidhat = pra+ididhat, "Let not your honour promote."

अचादूहिन्यामुपसंख्यानम् । अचै।हिणी सेना ।

No. 43.—"IT MAY BE ADDED that the substitution of vriddhi takes place also (No. 42) and not that of guna, when úhiní follows AKSHA." Thus aksha+úhiní=akshauhiní "an army."

प्राद्वहोढोढ्येषेष्येषु । प्राहः । प्राढः । प्राढः । प्रेषः । प्रेष्यः ।

No. 44.—"And the substitution of vriddhi takes place also (No. 42) WHEN PRA is FOLLOWED BY ÚHA ÚDHA ÚDHI ESHA and ESHYA. Thus  $pra+\acute{u}ha=prauha$  "a good argument,"  $pra+\acute{u}dha=praudha$  "proud,"  $pra+\acute{u}dhi=praudhi$  "audacity," pra+esha=praisha "sending," pra+eshya=praishya "a servant."

क्ते च तृतीयासमासे। सुखेन क्तः सुखार्तः। तृतीयिति किम्। परमर्तः। No. 45.—"AND IF SHORT RI FOLLOW a IN A COMPOUND WORD the first member of WHICH HAS the sense of THE THIRD or instrumental CASE."—Example: sukha+rita=sukhárta "affected by joy." (Nos. 37 and 73.)—Why (do we say) "which has (the sense of) the third (or instrumental case)?" Because otherwise, as in the compound parama+rita=paramarta "last-gone," this rule does not apply.

प्रवत्सतरकम्बलवसनार्यदशानामृयो । प्रार्थम् । वत्सतरार्थम् । इत्यादि ।

No. 46.—"And WHEN RINA ('a debt') FOLLOWS PRA VATSATARA KAMBALA VASANA RINA and DAŚA." Thus prárna "principal debt," vatsatarárna "debt of a steer," kambalárna "debt of a blanket," vasanárna "debt of a cloth," rinárna "debt of a debt, compound interest," Daśárná "the river Dosaron or Dosarene" (No. 1341.)

उपसर्गाः कियायागे। १। १। ५८।

प्रादयः क्रियायागे उपसर्गसंज्ञाः स्यः।

No. 47.—Let pra, &c. (No. 48) WHEN PREFIXED TO A VERB be termed upasargas.

प्र। परा। अप । सम्। अनु। अव। निस्। निर्। दुस्। दुर्। वि। आङ्। नि। अधि। अपि। अति। सु। उद्। अभि। प्रति। परि। उप। यते प्रादयः।

No. 48.—By "PRA, &c." we mean THE FOLLOWING particles—pra "before," pará "opposite," apa "off," sam "with," anu
"after," ava "down," nis or nir "out," dus or dur "ill," vi
"apart," áń "as far as," ni "within," adhi "over," api "verily," ati "beyond;" su "well," ut "up," abhi "opposite," prati "back again," pari "around," upa "next to."

भूवादया धातवः । १। ३।१।

क्रियावाचिना भ्वादया घातुमं चाः स्यः।

No. 49.—Let verbal roots вни "be" vá "blow" and тне Like be called Dhátu.

उपसर्गादृति धाती । ६ । १ । ८१ । श्रवर्षान्तादुपसर्गादृकारादी धाती परे वृद्धिरेकादेशः स्यात् । प्रार्च्छति ।

No. 50.—When a dhátu (No. 49) beginning with Ri follows an upasarga (No. 47) ending in a or á let vriddhi be the single substitute for both. Thus pra+richchhati=prárchchhati "he goes on rapidly."

एङि परस्रपम् । ६ । १ । ८४ । आदुपमगादेङादी धाती परस्रपमेकादेश: स्यात्। प्रेजते। उपापति।

No. 51.—When a dhátu beginning with ex follows an upasarga ending in a or  $\acute{a}$ , let the single substitute for both be the form of the subsequent vowel. Thus pra + ejate = prejate "he trembles," upa + oshati = uposhati "he sprinkles."

अचा अचा वि । १ । १ । ६४ । अचा मध्ये योऽन्त्यः स आदियस्य ति हिसं संस्थात् ।

No. 52.—Let the final portion of a word, BEGINNING WITH THE LAST OF THE VOWELS in the word, be called TI.

शकन्थ्वादिषु परद्धपं वाच्यम् । तच्च टेः । शकन्थुः । कर्कन्थुः । मनीषा । लाङ्गलीषा । त्राकृतिगयो।ऽयम् । मार्तग्रहः ।

No. 53.—"It should be stated that the form of the subsequent vowels takes the place of both in śakandhu &c.

Thus śaka+andhu=śakandhu "a sort of potherb," karka+ andhu=karkandhu "the jujube," láńgala+ísha=láńgalísha "the handle of a plough," márta+anda=mártanda "the sun," manas+íshá=maníshá "intellect."

This is a class of compound words, the fact of a word's belonging to which is known only from its form, a posteriori, and is not discoverable by any consideration of its constituent parts a priori.

स्रोमाङोख। ६।१। ८५।

त्रोमि त्राङ् चात् परहृपमेकादेश: स्यात्। शिवायोनम:। शिवेहि।

No. 54.—And when the mystic syllable om, or the upasarga  $\acute{a}$  (No. 47.) follows a or  $\acute{a}$ , let the single substitute be the form of the subsequent.

Example:  $\dot{S}iv\dot{a}ya + om = namah \dot{S}iv\dot{a}yonnamah$  "adoration to  $\dot{S}iva!$ ";  $\dot{S}iva + \dot{a} + ihi = \dot{S}ivehi$  "oh  $\dot{S}iva$ , come." (Nos. 5, 55, and 35.)

त्रकः सवर्णे दीर्घः। ६।१।१०१।

श्रकः सवर्षेऽचि परे पूर्वपरये।दीर्घ एकादेशः स्यात् । दैत्यारिः । श्रीशः । विष्णूदयः । होतृकारः ।

No. 55.—When a homogeneous vowel follows ak, let the corresponding long vowel be the substitute for both.

Example, daitya+ari=daityári, "a foe of the demons," (a name of Vishnu), śrí+íśa=śríśa, "the lord of Śrí," Vishnu+udaya=Vishnúdaya "the rise of Vishnu," hotri+lrikára=hotrí-kára "the letter lri of the officiating priest." (No. 16.)

एकः पदान्तादित । ई । १ । १०८ ।

पदान्तादेक्काऽति परे पूर्वह्रुपमेकादेशः स्यात्। हरेऽव। विष्णाऽव।

No. 56.—AFTER EN FINAL IN A PADA (No. 20) IF SHORT A come, let the single substitute for both be the form of the precedent vowel.

Example: hare+ava=hare'va "Oh Hari!—off;" vishno+ava=vishno'va "Oh Vishnu! off—". A character termed ard-dhákára, or "half the letter a," is generally written in the place of the letter thus elided, as we write an apostrophe in some analogous cases.

सर्वच विभाषा गाः। ६।१।१२२।

लोके वेदे चैङन्तस्य गेरित वा प्रकृतिभावः पदान्ते। गा अग्रम्। गेऽग्रम्। ग्रङन्तस्य किम्। चिच्य्वग्रम्। पदान्ते किम्। गेः। No. 57.—EVERYWHERE, both in secular and sacred writing, THE ORIGINAL OF the word GO ("a cow,") being a pada ending in Ex, may be optionally retained before a.

Example:  $Go + agram = go \ agram$  or go'gram, "a multitude of cows." "Why ending in  $e\acute{n}$ ?" Because the word go, at the end of the compound word chitragu ("having a brindled cow,") where, in the neuter, it ends in u (Nos. 269 and 275), has not the option of remaining unchanged. So chitragu + agram = chitragwagram "a multitude of brindled cows," (No. 21.) Why "being a pada so ending?" Because, though it end in  $e\acute{n}$ , the rule does not apply unless the word go be a pada (No. 20), so that, in forming the ablative or fifth case, (by Nos. 137, 155, 36, 124, and 111,) we have go + ah = goh (by No. 193.)

स्रनेकाल् शित् सर्वस्य । १।१।५५। इति प्राप्ते ।

No. 58.—Let a substitute consisting of more than one letter, or containing an indicatory palatal s, take the place of the whole of the original expression.

ङिच । १ । १ । ५३ । ङिदनेकालप्यन्त्यस्येव स्यात ।

No. 59.—And let that which has an indicatory k, even though it consist of more than one letter, take the place of the final letter only of the original expression.

त्रवङ् स्फोटायनस्य । ६ । १ । १२३ ।

पदान्ते एङन्तस्य गारवङ् वाऽचि । गाऽयम् गवायम् । पदान्ते किम् । गवि ।

No. 60.—According to the opinion of SPHOTÁYANA, AVAŃ may be the substitute of go at the end of a pada ending in en if ach follow.

Thus we may have go + agram = gavágram "a multitude of cows," (Nos. 59, 5, and 55) as well as go'gram (No. 57.) Why

"at the end of a pada?" Because  $go + \hat{n}i = gavi$  "in a cow"—(Nos. 137, 155, and 29.)

इन्द्र च। ई। १। १२४।

गे।रवङ स्यादिन्द्रे । गवेन्द्र: ।

No. 61.—AND IF the word INDRA FOLLOW, let avań (No. 60) be the substitute of go. Thus go+indra=gavendra "lord of kine"—(a name of Krishna.)

दूराडूते च। ८। २। ८४। दूरात् संबोधने वाक्यस्य टेः प्रतो वा।

No. 62.—And in calling to a person From a distance, the substitution of the prolated modification (No. 9) of the ti (No. 52) is optional.

क्षुतप्रयद्धा ऋचि नित्यम् । ६ । १ । १२५ । एतेऽचि प्रकृत्या स्यः । त्रागच्छ कृष्ण ३ ऋच गैश्चरति ।

No. 63.—Let PROLATED (No. 9) AND EXCEPTED (No. 64) vowels, WHEN ACH FOLLOWS, INVARIABLY remain unaltered.

Example: ágachchha kṛishṇá atra gauścharatí (Come Kṛi-shṇa! "the cow is feeding here.")

ईदूदे दिवचनं प्रयद्यम् । १ । १ । ११ ।

ईदूदेदन्तं द्विवचनं प्रगृह्यं स्यात् । हरी एती । विष्णु इमी ।

गङ्गे अम् ।

No. 64.—Let a dual case-affix (No. 142) ending in long f, ú, or e, be pragrihya (No. 63.)

Example: harí etau "these two Haris," vishņú imau "these two Vishņus," gańge amú "those two rivers Ganges."

ऋदसा मात्। १।१।१२॥

त्रस्मात् पराघीटूती प्रगृह्यो स्तः । त्रमी ईशाः । रामकृष्णावमू त्रामाते । मात् किम् । त्रमुकेऽच । No. 65.—Let i and i coming AFTER the M OF the words ADAS (No. 386) be pragrihya (No. 63.)

Example: amí isáh "those lords," Rámakṛishṇávamú ásáte "Ráma and Kṛishṇa, those two are present."—Why do we say "after the m?" Because in the example amuke+atra=amuke'tra "those here," the e, preceded not by m but by the k of akach (No. 1321,) is not pragṛihya, which it would have been, by the influence of No. 64, which includes e as well as i and i, and from which the word "dual" is not supplied here, else this rule would be useless.

चादयोऽसच्चे।१।४।५०।

ऋद्रव्यार्थाश्चादया निपाताः स्यः।

No. 66.—Let CHA, &c. NOT SIGNIFYING SUBSTANCES (dravya,) be called nipátas.

प्राद्यः।१।४।५८।

No. 67.—And so let PRA, &c. (Nos. 48 and 66.)

निपात एकाजनाङ् । १ । १ । १४ ।

एकाऽज् निपात श्राङ्वर्जः प्रगृह्यः । इ इन्द्रः । उ उमेशः । वा-क्यस्मरणयेरिङ्कत् । त्रा एवं नु मन्यसे । त्रा एवं किल तत् । श्रन्यच ङ्ति । ईषदुष्णम् । श्रीष्णम् ।

No. 68.—Let any nipáta (No. 66.) consisting of a single vowel with the exception of the nipáta áń, be pragrihya (No. 64.)

Example: i indra "oh Indra!" u umeśa "oh lord of Umá!" The nipáta á, as an interjection either making no particular difference in the sense of the sentence or else indicating reminiscence, has no indicatory ú, and therefore is not subject to the exception enjoined above. Example, á evainu manyase "Now thou thinkest! so, not having always though so;" á evañ kila tat "Ah!—now I recollect—it is just so." Elsewhere, that is to say when it implies diminution, the á has an indicatory ú, and is the subject of the exception above enjoined. Example, án+ushnan=oshnam "a little warm." (Nos. 5 and 35.)—

च्चोत्। १। १। १५।

त्रीदन्तो निपातः प्रगृह्यः । ऋहे। ईशाः ।

No. 69.—A nipáta ending in o' is pragrihya (No. 64.) Example: aho ísáh "Ho lords!"

संबुद्धी ग्राकल्यस्येतावनार्षे। १।१।१६।

संबुद्धिनिमित्तक त्रेषाकारी वा प्रगृह्योऽवैदिक इती परे । विष्णे। इति । विष्णविति ।

No. 70.—In deference to the opinion of Śákalya let o in the vocative singular when followed by the word iti, not in the veda, be optionally pragrihya (No. 64.) So we may have either vishno iti by this rule, or vishnaviti by No. 29, or vishna iti by the further operation of the optional rule No. 38. "Oh Vishnu!" thus, &c."

मय उजा वा वा। ८। ३। ३३।

मयः परस्याञा वा वाऽचि । किम्वत्तम् । किम् उत्तम् ।

No. 71.—Instead of the affix UN, (that is to say the indeclinable affix u,) after the pratyáhára MAY, if ach follow, there is optionally v. Example, kim+u+uktam=kimvuktam "whether said," or kimu uktam (No. 68.)

द्रकोऽसवर्षे शाकल्यस्य इस्तश्च । ६ । १ । १२० । पदान्ता इको हस्वा वा स्युरसवर्षेऽचि । हस्वविधिसामर्थ्यान्न स्वरसंधि: । चक्रि अव । चक्रव । पदान्ता इति किम् । गौर्या ।

No. 72.—And, in deference to the opinion of Sákalya, when a heterogeneous vowel follows, let there be the short instead of ik at the end of a pada.

As this injunction of shortening must not be an entirely abortive rule, the vowels shall not undergo a further change (as No. 21 would otherwise cause them to do). Example, chakri+atra= chakri atra "the discus-armed Vishnu here." On the alternative of not shortening the vowel, we have chakri+atra=chakryatra (by No. 21). Why "at the end of a pada"? In the example gauri+au=gauryau "two goddesses Gauri," there is no option (No. 21) the word ending in i not being a pada. (From No. 20 we learn what constitutes a pada, but how to ascertain that a word is a pada, when the characteristic there referred to, as it sometimes happens, has no visible representative in the word itself, we must be content to learn further on. In the meantime we have to bear in mind whether any particular rule refers to a pada only, or also to other forms of speech.)

अचा रहाभ्यां दे। ८। ४। ४६।

श्रवः पराभ्यां रेफहकाराभ्यां परस्य यरे। द्वे वा स्तः । गै।य्याँ ।

No. 73.—Of yar, that is to say, of all the consonants except ha, AFTER the letters RA or HA FOLLOWING ACH, REDUPLICATION is optional. Hence we may write gauryyau or gauryau "two goddesses Gaurí."

न समासे। वाप्यश्व:।

No. 74.—The option of shortening (No. 72) does not hold in a compound word. Example,  $v\acute{a}p\acute{i}+a\acute{s}wa=v\acute{a}pya\acute{s}wa$  "a horse that can walk on water," where the application of No. 21 is imperative.

स्वति परे पदान्ता त्रकः प्राग्वद्वा । ब्रह्म स्विः । ब्रह्मिः । पदान्ताः किम् । त्रार्च्छत् ।

No. 75.—AK (that is to say, a or á in addition to the other vowels in No. 72) final in a pada may optionally take the short substitute as stated above (No. 74) WHEN short RI FOLLOWS. Example, brahmá+rishi=brahmarishi or brahmarshi "a divine saint." (Nos. 35 and 37).—Why "final in a pada? Because, to the word árchchhat "he was going," where the á is not final in a pada (being an augment derived from No. 478) the option of this rule does not extend; so we have á+richchhat=árchchhat by No. 218. We now proceed to

स्तोः खुना खुः। ८। ४। ४०।

सकारतवर्गयाः शकारचवर्गाभ्यां योगे शकारचवर्गा स्तः । रामश्रीते । रमश्चिनाति । सच्चित् । शाङ्गिञ्जय ।

No. 76.—In the room of SA and TU (that is to say, these five dentals to the da dha na, No. 17) when they come in contact WITH $A AND CHU, (that is say, these five palatals cha chha ja jha na), there are $A AND THE PALATALS." Example, rámas+sete=rámassete "Ráma sleeps," rámas+chinoti=rámaschinoti "Ráma collects," sad+chit=sachchit "pure reason," (No. 90,) sárágin+jaya=sáráginjaya, "Oh Vishnu be thou victorious."

No. 77.—This (No. 76) is not said of a dental which comes AFTER ŚA. Example, in  $vi\acute{s}+na=vi\acute{s}na$  "lustre,"  $pra\acute{s}+na=pra\acute{s}na$  "a question," no alteration takes place.

ष्ट्रना ष्टुः। ८ । ४ । ४ १ ।

स्तोः ष्टुना योगे ष्टुः । रामष्यष्टः । रामष्टीकते । पेष्टा । तट्टी-का । चक्रिएढीकसे ।

No. 78.—In the room of sa and tu (No. 76) when they come IN CONTACT WITH SHA and TU, (that is to say, the cerebrals ta tha du dha na), there are sha and tu, (that is to say, there is a cerebral substitute).—Example, rámas+shashtha=rámashshashtha "Ráma sixth," rámas+tíkate=rámashtíkate "Ráma stands," pesh+tá=peshtá "a grinder," tad+tíká=tattíká "a comment on that" (No. 90), chakrin+dhaukase=chakrindhaukase "Oh discus-armed! thou goest."

न पदान्ताहोरनाम्। ८। ४। ४२।

पदान्ताट्टवर्गात् परस्यानामः स्तोः ष्टुर्न स्यात् । षट् सन्तः । षट् ते । पदान्तात् किम् ईट्टे । टोः किम् । सर्पष्टमम् । No. 79.—After tu (No. 78) FINAL IN A PADA the change of a dental to a cerebral, EXCEPT in the case of the affix NAM, shall not take place.

Example: shad + santa = shatsanta "six good,"—(No. 90), shad + te = shatte "they six,"—Why "final in a pada?" Compare id + te = itte "he praises," where it is not so. Why only, "after tu?" Because the cerebral sha is not included. Example: sarpish + tama = sarpishtama "most excellent clarified butter."

श्रनाम्बवतिनगरीयामिति वाच्यम् । षरायाम् । षरायावितः । षरायागर्यः ।

No. 80.—"IT SHOULD BE STATED that NAVATI and NAGARÍ as well as NAM are NOT prevented by No. 29 from undergoing the cerebral change.

Example, shad+nám=shannám "of six," shad+navati= shannavati "ninety six," shad+nagaryah=shannagaryah "six cities," whose names are feminine.

ताः ष। ८। ४। ४३।

न ष्टुत्वम् । सन्बष्टः ।

No. 81.—In the room of TU (No. 76) there is not a cerebral substitute WHEN SHA FOLLOWS. Example, san + shashtha = san-shashtha "being sixth."

भानां जशाउन्ते। ८। २। ३८। पदान्ते भानां जशः स्युः । वागीशः ।

No. 82.—In the room OF JHAL, (that is to say, of any consonant except a semi-vowel or a nasal), let there be JAS, (that is to say, a soft unaspirated consonant) AT THE END of a pada,

Example:  $v\acute{a}k+i\acute{s}a=v\acute{a}gi\acute{s}a$  "the god of speech," a name of Vrihaspati.

यराऽनुनासिकेऽनुनासिको वा। ८। ४। ४५।

यरः पदान्तस्यानुनासिके परेऽनुनासिका वा स्यात् । एत-न्मरारिः । एतद्मुरारिः ।

No. 83.—In the room of YAR final in a pada, WHEN A NASAL FOLLOWS, there may be OPTIONALLY A NASAL.

Example: etad + murári = etanmurári or etadmurári "that Vishnu."

No. 84.—"When it is a pratyaya (No. 139) that follows in secular language, the preceding rule (No. 83) is absolute."

Example: tat+mátram=tanmátram "merely that," "a primary element," chit+mayam=chinmayam "formed of intellect."

तार्चि। ८। ४। ६०।

परमवर्षः । तल्लयः । विद्वालॅलिखति । नस्यानुनामिको लः ।

No. 85.—In the room of TU (No. 76) WHEN the letter LA FOL-LOWS, one homogeneous with the latter is substituted.

Example: tat + laya = tallaya "its destruction." The la substituted for na is a nasal la (No. 17). This is sometimes indicated by writing over it the mark chandra-vindu as in vidwán + likhati = vidwállikhati "the learned man writes."

उदः स्थास्तमोः पूर्वस्य। ८। ४। ६१।

उदः परयाः स्थास्तम्भाः पूर्वमवर्षः ।

No. 86.—After ud, in the room of the words sthá and stambha, the substitute is a letter belonging to the class of the prior.

Thus, suppose we have to put together  $ud+sth\acute{a}nam:$ —the aphorism, without the gloss, exhibits to us the word ud in the ablative or fifth case. We must ascertain from another rule what is the special import of the fifth case here, as we did with respect to the locative or seventh case in No. 21. The maxim of interpretation (paribháshá) here follows.

तसमादित्युत्तरस्य। १।१। ६७।

पञ्चमीनिर्देशेन क्रियमाणं कार्यं वर्णान्तरेणाव्यवहितस्य परस्य च्चेयम् ।

No. 87.—An operation caused BY the exhibition of a term in THE ablative or FIFTH CASE, shall be understood to enjoin the substitution of something in the room of THAT WHICH immediately FOLLOWS the word denoted by the term.

Therefore the substitution of the letter d enjoined by No. 86 is to be in the room of the words sthá and stambha. This again is qualified (as No. 26 by No. 27) by the following maxim.

स्रादेः परस्य । १ । १ । ५४ । परस्य यद्विहितं तत् तस्यादेर्बोध्यम् । इति सस्य यः ।

No. 88.—That which is enjoined to come in the room OF WHAT FOLLOWS is to be understood as coming in the room only OF THE FIRST letter thereof.

Therefore, in the example ud + sthánam (No. 86) a dental letter is to be substituted for the s; and the dental which, like s, has the characters of vivára and maháprána (No. 16), that is to say which is both hard and aspirated—viz. th—is the proper letter of the set. (No. 23). Thus we have ud + ththánam, which comes within the scope of the next rule.

भरो भरि सर्वेण। ८। १५।

हल: परस्य भरो वा लाप: सवर्णे भरि।

No. 89.—There is optionally elision of JHAR, preceded by a consonant, when a homogeneous JHAR FOLLOWS.

Thus we may have  $ud+th\acute{a}nam$  as well as  $ud+tht\acute{a}nam$ , to each of which the following rule applies.

खरिच। ८। ४। ५५।

No. 90.—And when khar follows, let there be char in the room of jhal. Therefore, in the example in No. 89, the soft d is changed to the hard t, and we have utthánam or utththánam "uprising;" and so (No. 86) by the same process, uttambhanam "upholding."

भाया हाऽन्यतरस्याम्। ८। ४। ६२।

भयः परस्य हस्य वा पूर्वसवर्णः । नादस्य घेषस्य संवारस्य म-हाप्राणस्य तादृशे। वर्गचतुर्थः । वाग्चरिः । वागहरिः ।

No. 91.—In the room of the letter HA, AFTER JHAY, there is OPTIONALLY a letter homogeneous with the prior.

The fourth letter of each class (that is to say, the soft aspirate) is the suitable substitute for ha (No. 16). Thus  $v\acute{a}g+hari$  may be written  $v\acute{a}gghari$  "eloquent"——"a lion in discourse."

श्रम्कोऽटि। ८। ४। ६३।

भयः परस्य शस्य छ। वाऽटि । तद् शिव इत्यव दस्य चुत्वेन जकारे कृते खिर चेति जकारस्य चकारः । तिच्छवः । तच्शिवः ।

No. 92.—In the room of the palatal sa preceded by jhay, there is optionally the letter CHHA WHEN AT FOLLOWS.

Example: tad + siva, by this rule, optionally becomes tad + chhiva, and then, by Nos. 76 and 90, tachchhiva; on the other alternative (by Nos. 76 and 90), it becomes tachsiva "that Siva."

No. 93.—It should be stated that the foregoing rule applies not merely when at follows but when am (a more comprehensive pratyáhára) follows. Thus we have tad + ślokena = tachchhlokena "by that couplet," where the ś is followed by l.

मोऽनुस्वारः । ८ । ३ । २३ । मान्तस्य पदस्यानुस्वारो हिल । हिरं वन्दे ।

No. 94.—In the room of the letter M final in a pada (or, as the gloss, trusting to No. 27, words it, "in the place of a pada which ends in m,") there is ANUSWÁRA, when a consonant follows.

Example: harim+vande=harinvande "I salute Vishnu."

नश्चापदान्तस्य भानि। ८। ३। २४।

नस्य मस्य चापदान्तस्य मल्यनुस्वारः । यशांचि । त्राक्रंस्यते ।

No. 95.—And also in the room of the letter na and ma not final in a pada, when Jhal follows, there is anuswara.

Example: yaśán+si=yaśánsi "glories;" ákram+syate= ákransyate, "he will subdue."

त्रमुखारस्य यि परसवर्णः। ८। ४। ५८।

No. 96.—In the room of anuswara, when yay follows, a letter homogeneous with the latter is substituted.

Example; śán+ta=śánta "quiet."

वा पदान्तस्य। ८। ४। ५८।

त्वङ्करोषि । त्वं करोषि ।

No. 97.—In the room of anuswara FINAL IN A PADA, the substitution (enjoined by No. 96) is OPTIONAL.

Example: twankaroshi or twan kuroshi "thou doest."

मो राजि समः को। ८। ३। २५।

क्षिबन्ते राजती परे समा मस्य म एव स्थात् । सम्राट् ।

No. 98.—Let the letter M itself be in the room of the m of the particle SAM (No. 48) WHEN the word RAJ FOLLOWS, ENDING IN the technical affix KWIP (No. 855).

Example: sam+rát=samrát "a great king."

हे मपरे वा। ८। ३। २६।

मपरे हकारे परे मस्य मा वा । किम् सलयित । कि सलयित ।

No. 99.—When the letter H Follows, being itself Followed BY M, the substitute for a preceding m is optionally m itself.

Example, kimhmalayati or, by No. 94, kin hmalayati "what does he cause to shake?"

यवलपरे यवला वा । कियँह्मः । कि ह्यः । किवँह्नलयित । कि हूलयित । किलँह्रादयित । कि ह्रादयित ।

No. 100.—"When the letter h follows, being itself follow-ED BY the letters Y, V, or L, the substitute for a preceding m is optionally Y, V, or L." (No. 30). Example, kiyhyah or, by No. 94, kinhyah "what does it matter about yesterday?" kivhwalayati or kinhwalayati "what does he cause to shake?" kilhladayati or kin hladayati "what gladdens?"

नपरे न: । ८। ३। २०। नपरे हकारे मस्य ने। वा। किन्हते। किं हुते।

No. 101.—When the letter h follows, being itself followed by the letter n, the substitute for a preceding m, is optionally n.

Example, kinhnute, or, substituting anuswára, (No. 94) kin hnute "what withholds?"

डः सि धुट्। ८। ३। २८। डात् परस्य सस्य धुड्वा।

No. 102.—Dhur is optionally the augment (ágama) of the dental s when it follows the cerebral p,—as in the example shat santah "being six." A question here arises as to where the augment is to be placed,—with reference to which we find the following direction.

म्रायन्ता टिकता। १।१। ४६।

टित्किती यस्योक्ती तस्य क्रमादादान्ती स्तः। षट् सन्तः । षट् त्सन्तः ।

No. 103.—Of whatsoever the augments enunciated are distinguished by an INDICATORY TORK, they PRECEDE OR FOLLOW it accordingly. The augment of s, enunciated in No. 102, is distinguished by an indicatory t (No. 5); the augment is therefore to precede the s. The t is elided by Nos. 5 and 7, and the vowel by Nos. 36 and 7, and, the dh being changed to t by No. 90, we got shatt-santah, or, without the augment (No. 102), shatsantah "being six."

ङ्णोः कुक् टुक् शरि। ८। ३। २८।

वा स्तः । प्राङ् षष्ठः । प्राङ्गष्ठः । सुगण् षष्ठः । सुगण्ट् षष्ठः ।

No. 104.—Of ŃA AND ŅA respectively, WHEN ŚAR FOLLOWS, there are optionally the augments KUK and ŢUK. The indicatory k shows that the augment follows the letter (No. 103). Example, práń shashṭha or práńkshashṭha "sixth anterior," sugan shashṭha or suganṭshashṭha "sixth numerator."

नश्च । ८ । ३ । ३ ० ।

नान्तात् परस्य सस्य धुड्ढा । सन् त्सः । सन् सः ।

No. 105.—And of the dental s, AFTER WHAT ENDS IN N, the augment dhu! (No. 102) is optional.

Example, san tsah or san sah "he being."

शि तुक्। ८। ३। ३१।

पदान्तस्य नस्य शे परे तुग्वा। सङ्ख्यम्:। सञ्छम्:

मञ्चगम्भः । सञ्गम्भः ।

No. 106.—Of n final in a pada there is optionally the augment TUK, WHEN the palatal Ś FOLLOWS. Example, san+t+śam-bhu=sanchchhambu (Nos. 92 and 76), which, by the optional elision of the ch (No. 89) may become sanchhambu ("the good Śambhu, or Śiva"). Sanchśambhu (No. 92). Without the augment, we have sanśambhu by No. 76.

ङमा इस्वादि ङमुण्नित्यम्। ८। ३। ३२।

ह्रस्वात् परो ये। ङम् तदन्तं यत् पदं तस्मात् परस्याचे। नित्यं ङमुट् स्यात्। प्रत्यङ्कातमा । सुगर्गणीशः । सन्नच्युतः ।

No. 107.—When a vowel comes after a pada ending in Kam preceded by a short vowel, the augment Kamut shall invariably be applied.

The name of this augment is derived from the pratyáhára ńam, so that (by No. 30) it is understood to imply the reduplication of the nasal.

Examble, pratyań+átmá=pratyańńátmá "soul evidently existent," sugan+íśa=suganníśa "the lord of an excellent class," san+achyuta=sannachyuta "existing Vishnu."

समः सुटि। ८। ३।५। समारुः सुटि।

No. 108.—In place of the particle sam, when sur follows there is ru.

For example, having got  $sam + sut + kartt\acute{a}$ , this rule, after the indicatory letters (by Nos. 36 and 7) have been elided, gives  $sar + s + kartt\acute{a}$ .

त्रवानुनासिकः पूर्वस्य तु वा। ८। ३। २। श्रवस्यानुनासिका वा।

No. 109.—But here, in the division of the grammar where ru is the subject of discussion, the nasal form is optionally the substitute of what precedes ru.

Thus, in the example under rule No. 108, the a of sar is optionally nasal, and this may be indicated by the mark chandra-vindu (No 85).

त्रमुनासिकात् परे।ऽनुस्वारः । ८। ३।४। त्रमुनासिकं विहाय रोः पूर्वस्मात् परे।ऽनुस्वारागमः ।

No. 110.—After what precedes ru, if we omit to substitute THE NASAL (of which the option is afforded by No. 109) ANUSWÁRA shall be the augment.

Thus, in the example under No. 108, if we do not substitute the nasal by No. 109, we must write anuswara as an augment

खरवसानयार्विसर्जनीयः । ८ । ३ । १५ । खर्यवसाने च पदान्तस्य रस्य विसर्गः ।

No. 111.—Instead of the letter r final in a pada, there is VI-SARGA, WHEN KHAR FOLLOWS OR when there is A PAUSE (No. 144).

So the r in the example under No. 108 is changed to silent h; thus  $sanh+s+kartt\acute{a}$ .

सम्पङ्कानां से। वक्तव्यः । सँस्कर्ता । संस्कर्ता ।

No. 112.—"Instead of SAM (No. 108) and also of the words PUM and KÁN, the substitution of s (for visarga by No. 122) SHOULD BE STATED to be invariable (to the exclusion of the optional retainment of visarga suggested by No. 123)."

Thus the example under No. 108 becomes sansskarttá (" one who completes"), the n representing either the sign of nasality (No. 109) or anuswára (No. 110).

पुमः खय्यम्परे। ८। ३। ई। अम्परे खिय पुमे। हः। पुँस्कोकिलः। पुंस्कोकिलः।

No. 113.—Instead of the word PUM, WHEN KHAY FOLLOWED BY AM FOLLOWS it, there is ru. 204 is a William Example, pum+kokila=punskokila "a male cuckoo," where the n represents either the sign of nasality (No. 109) or anuswára (No. 110). See also Nos. 111 and 112.

नम्क् त्यप्रशान्। ८। ३।७। अम्परे कवि नान्तस्य पदस्य हः।

No. 114.—Instead of N final in a pada, excepting the N in the word PRASÁN, WHEN CHHAV FOLLOWS, followed by am, there shall be ru.

For example, chakrin+tráyaswa—here n is final in a pada, and chhav (t) follows, followed by am (r); hence the n becomes r, which by No. 111, becomes visarga before a hard consonant, the preceding vowel being either nasal, according to No. 109, or followed by anuswára, according to No. 110.

खरि । चिक्रिंस्त्रायस्व । चिक्रिंस्त्रायस्व । ऋप्रशान् किम् । प्रशान् तने।ति । पदस्येति किम् । हन्ति ।

No. 115.—Instead of VISARGA, let there be the letter s, when khar (a hard consonant) follows. By this rule, in addition to No. 114, chakrin+tráyaswa becomes chakrinstráyaswa "Oh discusarmed! preserve," where the n represents either the nasal (No. 109) or anuswára (No. 110). Why did we say, in No. 114, "excepting the n in the word praśán?" Because that rule does not apply to such an instance as praśán tanoti "the quiet man spreads." And why "final in a pada?" Because it does not apply to such a case as han+ti=hanti "he kills," where han is not a pada.

No. 116.—Instead of the n of the word NRÍN, WHEN the letter P FOLLOWS, there is optionally ru.

कुघोः 💢 क 💢 पाँ च। ८। ३। ३७। कवर्ग पवर्गे च विसर्गस्य 💥 क 💢 पाँ स्तः। चाद्विसर्गः। नूँ 💢 पाहि। नूं 🖂 पाहि। नूंः पाहि। नून् पाहि।

No. 117.—And also when a consonant of the Guttural class or of the labial class follows, there are, instead of visarga, optionally Jihwámúlíya and upadhmáníya (No. 15). The optionality of visarga is implied in the word "and," (No. 111). Thus the words nrín páhi ("preserve thou men)" may be written (as exhibited above) in five ways, either simply, or with the nasal substitute (No. 109) and upadhmáníya (No. 117), or with the nasal and visarga (Nos. 109 and 111), or with the substitution of anuswára (No. 110) followed by either upadhmáníya or visarga.

द्विरुक्तस्य परमाम्रेडितं स्यात् ।

No. 118.—Of that which is twice uttered, let the latter be called a REDUPLICATION (amredita).

कानाम्बेडिते। ८। ३१२।

कान्नकारस्य रुराम्रेडिते । कास्कान् । कांस्कान् ।

No. 119.—Instead of the n of the word Kán let there be ru, when a reduplication follows.

Example,  $k\acute{a}n+k\acute{a}n=k\acute{a}nsk\acute{a}n$  "which of them?," where the n of the first syllable is either the nasal (No. 109) or  $anusw\acute{a}ra$  (No. 110). For the s, see Nos. 111 and 112.

के चाई।१।०३।

ह्रस्वस्य छे तुक्। शिवच्छाया।

No. 120.—And when the letter CHHA FOLLOWS, the augment of a short vowel is tuk. (No. 103).

Example,  $\dot{s}iva + chh\dot{a}y\dot{a} = \dot{s}ivachchh\dot{a}y\dot{a}$  "the shadow of Siva."—(No. 76).—

पदान्तादा। ई। १। ७ई।

दीर्घात् पदान्ताच्छे तुग्वा । लक्मीच्छाया । लक्मीछाया ।

No. 121.—When chha comes AFTER a long vowel Final in A PADA, the angment tuk is OPTIONAL.

Example, lakshmí+chháyá=lakshmíchchháyá or lakshmí-chháyá, "the shadow of Lakshmí."—(No. 76).—

So much for the combination of consonants. We now come to

THE CHANGES OF VISARGA.

विसर्जनीयस्य सः। ८। ३। ३४।

विष्णुस्त्राता ।

No. 122.—Instead of VISARGA, there is S, when a hard consonant follows.

Example, vishnuh+trátá=vishnustrátá "Vishnu the preserver."—

वा ग्रारि। ८। ३। ३६। ग्रारि विसर्गस्य विसर्गा वा। हरि: शेते। हरिश्शेते।

No. 123.—When śar (a sibilant) follows, visarga may op-TIONALLY be instead of visarga—or, in other words, it may remain unchanged.

Example, harih sete or harissete "Hari sleeps."—(No. 76).

ससजुषा रः। ८। २। ६६।

पदान्तस्य सस्य सज्जूषश्च मः स्यात् ।

No. 124.—Instead of s, final in a pada AND of the word sajush, let there be RU.

ऋते। रारसुतादसुते। ६।१।११३।

त्रप्रुतादतः परस्य रोहः स्यादप्रुतेऽति । शिवोऽर्च्यः ।

No. 125.—Instead of RU, coming AFTER AN UNPROLATED AT (short a), let there be U, WHEN AN UNPROLATED at also FOLLOWS.

Example,  $\dot{s}ivar + archyah = \dot{s}iva + u + archyah = \dot{s}ivo'rchyah$  "Siva to be worshipped." (Nos. 35 and 56).

इगि च। ६। १। ११४।

तथा। शिवा वन्दाः।

No. 126.—And when has (a soft consonant) follows, ru shall be changed to u, when it is preceded by short a.

Example,  $sivar + vandyah = sivo\ vandyah$ , "Siva to be worshipped."

भाभगा अधा अपूर्वस्य योऽभि । ८ । ३ । १० ।

यतत्पूर्वस्य रोर्यादेशे।ऽशि । देवा इह । देवायिह । भाम् भगाम् त्रिचाम् इति मान्ता निपाताः । तेषां रोर्यत्वे कृते ।

No. 127.—Instead of Ru, preceded by bho bhago agho a or á, y is substituted, when as follows.

Example,  $dev\acute{a}r + iha = dev\acute{a}yiha$ , or (by No. 38)  $dev\acute{a}$  iha "the deities, here,"—Bhos bhagos and aghos are interjections ending in s. When y has been substituted for their ru (derived from No. 124), it may chance to come under the operation of the rule here following.

इलि सर्वेषाम । ८। ३। २२।

भाभगात्रघात्रपूर्वस्य यस्य ले।पः स्यादुलि । भा देवाः । भगा नमस्ते । ऋषो याहि ।

No 128.—Let there be elision of the Y OF ALL these, viz. the words in which it is preceded by bho bhago agho a or á (No. 127), when a consonant follows.

Example, bho deváh "Oh deities!", bhago namaste "oh! adoration to thee!", agho yáhi "oh! come."

रोऽसुपि । ८ । २ । ६८ । श्रह्ना रेफादेशी न तु सुपि । श्रहरहः । श्रहर्गणः ।

No. 129.—R is the substitute of the word ahan, but not when a case-affix (No. 137) follows.

रो रि। ८। ३। १४। रेफस्य रेफे परे लोप:।

No. 130.—There is elision of R, WHEN R FOLLOWS.

द्रलापे पूर्वस्य दीर्घाऽणः। ६। ३। १११।

ढरेफयोर्लीपनिमित्तयोः पूर्वस्थायो दीर्घः। पुना रमते। हरी रम्यः। शम्भू राजते। ऋषः किम्। तृढः। वृढः। मनस्रय इत्यच रुत्वे कृते हिश चेत्युत्वे रे। रीति लीपे च प्राप्ने।

No. 131.—When pha or R, causing an elision, follows instead of a preceding an, there shall be its long vowel.

Example, punar+ramate=puná ramate "he again sports" (No. 130), harir+ramyah=harí ramyah "Vishnu is beautiful," sambhur+rájate=ŝambhú rájate "Śiva is resplendent."

Why "of an?" Because the rule does not include any other vowel. Example, tridh+dha=tridha "destroyed," vridh+dha=vridha "raised."

In the case of manas + ratha, the change of s to ru (No. 124) having taken place, giving manar + ratha, two conflicting rules present themselves—the one (No. 126) directing that the r shall be changed to u, the other (No. 130 that the r shall be elided. The doubt, which rule shall take effect in such a case, has given occasion for the maxim here following.

विप्रतिषेधे परं कार्यम् । १ । ४ । २ । तुल्यबलिवरोधे परं कार्यं स्यात् । इति प्राप्ने पूर्वशिद्धिमिति रो रीत्यस्यासिद्धत्वादुत्वमेव । मनारथः ।

No. 132.—When rules of equal force prohibit each other, Let the last (in the order of the Ashtádhyáyí) take effect.

According to this maxim, in the example manar + ratha (under No. 131), the elision of the r ought to take place, by rule No. 130 which occurs in the eighth Lecture. But here the maxim (No. 39) interferes, which enjoins that a rule occurring in any of the three last Chapters of the Grammar shall be either as if it did not exist, or as if it had never come into operation, so far as concerns any rule that occurs earlier; and therefore No. 126, as if No. 130 did not exist, proceeds to substitute u, and thus we have mana + u + ratha = manoratha "a wish." (No. 35).

Example, eshas + vishnuh = esha vishnuh "that Vishnu" (Nos. 338 and 169),  $sas + \acute{s}ambhuh = sa$   $\acute{s}ambhuh$  "that  $\acute{S}iva$ " (No. 338).—Why "without the augment k?" Witness eshako rud-rah "that  $\acute{S}iva$ ." Why "not if they are in a compound with the privative particle nan (a)?" Witness asas + sivah = asassivah "not that siva." (No. 76.) Why "when a consonant follows?" Witness eshas + atra = esho'tra "he here." Nos. 124 and 125.)

No. 134.—Let there be elision of the su of SAS, even WHEN A VOWEL FOLLOWS (No. 133), IF BY THE ELISION alone THE VERSE CAN BE COMPLETED.

Example, (sa+imám=) semám aviddhi prabhritim "do not separate this collection," saisha dásarathí rámah "that Ráma, the son of Dasaratha."

So much for the changes of Visarga. We now come to the declension of

No. 137.—[In this aphorism the case-affixes are enunciated.— The cases, exclusive of the Vocative which is held to be a peculiar aspect of the nominative, are seven—1st Nominative, 2nd Accusative, 3rd Instrumental, 4th Dative, 5th Ablative, 6th Genitive, 7th Locative. The case-affixes, with their significations, are as follows:—]

STEROID !	Singular.	Dual.	Plural.
1st	su	au	jas	T 1- out
2nd	am	aut	śas	Constant of the
3rd	ţá	bhyám	bhis	" by."
4th	ńe	bhyám	bhyas	" to."
5th	ńasi	bhyám	bhyas	"from."
6th	ńas	08	ám	" of."
7th	ńi	08	sup	"in."

[After the elision of the indicatory letters, these affixes appear as follows:—

2nd	am	au	as
3rd	á	bhyám	bhis
4th	e	bhyám	bhyas
5th	as	bhyám	bhyas
6th	as	08	ám
7th	i	08	su

The reader who enters upon the study of the Laghu Kaumudi without any previous acquaintance with Sanskrit, will find the recollection of the rules more easy, and his apprehension of their import more distinct, if he make himself familiar with the most usual signs of the 7th, 6th, and 5th cases, for information respecting which he was referred (at Nos. 22, 27, and 87,) to the present section. When the uninflected word ends in a consonant, the affix is generally attached unaltered. Thus the 7th case singular of the word ach, in No. 21, is achi; the 7th dual of omán, in No. 54, is omános; and the 7th plural of etyedhatyúth, in No. 42, is etyedhatyúthsu. So again, the 6th case singular of ik, in No. 21, is ikas, which, by Nos. 124 and 126, becomes iko before a soft consonant; the 6th dual of sajush, in No. 124, is sajushos, which, by Nos. 124 and 130, becomes sajusho when followed by r; and the 6th plural of jhal, in No. 25, is jhalám, which, by No. 94, becomes jhalán. So again, the 5th case singular of en in No. 56, is enas, which, by Nos. 124 and 111, becomes enah; the 5th dual of a term ending in a vowel occurs in No. 73, viz. rahábhyám, which, by No. 94 changes its final to n.

When the uninflected term ends in a vowel, the case-affixes are liable to several variations. Among the most noticeable modifications are the following, which take the place of the final a:—

	Singular.	Dual.	Plural.
5th	át	ábhyám	-
6th	asya	_	ánám
7th	6	NAME OF CASE OF STREET	eshu

Examples of these terminations occur in No. 35, where át becomes ád (by No. 82); in No. 73—rahábhyám; in No. 26—sanyogántasya; in No. 30—samánám; in No. 31—pratyaye;—and in No. 44—úhoḍhoḍhyeshaishyeshu.]

ड्याप्पातिपदिकात्। ४।१।१।

No. 138.—After what ends with the feminine terminations %f (No. 256, &c.) or AP (No. 1341, &c.) or after A CRUDE FORM (No. 135, &c.).—

[This aphorism is one of those which are said to exercise an authority (abhikára) over other aphorisms, inasmuch as they consist of terms which other aphorisms, in order to complete their sense, are under the necessity of borrowing. (No. 5.) Some aphorisms, such as the present, consist solely of words which, taken by themselves, convey neither a definition nor a direction, and which are enunciated solely for the purpose of avoiding the necessity of repeating the same words in a number of succeeding aphorisms

Such aphorisms are said to be kevaládhikára, or "intended simply to regulate the sense of others." On the other hand, in No. 21, only a portion of the aphorism, viz., the word achi, exercises adhikára, which it does over the sense of No. 55, &c.]

प्रत्ययः। ३।१।१।

No. 139.—AN AFFIX.

[This, like No. 138, is an aphorism intended solely to regulate the sense of others.]

परस्व। ३।१।२।

इत्यधिकृत्य । ड्यन्तादाबन्तात् प्रातिपदिकाच्च परे स्वादयः

प्रत्ययाः स्यः ।

No. 140.—AND SUBSEQUENT.

[This, like Nos. 138 and 139, is an aphorism intended solely to regulate the sense of others. The sense of the three aphorisms combined is as follows:—]

Let the affixes su, &c. (No. 137) come after, or be attached to words ending in  $\acute{n}\acute{i}$  or ap (that is to say, words with feminine terminations,) and after crude forms (No. 135).

सुप: । १ । ४ । १०३ ।

सुपस्तीणि चीणि वचनान्येकण एकवचनद्विवचनबहुवचनसंज्ञानि

स्य:

No. 141.—OF SUP (which is a pratyáhára formed of su the first of the case-affixes, and the final p of the last of them,) let the three expressions in each successive set of three be severally termed "the expression for one" (singular), "the expression for two" (dual), and "the expression for many" (plural).

द्येकयोर्दिवचनैकवचने। १। ४। २२। द्वित्वैकत्वयोरेते स्तः।

No. 142.—The DUAL AND the SINGULAR case-affixes are to be employed severally in the sense of DUALITY AND UNITY.

बहुत्वविववायां बहुवचनं स्यात्।

No. 143.—In expressing multerty, let a Plural case-affix be employed.

वरामाऽवसानम् । १ । ४ । ११० । वर्णानामभावाऽवसानसंज्ञः स्यात् । स्त्वविसर्गा । रामः ।

No. 144.—Let CESSATION, or the absence of succeeding letters, be called a PAUSE (avasána).

We now proceed to decline the word ráma (the name of an incarnation of Vishnu).—Attaching the case-affix of the 1st case singular, after removing the indicatory vowel (No. 36), we get rámas: then the s becomes ru by No. 124, and finally visarga by No. 111, giving rámah.

सहपाणामेकश्रेष एकविभक्ती । १। २। ई४। एकविभक्ती यानि सहपाण्येव दृष्टानि तेषामेक एव शिष्यते ।

No. 145.—In any individual case (vibhakti) there is but one retained of the words, always similar in form. [That is to say, the dual, which means "two Rámas," implies "Ráma and Ráma;" and the plural, which means "more Rámas than two," implies at least "Ráma, and Ráma, and Ráma;" and of these words, similar in sense as well as in form, we are to retain but one, when adding the affixes of the dual and plural. It would be otherwise had we to attach a dual affix to an aggregate signifying the two opponents "Ráma and Rávana," or the two which, in some of their inflections, differ in sound as well as in sense, mátri "a mother," and mátri "a measurer." But when the words never differ in form, though they do so in sense, this rule may apply. Thus śri signifies "beauty" and also "wealth"—and "beauty and wealth" may be implied in the dual śriyau.]

In the 1st case dual, then, we have ráma+au, which might appear to furnish occasion for the operation of the rule here following to the exclusion of No. 41, which gives way in accordance with No. 132.

प्रथमयाः पूर्वसवर्णः । ६।१।१०२।

त्रकः प्रथमाद्वितीयये।रचि पूर्वसवर्णदीर्घ एकादेशः स्यात् । इति प्राप्ते ।

No. 146.—When ach of the first or second case follows ak, let the long vowel homogeneous with the antecedent be the substitute singly for both. By this rule  $r\acute{a}ma + au$  would become  $r\acute{a}m\acute{a}$ , but the rule here following interposes.

नादिचि । ६ । १ । १ ०४ । श्रादिचि न पूर्वसवर्णदीर्घः । वृद्धिरेचि । रामा ।

No. 147.—When ich follows a or á the substitution of the long vowel homogeneous with the antecedent (No. 146) shall not take place. Then, by No. 41, thus freed from the obstruction of No. 146, we have  $r\acute{a}ma + au = r\acute{a}mau$  "two  $R\acute{a}mas$ ."

चुट्ट । १ । ३ । ७ । प्रत्ययाद्यी चुटू इती स्तः ।

No. 148.—PALATAL (chu) OR CEREBRAL (tu) LETTERS initial in an affix are to be elided. Therefore, in the affix of the 1st case plural, the j of jas is to be elided, leaving as.

विभक्तिय। १। ४। १०४। मुग्लिडी विभक्तिमंत्री स्तः।

No. 149.—And sup (the case-affixes—No. 137) and tiń (the verbal affixes enunciated in No. 407) are called VIBHAKTI.

न विभक्ती तुस्माः। १। ३। ४।

विभक्तिस्थास्तवगंषमा नेतः । इति सस्य नेत्वम् । रामाः ।

No. 150.—TU (the dentals ta tha da dha na) and s and M, standing IN A VIBHAKTI (No. 149) are NOT to be elided. Therefore the final s in jas is not to be elided, notwithstanding Nos. 5 and 7; and rámás, by Nos. 124 and 111, becomes rámáh "Rámas"—more than two.

एकवचनं सम्बुद्धिः । २ । ३ । ४८ । संबोधने प्रथमाया एकवचनं सम्बुद्धिसंज्ञं स्यात् ।

No. 151.—In the sense of the vocative, let the SINGULAR of the first be called SAMBUDDHI.

यसात् प्रत्ययविधिस्तदादि प्रत्ययेऽङ्गम्।१।४।१३। यः प्रत्ययो यस्मात् क्रियते तदादि शब्दस्वहृषं तस्मिन् प्रत्यये परेऽङ्गं स्यात्।

No. 152.—After whatsoever there is an affix (pratyaya) enjoined, let what begins therewith, in the form in which it appears when the affix follows it, be called an inflective base (anga).

For example, in the first case singular it is enjoined that the affix su (No. 137) shall follow the crude form of a noun—for instance ráma. Then this word ráma, if it remain unchanged when the affix follows it, is called anga.

एङ्हस्तात् सम्बुद्धेः । ६ । १ । ६८ । एङन्तादुस्वान्ताचाङ्गादुल्लुप्यते सम्बुद्धेश्चेत् । हे राम । हे रामे। हे रामाः ।

No. 153.—After an inflective base (No. 152) ending in en or IN A SHORT VOWEL, a consonant is elided if it be that of SAMBUDDHI (No. 151). Hence the s is elided in he rama "Oh Rama!" In the dual and plural the vocative is the same as the 1st case; so he ramau "Oh two Ramas!" he ramah "Oh Ramas!" We now come to the 2nd case, and we find Rama+am, where we might expect No. 55 to take effect. But this is prevented by the rule here following.

स्रकाऽम्यचि पूर्वह्रपमेकादेशः । रामम् । रामा ।

No. 154.—When the vowel of AM (the affix of the 2nd case singular) FOLLOWS ak, the form of THE PRIOR is the single substitute for both. Hence  $r\acute{a}ma+am=r\acute{a}mam$  "R\'{a}ma,"  $r\acute{a}ma+au=r\acute{a}mau$  "two R\'{a}mas" (No. 141). In the 2nd case plural we find  $r\acute{a}ma+\acute{s}as$  and the rule here following.

लशक्तति। १। ३। ८। तद्भितवर्जप्रत्ययाद्या लशकवर्गा इतः स्युः।

No. 155.—The letters L, Ś, AND KU (that is to say, ka kha ga gha 'n) are indicatory IN AN AFFIX NOT belonging to the class TAD-DHITA (the class employed in forming nominal derivatives No. 1067). Thus the example under consideration becomes ráma + as; then No. 146 comes into operation, and the rule here following enjoins a substitution.

तस्माच्छसो नः पुंसि । ६ । १ । १०३ । पूर्वसवर्णदीर्घात् परो यः शसस्सस्तस्य नः स्यात् पुंसि ।

No. 156.—After that long vowel homogeneous with prior (No. 146), N is substituted in place of the s of sas, in the masculine. Thus we have rámán: a form which might seem to give occasion for the rule next following.

अट्कुघाङ्नुम्यवायेऽपि । ८ । ४ । २ । अट् कवर्गः पवर्ग आङ् नुम् गतैर्व्यस्तैर्ययासंभवमिलितैश्च व्यवधानेऽपि रषाभ्यां परस्य नस्य गाः समानपदे । इति प्राप्ते ।

No. 157.—Even when a separation is caused by the intervention of the pratyáhára, at ku, pu, (the five gutturals and five labials), áń (the particle á) and num (anuswára), singly or combined in any possible way, the substitution of the cerebral for the dental n following r or sh in the same pada (No. 292) shall take place.

By this rule the final n in rámán would be replaced by a cerebral, but the rule next following prohibits the substitution.

पदान्तस्य। ८। ४। ३७। नस्य ग्रीन। रामान्।

No. 158.—The cerebral n shall not be substituted in the room of dental n final in a pada. Thus finally we have rámán "the Rámas."

In the 3rd case singular we first find ráma+tá, but the rule next following enjoins a substitution.

टाङसिङस िनात्स्याः । ७ । १ । १२ । अदन्ताट्टादीनामिनादयः स्यः । गत्वम् । रामेण ।

No. 159.—Let ina át and sya be substituted in the room of  $\intercal$ á (3rd singular) ńasi (5th sing.) and ńas (6th sing.) after what ends in short a.

Thus we have  $r\acute{a}ma + ina$ , which after the cerebral n has been substituted by No. 157, becomes  $r\acute{a}mena$  "by  $R\acute{a}ma$ ." (No. 35.)

In the 3rd case dual we first find ráma+bhyám, which calls into operation the rule following.

सुपि च। ७। ३। १०२। यजादी सुप्यताऽङ्गस्य दीवंः । रामाभ्याम् ।

No. 160.—And when a case-affix beginning with yan Follows, the long vowel shall be substituted for the final of an inflective base (No. 152) ending in short a. Hence rámábhyám "by two Rámas."

In the 3rd plural we find ráma+bhis, and here also a substitution is enjoined.

त्रातो भिस ऐस्। ७।१।८। त्रानेकाल् शित् सर्वस्य। रामैः।

No. 161.—AFTER what ends in SHORT A, let there be AIS in the room OF BHIS. From No. 58 we learn that this substitute takes the place not of the first letter merely (No. 88), but of the whole term (bhis). By Nos. 124 and 111 we thus get rámaih "by the Rámas."

In the 4th singular, we find  $r\acute{a}ma + \acute{n}e$ , and again a substitution is enjoined.

त्रताऽङ्गात् परस्य डेर्यादेश: ।

No. 162.—Let YA be the substitute of KE after an inflective base ending in short a.

Thus we have  $r\acute{a}ma + ya$ , an instance which the rule next cited takes cognizance of.

स्थानिवदादेशोऽन ल्विधी। १।१। ५६।

त्रादेशः स्थानिवत् स्थान्न तु स्थान्यलाश्रयविधे। इति स्थानि-वन्त्वात् सुवि चेति दीर्घः। रामाय। रामाभ्याम्।

No. 163.—A SUBSTITUTE IS LIKE (or succeeds to all the titles and liabilities of) THAT WHOSE PLACE IT SUPPLIES—BUT NOT IN the case of A RULE the occasion for the operation OF which is furnished by the LETTERS of the original term.

According to this maxim, the ya substituted for ne, by No. 162, is, like it, entitled a case-affix (sup—No. 137); but it is not held to consist of the same letters as ne; hence, as it begins with the letter y (of the pratyáhára yan), it furnishes occasion for the operation of No. 160, by which the short a of the inflective base is lengthened. Thus we have rámáya "to Ráma." The 4th dual rámábhyám "to two Rámas"—is formed like the 3rd.

In the 4th plural we have first ráma + bhyas, which calls into operation the rule next following (and not No. 160).

बहुवचने भाल्येत्। ७। ३। १०३। भालादे। बहुवचने मुप्यताऽङ्गस्येकारः। रामेभ्यः। मुपि किम्।

पचध्वम् ।

No. 164.—WHEN A PLURAL case-affix beginning with JHAL FOLLOWS, E is the substitute for the final short a of an inflective base.

Thus we have rámebhyah "to the Rámas." Why do we say "case-affix?" Because the rule does not extend to the verbal affixes. Ex. pacha+dhwam=pachadhwam "do ye cook."

In the 5th sing. we have first  $r\acute{a}ma + \acute{n}asi$ , and  $\acute{a}t$  is substituted for  $\acute{n}asi$  by No. 159, and we get  $r\acute{a}m\acute{a}t$  (No. 55), a form to which the rule next cited has reference.

अवसाने भलां चारा वा। रामात्। रामाद्। रामाभ्याम्। रामे-भ्यः। रामस्य।

No. 165.—When a pause (No. 144) ensues, char may optionally be substituted for jhal. So we may write rámát or (by No. 81) rámád "from Ráma."

The dual and plural of the 5th case are like those of the 4th:— rámábhyám "from two Rámas", rámebhyah "from the Rámas."

In the 6th sing, we have first  $r\acute{a}ma + \acute{n}as$ ; and, on making the substitution enjoined by No. 159, we get  $r\acute{a}masya$  "of  $R\acute{a}-ma$ ." In the dual we have first  $r\acute{a}ma + os$ , which brings into operation the rule next following.

ब्रोसिच। ७। ३। १०४।

त्रताऽङ्गस्यैकारः । रामयोः ।

No. 166.—And when os follows, then e is substituted for the final short a of an inflective base. Thus we have  $r\acute{a}me+os=r\acute{a}mayoh$  "of two  $R\acute{a}mas$ "—(No. 29).

In the 6th plural we have first  $r\acute{a}ma + \acute{a}m$ , which calls into operation the rule next following.

इस्वनद्यापा नुट्। ७। १। ५४।

ह्रस्वान्ताद्रयन्तादाबन्ताच्चाङ्गात् परस्यामा नुडागमः ।

No. 167.—Nut shall be the augment of What comes After an inflective base ending in A SHORT vowel, or in NADÍ (No. 215) or in AP (No. 1341).

From No. 103 we learn that this augment is to be prefixed. We thus get  $r\acute{a}ma + n\acute{a}m$ , to which the rule following has reference.

नामि। ६। १। ३।

त्रजन्ताङ्गस्य दीर्घः । रामाणाम् । रामे । रामयोः । एत्वे कृते ।

No. 168.—When nám follows, the long vowel shall be substituted for the final of an inflective base which ends in a vowel. Thus we get rámánám "of the Rámas." (No. 157.)

In the 7th sing, we have  $r\acute{a}ma+\acute{n}i$ , which, by Nos. 156 and 35, becomes  $r\acute{a}me$  "in  $R\acute{a}ma$ ." The dual is like the 6th— $r\acute{a}ma$ -yoh "in two  $R\acute{a}mas$ ."

In the 7th plural we have  $r\acute{a}ma + su$ , which, by No. 164, becomes  $r\acute{a}me + su$ , and this calls into operation the rule following.

त्रादेशप्रत्यययोः। ८। ३। ५८।

इण्कुभ्यां परस्यापदान्तस्यादेशः प्रत्ययावयवश्च यः सस्तस्य मूर्घन्यादेशः । ईषद्विवृतस्य सस्य तादृशं एव षः । रामेषु । एवं कृष्णादये।ऽप्यदन्ताः ।

No. 169.—The cerebral substitute shall take the place of the dental s, when the s is part of a substitute or of an affix following in or ku, and is not the final letter of the pada.—Of the cerebrals, the ishadvivrita sh (No. 16) most resembles the s, and is therefore the proper substitute. Thus we get rámeshu "in the Rámas."

In the same way are declined krishna and other words ending in short a.

[Having explained this declension very fully, we shall indicate the steps of the process as they recur in the sequel more concisely.]

स्वादीनि स्वनामानि। १।१। २०।

सर्व विश्व उभ उभय इतर इतम अन्य अन्यतर इतर त्वत् त्व नेम सम सिम । पूर्वपरावरदिविणात्तरापराधराणि व्यवस्थायाम-संज्ञायाम् । स्वमज्ञातिधनाष्यायाम् । अन्तरं बहिर्यागोपसंव्यानयाः । त्यद् तद् यद् एतद् इदम् अदस् एक द्वि युष्मद् असमद् भवतु किम् ।

No. 170.—SARVA, &c. are called PRONOMINALS (sarvanáma).

This class of words consists of the following:—sarva "all," viśwa "all," ubha "both," ubhaya "both," datara datama (affixes employed in the formation of such words as katara "which of two?" and katama "which of many?") anya "other," anyatara "either," itara "other," twat or twa "other," nema "half," sama "all," sima "whole." The seven following are pronominals when they imply a relation in time or place, not when they are names—viz., púrva "prior, east," para "after," avara "posterior, west," dakshina "south, right," uttara "inferior, other, north," apara "other," adhara "inferior, west;"—so also swa when it signifies "own," not when it signifies "a kinsman" or "property;" antara when it signifies "a kinsman" or "property;" antara when it signifies "outer" or "an under garment;" tyad or tad "he, she, it, that," yad "who, which, what," etad "this," idam "this," adas "this, that," eka "one," dwi "two," yushmad "thou," asmad "I," bhavatu "your honour, your excellency," kim "who? what?"—

जसः भी। ७। १। १७।

अदन्तात् सर्वनाम्बो जसः शी स्यात् । अनेकाल्त्वात् सर्वादेशः । सर्वे ।

No. 171.—After a pronominal ending in short a, let si be the substitute of JAS (1st case plur.). As the substitute consists of more letters than one, it takes the place of the whole (No. 58). Ex. sarva+i=sarve ("all"—Nos. 156 and 35).

सर्वनामः समे। ७।१।१४। अतः सर्वनाम्ना डेः समे। सर्वसमे।

No. 172.—After a pronominal ending in short a, small is the substitute of  $\acute{n}e$  (4th sing).

Example, sarvasmai "to all."

ङिसिङ्गे: स्मारिसमनै। । १। १। १५। अवस्मात्।

No. 173.—After a pronominal ending in short a, SMÁT AND SMIN are the substitutes OF ŃASI (4th sing.) AND ŃI (7th sing.) Example, sarvasmát "from all." (No. 160.)

त्रामि सर्वनामः सुट्। ७।१।५२।

त्रवर्णान्तात् परस्य सर्वनाम्ना विहितस्यामः सुडागमः । यत्वे पत्वे । सर्वेषाम् । सर्वेस्मिन् । शेषं रामवत् । एवं विश्वादयाऽप्य-दन्ताः । उभगब्दा नित्यं द्विवचनान्तः । उभा २ । उभाभ्याम् ३ । उभयाः २ । तस्येह पाठाऽकजर्थः । डतरडतमा प्रत्ययो । प्रत्य-यग्रहणे तदन्तग्रहणमिति तदन्ता ग्राह्याः । नेम इत्यर्थे । समः सर्वपर्यायस्तुल्यपर्यायस्तु न समानामिति चापकात् ।

No. 174.—Sur is the augment of am (6th plur.), WHEN AM COMES AFTER A PRONOMINAL ending in a or a. Example (Nos. 164 and 169) sarveshám "of all." In the 7th sing. (No. 173) sarvasmin "in all." The rest of the declension is like that of rama. In the same way are declined viśwa and the other pronominals (No. 170) ending in short a. The word ubha "both" takes invariably the dual affixes. Ex. ubhau "both," ubhábhyám "by, to, or from both," ubhayoh "of or in both." The object of its being inserted in the list of pronominals (whilst its declension does not differ from that of ráma) is its taking the augment akach (No. 1321 which it could not take if it were not a pronominal). The terms datara and datama are affixes. "By citing the affix we cite that which ends therewith:"—(says Patanjali) so the words that end with these affixes are to be reckoned pronominals. The word nema is a pronominal when it signifies "half." That sama, which is a pronominal when synonymous with sarva "all," is not so when synonymous with tulya "like" we learn from the expression samánám "of equals"—in No. 30—(which would have been sameshám, if the word, in that sense, had been a pronominal.)

पूर्वपरावरदि चिणात्तरापराधराणि व्यवस्थायामसंज्ञायाम्। १।१। ३४।

गतेषां व्यवस्थायामसंज्ञायां सर्वनामसंज्ञा गणपूचात् सर्वेच या प्राप्ता सा जीस वा। पूर्वे। पूर्वो: । ऋसंज्ञायां किम्। उत्तराः कुर-व: । स्वाभिधेयापेज्ञाविधिनियमा व्यवस्था। व्यवस्थायां किम्। द-ज्ञिणा गाथकाः । कुशला इत्यर्थः ॥ No. 175.—The name of pronominal (No. 170) belongs to PURVA "prior," PARA "after," AVARA "posterior," DAKSHINA "south," UTTARA "inferior, other, north," APARA "other," AND ADHARA "inferior," WHEN THEY DISCRIMINATE RELATIVE POSITION, NOT when they are NAMES.

The designation of pronominal assigned to these in every case by the aphorism No. 170, which implies the list of words enumerated in the commentary thereon, is optional when jas (1st plural) follows.—Ex. púrve (by No. 171) or púrváh (No. 151).—Why do we say "not when they are names?" Witness uttaráh (not uttare) when the word is used as a name for "the Kurus."

That there is "a specification, (niyama,) or tacit implication, of a determinate point (avadhi), with reference to which something is to be described by the word itself" is what we mean when we say that "a relation in time or place (avashá) is implied,"—
[For example, we wish to describe Benares as being southern (dakshina). To do this, we may specify some point—say one of the peaks of the Himálaya—with reference to which Benares may be described as "a place to the southward." Again, we here may thus speak of the people to the south of the Vindhyá mountains, as being "southern," not with reference to the inhabitants of Ceylon, but with reference (as every one here understands, by tacit implication) to us ourselves who live to the north of the Vindhyá range]. Why do we say, "when a relation in time or place is implied?" Witness dakshináh (not dakshine) gáthakáh, meaning "clever singers."

स्वमज्ञातिधनाख्यायाम् । १।१।३५।

चातिथनान्यवाचिनः स्वेशब्दस्य प्राप्ता संज्ञा जिस वा । स्वे । स्वाः । त्रात्मीया त्रात्मान इति वा । चातिथनवाचिनस्तु स्वाः । चातयोऽथा वा ।

No. 176.—The designation, as a pronominal, of the word swa (No. 170) when it signifies something else than a kinsman or property, optionally obtains when jas (1st plural) follows. Thus we have either swe (No. 171) or swáh (No. 151) in the sense of "own" or "selves," but swáh alone, in the sense of "kinsmen" or "articles of property."

बाह्ये परिधानीये चार्षेऽन्तरशब्दस्य प्राप्ता संज्ञा जिस वा । ऋ-न्तरे ऋन्तरा वा गृहा: । बाह्या इत्यर्थ: । ऋन्तरे ऋन्तरा वा शाट-का: । परिधानीया इत्यर्थ: ।

No. 177.—The designation, as a pronominal, of the word antara (No. 170) WHEN IT SIGNIFIES "OUTER" OR "A LOWER GARMENT," optionally obtains when jas (1st plural) follows. Thus we may write antare or antaráh, when speaking of houses "external" (for instance to the walls of the city); and so also when speaking of the petticoats worn under the upper garment.

पूर्वादिभ्या नवभ्ये वा। ७। १। १ई।

एभ्या ङिख्योः स्मात्स्मिना वा स्तः । पूर्वस्मात् । पूर्वात् । पूर्वस्मिन् । पूर्वे । एवं परादीनाम् । शेषं सर्ववत् ।

No. 178.—After the nine beginning with purva, (that is to say, after purva, para, avara, dakshina, uttara, apara, adhara, swa, and antara) the substitution of smat and smin for nasi and ni (No. 173) is optional.

Thus we may write either púrvasmát or púrvát, púrvasmin or púrve:—and so of para, &c. In other respects the declension of these words is the same as that of sarva.

प्रथमचरमतयाल्पार्धकतिपयनेमास्य । १ । १ । ३३ ।

रते जस्युक्तसंज्ञा वा स्युः । प्रथमे । प्रथमाः । तयः प्रत्ययः । द्वितये । द्वितयाः । शेषं रामवत् । नेमे । नेमाः । शेषं सर्ववत् ।

No. 179.—The words PRATHAMA "first," CHARAMA "last," TAYA (which is an affix, respecting which see the maxim cited under No. 174.—), ALPA "few," ARDHA "half," KATIPAYA "some," and NEMA "half," shall be optionally termed pronominal (No. 170) when jas (1st pl.) follows.

Thus we may write prathame or prathamáh. Of the affix taya we have an example in dwitaye or dwitayáh "second." The rest of the declension is like ráma. The word nema is enumerated among the pronominals in No. 170—therefore, though by this rule the nominative plural may be like  $r\acute{a}ma$ , the rest of the declension is like sarva.

तीयस्य ङित्सु वा । द्वितीयस्मे । द्वितीयायेत्यादि । एवं तृती-य: । निर्जर: ।

No. 180.—WHEN CASE-AFFIXES WITH AN INDICATORY No. 180.—When case-Affixes with an indicatory no follow, (such are the 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th singular) the term pronominal (No. 170) is optionally a name of what ends in Tiya.

Example, dwitiyasmai or dwitiyáya "to the second," and so on.—So also tritiya "the third."

We now come to the declension of the word nirjara "imperishable,"—which is derived from the feminine word jará "decrepitude."

जराया जरसन्यंतरस्यास् । ७। २। १०१।

श्रजादी विभक्ती। पदाङ्गाधिकारे तस्य तदन्तस्य च। निर्दि-श्यमानस्यादेशा भवन्ति। एकदेशविकृतमनन्यवदिति जरशब्दस्य जरम्। निर्जरमा। निर्जरम इत्यादि। पचे हलादी च रामवत्। विश्वपाः।

No. 181.—Instead of JARA there is optionally Jaras, when a vibhakti (No. 170) beginning with a vowel follows.

Where a rule refers to a pada or an anga (No. 153), the rule, if it apply to a particular word, applies also to what ends with the word. Hence this rule, which applies to the word jará, applies also to nirjara, just as, in English, the substitution, in the plural, of "geese," for "goose," applies also to the case of "wildgeese." But here a question might arise, suggested by No. 58, as to whether the substitute should not take the place of the whole word—so that the plural of "wildgoose," should become "geese" simply. To guard against this, it is declared that "Substitutes take the place of that only which is exhibited (when the substitute is enjoined)."—Thus, in nirjara, the substitute takes the place of the jara only, for jará only was exhibited when the substitute jaras was enjoined. Here another objection may be raised, for jaras was enjoined to take the place of jará, with a long final, not of jara, the final of which is short. This objection is met by the maxim that "What is partially altered does not thereby become something quite different," (and this is illustrated in the Mahábháshya by the case of a dog, which, having lost his ears, does not thereby lose his personal identity,):—so jaras may be the substitute of the partially altered jara. Thus we get nirjarasau "two imperishables," nirjarasah "imperishables," and so on.—On the other alternative, and when the affixes begin with a consonant, the word is declined like ráma.

We now come to the declension of viśwapá "the preserver of all."

दीर्घाज्यसि च। ६। १। १०५। विश्वपा। विश्वपा: । हे विश्वपा: । विश्वपाम् । विश्वपा

No. 182.—And when Jas (1st pl.) or ich (pratyáhára) comes after a long vowel, the long vowel homogeneous with the prior is not substituted for both (by No. 146, any more than under the circumstances stated in No. 147). We have therefore the 1st dual viśwapau (by No. 41), and plural viśwapáh (by No. 55),—In the vocative singular we have he viśwapáh, the same as in the nominative. In the 2nd case sing. viśwapám (No. 155); in the dual, as in the 1st case, viśwapau.

सुडनपुंसकस्य । १ । १ । ४३ । स्वादिपञ्चवचनानि सर्वनामस्थानसंज्ञानि स्यरक्रीवस्य ।

No. 183.—Let SUT (which is a pratyáhára formed of su the first case-affix, and aut the fifth, and which serves as a name common to the five), but NOT OF a NEUTER word be called sarvanámasthána.

स्वादिष्यसर्वनामस्थाने । १ । ४ । १७ । कप्रत्ययावधिषु स्वादिष्वपर्वनामस्थानेषु पूर्वे पदं स्यात् ।

No. 184.—When the affixes BEGINNING WITH SU and ending with ka (which occurs in the 70th aphorism of the 3rd Chapter of the 5th Lecture) FOLLOW, NOT being SARVANÁMASTHÁNA

(No. 183), let what precedes be called pada. [This is an extension of the application of the term pada as laid down in No. 14].

यचि भस् । १ । ४ । १८ । यादिष्वजादिषु च कप्रत्ययाविष्यु स्वादिष्वधर्वनामस्यानेषु पूर्वे भसंज्ञं स्यात् ।

No. 185.—And when affixes, with an initial Y or initial vower, beginning with su and ending with ka, follow, not being sarvanámasthána (No. 183), let what precedes be called BHA.

[The question here arises, whether a word which gets the name of bha from this rule, and of pada from the one preceding, is to retain both names, or, if not, which name is to be retained. The rule next cited supplies the answer].

त्रा कडारादेका संज्ञा। १। ४। १। इत कथ्वे कडाराः कर्मधारय इत्यतः प्रागेकस्यैकैव संज्ञा चेया। या परानवकाशा च।

No. 186.—From this point (that is to say, from the 1st aphorism of the 4th Chapter of the 1st Lecture), to the aphorism "KA-paramadharaye" (which is the 38th aphorism of the 2nd Chapter of the 2nd Lecture) only one name of each thing named is to be recognised—viz: that which comes last (where the claims are otherwise equal—(see No. 132) and that which, were its claim disallowed, would have no other opportunity of conducing to any result (see No. 41).

त्राता धाता: । ६ । ४ । १४० ।

स्राकारान्तो या धातुस्तदन्तस्य भस्याङ्गस्य लापः । त्रलाऽन्त्य-स्य । विश्वाः । विश्वण । विश्वणाभ्यामित्यादि । सर्व शङ्खधमा-दयः । धाताः किम् । हाहान् । हरिः । हरी ।

No. 187.—Let there be elision of the final letter of an inflective base, entitled to the designation of bha (No. 185), when it ends in A DHÁTU (No. 49) WITH LONG Á as its final letter.

The word viśwapá ends in a dhátu, viz. pá (in the sense of "preserving") which has long  $\acute{a}$  as its final letter; and the word which, by No. 147, is called an inflective base  $(a\acute{n}ga)$  when an affix follows, is, by No. 185, entitled to the designation of bha when the case-affix (not being one of the five first) begins with a vowel. The long  $\acute{a}$  is then elided.

Example, viśwapá+śas=viśwapah (2nd case plural), viśwapá+ţá=viśwapá (3rd sing). Before the consonantal terminations there is no change. Example, viśwapábhyám (3rd dual). In the same way are declined śańkhadhmá "the blower of a conch-shell," and the like.—Why do we say, "when it ends in a dhátu?" Because primitive words, like háhá "a gandharba," do not come within the scope of the rule. Example, 2nd pl. háhán (Nos. 146 and 156).

We now come to the declension of a noun ending in short i—hari "a name of Vishnu." 1st s. harih, 1st du. hari (No. 146).

ह्रस्वान्तस्याङ्गस्य गुगाः । हरयः ।

No. 188.—And when JAS follows, guna, shall be the substitute of the short final of an inflective base. Hence 1st pl. hari+ jas=harayah.

इसस्य गुणः। ७। ३। १०८। सम्बद्धाः। हे हरे। हरिम्। हरी। हरीन्।

No. 189.—The substitute of A SHORT final is GUNA, when sambuddhi (No. 152) follows. By this and No. 153, we get the vocative sing. he hare. 2nd s. harim (No. 154), 2nd du. hari, 2nd pl. harin (No. 156).

शेषा ध्यसि । १। १। १। १। १। शेष इति स्पष्टार्थम् । इस्वै। याविदुती तदन्तं सिख्यजे धिसं-ज्ञम् ।

No. 190.—WITH THE EXCEPTION OF the word SAKHI, THE REST of the words that end in short i or u are called GHI. The words "the rest" are said to be employed here "for the sake of distinctness."

त्राङो नास्त्रियाम्। ७। ३। १२०।

चे: परस्याङो ना स्यादस्त्रियाम् । त्राङ्गिति टासंज्ञा । हरिणा । हरिभ्याम् । हरिभि: ।

No. 191.—Let ná be the substitute of án coming after ghi (No. 190), but not in the feminine. The term  $\acute{a}\acute{n}$  is the ancient designation of  $\acute{t}\acute{a}$ , the 3rd sing. case-affix.

Example, hari+tá=hariná (No. 157). 3rd du. haribhyám, 3rd pl. haribhih.

घेर्ङिति। ७। ३। १११। घिमंचस्य ङिति सुपि गुगः। हरये।

No. 192.—Let guna be the substitute of GHI (No. 190), WHEN a case-affix which has an indicatory  $\acute{n}$  follows. Thus 4th s.  $hari+\acute{n}e=haraye$  (No. 29).

ङसिङसोख। ६।१।११०। एडा ङिषङमेरित पूर्वहृपमेकादेश:। हरे:। हर्या:। हरी-गाम्।

No. 193.—And when the short  $\alpha$  of NASI And NAS, comes after  $e\hat{n}$ , let the form of the prior be the single substitute for both. Thus, 5th and 6th s.  $hari+\hat{n}asi$  and so also  $hari+\hat{n}as=hareh$  (No. 192). 6th and 7th du. haryoh (Nos. 21 and 73)—6th pl.  $harin\acute{a}m$  (Nos. 167, 168, and 157).

स्रच घे: । ७ । ३ । ११८ । इदुक्मामुत्तरस्य डेराँद्वेरत् । हरी । हर्षि । एवं कव्यादयः ।

No. 194.—Let aut be the substitute of  $\acute{n}i$  (the case-affix of the 7th s.), when it follows short i or u, AND let short A be the substitute of the GHI (No. 190) itself. Thus 7th s. harau (No. 41). 7th pl. harishu (No. 169). In the same way are declined kavi "a poet," and the like.

स्रवङ् सी । ७ । १ । ८३ । सब्युरङ्गस्यानङादेशोऽसम्बुद्धा सा ।

No. 195.—Anań is the substitute of the word sakhi, WHEN SU FOLLOWS, provided it is not the sign of the vocative (No. 152).

The substitute, though consisting of more letters than one (No. 58), is prohibited by No. 59 from taking the place of more than the last letter. Thus we have sakhan + s.

ऋले।ऽन्त्यात् पूर्व उपधा । १ । १ । ६५ । श्रन्त्यादलः पूर्वे। यो वर्षाः स उपधासंज्ञः स्यात् ।

No. 196.—The letter BEFORE THE LAST LETTER of a word is called THE PENULTIMATE (upadhá).

सर्वनामस्थाने चासम्बुद्धा ॥ ६ । ४ । ८ । नान्तस्योपधाया दीघाँऽसम्बद्धा सर्वनामस्थाने ।

No. 197.—And the long form is the substitute of the penultimate letter (No. 196) of what ends in n, when a sarvanámasthána (No. 183), not being sambuddhi (No. 152), follows. Thus we have sakhán + s.

अपृत्त एकाल प्रत्ययः । १ । २ । ४१ ।

No. 198.—An Affix consisting of a single letter (exclusive of indicatory letters) is called APRIKTA.

हल्ड्याब्भ्या दीर्घात् सुतिखपृक्तं हल्। ६।१।६८। हलन्तात् परं दांचाँ या ड्यापा तदन्ताच्च परं सुतिसीत्येतदपृक्तं हल्लुप्यते।

No. 199.—SU (the 1st sing. case-affix) AND TI AND SI (the terminations of two of the persons of the verb) when reduced to A SINGLE CONSONANT (No. 198), and when standing AFTER what ends in a CONSONANT OR in the LONG vowel deduced from the feminine terminations Ní (No. 256) AND ÁP (No. 1341), are elided. Thus sakhán + s becomes sakhán.

न ले। पः प्रातिपदिकान्तस्य । ८ । २ । ७ । प्रातिपदिकसंज्ञकं यत् पदं तदन्तस्य नस्य ले। पः । सखा ।

No. 200.—There is ELISION OF N FINAL IN A pada which is entitled to the designation of PRATIPADIKA (No. 135).

The word sakhi is a prátipadika; it becomes a pada (No. 20) when the case-affix is added; and this name of pada it retains (by No. 210) after the case-affix has been elided. Thus sakhán is a pada. But sakhán is also entitled to the designation of prátipadika, like sakhi the place of which it occupies, according to No. 163. Thus, by the present rule, the form of the word becomes finally sakhá "a friend."

सख्यरङ्गात् परं सम्बद्धिवर्जं सर्वनामस्थानं णिद्वत् स्यात्।

No. 201.—Let a sarvanámasthána (No. 183) coming AFTER the word SAKHI, NOT IN THE sense of the VOCATIVE SINGULAR, be like that which contains an indicatory n.

अची जिल्लाति। ७। २। ११५।

त्रजन्ताङ्गस्य वृद्धिजिति णिति च परे । संखायौ । संखाय: । हे संखे । संखायम् । संखायौ । संखीन् । संख्या । संख्ये ।

No. 202.—Let vriddhi be the substitute of an inflective base ending in A VOWEL, WHEN THAT WHICH HAS AN INDICATORY N OR N FOLLOWS.

Thus sakhi, when the 1st dual case-affix is to be annexed, becomes sakhai (No. 201), and sakhai + au = sakháyau (No. 29), —so also 1st pl. sakháyah. The vocative sing. (by Nos. 189 and 153) is he sakhe. In the 2nd s. and du., sakháyam and sakháyau, Nos. 201 and 202 again apply: 2nd pl. sakhín (Nos. 146 and 156), 3rd s. sakhyá, 4th s. sakhye.

ख्यत्यात् परस्य। ६।१।११२।

खितिशब्दाभ्यां खोतोशब्दाभ्यां कृतयगादेशाभ्यां परस्य ङिस्ङ-मारत उ: । संख्य: ।

No. 203.—Short u is the substitute of the  $\alpha$  of  $\acute{n}asi$  and  $\acute{n}as$  following the words khi and ti which have substituted yan (No. 21) for the final vowel.

Khi and ti are the terminations of the words sakhi and pati, which they are here employed to designate. The long forms khi and ti indicate certain derivative forms; see No. 223.

The words "which have substituted yan," are employed to show that rule No. 192 does not apply here; and the same object is attained in the aphorism by writing not khi and ti but khya and tya, the a in which is intended merely to facilitate pronunciation.

Thus we have 5th and 6th s. sakhyuh.

श्रीत्। ७। ३। ११८। इतः परस्य डेरीत्। सख्यो । शेषं हरिवत्।

No. 204.—Aut is the substitute of fil after short i. Hence 7th s. sakhyau. The rest is like hari No. 187).

पति: समास एव। १। ४। ८।

चिषंचः । पत्ये । पत्युः २ । पत्यो । शेषं हरिवत् । समासे तु भूपत्ये । कतिशब्दे। नित्यं बहुवचनान्तः ।

No. 205.—The word PATI is called ghi (No. 190) ONLY when it is IN A COMPOUND samása).

Hence in the 4th s. patye "to a master," No. 192 does not apply; in 5th and 6th s. patyuh, No. 203, not No. 193, applies; and in 7th s. patyau, No. 204 applies, but not 194. The rest is like hari. But in a compound, as in bhúpataye "to the lord of the earth," pati is treated as ghi (No. 191 &c.).

The word kati "how many?" takes the plural terminations only.

बहुगणवतुडित संख्या। १।१। २३।

No. 206.—Let the words BAHU, and GANA, and those which end in VATU and DATI be called sankhyá.

The word kati is one of those which end in dati, the d in which affix is indicatory.

डित च। १। १। २५।

डत्यन्ता मंख्या षट्मं चा स्यात्।

No. 207.—And let a sankhyá (No. 206) which ends in PATI be called shat (No. 324).

Thus the word kati is called shat.

षञ्चो लुक्। ७। १। २२।

चश्शमाः ।

No. 208.—Let there be ELISION (luk) of jas and sas AFTER words termed SHAT (No. 207).

प्रत्ययस्य लक् स्नुलुपः । १ । १ । ६१ ।

लुक्रक्लुप्राब्देः कृतं प्रत्ययादर्शनं क्रमात् ततत्सं चं स्यात् ।

No. 209.—Let the disappearance OF AN AFFIX when it is caused by the words LUK, SLU, OR LUP be designated by these terms respectively (to distinguish it from the ordinary elision termed lopa—No. 6).—

प्रत्ययनापे प्रत्ययनचणम् । १ । १ । ६२ ।

प्रत्यये लुप्रेऽपि तदाश्वितं कार्यं स्यात् । इति जिन चेति गुणे प्राप्ते ।

No. 210.—When elision (lopa) of an affix has taken place, the affix shall still exert its influence, and the operations dependent upon it shall take place as if it were present.

The word lakshana, in the aphorism, signifies "that by which a thing is recognised." A case-affix is recognised (No. 152) by its causing that which it follows to take the name of anga. In accordance with the present rule therefore the word kati retains the name of anga, though the affixes jas and sas have been elided by No. 208; and, in virtue of its having the name of anga, it ought to take a guna substitute through the operation of No. 188. But the rule following debars this.

न नुमताङ्गस्य। १।१। ६३।

लुमता शब्देन लुप्ने तिन्निमितमङ्गकाये न स्यात्। कित २। कितिभः। कितिभ्यः २। कितीनाम्। कितिषु। युष्मदसमद्षद्मं च-कास्तिषु सह्याः। विशब्दे। नित्यं बहुवचनान्तः। वयः। चीन्। विभिः। विभ्यः २।

No. 211.—When an affix is elided BY the enunciation of one of the three terms (in No. 209) CONTAINING the letters LU, the effect which it is competent to cause in respect OF AN ANGA or inflective base shall NOT take place.

In the 1st pl. of kati, the affix jas is elided by the enunciation of luk (No. 208), and therefore the substitution of guna which the elided jas would otherwise (by Nos. 210 and 188) have been competent to cause, does not take place.

Thus we have 1st and 2nd pl. kati "how many?" 3rd katibhih, 4th and 5th katibhyah, 6th katinám (Nos. 167 and 168), 7th katishu (No. 169).

The words yushmad "thou," asmad "I," and the words called shat (Nos. 324 and 207) retain the same form in all the three genders.

The word tri "three," is always plural.

Example, 1st pl. trayah (No. 188), 2nd trin (Nos. 146 and 156), 3rd tribhih, 4th and 5th tribhyah.

चेस्तयः। ७।१।५३।

And this rule applies also when tri is final in a compound adjective.

Example, priyatrayánám "of those who have three dear friends."

No. 213.—Short A is the substitute OF TYAD, &c. when a caseaffix follows. "TYAD, &c." (see No. 170) implies "tyad, tad, yad, etad, idam, adas, eka, and dwi." The Mahábháshya directs that the list shall not extend beyond dwi. That this is the direction of Patanjali (the author of that "Great Commentary," on the aphorisms of Páṇini) is indicated by the form of expression "it is the wish," or "it is wished," (ishṭih or ishyate. Compare No. 14.) Thus we have 1st and 2nd du. dwau "two" (No. 147), 3rd, 4th and 5th dwábhyám (No. 160), 6th and 7th dwayoh (No. 166).

We now come to the declension of papí "the sun," (the "cherisher of the world," derived from pá, "to cherish").

No. 214.—AND WHEN JAS or ich (pratyáhára, No. 147) comes AFTER A LONG vowel, the long vowel homogeneous with the prior is not substituted (No. 146).

Therefore (by No. 21) 1st du. papyau, 1st pl. papyah, vocative sing. he papih, 2nd s. papim (No. 154), 2nd pl. papin (No. 156), 3rd s. papyá, 3rd 4th and 5th du. papibhyám, 3rd pl. papibhih, 4th s. papye, 4th and 5th pl. papibhyah, 5th and 6th s. papyah, 6th and 7th du. papyoh. There is not nut (No. 167) for the vowel is long—hence 6th pl. papyám. When ńi is added, then by No. 54, 7th s. papí, 7th pl. papishu.

In the same way are declined vátapramí "an antelope," and the like.

We now come to the declension of bahuśreyasi "a man who has many excellent qualities."

ईटूदन्ता नित्यस्तीलिङ्गा नदीसंज्ञीस्तः । प्रथमलिङ्गग्रहणं च । पूर्व स्त्याख्यस्यापसर्जनत्वेऽपि नदीत्वं वक्तव्यमित्यर्थः ।

No. 215.—Words ending in long f and ú, always FEMININE, and having no masculine of the same form, (as the word grámani has,) are called nadí (the word nadí "a river" being a type of the class.) "And its original gender is to be taken" into account:—that is to say, it is to be spoken of as retaining its character as a nadí, even when the word which was at first feminine comes to form part of a compound epithet applied to a male.

म्राज्ञार्थनदोाईस्व: । ७ । ३ । १०७ । सम्बद्धाः । हे बहुश्रेयसि ।

Example, he bahuśreyasi (No. 153).

No. 219.—Am is the substitute of NI AFTER words ending in NADÍ (No. 215) AND in the feminine termination AP and the word Ní. Hence 7th s. bahuśreyasyám. The rest of the declension is like papí (No. 213).

The word atilakshmi is, in the 1st s., atilakshmih "who has surpassed Lakshmi," the su not being elided by No. 199, because the word lakshmi (the name of one of the goddesses) is a primitive, and is not formed by a feminine affix ii. The rest of the declension is like bahuśreyasi (No. 214).

We now come to pradhí, 1st s. pradhíh "a man of superior understanding."

No. 220.—IYAŃ AND UVAŃ are the substitutes of what ends with the pratyaya ŚNU AND of what ends in A VERBAL ROOT IN I OR U (whether long or short), AND of the inflective base BHRÚ, WHEN an affix beginning with A VOWEL FOLLOWS.

This rule should include the case of pradhi (which is formed from the verbal root dhyai "to meditate"), but the rule following restricts it.

In pradhi, which is a dissyllable, the final i terminates an inflective base of more vowels than one, and it is not preceded by a compound consonant. The rule therefore applies, and we have 1st and 2nd du. pradhyau, 2nd s. pradhyam, 1st and 2nd pl. pradhyah, 7th s. pradhyi (No. 55 being debarred). The rest of the declension is like that of papí (No. 213). In the same way gramaníh "a female head of a village"; but, in the 7th s. this makes grámanyám (by No. 219, being derived from the root ní "to lead)." Why "of more vowels than one?" Witness nih "a leader," which makes, by No. 220, 1st and 2nd du. niyau, 1st pl. niyah, and in the 2nd s. and pl. niyam and niyah (Nos. 154 and 146 being superseded by No. 220, which occupies a later place in the Ashtádhyáyí—see No. 132.). In the 7th s. niyám (No. 219.)— Why "provided the vowel is not preceded by a compound consonant?" Witness 1st du. suśriyau "two prosperous men," and yavakriyau "two purchasers of barley," where the final i is preceded by a compound consonant, and to which therefore not this rule but No. 220 applies.

[It may be worth while to review the steps which rendered necessary the enunciation of this rule with reference to the word pradhyau. The word might apparently have been formed at once from pradhi+au by No. 21, but that rule was superseded by a subsequent rule No. 146. By No 214, however, this rule was positively forbidden to take effect, and as it therefore departs, with all its effects, No. 21 re-appears, but to be again superseded by No. 220, to which the preference attaches on the principle stated under No. 41. No 221 then supersedes No. 220, but as it does this not by positive prohibition, but by usurping a portion of its sphere of application, No. 21 is not again restored. Had it been so, the prohibitory rules would also have re-appeared in an endless cycle.]

No. 222.—AND let pra, &c. (No. 47), in combination with a verb, be called GATI (as well as upasarga).

It is not wished (by the author of the Mahábháshya) that yan (enjoined by No. 221) should be the substitute of a word to which is prefixed any thing else than a gati or a káraka (meaning by káraka a case which is in grammatical relation with a verb). Therefore in the example śuddhadhiyau "two men of pure minds," the substitution of yan does not take place, but No. 220 applies, because the word śuddhadhi means "one whose thoughts are pure," and here the word "pure," is in grammatical relation with the verb "are," in respect to which it is therefore a káraka, but it is not so in regard to the verb "to think," from which the word dhi is derived.

No. 223.—When a case-affix beginning with a vowel comes AFTER these two viz. BHÚ and SUDHÍ, there shall NOT be yan. (This debars Nos. 232 and 221, and gives occasion for No. 220 to come into operation). Hence, 1st. d. sudhiyau, "two intelligent persons," 1st. pl. sudhiyah, &c.

The word sukhí signifies "one who loves pleasure." It is declined like sutí "one who wishes a son: thus—1st. s. sukhíh, sutíh; 1st. d. sukhyau, sutyau; 5 and 6. s. sukhyuh, sutyuh (No. 203). The rest is like pradhí (No. 220 &c.). The word śambhu "Śiva" is declined like hari "Vishņu," and in like manner bhánu "the sun," &c.

Thus [we get kroshtán+s, but the s is elided by No. 199 and the n by No. 200—leaving] 1st sing. kroshtá, 1st du. kroshtárau, (the ri becoming ar by No. 225, and being lengthened to ár by No. 227). 1st p. kroshtárah. (No. 249), and THE RESEMBLANCE TO what ends in TRICH (No. 228) [the enunciation of each of which is subsequent to No. 167 in the order of the ashtádhyáyí.]

Hence—kroshţu+nuţ+ám=kroshţúnám (No. 168). In the 7th sing. kroshţari. On the alternative (of the word's not being considered as ending in trich), and when the case-affix begins with a consonant, the word is declined like śambhu.

Húhúh "a celestial musician," 1st du. húhwau, 2nd sing. húhúm, &c. In the word atichamú "victorious over armies," the difference (from húhú, as regards declension), consists in its being treated as nadí (No. 215). Hence, voc. s. he atichamu (No. 216), 4th sing. atichamwai (Nos. 217 and 218), 5th and 6th sing. atichamwáh, 6th p. atichamúnám.

No. 233.—And the substitute of varshábhú, "a frog—rainborn," shall be yan when a vowel follows, [in spite of No. 220.] Thus we have, 1st du. varshábhwau and so on.

Thus 1st du. drinbhwau. In the same way karabhú "a finger-nail."

The word dhátri "the Cherisher," makes 1st sing. dhátá, vocative sing. he dhátah (Nos. 199, 225, and 111.), 1st du. dhátárau (Nos. 225 and 227), 1st pl. dhátárah.

If the alternative view be taken, that these words are formed (by the affixes mentioned in No. 227), then the citing of naptri, &c. (in No. 227) determines that these alone (of the words so ending that come under the head of Unádi No. 901) are amenable to the rule. Hence (as pitri "a father," is not cited, and is formed by an unádi affix) the rules do not apply to the example following viz. Ist sing. pitá (No. 221), 1st du. pitarau, 1st pl. pitarah, 2nd sing. pitaram. The rest is like dhátri (No. 234). In the same way jámátri "a son-in-law," &c.

stitute vriddhi for the preceding vowel]. Thus 1. s. go + s = gauh, 1. d. gávau, 1. p. gávah. [The t in the sútra shows (No. 34.) that the rule speaks of the vowel o, not of the word go.]

श्रीते। इम्मसी: । ६।१।८३।

Glau "the moon," is declined regularly—thus—1. s. glauh, 1. d. glávau, 1. p. glávah, 3. d. glaubhyám, &c.

No. 245.—In a compound, of the kind termed Bahuvríhi (No. 1034), with a word signifying direction (No. 175), the pronominal character is optional. Thus in the 4. s. we may have either uttarapúrvasyai (No. 244) or uttarapúrváyai (No. 243) "for what lies to the north-east."

According to No. 180, the name of pronominal is optionally given to what ends in tiya. Hence, 4. s. dwitiyasyai or dwitiyáyai "to the second." In the same way tritiyá "the third."

According to No. 216, a short vowel is substituted in the voc. sing. of words signifying "mother." Example, he amba, he akka, he alla.

In accordance with No. 181, we may have 1. s. jará "decrepitude," 1. d. jarasau or jare, &c. On the alternative of its not being considered pronominal, the word is declined like ramá. Gopá "a cowherdess," is declined like viśwapá (No. 182).

Matih "sagacity," 2. p. matih (No. 156), 3. s. matyá (No. 191).

Gaurí "the brilliant (goddess (Párvatí)" is declined as follows:—1. s. gaurí (No. 199), 1. d. gauryau, 1. p. gauryah, voc. s. he gauri (No. 216), and so on. In the same way nadí "a river." and the like.

The word lakshmi "the goddess of prosperity," not being a derivative, does not fall under No. 199, and therefore makes in the 1. s. lakshmih. The rest is like gauri. In the same way tari "a boat," tantri "a guitar-string," and the like.

No. 257.—Not after shat (No. 324), nor after swaszi, &c. is the feminine termination níp or táp affixed. By "swaszi, &c." are meant the following seven viz. swasá "a sister," tisrah "three," chatasrah "four," nanándá "a husband's sister," duhitá "a daughter," yátá "a husband's brother's wife," and mátá "a mother." Thus we have 1. s. swasá (No. 227), 1. d. swasárau.

The word mátri is declined like pitri (No. 235), only that in the 2 p. it makes mátrih (No. 156).

The word dyo "the heaven" is declined like go (No. 237), rai "wealth" as in the masculine (No. 239), and nau "a boat," like glau (No. 239).

Thus the n (of num, No. 264) is annexed to the final a of jnána, and is regarded as a portion of the word. Then the new penultimate vowel (by No. 197) is lengthened, and we have 1. p. jnánáni. No. 267.—When that which has an indicatory d follows, there is elision of the TI (the last vowel with anything that follows it—No. 52) of a bha (No. 185). Hence in the case of katara "which of the two?" formed by the affix datra (No. 170), when add is substituted for su or am by No. 266, we have 1st and 2nd s. katara+add=katarat (No. 165) or kutarad, 1st and 2nd d. katare, 1st and 2nd p. kataráni, voc. s. he katarat. The rest is like the masculine. In the same way katamat, itarat, anyat, and anyatarat. But anyatama makes anyatamam (like jnánam No. 258), because the citation of anyatara, in No. 170, shows that anyatara and anyatama are not held to be formed from anya by the affixes datara and datama included in the list there given.

एकतरात् प्रतिषेध: । एकतरम् ।

No. 271.—Let num be the augment of a neuter ending in IK, WHEN A CASE-AFFIX beginning with ACH FOLLOWS. Hence 1. d. vári+au=váriní, 1. p. vári+jas=várini (No. 197).

As the rule No. 211 is not invariable, we have, alternatively, the guna caused by sambuddhi (No. 189). Hence either he vári (No. 271) or he váre. [That the rule is not invariable, Patanjali declares in the Mahábháshya.]

When the affixes with an indicatory  $\acute{n}$  are to be added, guna is obtained from No. 192; but num takes effect to the exclusion not only of guna but of vriddhi (No. 202) and the substitution of au (No. 194) and the being regarded as ending in trich (No. 224) the prior rule here debarring the subsequent (contrary to the general principle laid down at No. 132). Hence 4 s. várine, 5. and 6. s. várinah, 6. and 7. d. várinoh. In the 6. p. according to the vártika No. 231, there is nut, and then the preceding vowel is lengthened by No. 168—thus várinám. In the 7. s. by the same rules as the 5th and 6th, várini. With the affixes beginning with consonants, the word is declined like hari (No. 187).

No. 287.—At the end of a pada let D be the substitute OF that which, formed by the affix VASU, ends in s, and of SRANSU "to fall down," DHWANSU "to fall down," AND ANADUH. Thus, 3rd danadudbhyám, &c. (No. 184). Why if it "ends in s?" Witness vidwán, the 1st s. m. of vidwas "learned," (where the pada, though formed by vasu, does not end in s). Why "at the end of a pada?" Witness srastam, and dhwastam, "decayed" (where the final s of the root is not the final of a pada).

साङ्ह्रपस्य सहेः सस्य मूर्द्धन्यादेशः । तुराषाट् । तुराषाङ् । तुरासाहे। तुरासाहः । तुराषाङ्क्यामित्यादि । No. 288.—Let there be a cerebral substitute in the room OF the s of the root SAHA in the shape of SAD. Hence in the 1. s. of turásáh "Indra," we have turáshát or turáshád (No. 276). When the h is not changed to dh, the present rule does not apply—thus 1st d. turásáhau, 1st p. turásáhah. In the 3rd d. again turáshád-bhyám, and so on.

दिव औत्। ७। १। ८४।

दिविति प्रातिपदिकस्यात् स्थात् सा । सुद्याः । सुदिवा ।

No. 289.—Let AUT be the substitute of the crude form DIV, when su follows. Thus sudiv becomes (sudi+au=) sudyau, and 1st s. sudyauh "passing pleasant days." In the 1st d. sudivau.

दिव उत्। ६।१।१३१।

पदान्ते। सुद्युभ्यामित्यादि। चत्वारः। चतुरः। चतुर्भः। चतुर्भः।

No. 290.—At the end of a pada, let UT be the substitute of DIV. Thus 3. d. sudyubhyám, and so on.

We have now to consider the declension of chatur "four." By No. 284 this word takes the augment ám in the 1st p. chatwárah. The declension then goes on regularly—2nd p. chaturah, 3rd p. chaturbhih, 4th p. chaturbhyah.

षट्चतुर्भ्यस्य । ७ । १ । ५५ । एभ्य स्थाने। नुडागमः ।

No. 291.—Let nut be the augment (No. 103) of ám (6th p.) coming AFTER SHAT (No. 324) AND CHATUR.

रषाभ्यां ने। णः समानपदे। ८। १।

No. 292.—Let N be substituted in the room of N coming-AF-TER R OR SH IN THE SAME PADA.

त्रचो रहाभ्यां दे। ८। ४६।

चतुगर्याम् ।

No. 293.—There are optionally two in the room of the pra-tyáhára yar coming AFTER RORH AFTER A VOWEL. Thus we have 6th p. chaturnnám.

रोः सुपि। ८। ३। १६। रोरेव विसर्गः सुपि। षत्वम्। षस्य द्वित्वे प्राप्ने।

No. 294.—Instead of RU only (& not of the r which has not an indicatory u) there shall be visarga, when sup (7th p.) follows. Hence the substitution of visarga does not take place in the case of chatur. In the 7th p. the change of s to sh is obtained from No. 169; and then the reduplication of the sh offering itself in No. 293, we look forward.

भारोऽचि। ८। ४। ४८। ऋचि परे भरो न द्वे स्तः । चतुर्षे ।

No. 295.—There are not two in the room OF A SIBILANT, WHEN A VOWEL FOLLOWS. Hence chaturshu.

मा ना धाता: । ८। २। ६४।

पदान्ते । प्रशान् ।

No. 296.—At the end of a pada, N is the substitute of the M of A VERBAL ROOT. Thus 1sts. praśám + su = praśán "tranquil."

किमः कः। ७। २। १०३।

विभक्तो । कः । को । के । इत्यादि । सर्ववत् ।

No. 297.—When a case-affix follows, KA is the substitute of the interrogative pronoun KIM. Thus 1st s. kah "who?" 1st d. kau, 1st p. ke (No. 171), and so on, like sarva (No. 172).

इदमी मः। ७। २। १०८।

मे। त्यटादात्वापवादः।

No. 298.—When su follows, let M be the substitute of the pronoun IDAM "this." This direction, to substitute m for m, debars the substitution of a by No. 213.

द्रदे। उथ् पुंसि। ७ २। १११।

इदम इदे। यू मै। पुंचि । श्रयम् । त्यदादात्वे ।

No. 299.—When su follows, IN THE MASCULINE, AY is the substitute of the ID of the pronoun idam (No. 198). Thus 1st s. ayam. In the other cases a is substituted for the final by No. 213.

त्राता गुणे। ६।१।८७। व्यवदान्तादता गुणे परहृषमेकादेशः।

No. 300.—If GUNA come AFTER short A not final in a pada, the single substitute for both is the form of the subsequent.

Thus, when a (by No. 213) is substituted for the m of idam, we have ida+a=ida.

दस्र। १। १। १०८।

इदमा दस्य मः स्याद्विभक्तो । इमे । हमे । त्यदादेः सम्बेश्यनं नास्तीत्युत्सर्गः ।

No. 301.—And let m be the substitute of the D of idam, when a case-affix follows. Thus 1st d. imau (No. 213), 1st p. ime (No. 171).

It is a peculiarity of the pronouns tyad, &c. that they are not used in the vocative.

त्रनाप्यकः। ७। २। ११२।

त्रककारस्येदम इदे। जापि विभक्ता । त्राविति प्रत्याहारः । ऋनेन ।

No. 302.—The substitute for the id of what idam is without k (No. 1321) is an, when one of the case-affixes termed AP follows. This áp is a pratyáhára formed of the á of the 3rd case sing, and the p of the 7th pl. and denoting these and the intermediate cases—(Compare No. 183). Thus we have 3rd s. anena.

इनि लोपः। ७। २। ११३।

श्रककारस्येदम इदा लाप श्रापि हलादी । नानर्थकेऽलाऽन्त्य-विधिरनभ्यासविकारे ।

No. 303.—When ap (No. 302) that begins with a consonant

FOLLOWS, there is ELISION of the id of the idam which is without k (No. 1321). According to No. 27, the elision should be only of the final, and not of the whole id—but we are told that No. 27 does not apply to what (like id) has no meaning, except in the case of changes connected with the reduplication of verbs (No. 427). Thus, there remains of the word only a.

त्राद्यन्तवदेकस्मिन्। १।१। २१।

्यकस्मिन् क्रियमाणं कार्यमादाविवान्त इव स्यात् । सुपि चेति दीर्घ: । त्राभ्याम् ।

No. 304.—Let an operation be performed on a single letter as upon an initial or upon a final.

For Example,—by No. 160, it is directed that a final a is to be lengthened before a case-affix beginning with yan—but a caviller might object that the solitary a obtained from No. 303 is initial, and cannot therefore be final. The present rule therefore declares that it is to be regarded as either the one or the other as the case may require. Hence we have 3rd du.  $(a+bhy\acute{a}m=)$   $\acute{a}bhy\acute{a}m$ .

नेदमदसारकाः। ७।१।११।

त्रककारयारिदमदसीर्भिस ऐस् न। एभि:। त्रस्मै। एभ्य:। त्रस्मात्। त्रस्य। त्रनयो:२। एषाम्। त्रस्मिन्। एषु।

No. 305.—Ais (No. 161) is NOT substituted for bhis AFTER the pronouns IDAM OR ADAS WITHOUT K (No. 1321). Hence 3rd p. ebhih (No. 164), 4th s. asmai (Nos. 303 and 172), 4th p. ebhyah, 5th s. asmát (No. 173), 6th s. asya (No. 159), 6th and 7th du. anayoh (Nos. 302 and 166), 6th p. eshám (No. 174), 7th s. asmin (No. 173), 7th p. eshu (No. 169).

By "re-employment" (anwádeśa) is meant the employment again of what has been employed to direct some operation, to direct another operation. As, for example, "The grammar has been studied by him (anena), now set him (enam) to read the Vedas." Or again "Of these two (anayoh) the family is illustrious—and their (enayoh) wealth is great." The cases in this form are 2nd s. enam, 2nd enau, 2nd p. enán, 3rd s. enena, 6th and 7th du. enayoh.

We now come to the declension of rájan, which makes 1st s rájá "a king" (Nos. 197, 199, and 200).

न ङिसम्बुद्धोः । ८। २। ८। नस्य नोपो न ङो सम्बुद्धो च । हे राजन् ।

No. 307.—There is not elision of n, when hi or sambuddhi (No. 151), follows. Thus he rajan "oh king."

ङावुत्तरपदे प्रतिषेध: । ब्रह्मनिष्ठ: । राजानी । राजान: । राज्ञ: ।

No. 308.—According to Kátyáyana there is "a PROHIBITION of No. 307, WHEN there is ŃI AND A SUBSEQUENT TERM forming a compound." Thus brahman + nishṭha = brahmanishṭhah "abiding in Brahma." In the 1st and 2nd d. rájánau, 1st p. rájánah, 2nd p. rájňah (Nos. 185, 273, and 76).

नलोपः सुप्सरसंज्ञात्रिविधषु कृति । ८ । २ । २ । १ । सुब्बिधी स्वर्राविधी संज्ञाविधी कृति तुग्विधी नलोपे।ऽसिद्धो नान्यत्र। राजाश्व इत्यादावित्यसिद्धत्वादात्वमेत्वमैस्त्वं च न । राजभ्याम् । यञ्चा । यञ्चाना । यञ्चानः ।

No. 309.—The elision of N (No. 200) shall be as if it had not taken effect (No. 39) in so far as regards rules directing the application of case-affixes, or relating to accentuation or the attribution of names (as in No. 324) or the augment tuk when there is a krit-affix (Nos. 816 and 8827), but the elision shall not be so regarded elsewhere. Hence the actuality of the elision is recognised in such instances as  $r\acute{a}ja + a\acute{s}w.\iota = r\acute{a}j\acute{a}\acute{s}wa$  "the king's horse," where the rule that presents itself (in this instance No. 55) is not one of those just enumerated. On the other hand, from the elision's not being regarded as having taken effect, there is neither prolongation of the vowel (No. 160) nor the change of a to e (No. 164) nor the substitution of ais for bhis (No. 161). Hence 3rd d.  $r\acute{a}jabhy\acute{a}m$ .

We have next to decline yajwan "a sacrificer," which makes 1st s. yajwá, 1st d. yajwánau, 1st p. yajwánah.

न संयोगादमन्तात्। ६। ४। १३०।

वमान्तसंयोगादनाऽकारस्य लोपो न । यञ्चनः । यञ्चना । यञ्चभ्या-

म्। ब्रह्मणः । ब्रह्मणा ।

No. 310.—There is not elision of the a of an (No. 273), when it comes AFTER a CONJUNCT CONSONANT ENDING IN V OR M. Thus 2nd p. yajwanah, 3rd s. yajwaná, 3rd d. yajwabhyám. In the same way, from brahman "Brahma," we have 2nd p. brahmanah, 3rd s. brahmaná.

मुन्हन्पूषार्थम्याां श्रो। ६। ४। १२। युषां शावेवीपधाया दीर्घी। नान्यच । इति निषेधे प्राप्ते।

No. 311.—The penult letter is lengthened (No. 197) of the affix in (indicating a possessor), han "to strike," Púshan "the sun," AND ARYAMAN "the sun," only WHEN SI FOLLOWS (No. 262 and 263). A prohibition thus presenting itself (to the lengthening of the penult vowel in the 1st s. of the word vritrahan "Indra—the destroyer of the demon Vritra," we look forward).

सी च। ६। १। १३।

इत्रादीनामुपथाया दोर्घाऽसम्बद्धा सा । वृत्रहा । हे वृत्रहन् ।

No. 312.—AND WHEN SU FOLLOWS, not in the sense of the vocative singular, the long vowel is the substitute of the penult of in &c. (No. 311). Thus 1st s. vritrahá, voc. s. he vritrahan.

पकाजुत्तरपदे णः। ८। ४। १२।

एकाजुत्तरपदं यस्य तस्मिन् समासे पूर्वपदस्यान्निमितात् परस्य प्रातिपदिकान्तनुम्विभक्तिस्यस्य नस्य गः। वृत्रहगौ।।

No. 313.—In a compound the latter term of which contains but one vowel, let there be a cerebral n in the room of the dental n that follows anything which, standing in the prior term, is qualified to cause (No. 292) the change, provided the dental n be at the end of a prátipadika, or be the augment num (No. 264), or occur in a vibhakti (No. 150). Thus 2nd d. vritrahanau (though the n is not in the same pada with the r).

है। इन्तेर्जिनेषु। ७। ३। ५४।

जिति गिति प्रत्यये नकारे च परे हन्ते हेकारस्य कुत्वम् । वृत्रघः । इत्यादि । एवं शाङ्गिन् यशस्वित्तर्यमन् पूषन् ।

No. 314.—If AN AFFIX WITH AN INDICATORY  $\hat{\mathbf{n}}$  OR  $\hat{\mathbf{n}}$  FOLLOW, or if  $\mathbf{n}$  follow, ku (i. e. one of the gutturals ka kha ga gha  $\hat{n}a$ ) is the substitute of the  $\mathbf{H}$  Of the word  $\mathbf{H}$ AN "to kill." Thus (No. 273) in the 2nd p. vritraghnah, &c.

In the same way are declined śárńgin "Indra," yaśaswin "famous," aryaman "the sun," and púshan "the sun."

मघवा बहु जम् । ई । ४ । १२८ । मघवन् शब्दस्य वा तृ इत्यन्तादेशः । ऋ इत् ।

No. 316.—Let num be the augment of that which, not BEING A VERBAL ROOT, HAS AN INDICATORY UK and of the verbal root anchu "to go" with its n elided, when A SARVANÁMASTHÁNA (No. 183) FOLLOWS. Thus 1. s. maghaván (Nos. 199, 26, and 197),

1. d. maghavantau No. 265), 1. p. maghavantah, voc. s. he maghavan, 3. d. maghavadbhyám. If tri is not substituted (No. 315) we have 1. s. maghavá, and, with the five first affixes (sut), the word is declined like the word rájan.

श्वयुवमंघानामति द्विते। ६। ४। १३३।

श्रवन्तानां भानामेषामतद्भिते संप्रसारणम् । मघानः । मघवभ्याम् । एवं श्वन् युवन् ।

No. 317.—Instead of śwan "a dog," YUVAN "a young man," AND MAGHAVAN "Indra," WHEN they are called bha (No. 185) and when a TADDHITA affix (No. 1067) DOES NOT FOLLOW, there is the sanprasárana )No. 281). Hence 5. s. maghonah (No. 283), 3. d. maghavabhyám. So far in like manner śwan and yuvan are declined.

न संप्रसारणे संप्रसारणम् । ६ । १ । ३० । यून: । यूना । युवभ्यामित्यादि । अर्वा । हे अर्वन् ।

No. 318.—Let there not be a Sanprasárana, when a San-Prasárana follows. Hence in 2. p. yúnah, where the v of yuvan is replaced by the sanprasárana, the preceding y is not to be changed to a vowel.

So again 3. s. yúnú. In the 3. d. yuvabhyám, and so on. The word arvan "a horse" makes 1. s. arvá, voc. s. he arvan.

चार्वणस्त्रसावननः । ६ । ४ । १२०।

No. 319.—Tri is the substitute of the final of an inflective base ending in ARVAN WITHOUT the privative prefix NAN, but NOT WHEN SU FOLLOWS. Thus 1, d. arvantau (No. 316), 1. p arvantah, 3. d. arvadbhyám, and so on.

पश्चिमच्यृभुज्ञामात् । ७।१।८५।

No. 320.—Of the words PATHIN "a traveller," MATHIN "a churner," AND RIBHUKSHIN "Indra," long A is the substitute, when su follows. [In the sútra the finals of these three words do not appear by reason of No. 200.]

प्रतोऽत् सर्वनामस्थाने । ७ । १ । ८ई । पथ्यादेः ।

No. 321.—Instead of the short I of pathi, &c. (No. 320) there is short A, WHEN A SARVANÁMASTHÁNA (No. 183) FOLLOWS.

No. 323.—There is ELISION OF the TI (No. 52) of pathin, &c. (No. 320), when the word is a BHA (No. 185). Hence 2. p. pathah, 3. s. pathá, 3. d. pathibhyám. In the same way mathin and ribhukshin (No. 320) are declined.

ष्णान्ता षट्।१।१।२४।

No. 327.—AUS is substituted for jas and sas coming AFTER the word ASHTAN, when (in accordance with the option allowed by No. 326) it has taken á as its final.

As (it might have been expected that) ashtabhyah (with a short a) was to be enounced (in the  $s\acute{u}tra$ ), the exhibition of the word with the long  $\acute{a}$  (ashtábhyah) informs us that the substitution of long  $\acute{a}$  (No. 326) takes place in the case of jas and  $\acute{s}as$  (although these affixes do not begin with consonants).

Thus 1. and 2. p. ashţau, 4. and 5. p. ashţábhyah 6. p. ashţánam, 7. p. ashţásu. On the alternative of the change to á (No. 321) not being made, ashţan is declined like panchan (No 319).

This affix comes after anchu only when a word ending with a case-affix precedes it in composition. It comes after yujir and kruncha when these are uncombined. The non-elision of the n (by 363) of kruncha is an irregularity.

The letters k and n are indicatory in the affix kwin.

क्रदितिङ्। ३।१।८३।

अव धात्वधिकारे तिङ्कित्तः प्रत्ययः कृत्यंत्तः स्यात् ।

No. 331.—At the end of a pada, A letter of the GUTTURAL class is the substitute for the final OF that after which THE AFFIX KWIN comes.

As this sútra is non-existent in the sight of No. 333, the j of ritwij is (by No. 333, though the Siddhánta Kaumudí traces the change through Nos. 334 and 32, back to No. 331) changed to a guttural, and we have 1. s. ritwig or ritwik, 1. d. ritwijau, 3. d. ritwighyám.

युजेरसमासे। ७।१।७१।

In the 1. s. when we have yuj+su, the su is elided by No. 199; then the j is elided by No. 6; and then the dental n is changed to the guttural n by No. 331, giving yun "who joins," 1st d. yunjau, 1st p. yunjah, 3rd d. yugbhyám (No. 333).

चोः कुः। ८। २। ३०।

चवर्गस्य कवर्गः स्याज्माल पदान्ते च । सुयुक् । सुयुज्ञा । सुयुग्भ्याम् । खन् । खज्जो । खन्भ्याम् ।

No. 333.—When jhal follows, or at the end of a pada, instead of the Palatal class of letters, let there be a GUTTURAL.

Thus in the compound formed of su "well," and yuj "to join," we have 1st s. suyuk "who applies himself well," 1st d. suyujau, 3rd d. suyugbhyám.

The word khan "who limps" (from the root khaji No. 497) makes lst d. khanjau, 3rd d. khanbhyám.

त्रश्चस्र जस्जयजराजसाजक्यमां षः । ८ । २ । ३६ । भिल पदान्ते च । जश्त्वचर्त्वे । राट् । राड् । राजा । राजाः । राङ्माम् । एवं विभ्राट् देवेट् विश्वस्ट् ।

No. 334.—When jhal follows, or at the end of a pada, let she be the substitute of vrascha "to cut," bhrasja "to fry," srija "to create," mrija "to rub," yaja "to worship," rája "to shine," bhrája "to shine," and of what ends in the letter chh or s.

Then, by Nos. 82 and 165, we have 1st s. rát or rúd "a ruler, 1st d. rájau, 1st p. rájah, 3rd d. rádbhyám. In the same way vibhrát "who shines much," devet "a worshipper of the gods," and viśwasrit "the creator of the universe.

विश्वस्य वसुराटोः । ६ । ३ । १२८ ।

दीर्घ: । विश्वाराट् । विश्वाराड् । विश्वराजी । विश्वाराङ्काम् ।

No. 336.—Of VIŚWA, WHEN VASU "wealth" OR RÁŢ (No. 334) FOLLOWS, the vowel is lengthened. Thus 1st s. viśwáráţ or viśwáráţ "a universal ruler. In the 1st d. the vowel is not lengthened, because the word is not in the form of ráţ:—thus viśwarájau. In the 3rd d. again we have viśwáráḍbhyám.

स्कोः संयोगाद्यारन्ते च। ८। २। २८।

No. 337.—At the end of a pada, or when jhal follows, there is elision of sor a Guttural, initial in a compound consonant.

Thus bhrasj (by a special rule) is changed to bhrisj, which by the present rule becomes bhrij; it then becomes bhrish by No. 334, bhrid by No. 82, and optionally bhrit by No. 165. In the 1st d. as the word is not at the end of a pada, the s does not drop, but it changes to a palatal by No. 76. Then, by No. 25, the s becomes j, giving bhrijjau. In the 3rd d. bhridbhyám.

Now as regards the pronouns tyad, &c., there is the substitution of a (No. 213), and the substitution of the form of the subsequent (No. 300).

तदोः सः सावनन्त्ययोः । ७ । २ । १०६ ।

No. 338.—When su follows, let s be substituted in the room of the Tor D, not being final, of tyad, &c.

Thus tyad "that" makes in the 1st s. syah (No. 213):—1st d. tyau, 1st p. tye (No. 71). Tad "that" makes 1st s. sah, 1st d. tau, 1st p. te. The relative yad does not change its d, because it is final. It makes 1st s. yah, 1st d. yau, 1st p. ye:—etad "this" makes 1st s. eshah (Nos. 338 and 169), 1st d. etau, 1st p. ete.

Thus the $ad$ of yushmad being elided, and twa substituted for the other portion by No. 340, and $am$ substituted for $u$ by No. 339, we have 1st s. twam "thou" (No. 300). case, the word would end in ns, but the s is elided by No. 26, and then the substitution of long á being obtained from No. 346, we have 2nd p. yushmán and asmán.

भारता परस्य । युपाभ्यम् । अस्मभ्यम् ।

No. 351.—ABHYAM is the substitute OF BHYAS coming after these two (yushmad and asmad). Thus 4th p. yushmabhyam and asmabhyam. [The affix being a substitute, the long á of No. 349 does not appear here.]

No. 361.—"IN A SIMPLE SENTENCE THESE SUBSTITUTES (see Nos. 357, &c. of Yushmad and Asmad may be (optionally) used but in a subsequent reference they must be invariably employed." For example—we may say "Brahmá is Thy (te or tava) worshipper," but, in the sequel "to Thee (te) that art such, our reverence is due," the form "te" alone is admissible.

We now come to the declension of the word supát or supád "having handsome feet,"—1st d. supádau.

No. 362.—Pat is the substitute of the word Pád when part of an inflective base ending in the word pád and entitled to the name of bha (No. 185). Hence 2nd p. supadah, 3rd s. supadá, but 3rd d. supádbhyám.

The word agnimath "who kindles fire" makes 1st s. agnimat (Nos. 199, 82, and 165), 1st d. agnimathau, 2nd s. agnimatham.

हलन्तानामनिदितामङ्गानामुपधाया नस्य ले।पः किति ङिति । नुम् । संयोगान्तस्य ले।पः । नस्य कुत्वेन ङः । प्राङ्घे । प्राञ्चे । प्राञ्चः ।

No. 363.—When that which has an indicatory k or follows, there is elision of the n which is the penultimate letter (No. 196) of inflective bases ending in consonants and not having an indicatory short i. For example, the word pranch "eastern" is formed from the root anchu "to go" (the indicatory vowel in which is not i but u) by the affix kwin (No. 328) which has an indicatory k. Thus in forming the 1. s. after eliding the affix (by No. 199) we have, by this rule, prách. Then by No. 316 num is directed, which, by No. 265, makes pránch, then there is elision of the final consonant (No. 26), and finally, the n having been changed to a guttural by No. 331, we have prán. In the 1. d. pránchau, 1. p. pránchah.

लुप्रनकारस्याञ्चतेर्भस्याकारस्य ले।प:।

No. 364.—There is elision of the letter a of ACH (i. e. of the root  $a\hat{n}chu$ ) of which the n has been elided, when it is entitled to the name of bha (No. 185).

लुप्राकारनकाराञ्चता परे पूर्वस्याणा दीर्घः । प्राचः । प्राभ्याम् । प्रत्यङ् । प्रत्यञ्चा । प्रतीचः । प्रत्यभ्याम् । उदङ् । उदञ्चा ।

No. 365.—When anchu, having its a elided (by No. 364) and its n (by No. 365)—and thus reduced to CHI, i. e. ch,—Follows, a long vowel is substituted for the an (or short vowel) that precedes. Thus in the 2. p. the vowel of the prefix pra (No. 47) being lengthened, we have práchah, 3. d. prágbhyám (Nos. 184 and 331).

The word pratyanch "western" (in which the prefix is prati) in like manner (No. 361) makes 1st s. pratyan, 1st d. pratyan-chau, 2nd p. pratichah (No. 365), 3rd d. pratyagbhyam.

The word udanch "northern" makes 1. s. udan, 1. d. udanchau.

उद ईत्। ६। ४। १३८।

उच्छन्दात् परस्य लुप्रनकाराञ्चतेर्भस्याकारस्य ईत् । उदीचः । उदम्याम् ।

No. 366.—Long f is the substitute of the letter a of the root anchu, deprived of its n and called bha (No. 185), when it comes AFTER the word UT (No. 48). Thus 2nd p. udichah, 3rd d. udag-bhyám.

समः सिम। ६। ३। ८३।

श्रवत्ययान्तेऽञ्जती । सम्यङ् । सम्यञ्जा । समीवः । सम्यभ्याम् ।

No. 367.—Instead of the prefix SAM (No. 48) there is SAMI, when anchu follows not ending with a pratyaya (as, for example, when the affix kwin is elided by Nos. 330, &c.) Hence 1st s. samyań "moving equally, right," 1st d. samyańchau, 2nd p. samichah (No. 365), 3rd d. samyagbhyám.

सहस्य सिंधः। ६। ३। ८५।

तथा। सध्यङ् । १ । १ । १ । छा। छो। हिं । हिंद्राहरू

No. 368.—Under the same circumstances (No. 367), there is SADHRI instead of SAHA. Thus 1. s. sadhryań "moving with."

तिरसस्तिर्थलापे। ई। ३। ८४।

त्रलुप्राकारेऽञ्चतावप्रत्ययान्ते तिरसस्तिर्घादेशः । तिर्घङ् । तिर्घञ्चा । तिरश्चः । तिर्घग्भ्याम् ।

No. 369.—TIRI is the substitute of TIRAS, WHEN anchu, whose a is NOT ELIDED (No. 364) and which does not end in a visible affix (see No. 367), follows. Thus 1. s. tiryań "moving crookedly." 1. d. tiryańchau, 2. p. tiraśchah (the a of anchu being here elided by No. 364), 3. d. tiryagbhyám.

नाच्चेः पूजायाम्। ६। ४। ३०।

No. 370.—There is not elision (see No. 363) of the penultimate n of the root anchu, when it signifies "to worship." Thus the word pránch "a worshipper" makes 1. s. prán (Nos. 199, 26, and 331), 1. d. pránchau. As the n is not elided, the elision of the a (No. 364) does not take place, and we have 2. p. pránchah, 3. d. pránbhyám (Nos. 26 and 331), 7. p. pránkshu (Nos. 26, 331, 104, and 169). In like manner are pratyan, &c. declined when the signification relates to "worship."

The word krunch "a curlew" makes, in like manner, 1. s. krun, 1. d. krunchau, 3. d. krunbhyam.

The word payomuch "a cloud" makes 1. s. payomuk or payomug (Nos. 333 and 165), 1. d. payomuchau, 3. d. payomughhyám (No. 333).

In consequence of its being formed by an affix with an indicatory u, the word mahat "great" takes num by No. 316.

सान्तमद्दतः संयोगस्य। ६।४।१०।

सान्तसंयोगस्य महतश्च या नकारस्तस्यापधाया दीर्घाऽसम्बद्धाः सर्वनामस्याने। महान्। महान्ते। महान्तः। हे महन्। महस्राम्।

No. 371.—When a sarvanámasthána, the affix implying the vocative singular excepted, follows, the long vowel becomes the substitute of that which immediately precedes the letter n of a compound consonant ending in s or that of the word mahat. Thus 1. s. mahán (Nos. 316, 371, 199, and 26), 1. d. mahántau, 1. p. mahántah, voc. s. he mahan, 3. d. mahadbhyám.

ऋत्वसन्तस्य चाधाताः । ६।४।१४।

श्रत्वन्तस्योपधाया दोवी धातुभिन्नामन्तस्य चामम्बुद्धा । धीमान् । धीमन्ता । धीमन्तः । हे धीमन् । शमादी महद्वत् । भातेर्डवतुः । डिन्वमामध्यादमस्यापि टेर्लीपः । भवान् । भवन्ता । शवन्तस्य तु भवन् ।

No. 372.—The long vowel is the substitute of the penultimate letter of what ends in ATU, AND OF WHAT, NOT BEING A VERBAL ROOT, ENDS IN AS, when the 1st singular case-affix, not with the force of the vocative, follows. Thus in the case of the word dhimat "intelligent," formed of dhi "intellect" and the affix matup, we find 1. s. dhiman (Nos. 316, 199, and 26), 1. d. dhimantau, 1. p. dhimantah, voc. s. he dhiman. When sas (2. p.) and the remaining affixes follow, it is like mahat (No. 371).

The honorific pronoun bhavat "Your Honour," is formed of bha "to shine" and the affix davatu. From rule No. 267 we learn that an affix having an indicatory d causes the elision of d, i. e. of the final vowel and what may follow it, in whatever is called d (No. 185), and the elision of d (here the final vowel of the root) takes place in order that the possession of an indicatory d by d avatu may not be nugatory. Hence 1. s. d bhavan (Nos. 372-316, 199, and 26), 2. d. d bhavantau. Of the word d bhavan, when it ends with the participial affix d and signifies "being," the 1. s. is d bhavan.

नाभ्यस्ताच्छतुः । ७ । १ । ७८ । अभ्यस्ताच्छतुर्नुम् न । ददत् । ददता ।

No. 374.—Of SATRI AFTER A REDUPLICATED TERM there shall NOT be the augment num (No. 316). Hence dadat, the present participle of dá "to give," as it is a reduplicate, makes 1. s. dadat, 1. d. dadatau.

No. 375.—Let JAKSHITI, &c., SIX verbs, with jakshiti itself as the seventh, be termed "reduplicate." Their being so termed brings them under No. 374, and we have 1. s. jakshat "eating," 1. d. jakshatau, 1. p. jakshatah. In the same way jágrat "waking," daridrat "poor," śásat "ruling," chakásat "shining."

The word gup "concealing" makes 1. s. gup, 1. d. gupau, 1. p. gupah, 3. d. gubbhyám (No. 82).

त्यदारिषूपवदेष्वज्ञानार्थदृशेः कञ् । चात् किन् ।

No. 376.—And kan shall be the affix after dris, not signifying "perception," when tyad, &c. (No. 170) precede it in combination. By the word "and" in the sútra, we are reminded that the affix kwin may be employed; and it is this latter that will be employed in the present instance.

No. 377.—When the word drig or dris or the affix vatu, follows, LONG Á is the substitute OF A PRONOUN. Thus tad+dris (Nos. 27 and 55) becomes tadris "such," and 1. s. tadris (Nos. 199, 334, 81, 331, and 165), 1. d. tadrisau, 1. p. tadrisah, 3. d. tadrigbhyám (Nos. 334, &c.).

In the example viś "who enters," the final is changed to sh by No. 334, and then, by Nos. 82 and 165, we have 1. s. vid or vit. Again 1. d. viśau, 1. p. viśah, 3. d. vidbhyám.

नशेवी। ८। २। ६३।

No. 379 .- The affix KWIN shall come AFTER the root SPRIS,

WHEN the preceding member of the compound is an inflected word OTHER THAN UDAKA. Thus the word ghritaspris "who touches clarified butter" makes 1. s. ghritasprik (Nos. 199, 334, 82, and 331), 1. d. ghritasprisau, 1. p. ghritasprisah.

The word dadhrish "arrogant" makes 1. s. dadhrik (Nos. 199, 82, and 331), 1. d. dadhrishau, 3 d. dadhrigbhyám.

The word ratnamush "a stealer of gems" makes 1. s. ratnamut (Nos. 199, 82, and 165), 1. d. ratnamushau, 3. d. ratnamudhyám.

The numeral shash "six" makes 1. p. shat (Nos. 324, 208, 82, and 165), 3. p. shadbhih, 4. and 5. p. shadbhyah, 6. p. shannam (Nos. 82, 78, and 84), 7. p. shatsu (Nos. 82 and 90).

In the case of pipathish "one who wishes to read," the fact that this crude word ends in sh (caused by No. 169) is disregarded by No. 123 (an earlier rule in the tripádí—see No. 39) which directs ru to be substituted—making (after the elision of su by No. 199) pipathir.

No. 380.—The long vowel is the substitute of IK being the PENULTIMATE letter of what ends in R or V, at the end of a pada. Thus 1. s. pipathih (Nos. 199, 123, and 110), 1. d. pipathishau, 3. d. pipathirbhyám.

No. 381.—And EVEN WHEN there is A SEPARATION caused BY NUM, and VISARGA, AND A SIBILANT, severally, the cerebral substitute takes the place of the dental s coming after in or ku.

Thus, when su (7.p.) is to be attached, then the word pipathish, by Nos. 123, 380, and 110, becomes pipathih;—the su is then changed to shu by No. 169; and finally, by the optional rule No. 78, we have either pipathishshu or pipathishshu.

The word chikirsh "who wishes to do" makes 1. s. chikih. Here the affix is first elided by No. 199; then the final sh (regarded as s) is elided by No. 230, this rule (according to No. 39) regarding as inoperative the rule No. 169, which had changed the s. to sh, and finally the r becomes visarga by No. 110. Then 1. d. chikirshau, 3. d. chikirshyám, 7. p. chikirshu. In the 7. p. the s is elided by No. 230 but the r is not changed to visarga by No. 110, that rule being debarred in this case by No. 294.

The word vidwas "wise" (formed by the affix vasu) makes 1. s. vidwán (Nos. 316, 371, 199, and 26), 1. d. vidwánsau, voc. s. he vidwan.

वसाः संप्रसारणम् । ६ । ४ । १३१ । वस्वन्तस्य भस्य संप्रसारणं स्यात् । विदुषः । वसुम्नंस्विति दः । विदुद्भ्याम् ।

No. 382.—Let the SANPRASÁRANA (No. 281) be the substitute OF a bha (No. 185) which ends in VASU. Thus in the 2nd. p. the v, i. e. w, of vidwas becomes u (No. 283), and finally (by No. 169) we have vidushah. According to No. 287, the s final in a pada is changed to d, and we have 3rd d. vidwadbhyám.

सर्वनामस्थाने । पुमान् । हे पुमन् । पुमासी । पुंसः । पुम्याम् । पुंसु । ऋदुशनेत्यनङ् । उशना । उशनसी ।

No. 383.—Of the word Puns "a male," Asuń is the substitute, when a sarvanámasthána (No. 183) follows. Thus (regarding the anuswára as equal to m) we get pumas (Nos. 5, 36, and 59) from which come 1. s. pumán (Nos. 316 and 371), voc. s. he puman, 1. d. pumánsuu. Again 2. p. punsah, 3. d. pumbhyám (No. 26), 7. p. punsu.

The word uśanas "the regent of the planet Venus," by No. 226, substitutes anań, when su follows, not in the sense of the vocative. Thus we have 1. s. uśaná (Nos. 197, 199, and 200), 1. d. uśanasau.

त्रस्य सम्युद्धा वाऽनङ् नलापश्च वा वाच्यः । हे उशन । हे उशनन् । त्रे उशनः । हे उशनसा । उशनाभ्याम् । उशनस्सु । त्रनेहा । त्रनेहसा । हे त्रनेहः । वेधाः । वेधसा । हे वेधः । वेधाभ्याम् ।

No. 384.—"OF THIS word (usanas), WHEN SU IN THE SENSE OF THE VOCATIVE FOLLOWS, it SHOULD BE STATED that ANAN is OPTIONALLY the substitute, AND OPTIONALLY there is ELISION OF the N."

Thus we have either he uśana, or he uśanan, or he uśanah (Nos. 199, 123, and 110), voc. d. he uśanasau, 3. d. uśanobhyám (Nos. 123 and 125), 7. p. uśanassu.

The word anehas "time" makes 1. s. anehá (Nos. 226, &c.), 1. d. anehasau, voc. s. he anehah.

The word vedhas "Brahmá" makes 1. s. vedháh (Nos. 372 and 110), 1. d. vedhasau, voc. s. he vedhah, 3. d. vedhobhyám.

No. 385.—Au is the substitute of ADAS, when su follows, AND there is ELISION OF SU. In accordance with rule No. 338, the d is changed to s. Thus 1. s. asau "that." In the 1. d., by No. 213, there is substitution of a for the final of adas; then, by No. 300, the preceding a merges in the following—giving ada; then, when the affix is attached, vriddhi is substituted by No. 41; but then the next rule interposes.

अदमेऽमान्तस्य दात् परस्य उदूते। दस्य मश्च । त्रान्तरतम्या-दुम्बस्य उदीर्घस्य जः । त्रमू । जमः श्री । गुगः । No. 386.—Short U and long  $\hat{u}$  are the substitutes of what comes AFTER the D OF ADAS NOT ENDING IN S, and in the room OF D there is M. The short u is substituted for a short vowel, the long  $\hat{u}$  for a long vowel, on the principle (No. 23) that, of the substitutes that offer themselves, the one employed shall be the most similar to that of which it takes the place. Thus we have, instead of adau,  $am\hat{u}$ . In the 1st. p. long  $\hat{i}$  is directed to be substituted for the affix by No. 171, and the substitution of guna (which would give  $ada+\hat{i}=ade$ ) being directed, we look forward.

No. 387.—In the Plural, long f is the substitute of the E (No. 386) that follows the d of adas; and instead of the d there is m. Thus 1. p. ami. In the 2. s. in accordance with No. 39, the several rules regarding the application of the case-affix first take place, and then we have the substitution of u and m (by No. 389). Thus 2. s. amam (by No. 386) becomes amum, 2. d. amú, 2. p. amún (instead of adán).

In the 3. s. mu having been made (by No. 386), and consequently the name ghi (No. 190) being applicable to the term, the substitute  $n\acute{a}$  offers itself from No. 191. Thus we should have  $amu+n\acute{a}$ ; but here the question might occur, seeing that the mu was derived from a rule (No. 386) in the  $trip\acute{a}d\acute{a}$  (No. 39), whether No. 191 does not regard the mu as non-existent.

The following rule refers to this point.

न मुने। ८। २। ३।

No. 388.—When the production of Ná Is to take place or has taken place, the existence of Mu Is not to be regarded as If It had not been effected. Thus we have 3. s. amuná. Then 3. p. amúbhyám (for adábhyám, see No. 386), 3. p. amíbhih (No. 387), 4. s. amushmai (Nos. 172 and 169), 4. p. amíbhyah, 5. s. amushmát, 6. s. amushya, 6. d. amuyoh, 6. p. amíshám (No. 174), 7. s. amushmin, 7. p. amíshu.

No. 391.—Instead of the d of idam "this," there is Y, WHEN SU FOLLOWS. Thus 1. s. iyam (No. 298). In the other cases No. 213 directs the substitution of short a for the final, and the preceding vowel merges in this by No. 300. The word being feminine, long á (táp) is added by No. 1341; the d is changed to m by No. 301; and, the base having thus become imá, we have 1. d. ime (No. 240), 1. p. imáh, 2. s. imám. In the 3. d. and subsequent cases the id is changed to an by No. 302; and, in the 3. s., e is substituted for the final by No. 342, giving anayá. By No. 303 there is elision of the id, when the case-affix begins with a consonant, so that we have 3. d. ábhyám, 3. p. ábhih. In the 4. s., by No. 244, asyai, 5. and 6. s. asyáh, 6. d. anayoh (No. 242), 6. p. ásám (Nos. 174 and 393), 7. s. asyám (Nos. 335 and 219), 7. p. ásu.

No. 397.—Num shall optionally be the augment of that which ends with a portion (a) of the affix śatri coming AFTER what ends in A OR Á, WHEN ŚI (No. 259) OR a NADÍ (No. 215) FOLLOWS.

For example, the verbal root tud (No. 693) taking the affix śatri becomes tuda; and then, with the participial affix, it becomes tudat (No. 300), which, by this rule, makes 1. d. tudanti or tudati. By No. 264, 1. p. tudanti. And so bhát "shining" (root bhá), 1. d. bhántí or bhátí, 1. p. bhánti.

By the nadí, in this aphorism, the feminine affix níp (i) is intended.

Hence pachut (No. 397) makes 1. d. pachanti. In the 1. p. pachanti. In like manner divyat "sporting" (No. 669) makes 1. d. divyanti, 1. p. divyanti.

The word dhanus "a bow" makes 1. s. dhanuh (Nos. 270, 123, and 110), 1. d. dhanushi (No. 169). In the 3. s. dhanushi, 3. d. dhanurbhyam (No. 123). In like manner chakshus "an eye," havis "clarified butter," &c. The word payas "water" makes 1. s. payah (Nos. 270, &c.),

1. d. payasí, 1. p. payánsi (No. 371), 3. s. payasá, 3. d. payobhyám (Nos. 123 and 126). In the neuter of the pronoun adas "that," 1. s. adah, the various alterations of the case-affixes (directed in Nos. 259, 262, 172, &c.) first take place; and then the substitution of u and m (No. 386) having been made, we get 1. d. amú, 1. p. amúni. The rest is like the masculine.

OF INDECLINABLE WORDS.

No. 399.—SWAR, &c. AND the PARTICLES (nipáta) are called INDECLINABLES.

These are swar "heaven," antar "midst, "prátar "in the morning," punar "again," sanutar "in concealment," uchchais "high," níchais "low," śanais "slowly," ridhak "rightly," rite "except," yugapat "at once," árát "far, near," prithak "apart," hyas "yesterday," swas "to-morrow," divá "by day," rátrau "in the night," sáyam "at eve," chiram "a long time," manák "a little," ishat "a little," josham "silently," tushnim "silently," vahis "outside," avas "outside," samayá "near," nikashá "near," swayam "of one's self," vrithá "in vain," naktam "at night," nan "not," hetau "by reason of," iddhá "truly," addhá "evidently," sámi "half," vat "like," (e. g. bráhmanavat "priestly," kshatriyavat "like a Kshatriya"), saná "perpetually," upadhá "division," tiras "crookedly," sanat or sanát "perpetually," antará or antarena "without, except," jyok "quickly," kam "water, ease," sam "ease," sahasá "hastily," viná "without," náná "various," swasti "greeting," swadhá (interjection) "oblation to manes," alam "enough," vashat, śrauhsat and vaushat, (interjections) "oblation of butter," anyat "otherwise," asti "existence," upáńśu "privately," kshamá "patience, pardon," viháyasá "aloft, in the air," doshá "in the evening," mrishá and mithyá "falsely," mudhá "in vain," purá "formerly," mitho or mithas "mutually," práyas "frequently," muhus "repeatedly," praváhukam or praváhiká "at the same time," áryahalam "violently," abhíkshnam "repeatedly," sákam or sárdham "with," namas "reverence," hiruk "without," dhik "fie!" atha "thus," am "quickly," ám "indeed, yes," pratám "with fatigue," prasán "alike," pratán "widely," má or máň "do not."

The foregoing class of words ("swar, &c.)," is one the fact of a word's belonging to which is known only from its form, and could not have been inferred from its nature (see No. 53).

The following are particles (nipáta), viz. cha "and," vá "or," ha (an expletive), aha (vocative particle), eva "only, exactly," evam so, thus," núnam "certainly," śaśwat "continually," yugaput "at once," bhúyas "repeatedly," kúput "excellently," súput "excellently," kuvit "abundantly," net or chet "if," chan "if" [the n is indicatory], yatra "where," tatra "there," kachchit "what if?," "naha" no," hanta "ah!" mákim, mákím, or nakih, "do not," ákím "indeed!", máń "do not," nañ "not," yávat "as much as," távat "so much," twai, nwai, or dwai "perhaps," rai (disrespectful interjection), śraushat, vaushat or swáhá (interj.) "oblation to the gods," swadha "oblation to the manes," vashat "oblation to the gods," om (mystical ejaculation typical of the three great deities of the Hindú mythology), tum "thouing," tatháhi "thus," (introducing an exposition), khalu "certainly," kila "indeed," atha "now" (auspicious inceptive), sushtu "excellent," sma (attached to the present tense gives it a past signification), ádaha "fie!"

To the list of Indeclinables belong also what have, without the reality, the appearance of an upasarga (No. 47), of a word with one of the terminations of case or person, and of the vowels. In the example avadattam "given away," the ava is not really an upasarga, for if it were, the word (by VII. 4. 47.\*) would be avattam. In the example ahanyuh "egotistic," the ahan is not identical with the aham "I," terminating in a case-affix—because a pronoun, really regarded as being in the nominative case, could not be the first member in such a compound. In the example, astikshirá, a cow or the like "in which there is milk," the asti must be regarded as differing from the word asti "is," which ends with the affix of the 3rd person singular, otherwise it could not have appeared as the first member in a compound. The vowels  $a, \acute{a}, i, \acute{u}, \acute{u}, \acute{e}, ai, o, au$ , when, as interjections, they indicate various emotions, differ from the ordinary vowels. Other Indeclinables are paśu "well," śukam "quickly," yathákathácha "any how," pát, pyát, ańga, hai, he bhoh, (vocative particles), aye "ah!" (indicating recollection), gha (vocative), vishu "on all sides," ekapade "at the same moment," yut "blame," átah "hence."

This list also ("cha, &c.") is one each of the various individuals composing which is to be recognised by its own shape (No. 53).

Words are indeclinable which have the following terminations viz. the taddhita affixes (No. 1067) beginning with tasil (No. 1286) reckoning as far as (but not including) pásap (V. 3. 47.):—or the terminations sas, &c. (No. 1330) reckoning as far as the aphorism "samásántáh," (V. 4. 68.):—or the Vaidika termination am or its equivalent ám (No. 1309):—or the terminations that have the force of kritwasuch (i. e. which give the sense of such and such a number of times):—or the terminations tasi (equivalent to tasil) and vat "like," and ná or nán (V. 2. 27). For example, atah "hence" (which ends in tasil), &c.

No. 400.—What ends in a KRIT affix (No. 135) ENDING IN the letter M OR in ECH is indeclinable. Thus smáram smáram "having repeatedly remembered," jívase "to live," pibadhyai "to drink." (III. 4. 9.)

इत्यव्ययानि॥

No. 403.—There is elision (luk—No. 209) of AP (the feminine termination) AND of SUP (the case-affixes) AFTER what is INDECLINABLE. For example, tatra śáláyám "in that hall." Here the indeclinable tatra "there" does not take either the feminine termination or a case-affix, although it is equivalent to tasyám "in that." So then "what changes not (na vyeti), remaining alike in the three genders, and in all cases, and in all numbers, is what is termed an indeclinable avyaya."

The grammarian Bháguri wishes that there shall be elision of the initial a of ava and ápi (No. 48), and that áp shall be the termination of all feminine words which would otherwise end in consonants, e. g. váchá "speech" (instead of "vách), niśá "night". (not niś), diśá "space" (not diś). [But the rule, thus resting on the authority of a single grammarian (see No. 38) is optional.] So we have either avagáhah or vagáhah "bathing," apidhánam or pidhánam "concealment."

So much for the Indeclinables.

No. 404.—The terminations generally of the moods and tenses of the verbs are denoted in the grammar by the letter l. The affixes of each particular tense are denoted by the letter l accompanied by certain indicatory letters as follows:—Present LAŢ, 2nd Preterite LIŢ, 1st Future LUṬ, 2nd Future LRIṬ, scriptural Imperative LEṬ, Imperative LOṬ, 1st Preterite LAŃ, Potential LIŃ, 3rd Preterite LUŃ, Conditional LRIŃ. THE FIFTH AMONG THESE (viz. let) occurs only in the Vedas.

No. 405.—Let the letters L (above described) be placed after transitive verbs in denoting the object also as well as the agent; and after intransitives in marking the condition (i. e. the action itself, which the verb imports), also as well as the agent.

[N. B.—The verb itself denotes the action: to be, or to do, generally; or to be, or to do, in a particular manner. In the active voice, the affix marks the agent: in the passive voice of a transitive verb, it marks the object; but, in the passive form of an intransitive verb, the action itself.]

No. 406.—Let LAT (No.404) be placed after a verbal root employed IN denoting PRESENT action. The a and the t (in lat) are indicatory. According to No. 155 the l also ought to be indicatory—but it is not to be regarded as indicatory here, because nothing (in the grammar) is enounced without a purpose (and no purpose would be served by the elision of this l, which therefore remains).

The verb  $bh\hat{u}$  "to be" is now to be conjugated. When it is wished to speak of an agent, the case (as far as we have yet seen) standing thus, viz:  $bh\hat{u}+l$  (we look forward).

Thus bhú becomes bho, and, av being substituted by No. 29, we have bhavati "he becomes." In like manner bhavatah "they two become."

भोडन्तः। ७।१।३।

प्रत्ययावयवस्य भस्यान्तादेशः । त्रतो गुणे । भवन्ति । भवि । भवयः । भवय ।

No. 421.—Ant is the substitute of the letter JH being part of an affix (as in the case of jhi—407). By No. 300 the a of ant supplies the place both of itself and of the preceding a of bhava—so that we have bhavanti "they become." Again—bhavasi "thou becomest," bavathah "you two become," bhavatha "you become."

ऋता दीघा यिता ७। ३। १०१।

Thus (bhava+mi=) bhavámi "I become," bhavávah "we two become," bhavámah "we become."

With the pronouns supplied, the present tense stands thus:-

sa bhavati. tau bhavatah. te bhavanti.
twan bhavasi. yuván bhavathah. yúyan bhavatha.
ahan bhavámi. áván bhavávah. vayan bhavámah.

परे। चे चिट्। ३। २। ११५।

भूतानदातनपरोचार्यवृतेर्धातार्लिट् स्यात् । लस्य तिबादयः ।

No. 423.—Let LIT (No. 404) come after a verbal root employed IN signifying what took place before the current day and UNPERCEIVED (by the narrator.)

Instead of the l (of lit, the i and t of which are indicatory), let there be tip, &c. (No. 407).

परस्मैपदानां णानतुसुस्थानयुसणाल्वमाः । ४ । ३ । ८२ । लिटस्तिबादीनां गानादयः स्यः । भू च इति स्थिते ।

No. 424.—Let there be, in the room of the PARASMAI-PADA affixes, tip, &c., substituted for lit, nal, &c.—viz.

Sing. Dual. Plural.

THAL ATHUS A

NAL VA MA.

Proceeding to subjoin these affixes, (the n and l being elided by Nos. 148 and 5) the case standing thus— $bh\acute{u}+a$ —we look forward.

भुवा वृग्नुङ्जिटोः । ६ । ४ । ८८ । अचि ।

No. 425.—Let VUK (of which the u and k are indicatory) be the augment of the root BHÚ, WHEN (a substitute for) LUŃ OR LIT beginning with a vowel Follows.

Thus  $bh\hat{u} + a$  becomes  $bh\hat{u}v + a$ .

लिटि धातारमध्यासस्य। ६।१।८।

लिटि परेऽनभ्यामधात्ववयवस्यैकाचः प्रथमस्य द्वे स्त श्रादि-भूतादचः परस्य तु द्वितीयस्य । भूव् भूव् श्र इति स्थिते ।

No. 426.—WHEN LIT FOLLOWS, there are two in the room of the first portion, containing a single vowel, OF AN UNREDUPLICATED VERBAL ROOT; but, after an initial vowel, the reduplication is of the second portion (containing a single vowel) which follows it.

पूर्वे। इश्वासः । ई। १। ४।

No. 427.—Let THE FIRST of those two which are here spoken of (No. 426) be called THE REDUPLICATE (abhyása).

चनादिः ग्रेषः । ७। ४। ६०।

अभ्यासस्यादिईल् शिष्यतेऽन्ये हले। लुप्यन्त ।

No. 428.—Of the reduplicate (No. 427) THE FIRST CONSONANT IS LEFT; the other consonants are elided.

इसः।०।४।५८।

श्रभ्यासस्याचः ।

No. 429.—In the room of the vowel of the reduplicate there is the short vowel.

Thus we have bhúbhúv + a.

भवतेर: । ७ । ४ । ७३ ।

भवतेरभ्यामस्योकारस्य त्रः स्याब्लिटि ।

No. 430.—When lit follows, let there be a instead of the u of the reduplicate syllable of the verb BHÚ.

अभ्यासे चर्च। ८। ४। ५४।

अभ्यासे भलां चरः स्युर्जगश्च । भगां जगः खयां चर इति विवेकः । बभूव । बभूवतुः । बभूवुः ।

No. 431.—IN A REDUPLICATE syllable, let there be ALSO CHAR and jas instead of jhal:—that is to say—let there be jas in the room of jhas, and char in the room of khay—such is the distinction.

Thus bhabhúv+a becomes finally babhúva "he became." In the same way babhúvatuh (No. 424) "they two became," babhúvuh "they became."

चिट्च। ३। ४। ११५।

लिडादेशस्तिङार्घधातुक्रमंज्ञः ।

No. 432.—And let a conjugational affix substituted for LIT be called árdhadhátuka (No. 436).

त्रार्धधातुकस्येद्वचादेः। ७। २। ३५।

बर्भावय । बर्भवयुः । बर्भव । बर्भव । बर्भावव । बर्भविम ।

No. 433.—It is the augment of an Ardhadhatuka affix BEGINNING WITH VAL.

In accordance with No. 103, the i (of it) is prefixed to the affix—giving babhúvitha, "thou becamest." Then babhúvathuh "you two became," babhúva "you became," babhúva "I became," and again babhúviva (No. 433), "we two became," babhúvima "we became."

स्रानद्यतने लुट्। ३।३।१५। भविष्यत्यनद्यतनेऽर्थे धातालुट्।

No. 434.—Let LUT (No. 404) come after a verbal root IN THE SENSE OF what will happen but NOT IN THE COURSE OF THE CURRENT DAY.

स्यतासी ॡ लुटो: । ३ । १ । ३३ ।

धातारेते। स्ता त्वलुटोः परतः । शबाद्यपवादः । त्व इति त्वङ्ल्टार्यहणम् । No. 435.—When LRI AND LUT FOLLOW, then these two, SYA AND TÁSI, are the affixes of a verbal root. This supersedes the affix sap, &c. (No. 419). Both lrin and lrit are included in the expression "lri."

ऋार्घधातुकं श्रेषः। ३।४।११४।

तिङ्गिद्भोऽन्यो धाते।रिति विहितः प्रत्यय एतत्संज्ञः स्यात् । इट् ।

No. 436.—Let the remainder, i. e. affixes other than tin and those with an indicatory  $\acute{s}$  (No. 418), subjoined to a verbal root be called  $\acute{a}rdhadh\acute{a}tuka$ —(i. e. "belonging to half the verb,"—or to six of the tenses).

The augment it here presents itself from No. 433, and the word (through Nos. 420 and 435) attains the form bhavitás.

बुटः प्रथमस्य डारीरसः । २ । ४ । ८५ । डित्वमामर्थ्यादमस्यापि टेर्लीपः । भविता ।

No. 437.—Dá RAU AND RAS are substituted in the room of the affixes of the lowest (No. 413) person of Lut.

As the presence of d as an indicatory letter must not be unmeaning, there is elision of the final vowel with what follows it (No. 52), although the word is not one of those called bha (Nos. 185 and 187).

Thus bhavitás (from No. 436) becomes bhavit, and (with the á derived from the dá of this rule), bhavitá "he will become."

No. 510.—It (No. 433) shall not be the augment of an árdha-dhátuka affix coming AFTER WHAT root, IN AN ORIGINAL ENUNCIATION, HAS A SINGLE VOWEL AND IS GRAVELY ACCENTED.

With the exception of roots ending in  $\hat{u}$  and  $r\hat{i}$ , and with the exception of the roots yu "to mix," ru "to sound," kshnu "to whet,"  $\hat{s}\hat{i}$  "to sleep," shnu "to distil," nu "to praise," kshu "to sneeze,"  $\hat{s}wi$  "to increase,"  $\hat{d}\hat{i}\hat{n}$  "to fly," and  $\hat{s}ri$  "to serve," and vri ( $vri\hat{n}$ ) "to choose," what roots, containing a single vowel, are among those that end in a vowel, are called "gravely accented."

(Among monosyllables terminated by consonants, that have their efficient vowels "gravely accented, there are) -of those that end in k, one only-viz. śak (śaklri) "to be able:"-of those that end in ch, six-viz. pach "to cook," much "to be free," rich "to purge," vach "to speak," vich "to differ," and sich "to sprinkle:"-of those that end in chh, one only-viz. prachchh "to ask:"-of those that end in j, fifteen-viz. tyaj "to abandon," nij "to cleanse," bhaj "to serve," bhanj "to break," bhuj "to enjoy," bhrasj "to fry," masj "to merge," yaj "to sacrifice," yuj "to join," ruj "to be sick," ranj "to colour," vijir "to differ," swańj "to embrace," sanj "to embrace," and srij "to abandon:"-of those that end in d, sixteen, viz. ad "to eat," kshud "to pound," khid "to be distressed," chhid "to cut," tud "to torment," nud "to send," pad "to go," bhid "to break," vid "to be," vid "to consider," vid "to acquire," śad "to wither," and "to wither," swid "to sweat," skand "to go," and had "to evacuate:"of those that end in dh, eleven, viz. "krudh" to be angry," kshudh "to be hungry," budh "to know," bandh "to bind," yudh "to fight," rudh "to obstruct," rádh "to accomplish," vyadh "to pierce," śudh "to be pure," sádh "to accomplish," and sidh "to be accomplished:"-of those that end in n, two, viz. man "to think," and han "to kill:"-of those that end in p, thirteen, viz. ap "to obtain," kship "to throw," chhup "to touch," tap "to inflame," tip "to drop," trip "to be satisfied," drip "to be proud," lip "to smear," lup "to disturb," vap "to sow," sap "to vow," swap "to sleep," and srip "to creep:"-of those that end in bh, three, viz. yabh "to copulate," rabh "to begin," and labh "to acquire;"-of those that end in m, four, viz. gam "to go," nam "to bow," yam "to stop," and ram "to stop:"-of those that end in s, ten, viz. kruś "to cry aloud," dańś "to bite," diś "to show," driś "to see," mris "to perceive," ris "to hurt," rus "to hurt," lis "to lessen," vis "to enter," and spris "to touch':" -of those that end in sh, eleven, viz. krish attract," twish to shine," tush "to be satisfied," dwish "to hate," dush "to do wrong," push "to cherish," pish "to grind," vish "to pervade," sish," to hurt," sush "to dry," and ślish "to embrace:"—of those that end in s, two, viz. ghas "to eat," and vas "to dwell:"—of those that end in h, eight, viz. dah "to burn," dih "to smear," duh "to milk," nah "to tie," mih "to urine," ruh "to ascend," lih "to lick," and vah "to bear."

Thus the gravely accented roots, among those ending in consonants, are a hundred and three.

The root kṛi, being gravely accented, falls under this rule and does not take the augment iṭ—so that we have gopáyánchakartha "thou didst protect," gopáyánchakrathuh "you two protected, gopáyánchakara "you protected," gopáyánchakára "I protected," gopáyánchakriva "we two protected," goyáyánchakrima "we protected." The same tense may be conjugated thus—gopáyámbabhúva (No. 507) "he protected," or gopáyámása "he protected." On the option allowed by No. 503, it may also be conjugated thus—jugopa (Nos. 426 and 488) "he protected," jugupuh "they protected."

No. 517.—In the opinion of Bháradwája, it is only after a root which ends in short RI, always devoid of the augment it when tási follows, that thal shall not have the augment it. Hence it should be the augment of any other verb (in Bháradwája's opinion—in deference to which Nos. 515 and 516 are considered optional).

Here follows a couplet containing a synopsis of these rules relating to the augment it. What root ends in a vowel, or (ending in a consonant) has a short a, if it be devoid of it when tási follows, may optionally have it, when thal follows. "What ends in short ri is, under the same circumstances, always devoid of it. Any verb, except kṛi, &c. (No. 514), should have it, when lit follows (the foregoing option in the case of thal being borne in mind)."

Thus we have either chikshayitha or chikshetha "thou didst wane," chikshiyathuh "you two waned," chikshiya "you waned," chikshaya or chikshaya "I waned," chikshiyiva "we two waned," chikshiyima "we waned," ksheta "he will wane," ksheshyati "he will wane," kshayatu "let him wane," akshayat "he waned," kshayet "he may wane."

No. 547.—The word "ám-pratyaya," in this aphorism, meaning "that after which the affix ám (No. 504) comes," is a compound, of the kind termed Bahuvríhi (No. 1034), denoting that which does not exhibit (to one's perception) the characteristic implied in the name. LIKE the verb THAT TAKES THE AFFIX ÁM (if the verb be conjugated with the átmanepada terminations), so let the átmanepada terminations be those of the verb KRI when SUBJOINED thereto (as an auxiliary).

[Among Bahuvrihi compounds, the Sanskrit grammarians distinguish those denoting that of which the matters implied in the name are perceived along with the thing itself (tadguṇa-sanvi-jnàna) from those denoting what is otherwise (atadguṇa-sanvijnàna). The stock illustration of the former kind is "dirgha-karnam ánaya"—i. e. "bring Long-ear"—where the long ears accompany and mark the individual; and of the latter kind, "drishta-ságaram ánaya"—i. e. "bring him that has seen the ocean"—where the ocean does not accompany the man, nor enable you to recognise him among a group of persons who have never seen it. The term "ám-pratyaya" above-mentioned, i. e. "that which has the affix ám," is of the latter description. We are told that the auxiliary is to take the same tense-affixes as "that which has the affix ám;" but the verb, when we look at any part of it (such as edhate) with a tense-affix, has no ám then visible—the ám, when present, causing (No. 506) the elision of the tense-affixes.]

No. 558.—Let SUT be the augment of T AND TH, when part of a substitute of liń. The augment siyut also is obtained from No. 555. The y (of siyut) is elided by No. 463. As the substitutes of liń, in the sense of benediction, are árdhadhátuka (No. 465), the elision of the s (of siyut and sut), directed by No. 461, does not take place. Thus we have edh+i (No. 433)+si+sta, which, by Nos. 169 and 78, becomes edhishíshta "may he increase, edhishíyástám "may they two increase,"—then, as sut does not come except before t or th, edhishíran (No. 556) "may they increase," edhishíshthah "mayst thou increase," edhishíyastham, "may you two increase," edhishílhwam "may you increase," edhishíya (No. 557) "may I increase," edhishívahi "may we two increase," edhishímahi "may we increase," aidhishta (Nos. 478, 471, 472, 433, and 169) "he increased," aidhishátám "they two increased."

कमेर्णिङ्। ३।१।३०। स्वार्थे। डिन्वात् तङ्। कामयते।

No. 560.—Let the affix NIŃ (leaving ni) come AFTER the root KAM "to desire," without altering the meaning (No. 502). As the affix has an indicatory  $\acute{n}$ , the  $\acute{a}tmanepada$  terminations ( $ta\acute{n}$ —No. 409) are employed (No. 410). Thus we have  $k\acute{a}mayate$  (Nos. 489 and 420) "he desires."

Thus kámayánchakre "he desired." In cases where, as in the 2nd pret., the affixes are árdhadhátuka (No. 432), the niń (No. 560), by No. 503, is optional:—thus we may have chakame "he desired," chakamáte "they two desired," chakamire (No. 548) "they desired," chakamáthe "thou didst desire," chakamáthe "you two desired," chakamighwe (No. 549) "you desired," chakame "I desired," chakamiyahe "we two desired," chakamimahe "we desired," kámayitá "he will desire," kámayitáse "thou wilt desire," again (without niń) kamitá "he will desire," kámayishyate or kamishyate "he will desire," kámayatám (No. 552) "let him desire," akámayata "he desired," kámayeta "he may desire," kámayishíshta or kamishíshta (No. 558) "may he desire."

No. 596.—When there follows an affix, beginning with a JHAL and DISTINGUISHED BY AN INDICATORY K OR N, there is ELISION OF THE NASAL OF the following that end in a nasal, viz. THOSE WHICH IN THEIR ORIGINAL ENUNCIATION ARE GRAVELY ACCENTED, AND VAN "to ask or beg," AND TAN "to stretch," &c.

Those which (ending in a nasal, see No. 510) are in their original enunciation gravely accented, or the following, viz: yam "to restrain," ram "to sport," nam "to bow," gam "to go," han "to kill," and man "to respect."

By "tan &c." (the verbs of the 8th class, which, kri excepted, end in a nasal,) are meant the following—viz. tan "to stretch," kshan "to kill," kshin "to kill," rin "to go," trin "to eat grass," ghrin "to shine," van "to ask," and man "to understand."

By this rule we have han + tas = hatah (No. 535) "they two kill," ghnanti (Nos. 540 and 314) "they kill," hansi (No. 94) "thou killest," hathah "you two kill," hatha "you kill," hanmi "I kill," hanwah "we two kill," hanmah "we kill," jaghána (Nos. 314, 488, and 489) "he killed," jaghnatuh (No. 540) "they two killed," jaghnuh "they killed."

No. 599.—The rules, reckoning FROM THIS one to the end of the chapter (viz. the 4th chap. of the VIth Lecture), are called abhiya, (because the chapter ends with a series of rules dependent on the aphorism) "BHASYA." When that (viz. one of the rules called abhiya) is to be brought into operation, having the same place (for coming into operation, as another abhiya which has already taken effect), that one (which has taken effect) shall be regarded AS NOT HAVING TAKEN EFFECT.

Thus (ja having been substituted for han, by No. 598, it might have been expected that the hi would be elided by No. 448, but) since the change to ja is not regarded as having been accomplished, elision of hi does not take place. So we have jahi "do thou kill," hatát (Nos. 444 and 596) "mayst thou kill," hatam "do you two kill," hata "do you kill," hanáni "let me kill," hanáva "let us two kill," hanáma "let us kill," ahan (Nos. 458 and 199) "he killed," ahatám (No. 596) "they two killed," aghnan (Nos. 540, 314, and 26) "they killed ahan (Nos. 458 and 199) "thou didst kill," ahatam "you two killed," ahata "you killed," ahanam "I killed," ahanwa "we two killed," ahanma "we killed," hanyát (No. 461) "he may kill."

As there is an agreement (in the present instance) to regard the verb vid as ending in short a (vida), guna is not substituted (as it would otherwise have been by No. 485). Thus we have vidánchakára or viveda "he knows," veditá "he will know," vedishyati "he will know."

In the example abhiyát "may he go up to," the short vowel is not substituted; for the rule (VI. 1. 85.) that "a single letter substituted shall be regarded as the final of the preceding word and the initial of the following word," does not apply, when the operation directed depends upon both what precedes and what follows:—so then, as the i, in abhiyát, cannot be regarded as a part at once of the upasarga and of the verb, the rule No. 618 consequently does not apply.

Why do we say, "of the an?" witness  $sam + ey\acute{a}t = samey\acute{a}t$  (= $sam + \acute{a} + \acute{i}y\acute{a}t$ ) "may be come," where the rule does not apply as the verb begins with ech.

No. 677.—When a Jhal comes after the verbs masj "to be immersed," and Nas "to perish," let there be the augment num. Thus, on the alternative allowed by No. 676, we have nanańshtha (No. 334) "thou didst perish," neśiva (No. 494) "we two perished," neśima "we perished," naśitá (No. 676) or nańshtá "he will perish," naśishyati or nańkshyati (Nos. 334 and 585) "he will perish," naśyatu "let him perish," anaśyat "he perished," naśyet "he may perish," naśyát "may he perish," anaśat (No. 542) "he perished."

The verb shú (shúń) "to give birth to" makes súyate (No. 543) "she bears," sushuve (No. 220) "she bore." In accordance with the restrictive rule No. 514, this verb takes the augment it:—thus sushuvishe "thou borest," sushuvivahe "we two bore," sushuvimahe "we bore," sotá or savitá (No. 511) "she will bear."

The verb  $d\acute{u}(d\acute{u}\acute{n})$  "to suffer or be consumed with pain" makes  $d\acute{u}yate$  "he suffers;" and  $d\acute{u}(d\acute{u}\acute{n})$  "to decay" makes  $d\acute{u}yate$  "he decays."

By the "and" it is implied that the same change will take place when there is a cause for the substitution of an ech, but unattended by an indicatory  $\acute{s}$ . Hence [the affixes  $t\acute{a}si$  and sya being such causes] we have  $d\acute{a}t\acute{a}$  "he will decay,"  $d\acute{a}syati$  "he will decay,"  $ad\acute{a}st\acute{a}$  "he decayed."

The verb dí (dín) "to move in the sky—i. e. to fly," makes díyate "he flies," didye (No. 221) "he flew," dayitá "he will fly."

The verb pí (píń) "to drink" makes píyate "he drinks," petá (No. 510) "he will drink," apeshţa "he drank."

No. 694.—In the room of the R AND the PENULTIMATE letter OF the root BHRASJ, there shall be OPTIONALLY the augment RAM, when an árdhadhátuka affix follows. As it has an indicatory m (No. 265), the augment comes after the last vowel. [If the ram had been intended merely as an augment, the verb alone-not also certain letters of the verb-would have been cited in the aphorism. The citation of the letters with the 6th case-affix attached, in accordance with the aphorism I. 1 49-indicates that the augment is to act as a substitute—so that the abolition of the r and of the penultimate letter takes place, in consequence of the direction implied in the 6th case-affix signifying "in the room of." Thus we have babharja "he fried," babharjatuh "they two fried," babharjitha or babharshtha (No. 334) "thou didst fry; or, alternatively, babhrajja "he fried," babhrajjatuh "they two fried," babhrajjitha "thou didst fry." When a jhal follows, the s is elided by No. 237, and the final is changed to sh by No. 334: - thus (when the augment it is not employed) we have babhrashtha "thou didst fry," babharje or babhrajje "he fried," bharshtá or bhrashtá "he will fry," bharkshyati or bhrakshyati "he will fry." When an affix with an indicatory k or  $\acute{n}$  follows, the substitution of a vowel for the semivowel, by No. 675, takes place, -debarring the augment ram (No. 694) through the superior authority specially assigned to the earlier rule of the two [contrary to the general principle laid down in No. 132]—so that we bave bhrijyát " may he fry," bhrijyástám "may they two fry," bhrijyásuh may they fry," bharkshíshta or bhrakshíshta " may he fry," abhárkshít, or abhrákshít abharshta or abhrashta "he fried."

The verb vrašch (ovrašchú) "to cut" makes vrišchati (No. 675) "he cuts," vuvrašcha "he cut," vuvrašchitha or vuvrašhtha "thou dicist cut," vrašchitá or vrashtá "he will cut," vrašchishyati or vrakshyati "he will cut," vrišchyát (No. 675) "may he cut," avrašchít "he cut."

Here the vártika (by which the substitution of vriddhi would have been prevented) viz. that "The verb vyach is to be regarded as one of the list 'kut &c.' (No. 624), when an affix other than the krit affix as (No. 329) follows, does not apply—for the prohibition "not the krit affix as" refers to the krit affix only [and not to the tense-affixes:—in the same way as the expression "not a bráhman" would be held to refer to a man, not to a horse or a tree.]

The verb unchh (uchchhi) means "to glean." Gleaning here means taking up grain by grain. To glean the whole ears, &c., Yádava tells us, is expressed by the verb śil.

The verb richchh (richchha) "to go, to fail in faculties, to become stiff," makes richchhati "he goes." By No. 653, guna is substituted when lit follows, and the augment nut is derived from No. 498, since the mention of a word with two consonants serves to specify a word with more consonants than one. Thus ánarchchha "he went," ánarchchhatuh "they two went," richchlitá, "he will go."

The verb ujjh (ujjha) "quit" makes ujjhati "he quits," and the verb lubh (lubha) "to bewilder" makes lubhati "he bewilders."

No. 701.—Let it be optionally the augment, when an árdha-dhátuka affix, beginning with T, COMES AFTER the verbs ISH "to wish," SHAHA "to endure," LUBH "to bewilder," RUSH "to hurt or kill," and RISH "to hurt or kill." Thus lobhitá or lobdhá "he will bewilder," lobhishyati "he will bewilder."

The verbs trip (tripa) and trimph (trimpha) mean "to be satisfied." The former makes tripati "he is satisfied," tatarpa "he was satisfied," tarpitá "he will be satisfied," atarpit "he was satisfied." The latter makes trimphati "he is satisfied."

No. 702.—"The augment NUM (No. 497) SHOULD BE STATED to be that OF the verbs TRIMPHA" to be satisfied" AND THE LIKE when śa (No. 693) follows. The word ádi (usually rendered "&c") here means "of the same description as." So that here "trimpha and the like" are those verbs which include the letter n. Thus tutrimpha (notwithstanding No. 362) "he was satisfied," and, when śa does not follow, triphyát "may he be satisfied."

The verbs mrid (mrida) and prid (prida) "to delight" make mridati and pridati "he delights."

The (Vaidika) verb sun (suna) "to go" makes sunati "he goes."

The verb ish (ishu) "to wish" makes ichchhati (No. 539) "he wishes," eshitá (No. 701) or eshtá "he will wish," eshishyati "he will wish," ishyát "may he wish," aishít "he wished."

The verb kut (kuta) means "to become crooked." According to No. 624, the affixes after this verb, not having an indicatory  $\hat{n}$  or n, being regarded as having an indicatory  $\hat{n}$  (No. 467), we have chukutitha "thou didst become crooked," chukota or chukuta (No. 490) "I became crooked," kutitá "he will become crooked."

No. 703.—There is optionally the substitution of sh for the s of the verbs sphur and sphul "to quiver," After the prefixes NIR, NI, AND VI (No. 48). Thus nishpurati or nishphurati "he perpetually quivers."

The verb nú means "to praise." [That the vowel of this root is long, not short as some contend, is proved by the quotation] "purinúta gunodaya—the dawning of whose praise-worthy qualities"—[which otherwise would not scan]. This verb makes nuvati "he praises," nunáva "he praised," nuvitá "he will praise."

The verb masj (tumasjo) "to purify by washing" makes majjati "he immerses," mumajja "he immersed." According to No. 677 this verb, when a jhul follows, takes the augment num, [the irregular application of which is specified in the following vártika].

No. 704.—"The augment NUM SHOULD BE STATED TO PRECEDE THE LAST letter OF the root MASJ"—[not the last of the vowels as No. 265 directs]. By No. 337 there is elision of the s, the first member of the conjunct consonant (snj)—and thus we have mamańktha (No. 333) or mamajjitha "thou didst immerse," mańktâ 'he will immerse," mańkshyati "he will immerse," amáńkshit "he immersed," amáńktám (No. 513) "they two immersed," amáńkshuh "they immersed."

No. 729.—And after upa (No. 48) in the several senses of acquiring a new property, of alteration, and of the supplying of ellipses in discourse, the verb kri takes the augment sut. By the "and" it is signified that the verb has also the two meanings mentioned before (in Nos. 727 and 728). By "acquiring a new property" is meant "the taking of a quality." By "alteration," or modification, is meant "change." By "the supplying of ellipses in discourse" is meant "the filling up of those parts which the sense requires." Examples of these five employments of the word follow, signifying "a damsel adorned;" assembled brahmans;" "the wood gives a new property to the water" (or "he prepares the fuel and water for an oblation"); he eats something changed" (or different from what is proper—"as bread with rice);" "he speaks without ellipsis."

No. 752.—The affix san is optionally attached, in the sense of wishing, after a root expressing the act wished and having the same agent of the action as the wisher thereof.

सन्यङोः। ६।१।८।

No. 753.—Of the first portion, containing a single vowel, of what ends with SAN (No. 752) AND of what ends with YAN (No. 758), there are two; but, in the case of what begins with a vowel, the reduplication is of the second portion (—as in No. 426). Short i being substituted for the a in the reduplication, we have pipathishati "he wishes to read."

Why do we (in No. 752) say "the act wished?" Witness gamanenechchhati "by going he wishes (to accomplish something)"—where the "going" is not the "act wished," and the affix san does not therefore apply.

Why do we say "having the same agent?" Witness śishyáh paṭhantwitichchhati guruh "the teacher wishes that the pupils should read,"—(where the wisher, and the agent of the action wished are not the same).

By the employment of the expression "optionally" (No. 752), it is implied that the meaning may be expressed by a phrase also (in those cases in which the formation of a desiderative verb by means of the affix is allowable).

When san follows, ghaslri (No. 595) is substituted for the verb ad "to eat."

अज्ञानगर्मा सनि। ६। ४। १६। अजन्तानां हन्तेरजादेशगमेश्च दीर्घा भलादा सनि।

No. 755.—When san, beginning with a jhal, (i. e. not preceded by the augment it) follows, a long vowel shall be the substitute of verbs ending in a vowel, and of the verb han "to strike," and of the verb gam "to go"—the substitute of the vowel roots (viz. i, in, ik, in).

No. 759.—Let GUNA be the substitute of the reduplicate (No. 753), when yan follows, or even when a blank (luk No. 209) has been substituted for yan from its ending with what has an indicatory  $\hat{n}$  (No. 410), a verb with this affix takes the átmanepada affixes. Thus bobhúyate "he is repeatedly or intensely," bobhúyánchakre "he was repeatedly," abobhúyishta "he was repeatedly."

नित्यं काैटिल्यं गता । ३ । १ । २३ । गत्यथात् केाटिल्य एव यङ् न तु क्रियासमाभिहारे ।

Thus (when, for example, the árdhadhátuka affix ám follows) the first letter (of the syllable ya) is elided in accordance with No. 88, and then the vowel is elided by No. 505, giving vávrajánch kre "he went crookedly," vávrajitá "he will go crookedly."

Thus narinrityate "he dances repeatedly." (In accordance with (No. 763.) we have jarígríhyate "he takes repeatedly."

No. 765.—AND WHEN the affix ACH (No. 837) FOLLOWS, there may be elision of YAN. By the "and" it is signified that this may take place sometimes even without that affix :-- and this is not the result of anything, assigned as the cause thereof, (whereas, in the other case, there was an assigned reason for the elision-viz. the affix ach). This elision takes place first, as it is independent of anything else (whereas the reduplication is dependent on the verb, the affix, &c). Then, after that, through the force of the affix (which remains, though the affix has been elided), since the verb is regarded as ending in yan, there is reduplication (No. 753), and the appropriate operations are to be performed on the reduplicate syllable. Since the word (through No. 502) is regarded as a root, the tense-affixes &c. are applicable to it. The parasmaipada affixes are employed in accordance with No. 412. As we read, in No. 636, that verbs with yah elided are to be regarded as belonging to the 2nd class, "ad, &c.," we infer that there is to be elision of sap (No. 589).

इति यङ्जुगन्ताः॥

No. 766.—Let it be OPTIONALLY the augment of a sarvadhátuka affix distinguished by an indicatory p, commencing with a consonant, and coming AFTER a verb with YAN elided. The prohibition (of guna) by No. 474 does not, in secular language, extend to the case where yan is elided. This is inferred from the fact that the form bobhútu in the Veda (in which guna is not substituted—) is one of those enumerated (in VII. 4. 65 .- thus "bobhútu tetikte &c.,") among the irregularities. Thus we have bobhaviti or bobhoti "he is frequently," bobhútah "they two are frequently," substituting at for jh, by No. 645, as it is reduplicated, bobhuvati "they are frequently," bobhavánchakára or bobhavámása "he was frequently," bobhavitá "he will be frequently," bobhavishyati "he will be frequently," bobhavítu or bobhotu "let him be frequently," bobhútát "may he be frequently," bobhútám "let the two be frequently," bobhuvatu "let them be frequently," bobhúhi "be thou frequently," bobhavání "let me be frequently," abobhavít or abobhot "they were frequently," abobhútám "they two were frequently," abobhavuh "they were frequently," bobhúyát "he may be frequently," bobhúyátám "they two may be frequently," bobhúyuh "they were frequently," bobhúyát "may he be frequently," bobhúyástám "may they two be frequently," bobhúyásuh "may they be frequently." According to No. 473, there is elision of sich. On the alternative of there being the augment it from No. 766, there is the augment vuk from No. 425, this debarring guna (No. 420) because it presents itself always (whether guna is substituted or not -and therefore, according to one of the maxims of the Grammar, takes the precedence). Thus we have abobhúvít or abobhot "he was frequently," abobhútám "they two were frequently," abobhúvuh they were frequently," abobhavishyat "he would be frequently."

So much for those "that end with a blank substituted for yań." The "nominal verbs" have next to be considered.

इषिकर्मण राषितुः संबन्धिनः सुबन्तादिच्हायामर्थे क्यञ्चा ।

No. 767.—Let KYACH be optionally attached, in the sense of wishing, AFTER a word WITH A CASE-AFFIX expressing the object wished as connected with the wisher's SELF—(as, for example, a son,—when a man wishes to have a son of his own—not somebody else's son).

No. 770.—When kya—i. e. kyach or kyań (No. 776)—Follows, only what ends in N is considered a pada, and no other word. So, the n of rájan being elided by No. 200, we have rájíyati "he wishes for a king." Why do we say "only what ends in n?" Witness váchyati "he wishes for words," (which would otherwise, by No. 333, have changed the ch to k). By No. 651 the vowel is lengthened in gíryati "he wishes for words," and púryati "he wishes for a city;" but, since the lengthening directed by No. 651 applies only to a verbal root, it does not take place in the example divyati "he wishes for heaven."

No. 771.—When an árdhadhátuka affix follows, there is op-TIONALLY elision OF KYA—i. e. of kyach and kyań—coming after a consonant. According to No. 88 the elision here is that of the y, and a blank takes the place of the a by No. 505. Since the blank is regarded in the same light as that of which it took the place (No. 163), there is no substitution of guna by No. 485—and we have samidhitá or samidhyitá "he will wish for fuel."

चतुर्थ्यन्तात् कष्ट्रशब्दादुत्साहे क्यङ् । कष्टाय क्रमते कष्टायते । पापं कर्तुमृत्सहत इत्यर्थः ।

No. 776.—The affix kyań, IN THE SENSE OF EXERTION, comes after the word KASHŢA "pain," with the 4th case-affix. Thus (the case-affix being elided by No. 768, and the final lengthened by No. 518) we have kashṭáyate "he is assiduous for trouble," i. e. "he is assiduous in the commission of sin."

No. 779.—" The affix nich may come AFTER A CRUDE NOUN, WITH THE SENSE OF A VERB, IN AN INDEFINITE VARIETY OF WAYS, AND it shall be LIKE the affix ISHTHA (No. 1306)." In like manner as, when ishthá is affixed, there is the masculine from (substituted for the feminine), the substitution of r (for ri), the elision of the last vowel with what follows it (No. 52), the elision of the affixes vin (No. 1281) and matup (No. 1268), the elision of what begins with yan (as the r of the syllable ra in the word dúra "far"), the substitution of pra (for priya) stha for (sthira) spha (for sphira) &c. (see VI. 4. 157), and the denomination bha (No. 185)—just so let there be also, when ni follows. Therefore, with the elision of ak (i. e. of the last vowel—No. 52—), we may optionally have ghatayuti "he makes a jar," or "he calls it a jar."

By "manifestation" is here meant "informing against,"—thus utkurute "he informs against." By "sarcasm" is meant "reviling,"—thus syeno vartikámutkurute "the hawk reviles the quail." So, too, harimupakurute "he worships Hari:"—paradárán prakurute "he offers violence to another's wife:"—edhodakasyopaskurute "the wood gives a new quality to the water" (or "he pre-

Why do we say "in these senses?" Witness kaṭan karoti "he makes a mat,"—(in which example an átmanepada affix is not employed.)

According to No. 718, the verb lhuj takes the átmanepada affixes, when it does not mean "to protect." Thus odanai bhuńkte "he eats boiled rice." Why do we say "when it does not mean to "protect?" Witness mahín bhunakti "he protects the earth."

No. 799.—AND AFTER UPA (the verb ram takes the parasmaipada affixes). Thus yajnadattamuparamati "he causes Yajnadatta to refrain." This is an instance of a verb involving in it the force of the affix ni (No. 747).

So much for the allotment of the padas.

The Impersonal and Passive forms have next to be considered.

No. 801.—Let the affix YAK come after a root, WHEN A SÁRVA-DHÁTUKA affix Follows, denoting the action or the object. The "action" is the force of the verb itself; and this is again marked by the affix l (No. 405) when it has the sense of the action—i. e. when the verb is used impersonally). In this case there is (substituted for the l) an affix of the "lowest person," because the verb is not in agreement with either the pronoun "1" or "Thou."—Inasmuch as the action denoted by the tense-affix is not of the nature of a substance (to which the notions of duality or plurality might attach), since there is here no notion of duality, &c., neither an affix of the dual nor of the plural is to be employed, but hence necessarily only one of the singular.

Thus twayá mayá anyaischa bhúyate "it is become by thee, by me, and by others"—(i. e. "Thou becomest," "I become," and "others become,")—and, again, babhúve (No. 432) "it was become."

No. 802.—When sya (No. 435), SICH (No. 472), SÍYUT (No. 555), OR TÁSI (No. 435) FOLLOWS IF THE ACTION OR THE OBJECT IS TO BE UNDERSTOOD by the affix (i. e. if the verb is impersonal or passive), then, on the inflective base of verbs which in their ORIGINAL ENUNCIATION end in a vowel and on that of the verbs han, &c.—viz. Han "to kill," GRAH "to take," and drif "to see,"—THERE SHALL BE OPTIONALLY THE LIKE EFFECT AS IF the affix CHIN HAD FOLLOWED, AND IT shall be the augment of these affixes sya, &c. The augment it, here mentioned, is to be applied on the alternative that the case is treated as if the affix chin had followed—(not on the other alternative allowed by the rule). The substitution of vriddhi follows from the case's being treated as if chin (with an indicatory n—see No. 202—) had been attached. Thus we have bhávitá or bhavitá "it will be become by some one," bhávishyate or bhavishyate "it will be become," bhávishishta "may it be become," bhávishíshta or bhavishíshta "may it be become."

चिण भावकर्मणीः। ३।१। ६६।

स्निध्यत । स्रमिता ।

No. 803.—Let CHIN be the substitute of chli (No. 471), WHEN ta (No. 407) follows, DENOTING THE ACTION OR THE OBJECT. Thus abhávi "it was become by some one," abhávishyata (No. 802) or abhávishyata "it would be become."

Even a neuter verb (-a verb "without an object,"-) may, through the force of a preposition in combination with it, become active (-or "with an object)." For example-anubhuyate anandaśchaitrena twayá mayácha "pleasure is experienced by Chaitra, by thee, and by me:"-and then again anubhuyete "the two are perceived," anubhúyante "they are perceived," twamanubhúyase "thou art perceived," ahamanubhuye "I am perceived," anwabhávi "it was perceived," anwabhávishátám or anwabhavishátám "the two were perceived." The affix ni (No. 747) being elided by No. 563, we have bhávyate "it is caused to be," bhávayánchakre or bhávayánbabhúve or bhávayámáse "it was caused to be." When (according to No. 802) the case is regarded as if the affix chin had followed, then the augment it is applied—giving bhávitá "it will be caused to be,"—the elision of ni (No. 563) still taking place, inasmuch as No. 802 in accordance with No. 599, is regarded by No. 563 as not having taken effect. On the other alternative allowed by No. 802, bhávayitá "it will be caused to be," bhávayishíshta "may it be caused to be," abhávi "it was caused to be," abhávishátám or abhávayishátám "the two were caused to be," bubhúshyate "it is wished to be," bubhúshánchakre "it was wished to be," bubhúshitá "will be wished to be," bubhúshishyate "it will be wished to be," bobhúyyati "it is repeatedly been," bobhúyishyate "it will be repeatedly been."

The vowel of the root (shtu "to praise") being lengthened by No. 518, we have stúyate vishnuh "Vishnu is praised:"—stávitá (No. 802) or stotá "he will be praised," stávishyate or stoshyate "he will be praised," astávi "he was praised," astávishátám or astoshátám "the two were praised."

The verb ri" to go," substituting guna by No. 533, makes aryate "it is gone."

The verb smri "to remember" makes smaryate "it is remembered," sasmare "it was remembered."

These two verbs may be treated as if chin followed, and may take the augment it, because, in No. 802, the expression "in the original enunciation" is included, (and hence the fact that they end in a consonant at the time when the augment it presents itself, does not prevent their taking it). Thus áritá or artá it will be gone," smáritá or smartá "it will be remembered."

By No. 363, the nasal of the verb srans "to fall," (which has not an indicatory i) being elided, we have srasyate "it is fallen:"—but of a verb which, like nad (nadi) "to be happy," has an indicatory i, the nasal is not elided, and we have nandyate "it is been happy (by so and so)—i. e. so and so is happy."

In the case of the verb yaj "to worship," the substitution of a vowel for the semi-vowel having taken place in accordance with No. 584, (the yak having an indicatory k) we have ijyate "it is worshipped (by so and so)—i. e. so and so worships."

तनातेर्यिक । ई। ४। ४४।

श्रादन्तादेशा वा । तायते । तन्यते ।

No. 804.—When the affix YAK (No. 801) comes AFTER the verb TAN "to extend," then long  $\acute{a}$  is optionally the substitute for the final. Thus  $t\acute{a}yate$  or tanyate "it is extended."

त्रवश्लेश्चिण् न स्थात् कर्मकर्तर्यनुतापे च । अन्वतप्र पापेन । घुमास्थेतीत्वम् । दीयते । धीयते । ददे ।

No. 805.—Let not chin be the substitute of chli after the verb tap "to suffer," when the sense is reflective, and when the sense is that of experiencing remorse. Thus anwatapta pápena "remorse was experienced by the sinner."

त्राता युक् चिण्छताः। ७। ३। ३३।

त्रादन्तानां युगागमश्चिषि ज्यिति कृति च। दायिता। दाता। दायिषीष्ट । दासीष्ट । त्रदायि । त्रदायिषाताम् । भज्यते । No 806.—Let YUK be the augment of what ends in LONG Á, WHEN CHIN FOLLOWS, OR when a KRIT affix (No. 329), with an in dicatory  $\hat{n}$  or n. Thus (it being here optional, according to No. 802, to regard chin as following.) we have dáyitá or dátá "it will be given," dáyishíshta or dásíshta "may it be given," adáyi "it was given," adáyishátám "the two were given."

The verb bhanj "to break" makes bhajyate (No. 363) "it breaks."

भज्जेय चिणि। ६। ४। ३३।

नले।पो वा । ऋभाजि । ऋभज्जि । लभ्यते ।

No. 807.—And of the verb bhanj "to break" the elision of the n (No. 363) is optional, when chin follows. Thus a bháji or abhanji "it broke."

The verb lulh "to gain" makes lubhyate "it is gained."

इति कर्मकर्रुप्रक्रिया॥

No. 810.—The (l denoting the) agent, when the action affecting the agent is SIMILAR TO THE ACTION WHICH AFFECTS THE OBJECT, is treated As if it were (an l) denoting THE OBJECT.

This direction implies the substitution (for the operations incident to a tense-affix, or l, denoting an agent) of all the operations, (which fall to be performed when the tense-affix, or l, denotes the object). Hence there shall be the affixing of yak (No. 801), the employment of the átmanepada terminations (No. 800), the substitution of chin for chli (No. 803), and the treatment of the word as directed in No. 802. Thus pachyate phalam "the fruit ripens of itself," bhidyate káshtham "the wood splits of itself," apáchi (No. 803) "it ripened of itself," abhedi "it split of itself." As an example where the tense-affix denotes the action (i. e. where the verb is impersonal), take bhidyate káshthena "it is split (of itself) by the wood—i. e. the wood splits."

No. 811.—When a word implying "recollection" is in connection with it, a verb takes the affix LRIT (No. 440) with a past signification. This sets aside lan (No. 456). The verb vas

No. 815.—When condition and consequent are spoken of, LIN (No. 459) may optionally be the affix. Thus "if he were to reverence (namet) Krishna, he would attain to (yáyát) felicity.' This does not apply to the following :- " he strikes-therefore the other flees"—for it is meant that this shall apply only to what is future. As stated in No. 459, lin implies "commanding, directing, &c." "Commanding" means "ordering"-one's stimulating to action some low person, such as a dependent-by saying, for example, yajeta "let him worship." "Directing" means enjoining a duty—the moving of a daughter's son, or the like, in regard to such a matter as the eating of the food prepared at an exequial rite—by saying, for example, iha bhunjita "let him eat in this place." "Inviting" implies an acquiescence in one's following his inclination -- as when it is said (to some one inclined to sit down somewhere) iha ásíta "let your honour sit down here." "Expression of wish" here implies a respectful procedure -(as when one says respectfully to a teacher) putrum adhyápayed bhaván "let your honour teach the boy." "Enquiring" here refers to the determining on the propriety or impropriety of anything—as kin bho! vedam adhiyiya uta tarkam "how, then, I pray you—shall I peruse the Veda? or shall I study logic?" "Asking for" means begging—as bho bhojanan labheya "O may I obtain (i. e. give me) food." In like manner is lot (No. 441) employed.

त्रानृतीयान्तं ये प्रत्ययास्ते धाताः परे स्यः । कृदितिङिति कृत्संज्ञा ।

No. 816.—As far as the end of the 3rd Lecture [reckoning from the present aphorism], the affixes treated of are to be [understood as coming] AFTER some VERBAL ROOT. According to No. 329, the name of these affixes is krit.

वासक्षेाऽस्त्रियाम । ३ । १ । ८४ ।

अस्मिन् धात्वधिकारेऽसह्देगाऽपवादप्रत्यय उत्सर्गस्य बाधके। वा स्यात स्त्र्यधिकारोक्तं विना ।

No. 817.—In this division of the grammar, where "after some verbal root" [see No. 816] is understood in every case, let an affix which is [calculated] to debar a general one, NOT BEING OF THE SAME FORM, OPTIONALLY debar it—BUT NOT IN those cases which fall under the influence of No. 918 [for, in those cases, the supersession is compulsory].

क्रत्याः । ३ । १ । ८५ ।

ग्वल्तृचावित्यतः प्राक् कृत्यसंज्ञाः स्यः।

No. 818.—Let the affixes treated of as far as the aphorism at No. 835 [reckoning from the present one] be called KRITYA.

No. 820.—The affixes called KRITYA (No. 818), and the affix KTA (No. 866), AND THOSE THAT HAVE THE SENSE OF KHAL (No. 933), may have only those two senses, viz.—act and object.

तव्यत्तव्यानीयर:। ३।१।८६।

धातारेते स्य: । ग्रितव्यम् ग्रधनीयं त्वया । भावे श्रीत्सर्गिक-मेक्रवचनं क्रीबत्वं च । चेतव्यश्चयनीया वा धर्मस्त्वया ।

No. 821.—Let these—viz. TAVYAT, TAVYA, AND ANÍYAR, come after some verbal root. Thus edhitavyam (Nos. 436 and 433) or edhániyan twayá "thou must increase." Here the sense being that of the action itself [which is but one, and neither male nor female], there is, from the nature of the case, a singular affix, and the neuter gender is employed. [The case is otherwise with the example following—viz.] chetavyah or chayaniyo dharmastwayá "thou must gather merit."

Thus prehelimá másháh—that is to say, "kidney beans are to be cooked":—bhi lelimáh saraláh "pines are to be split." No. 823.—The affixes called KRITYA (No. 818) AND the affix LYUT are DIVERSELY applicable. [That is to say] sometime they are applied [where there was no express rule for their application]; sometimes they are not applied [in spite of an express rule for their application]; sometimes they are optionally employed or not; and somtimes there is some other result [licence permitted by the rule].

[According to the following verse from the grammar called the Sáraswata], "Seeing that the application of certain rules is various, they specify four kinds of varieties," [viz. the four above-mentioned,—among which the last of the four includes all the cases not included in the other three]. For example—snáníyan chúrnam "powder for bathing," dáníyo viprah "a Bráhman to whom a donation is to be made." [In the first of these examples the "powder" is the "instrument" (expressible by the 3rd case); and in the second the Bráhman is the "recipient" (expressible by the 4th case);—so the in both cases the affix is applied without any express rule—the express rule for its application (No. 821) having reference only to "act" and "object" (No. 823)].

No. 902.—Let these affixes—viz. un, &c., with the force of the present [i. e. implying neither past time nor future], and with a sense simply appellative [and not descriptive], be attached DIVERSELY [—see No. 823—]. Some affixes, though there be no express injunction regarding them, are to be inferred to belong to this class. The maxim in regard to the affixes "un, &c." is this—that "when, in appellatives, we find the forms of verbal roots and affixes coming after them,—then one may know, from the result [as presented in the word], what are the indicatory letters [which the affix must have possessed in order to produce the result]."

No. 935.—According to the practice of the ancients, the affix ktwá comes after a verb, when there are in combination with it alan and khalu in the sense of prohibition. Thus, from dá "to give," which, by No. 879, substitutes dath, we have alandatwá "do not give" and, from pá "to drink," which, by No. 625, substitutes long i, we have pitwá khalu "do not drink." Why do we say "when there are alan and khalu?" Witness má kárshít (Nos. 469 and 475) "let him not do." Why do we say "in the sense of prohibition?" Witness alankára "decoration."

समानकर्त्वकयोः पूर्वकाले । ३ । ४ । २१ । समानकर्तृकयोधीत्वर्थयोः पूर्वकाले विद्यमानाद्वातोः ह्या । स्नात्वा ब्रजति । द्वित्वमतन्त्रम् । मुक्का पीत्वा ब्रजति ।

The rule is not confined to the case of two verbs—thus bhuktwá pítwá vrajati "having eaten and having drunk, he goes."

न क्वा सेट्। १। १। १८। सेट् क्वा किन्न स्यात्। शयित्वा। सेट् किम्। कृत्वा। No. 937.—Let the affix KTWÁ, when WITH the augment IT, be as if it had NOT an indicatory k—[i. e. there shall be the substitution of guṇa in spite of No. 467]. Thus [from śi "to sleep"] śayitwá "having slept." Why do we say "when with the augment it?" Witness kritwá "having done"—[where the augment it—see No. 510—does not appear, and there is no substitution of guṇa.]

No. 938.—The affixes ktwá and san, having the augment it are optionally regarded as possessing an indicatory k, when they, come AFTER THAT verb which has i, i, u, or ú, as its penult, which begins with a consonant, and ends with a ral [i e. any consonant but y or v]. Thus dyutitwá or dyotitwá "having shone," likhitwá or lekhitwá "having written." Why do we say "which has u or i as its penult?" Witness vartitwá "having remained" [where the substitution of guna, through No. 937, is compulsory]. Why after that which "ends with a ral?" Witness sevitwá "having served" [where the root ends with v, which is not a ral]. Why after that "which begins with a consonant?" Witness eshitwá "having gone." Why "having the augment it?" Witness bhuktwá "having eaten"—[where, through the absence of the augment, the case does not come within the scope of No. 937].

No. 939.—Of ktwá coming AFTER THAT root WHICH HAS AN INDICATORY U, it is OPTIONALLY the augment. Thus [from śamu "to be tranquil"] śamitwá or śántwá (No. 775) "having been tranquil," [from divu "to play"] devitwá (No. 937) or dyútwá (VI. 4. 19.) "having played." The verb dhá "to hold" substitutes (by No. 878) hi, giving hitwá "having held."

जहातेस्र क्ति। ७। ४। ४३। हित्वा। हाङस्तु हात्वा।

No. 940.—And of the verb  $H\acute{a}$  "to abandon," the substitute is hi—[see No. 878]. Thus  $hitw\acute{a}$  "having abandoned." But [when  $ktw\acute{a}$  comes] after  $h\acute{a}$  "to go," we have  $h\acute{a}tw\acute{a}$  "having gone."

No. 941.—When the word is a compound, the first member of which is an indeclinable but not nan, then lyap is substituted in the room of ktwá. Thus [when kṛi "to make" is compounded with pra—No. 48—lyap is substituted for ktwá; and, as it succeeds—see No. 163—to the possession of the indicatory k, we have—from No. 828—the augment] tuk—and so prakṛitya "having commenced making." Why do we say "but not nan?" Witness akṛitwá "not having made." Why do we say "the first member of which is an indeclinable?" Witness paramakṛitwá "having made permanent."

त्राभी च्एये एमुन् च। ३। ४। २२। त्राभी च्एये द्योत्ये पूर्वविषये गमुन् क्वा च।

No. 942.—When reiteration is to be expressed, both ktwá and Namul [are admissible] in the case of an action's being antecedent [to another action—see No. 936.]

नित्यवीप्ययोः। ८।१।४।

इति छद्न्तप्रक्रिया॥

No. 944.—When the words anyathá "otherwise," Evam "so," katham "how?" and ittham "thus," are compounded with the verb, then let namul come after kṛin "to make," if it be such that its omission would be unobjectionable—that is to say, when, in consequence of the non-significance of the kṛin, it is not worth employing. Thus anyathákáram, evankáram, or kathankáram, or itthankáran bhunkte—"he eats otherwise—he eats so—how does he eat?—he eats thus," Why do we say "if its omission would be unobjectionable?" Witness śiro'nyathá kṛitwá bhunkte "he eats, having turned his head aside"—[where the kṛin could not be spared].

So much for the treatment of words ending with the krit affixes.

No. 945 .- By "the sense of the crude-form" is meant that meaning which is constantly present [with the word]. The word "only" is to be taken in connection with each term severally [in the aphorism-the translation of which here follows-viz.]:-Let there be THE FIRST case-affix, WHERE THE SENSE IS ONLY THAT OF THE CRUDE-FORM, OR where there is the additional sense of GENDER only, OR MEASURE only, OR NUMBER only. Thus-where the sense is only that of the crude-form-uchchaih "aloft," nichaih "below," krishnah "Krishna," śríh "the goddess Lakshmi," jnánam "knowledge;" where there is the additional sense of gender only-tatah or tati or tatam "the bank of a river;"-where there is the additional sense of measure only-drono within "rice-a drona (in measure);"-"number," here means [grammatical] number-[and the reason for this being specified in the rule is this-that otherwise the word eka "one," would not take su, nor dwi take au, nor bahu take jus-for an affix is never applied in order to give a sense which is implied in the word—as singularity is in eka, duality in dwi, and plurality in bahu]-so we have ekah, "one," dwau "two," buhavah "many."

सम्बोधने च।२।३।४०।

Thus harin bhajati "he worships Hari," where, not the object of worship, but the agent is specified by the tense-affix tip—No. 419—]. But when the object, &c. is denoted by the termination of the verb, [let the first case-affix be attached to the word]. Thus harih sevyate "Hari is served,"—[where the termination of the verb—see No. 801—specifies the object:] and so too in lakshmyá sevitah "served by Lakshmí," [where—see Nos. 867 and 820—the termination specifies the object].

No. 950.—Let that be "not spoken of," [as coming under the special relation of 'ablation' or the like—see No. 949—] which is connected with the object of the verbs Duh "to milk," Yách "to ask for," Pach "to cook," Daṇp "to fine," Rudh "to obstruct," Prachchh "to ask," chi "to collect," brú "to speak," sás "to instruct," Ji "to conquer," Manth "to churn," and mush "to steal,"—and so too of ní "to lead," hri "to take," krish "to drag," and Vah "to carry."

Thus—"he milks the cow (for) milk," "he asks the earth (of) Bali," "he cooks the raw rice (so that it becomes) boiled rice" [—cf. "he cooks oatmeal into porridge"—]; "he fines the Gargas a hundred (pieces of money)," "he shuts up the cow (in) the cow-pen," "he asks the boy (which is) the road," "he gathers fruit (from) the tree." This term [viz. the term object as appropriated by the present rule to something other than the direct object of the verb] is one the reason for taking which is the sense of the verb—[so that the rule is not confined to the verbs above enumerated, but applies to others which have the same sense—], hence we may have balin bhikshate vasudhán "he begs (as well as yáchati asks) the earth (from) Bali," "he talks of (bháshate), names (abhidhatte), tells of (vakti) virtue (to) the boy,"—&c.

No. 958.—Let THE SIXTH case-affix be employed IN THE RE-MAINING CASES—that is to say—where there is a sense, such as the relation between property and its owner, different from that of a word related to a verb, and from that of a crude word. Thus "the King's man." [Here it may be observed that the application of the term káraka is not co-extensive with that of the term case. The káraka —as its etymology indicates—stands in a relation dependent on the verb—whereas the sixth case provides further for such a relation as that of one noun with another. With an eye to this, we have rendered káraka "that which is directly related to the action."]

Moreover, when it is intended to speak only of the relation in general [and not of the special relation] of object and the like, the sixth case-affix alone is employed. Thus "the conduct of the virtuous," "he knows clarified butter," "he remembers his mother," "he prepares the wood and water for an oblation," "he adores the two feet of Siva."

No. 960.—And when the sense is that of Location (No. 959), the seventh case-affix is employed. By the "and" it is meant that it is employed also after words meaning "far off" or "near." A site is of three kinds—actually contiguous, figuratively objective, and co-extensive. Thus (1) "he sits on (i. e. in contact with) the mat," or "he cooks rice in (i. e. which is actually contained within) the pot;" (2) "his desire is (bent) on salvation—

(i. e. is figuratively wrapt up in it as its object); (3) "Soul is in all" (i. e. is co-extensive with the universe). "Far from, or near, the wood."

That called Avyayíbháva (No. 966)—in which, for the most part, the sense of the first of its elements is the main one (or the independent one on which the other depends), is the 2nd kind. That called Tatpurusha (No. 982)-in which, for the most part, the sense of the last of its elements is the main one, is the 3rd kind. A subdivision of the Tatpurusha class is called Karmadháraya (No. 1002.) A subdivision of the Karmadháraya class is called Dwigu (No. 983). That called Bahuvríhi (No. 1034)—in respect whereof, for the most part, the sense of a different word is the main one (to which the sense of the compound epithet is subordinate) is the 4th kind. That called Dwandwa (No. 1054)-in which, for the most part, the sense of both the one and the other of its elements is a main one-(neither being subordinate to the other), is the 5th kind.

No. 964.—A word ending in a case-affix may optionally be compounded WITH a word ending in A CASE-AFFIX. Since that which is a 'compound' is, therefore, regarded as a crude word (No. 136), there is elision of case-affixes (No. 768). The conveying an additional meaning [besides the literal meaning, or besides that which resides in the separate portions of which it may be composed] is the 'function' [of an expression]. There are five 'functions' [of five different kinds of expression]—viz. those belonging to [what ends with] a kṛit affix (No. 329) or a taddhita affix (No. 1067),—to a 'compound' (No. 961), to a 'partial remainder' (No. 145), and to a verb that ends with san or the like (No. 502). An expression explanatory of the force of the 'function' is called its 'analysis' or 'solution,' and this is of two kinds—popular and technical. For example, the explanation "pứrv và bhútah" is the popular solution, and "pứrva+am, bhúta+su" is the technical analysis, of the expression bhútapúrvah "formerly been" [which furnishes an example of the rule, No. 964, under consideration]. In this example the anomaly [—as regards placing the principal word first, instead of the secondary term—see No. 969—] of the word púrva, is in accordance with the example [of Páṇini] in the aphorism "bhúta-púrve ch vat" (V. 3. 53).

No. 966.—The term AVYAYÍBHÁVA—i. e. "the becoming an indeclinable"—is a regulating expression [to be understood in each aphorism] as far as No. 982.

No. 967.—An indeclinable (No. 399) employed with the sense of a case-affix, or of near to, or prosperity, or adversity, or absence of the thing, or departure, or not now, or the production of some sound, or after, or according to, or order of arrangement, or simultaneousness, or likeness, or possession, or totality, or termination, is invariably compounded with a word that ends with a case-affix.

For the most part, that which is invariably compound has no corresponding expression made up of separate words:—or its analysis must, for the most part, be made in other words [than those of which the compound itself consists].

[As an example of an "indeclinable" employed] with the sense of a case-affix—suppose that the case stands thus—viz.  $hari+\acute{n}i+adhi$ —[where the "indeclinable" adhi "upon" is to be employed with the sense of the 7th case-affix  $\acute{n}i$ —we look forward].

No. 968.—In a rule enjoining composition, let that which is exhibited in the nominative] be called the UPASARJANA or "secondary." [Thus the adhi, in the example under No. 967, being an "indeclinable," is the upasarjana, because the term "indeclinable," in No. 967, is in the 1st case].

उपसर्जनं पूर्वम । २ । २ । ३० ।

समासे उपसर्जनं प्राक् प्रयोज्यम् । इत्यधेः प्राक् प्रयोगः । सुपे। लुक् । एकदेशविकृतस्यानन्यत्वात् प्रातिपदिकसंचायां स्वाद्युत्पत्तिः । अव्ययीभावश्चेत्यव्ययत्वात् सुपे। लुक् । अधिहरि ।

No. 969.—The UPASARJANA (No. 968) is to be placed FIRST in a compound. Hence [in the example proposed in No. 967] the adhi [being the 'indeclinable' which is exhibited with the first caseaffix in No. 967] is to be placed first—[thus adhi+hari+ĥi].

Then (No. 768) there is elision of the case-afflx—[leaving adhi+ hari]. Then, seeing that what is partially altered (No. 181) does not become something quite different,—since this [viz. the expression under consideration, after being partially altered by the elision of the case-affix,] is still called a "crude form,"—the case-affixes, su, &c., again present themselves (—No. 140)—; and they are again, finally, elided (No. 403) in consequence of this compound's being an 'indeclinable,' according to No. 402. Thus we have adhihari "upon Hari."

No. 972.—The change to am (No. 971) OF THE 3RD AND 7TH case-affixes coming after an Avyayibhiva compound that ends in a, occurs diversely (-see No. 823). Thus upakrishnam or upakrishnena "near to Krishna;" [and, as further examples of No. 967, sumadram "well (or prosperous) with the Madras," duryavanam "ill with the Yavanas," nirmakshikam "free from flies," atihimam "on the departure of the cold weather," atinidram "wakefully;"-i. e. sleep being not now engaged in-; itihari "the exclamation 'Hari'"-[thus vaishnavagrihe itihari vartate "in the house of the Vaishnava there is the cry of 'Hari, Hari'"]-; anuvishnu "after Vishnu"-[i. e. following or worshipping him |. The meanings intended by the word yathá, [which, in the list at No. 967, has been rendered "according to," are 'correspondence,' 'severalty' or 'succession,' 'the not passing beyond something,' and 'likeness.' Thus anurupam "in a corresponding manner," pratyartham "according to each several object or signification," yatháśakti "according to one's ability"-[i. e. not going beyond one's power].

No. 986.—[That which ends with] the 3rd case-affix, when it denotes the agent or the instrument, as before [see No. 984—is compounded] diversely (No. 823) with what ends with a krit affix. Thus haritrata "preserved by Hari," nakhabhinna "divided by the nails." In the taking of krit [in the present rule] is implied that of the same when a preposition (No. 222) or a word directly related to the action (No. 958) precedes:—thus [the combination is not obstructed, by the preposition nir, in the example] nakhanirbhinna "quite divided by the nails."

चतुर्थो तद्यार्थबि चितसु खरि चते: । २ । १ । ३६ । चतुर्थ्यन्तार्थाय यत् तद्वाचिना अर्थादिभिश्च चतुर्थ्यन्तं वा प्राग्वत् । यूपाय दाह । यूपदाह । तद्र्येन प्रकृतिविकृतिभाव एवेष्टु: । तेने ह न । रन्धनाय स्थाली ।

No. 987.—A word ending with THE 4TH case-affix, as before [—see No. 984,—is compounded optionally] with what denotes that which is for the purpose of what ends with the 4th case-affix—and so too with the words artha "on account of," ball "a sacrifice," hith "salutary," sukha "pleasant," and rakshita "kept." Thus yúpadáru "wood for a stake." By the expression "for the purpose thereof" the special relation of a material and its modification alone is [by Patanjali] here held [to be intended]. Hence, in the case of such an expression as "a vessel for washing," composition does not take place—for the washing is not a modified form of the vessel, as a stake is a modified form of the wood which it is made of.

श्रर्थेन नित्यसमासे। विशेष्यलिङ्गता चेति वस्तव्यम् । द्विजाया-

यम् । द्विजार्थः सूपः । द्विजार्था यवागूः । द्विजार्थे पयः । भूतबलिः । गोहितम् । गोपुखम् । गोरचितम् ।

No. 988.—"WITH ARTHA 'on account of,' IT SHOULD BE STATED THAT COMPOSITION takes place invariably, and that the compound takes the gender of that which it qualifies." Thus dwijárthah súpah "broth for the Bráhman," dwijárthá yavágúh "gruel for the Bráhman," dwijárthan payah "milk for the Bráhman." [Examples of composition with the other words enumerated in No. 987 are] bhútabali "a sacrifice for [all] beings," gohita "what is good for cows," gosukha "what is pleasant for cows," gorakshita "what is kept for cows"—(as grass).

पच्चमी भयेन। २।१। ३०।

चाराद्वयम् । चारभयम् ।

No. 989.—A word ending with THE 5TH case-affix may be compounded WITH the word BHAYA "fear." Thus chorabhaya "fear [by reason] of a thief."

स्तोकान्तिकदूरार्थकच्छाणि स्तेन। २।१। ३८।

No. 990.—Words WITH THE SENSE OF STOKA "a little," ANTIKA "near," DÚRA "far,"—AND also the word KRICHCHHRA "penance," [may be compounded] WITH what ends in KTA (No. 867).

पञ्चम्याः स्तोकादिभ्यः। ६।३।२।

त्रलुगुत्तरपदे । स्तोकान्मुतः । त्रन्तिकादागतः । त्रभ्यामादाग-

तः । दूरादागतः । कृच्छादागतः ।

No. 991.—There is not elision OF THE 5TH case-affix No. 768) AFTER words with the sense of STOKA, &c. (No. 990), when a word in composition with them follows. Thus stokánmukta "loosed from a little distance," antikádágata "come from near," abhyásádágata "come from studying," dúrádágata "come from far," krichchhrádágata "come with difficulty."

षष्ठी। २। २। ८।

सुबन्तेन प्राग्वत् । राजपुरुषः ।

No. 992.—A word ending with THE 6TH case-affix, as before, [—see, No. 984—is optionally compounded] with what ends with a case-affix. Thus rájupurusha (No. 200) "the king's man." [This example, with the demonstrative pronoun tat substituted for the word rájan, gives the compound tatpurusha "his man," which is token as the type and name of the class,—see No. 982.]

पूर्वापराधरोत्तरमेकदेशिनेकाधिकरणे। २।२।१। अवयविना सह पूर्वादयः समस्यन्ते एकत्वसंख्याविशिष्टश्चेदवय-वी। षष्ठीसमासापवादः। पूर्व कायस्य पूर्वकायः। अपरकायः। एकाधिकरणे किम्। पूर्वश्छाचाणाम्।

No. 993.—The words Púrva "front," APARA "near," ADHARA "lower," AND UTTARA "upper," are compounded with what [word signifies a thing that] has parts, provided that the thing having parts is distinguished numerically by unity. This debars No. 992 [which would have placed the words púrva, &c. last in the compound;—whereas, being here exhibited in the nominative case—see No. 969—they take the precedence]. Thus púrva-káya "the front of the body," aparakáya "the back of the body." Why do we say "provided it is the site of unity [i. e. provided it be one]?" Witness púrvaśchhátránám "the foremost of the pupils"—[where composition does not take place, the pupils being more than one].

स्राधं नपुंसकम्। २।२।२। समांशवाच्यर्थशब्दो नित्यं क्रीबे प्राग्वत् । स्रधं पिष्पल्या स्र-र्थपिष्पली ।

No. 994.—The word ARDHA, which, when it signifies exactly equal parts (i. e. halves) is always NEUTER, as before [i. e. as directed in No. 993—enters into composition]. Thus archapippali "a half of the pepper."

सप्तमी ग्रीएडै: । २ । १ । ४० ।

सप्रम्यन्तं शे।यडादिभिः प्राग्वत् । अचेषु शे।यडः । अचशे।यडः ।

इत्यादि । द्वितीया तृतीयेत्यादियागविभागादन्यवापि द्वितीयादि-विभक्तीनां प्रयोगवशात् समासा चेयः ।

No. 995.—A word ending with THE 7TH case-affix, as before [i. e. as directed in No. 984—is optionally compounded] WITH the words SAUNDA "skilled," &c. Thus akshaśaunda "skilled in dice"—and so of others.

[It had been stated that words ending with the 2nd, 3rd, and other case-affixes—see Nos. 984, 985, &c.,—may form compounds with certain words specified in the aphorisms; but a greater latitude is found necessary—so] on the ground of usage [in the works of good authors] it is to be considered allowable to form compounds out of words ending with the 3rd and other case-affixes, elsewhere also [than where directed in the aphorisms], by disjoining the expressions 2nd, 3rd, &c. [from their appropriate aphorisms], and attaching them [to others].

दिक्संख्ये संज्ञायाम्। २।१।५०।

संज्ञायामेवेति नियमार्थे सूचम् । पूर्वेषुकामशमी । सप्र ऋषय: । सप्रषय: । तेनेह न । उत्तरा वृज्ञाः । पञ्च ब्राह्मणाः ।

No. 996.—A word signifying a Point of the compass or a number [enters into composition] when the sense is that of an appellative.—The aphorism is intended to restrict the composition of such words to the case where the sense is that of an appellative. Thus púrveshukámaśamí "(the town of) Ishukámaśamí-in-the-East," saptarshayah " the Seven-sages," (i. e. the constellation of the Great Bear). Hence not here—viz. in uttará vriksháh " northern trees," pancha bráhmanáh " five Bráhmans."

निद्याचीत्रपदसमाहारे च। २।१।५१।

तद्भितार्थे विषये उत्तरपदे च परतः समाहारे च वाच्ये दिक्सं-ख्ये प्राग्वत् । पूर्वस्यां शालायां भवः पूर्वशाला इति समासे जाते । सर्वनाम्ना वृत्तिमाचे पुंवद्भावः ।

No. 997.—In a case where the sense is that of a taddhitaaffix (No. 975), and when an additional member comes after the compound, AND WHEN AN AGGREGATE is to be expressed, then a word signifying a point of the compass or a number, as before [—see No. 996—becomes compounded]. Thus, when a compound is formed out of the words púrvasyáň śáláyáň bhavah "that which is in the eastern hall," [in which analytical exposition—see No. 964—of the compound in question, the word bhava—see No. 998—serves to represent the force of a taddhita-affix—] the compound having (—see No. 964—) reached the form of púrvá+śálá, [the feminine termination of the púrvá is rejected—because Patanjali declares that] "the masculine state belongs to a pronominal, when exercising any of the five functions" [specified under No. 964].

दिक्पूर्वपदादसं ज्ञायां जः । ४ । २ । १०० । अस्माद्ववादार्थे जः स्यादसं ज्ञायाम् ।

No. 998.—Let [the taddhita-affix—see No. 975—]  $\hat{N}A$ , with the sense of "being," &c., come AFTER A WORD PRECEDED BY another that signifies A POINT of the compass—PROVIDED the compound is NOT AN APPELLATIVE. [Thus, from No. 997, we have  $p\hat{u}rva\hat{s}\hat{a}l\hat{a}+\hat{n}a$ .]

जिति णिति च तद्धितेष्वचामादेरचे। वृद्धिः स्यात् । यस्येति च । पैर्विशालः । पञ्च गावे। धनं यस्येति चिपदे बहुब्रीहै। ।

No. 999.—Let vriddhi be substituted in the room of the first vowel of the vowels, when taddhita-affixes follow, having an indicatory  $\hat{n}$  (No. 998). or  $\hat{n}$ . The final vowel, moreover, being elided by No. 260, we have paurvaśálá "who is in the eastern hall"—(No. 997).

In the case of the Bahuvrihi compound (No. 1034) consisting of three terms—signifying "whose wealth is five cows"—[the rule following applies].

द्वन्द्वतत्पुरुषये। हतरपदे नित्यसमासवचनम् ।

No. 1000.—" WHEN AN ADDITIONAL NUMBER comes AFTER (what would else be but optionally) A DWANDWA compound (No.

1054) OR A TATPURUSHA (No. 982), the compounding is TO BE SPO-KEN OF AS INVARIABLE."

गोरति बित लुकि । ५ । ४ । ८२ ।

गाउन्तात् तत्पुरुषाट्टच् स्यात् समासान्ता न तु तद्धितलुकि । प

ञ्चगवधनः ।

No. 1001.—Let (the taddhita-affix) tach be as the final of the compound AFTER a Tatpurusha that ends with the word GO "a cow"—but NOT when there is ELISION OF the TADDHITA-affix. Thus panchagavadhana "whose wealth consists of five cows."

तत्पुरुषः समानाधिकरणः कर्मधारयः । १ । २ । ४२ ।

No. 1002.—A TATPURUSHA compound (No. 982) THE CASE OF each member of WHICH IS THE SAME, is called KARMADHÁ-RAYA (—i. e. "that which comprehends the object"—but why so named does not seem to be anywhere explained).

संख्यापूर्वा दिगुः। २।१।५२।

तद्भितार्थेत्यचे तस्त्रिविधः संख्यापूर्वे। द्विगु संज्ञः स्यात् ।

No. 1003.—Let a compound, THE FIRST member OF WHICH IS A NUMERAL, and which is of one of the three kinds specified in No. 997, be called DWIGU—[the word dwigu itself—an instance of this kind of compound—signifying "of the value of two cows]."

दिगुरेकवचन्म। २। ४। १।

द्विग्वर्थः समाहार एकवत् स्यात् ।

No. 1004.—An aggregate expressed by a Dwigu shall be like one—i. e. shall be SINGULAR.

स नपुंसकम्। २। ४। १०।

समाहारे द्विगुर्द्वन्द्वश्च नपुंसकं स्यात् । पञ्चानां गवां समाहारः पञ्चगवम् ।

No. 1005.—When the sense is an aggregate, IT—a Dwigu or a Dwandwa compound (No. 1054)—shall be A NEUTER. Thus panchagavam "an aggregate of five cows."

विशेषणं विशेष्येण बहुनम्। २। १।५०।

भेदकं भेदोन समानाधिकरणेन बहुलं प्राग्वत् । नीलमुत्पलं नी-लात्पलम् । बहुलग्रहणात् क्वचित्रित्यम् । कृष्णसर्पः । क्वचित्र । रामा जामदग्न्यः ।

No. 1006.—The QUALIFIER (or discriminator) [is compounded] WITH the thing thereby QUALIFIED (or discriminated) DIVERSELY (No. 823), as before [—i. e. as directed in No. 984]. Thus nilotpala "a blue lotus." By taking, in the rule, the expression "diversely" it is meant that in some cases it is imperative to make a compound—as in the case of krishnasarpa "a black snake," and sometimes it is forbidden—thus rámo jámadagnyah "Ráma (called also) Jámadagnya" (as being the son of Jamadagni)."

उपमानानि सामान्यवचनैः । २ । १ । ५५ ।

घनश्यामः ।

No. 1007.—OBJECTS OF COMPARISON are compounded WITH WORDS DENOTING WHAT IS LIKENED to them. Thus ghanasyáma "cloud-black"—[i. e. something black as a cloud].

शाक्रपार्थिवादीनामुत्तरपदलोपा वक्तव्यः । शाक्रप्रियः पर्थिवः । शाक्रपार्थिवः । देवब्राह्मणः ।

No. 1008.—The elision of the second member in the compounds śakaparthiva, &c. should be stated." Thus the word priya "beloved" is elided in the example śakaparthiva "the king of the era"—i. e. the king beloved by (the people of) his era, devabrahmana "a Brahman beloved by the gods."

नज्। २। २। ६।

नज स्पा प्राग्वत् ।

No. 1009.—The indeclinable privative NAN, as before [i. e. as directed in the foregoing rules—combines] with what ends with a case affix.

नलोपो नञः। ६। ३। ७३।

नजा नस्य लाप उत्तरपदे । अब्राह्मणः ।

No. 1010.—There is ELISION OF the N OF NAN (No. 1009), when a word follows in composition with it. Thus abráhmana "who is not a Bráhman"—(though a man).

तसानुडिच । ६ । ३ । ७४ ।

लुप्रनकाराञ्चञ उत्तरपदस्याजादेर्नुट् । त्रमञ्चः । नैकथेत्यादे तु नगब्देन सह सुप् सुपेति समासः ।

No. 1011.—Let NUT be the augment of a word beginning with a vowel that comes, in composition, after that nan (No. 1010) of which the n has been elided. Thus anaśwa "(an animal) which is not a horse." But in such an expression as naikadhá "not at one time," there is composition with the word na [i. e. nan with its indicatory final dropped] in accordance with No. 964 ['indeclinables' being regarded as if they had case-affixes, though these have been elided—see Nos. 403 and 210].

कुगितिप्रादयः । २ । २ । १८ । यते समर्थेन नित्यं समस्यन्ते । कुत्सितः पुरुषः । कुपुरुषः ।

No. 1012.—The word KU (No. 399), those called GATI (Nos. 222 and 1013), and PRA, &c. (No. 48), are invariably compounded with that with which they are connected in sense. Thus kupurusha "a paltry man."

जर्यादिचिडाचया १ । ४ । ६१ ।

जयादयश्च्व्यन्ता डाजन्ताश्च क्रियायागे गतिसंज्ञाः स्युः । जरीकृत्य । शुक्रीकृत्य । पटपटाकृत्य । सुपुरुषः ।

No. 1013.—And let the words úrí (No. 399) "assent," And the LIKE, and those that end with Chwi (No. 1332), and those that end with pách (No. 1338), when in composition with a verb, be called gati (No. 222). Thus (No. 1012) úríkritya (No. 936) "having promised," śuklíkritya "having made white," paṭapaṭá-kritya "having made a clattering," supurusha (No. 1012 and 48) "a good man."

प्रादया गतादार्थे प्रथमया । प्रगत त्राचार्यः । प्राचार्यः ।

No. 1014.—"The words PRA, &c. (No. 48), WHEN THE SENSE IS that of GONE OR THE LIKE, combine WITH what ends with THE 1st case-affix." Thus práchárya "a hereditary teacher" (like Vasishtha in the family of Ráma).

त्रत्यादयः क्रान्तादार्थे द्वितीयया। त्रतिक्रान्तो मालामिति विग्रहे।

No. 1015.—"The words ATI, &c. (No. 48), WHEN THE THING DENOTED is GONE BEYOND or the like, combine WITH what ends with THE 2ND case-affix." Thus we may have, as the analysis of a compound atikránto málám "which has surpassed the necklace:"—[but, in regard to the compound, some further considerations are necessary].

एकविभक्ति चापूर्वनिपाते । १ । २ । ४४ । विग्रहे यित्रयतविभक्तिकं तदुपसर्जनं न तु तस्य पूर्वनिपातः ।

No. 1016.—And that which, in the analytical statement of the sense of a compound, has one fixed CASE [whilst the word with it is compounded may vary its case] is called upasarjana (No. 968), BUT DOES NOT (necessarily) STAND FIRST (No. 969) [This furnishes occasion for next rule].

गोस्त्रियोहपसर्जनस्य। १। २। ४८।

डपसर्जनं या गाशब्दः स्त्रीप्रत्ययान्तं च तदन्तस्य प्रातिपदिकस्य इस्वः । त्र्यतिमालः ।

No. 1017.-Let a short vowel be the substitute of a crude word (No. 135) which ends with the word go "a cow," AND of that which ends with what has as its termination A FEMININE affix (No. 1341), WHEN regarded as AN UPASARJANA (No. 1016). Thus [the example under No. 1015 becomes] atimála "exceeding the necklace (in beauty).

अवादयः ऋष्टादार्थे तृतीयया। अवऋष्टः केाकिलया। अवकाकिलः।

No. 1018.—"The words AVA, &c. (No. 48), WHEN THE THING DENOTED is CRIED OUT, &c., are compounded WITH what ends with

THE 3RD case-affix." Thus avakokila "what is announced by the cuckoo."—(e. g. the spring).

पर्यादया ग्लानादार्थे चतुर्थ्या । परिग्लानाऽध्ययनाय पर्यध्ययनः ।

No. 1019.—"The words PARI, &c. (No. 48), WHEN THAT DE-NOTED IS WEARY, &c., are compounded WITH what ends with THE 4TH case-affix." Thus paryadhyayana "weary of study."

निरादयः क्रान्तादार्ये पञ्चम्या । निष्कान्तः केश्याम्ब्या निष्की-शाम्बः ।

No. 1020.—The words NIR, &c. (No. 48), WHEN THE THING DENOTED IS GONE BEYOND, &c., are compounded WITH what ends with THE 5TH case-affix." Thus nishkauśámbi "who has gone beyond Kauśámbi."

तचे।पपदं सप्तमीस्थम् । ३ । १ । ८२ । स्मम्यन्ते पदे कर्मणीत्यादै। वाच्यत्वेन स्थितं यत् कुम्भादि तद्वाचकं पदमुपपदं स्थात् ।

No. 1021.—HERE [i. e. in the division of the Grammar referring to verbal roots] let the word, such as "pot" or the like, denoting that which, in virtue of its being a significate, is IMPLIED in a term exhibited IN THE 7TH case, such as karmani (No. 841), be called UPAPADA (No. 1022).

उपपदमितङ् । २ । २ । १८ ।

उपपदं समर्थेन नित्यं समस्यतेऽतिङन्तश्च समापः । कुम्मं करोतीति कुम्भकारः । ऋतिङ् किम् । मा भवान् भूत् । माङ् लुङीति सप्रमीनिर्देशान्माङ्गपदम् । गतिकारकोपपदानां कृद्धिः सह समासवचनं प्राक् सुबुत्पतेः । व्याग्नी । अश्वक्रीती । कच्छ-पी । इत्यादि ।

No. 1022.—An UPAPADA (No. 1021) is always compounded with that with which it is in construction—and the compound does not end in a tense-affix. Thus kumbhakára (No. 841), "one who makes pots." Why do we say "not in a tense-affix?" Witness má bhaván bhút "let not your Honour become"—where máń as having been exhibited, in No. 469, in 7th case, takes the name of upapada [but is not compounded with bhút].

The compounding of a gati (No. 222) or a  $k\acute{a}raka$  (No. 945), or an upapada (No. 1021) with what ends with a krit-affix is declared to be effected before the case-affixes present themselves. Thus we have  $vy\acute{a}ghr\acute{i}$  "a tigress,"  $aswakr\acute{i}t\acute{i}$  "a female (e. g. cow or the like) bought in exchange for a horse,"  $kachchhap\acute{i}$  "a shetortoise." [The word  $vy\acute{a}ghr\acute{i}$  is said to be derived from the root  $ghr\acute{a}$  "to smell," with the gati-prefixes vi and  $\acute{a}$ , because the animal "goes smelling about." By Nos. 839 and 524, short a is found in the room of the long  $\acute{a}$ . Then, if the  $vi+\acute{a}+ghr\acute{a}$  were not held to have become a compound before the case-affixes present themselves, in forming the feminine we should have to follow No. 1341 instead of No. 1373—for we should be forming the feminine of a verbal and not of a word denoting a genus. And so of the other examples].

तत्प्रषयाङ्गुलेः संख्याव्ययादेः । ५ । ४ । ८६ । संख्याव्ययादेरङ्गुल्यन्तस्य तत्पुरुषस्य समासान्तोऽच् स्यात् । द्वे बङ्गुनी प्रमाणमस्य द्वाङ्गुनम् । निर्गतमङ्गुनिभ्या निरङ्गुनम् ।

No. 1023.—Let the affix ach be the final of the Tatpurusha compound which begins with a numeral or an indeclinable and ends with anguli "an inch." Thus dwyańgula (No. 260) "of the measure of two inches," nirańgula "exceeding in measure the breadth of the fingers (of a hand)."

अदः सर्वे कदेशसंख्यातपुग्याच राचेः । ५ । ४ । ८० । एभ्ये। राचेरच् स्यात्। चात् संख्याच्ययादेः । अहर्यहणं द्वन्द्वार्थम् ।

No. 1024.—And let the affix ach come AFTER the word RATRI "night," when it comes AFTER AHAN "a day," SARVA "all," WHAT SIGNIFIES A PORTION, AND SANKHYATA "numbered," AND PUNYA "holy." By the "and" is meant that this is to hold also when the compound "begins with a numeral or an indeclinable."

The word ahan "a day" is taken, in this aphorism, with a view to its entering into a Dwandwa compound—(No. 1054).

राचाह्रासाः पुंसि । २ । ४ । २८ ।

गतदन्ता द्वन्द्वतत्पुरुषा पुंस्येव । श्रहश्च राविश्वाहाराव: । सर्वराव: । संख्यातराव: ।

No. 1025.—Dwandwa (No. 1054) and Tatpurusha compounds ending in RATRA (i. e. rátri + ach—see No. 1024), AND AHNA (V. 4. 88.) AND AHA (Nos. 1027 and 979), appear IN THE MASCULINE only. Thus ahorátrah (No. 395, in spite of No. 129, taking effect as directed by Kátyáyana) "day and night," sarvarátrah "the whole night," sankhyátarátrah "a night numbered (as the 1st, 2d, 13th, &c.)."

संख्यापूर्वं राचं क्लीबम् । द्विराचम् । विराचम् ।

No. 1626.—"The word RATRA 'night,' (No. 1025) PRECEDED in composition BY A NUMERAL, is NEUTER." Thus dwirátram "a space of two nights," trirátram "a space of three nights."

राजा इ:सिख्भ्यष्टच् । ५ । ४ । ८१ । यतदन्तात् तत्युरुषाट्टच् । परमराजः ।

No. 1027.—The taddhita-affix TACH comes AFTER a Tatpuru-sha compound (No. 982) that ends with the word RÁJAN "a king," AHAN "a day," OR SAKHI "a friend." Thus paramarájah "a supreme king."

स्रान्सहतः समानाधिकरणजातीययोः । ६ । ३ । ४६ । महाराजः । प्रकारवचने जातीयर् । महाप्रकारे। महाजातीयः ।

No 1028.—Let LONG á be the substitute (of the final) of MAHAT "great," WHEN A WORD IN THE SAME CASE FOLLOWS, AND WHEN JÁTÍVAR (V. 3. 69.) FOLLOWS. Thus mahárájah (No. 1027) "a great king." The word játíyar means "kind:"—thus mahá-játíyah "like the great.

ह्यष्टनः संख्यायामबहुवीह्यशीत्योः । ६ । ३ । ४० । त्रात् स्यात् । द्वादय । त्रष्टाविंगतिः ।

No. 1029.—Let long & be the substitute of DWI "two" AND ASHTAN "eight," WHEN A NUMERAL FOLLOWS, but NOT WHEN the

परविद्यक्तं दग्दतत्पुरुषयोः । २ । ४ । २६ । कुक्कटमयूर्याविमे । मयूरीकुक्कटाविमा । अर्थपिणली ।

No. 1030.—The GENDER OF A DWANDWA (No. 1054) OR TAT-PUKUSHA compound (No. 282) IS LIKE that of the LAST word in it. Thus kukkuṭamayúryávime "those two (fem.) the cock and the peahen," mayúríkukkuṭávimau "those two (mas.) the peahen and the cock," ardhapippalí "the half of the pepper" (which is fem.—though ardha here—see No. 994—is neuter).

द्विगुप्राप्रापन्नालंपूर्वगतिसमासेषु न । पञ्चकपालः पुराेडाशः । प्राप्ता जीविकां प्राप्तजीविकः । त्रापन्नजीविकः । त्रलं कुमार्ये त्रलं-कुमारिः । त्रत एव ज्ञापकात् समासः । निष्काेशाम्बिः ।

No. 1031.—"This (dependence of the gender on that of the last word—No. 1030—) does not hold in a Dwigu compound (No. 1003), nor in compounds the first member of which is prápta 'obtained,' ápanna 'obtained,' alam 'enough,' and a gati (No. 1012)." Thus panchakapálah purodásah "cakes soaked in butter (and offered at a sacrifice) in a dish with five compartments"—[though kapála is neuter], práptajívikah or ápannajívikah "who has obtained a livelihood"—[though jíviká is fem.], alankumárih "who is a suitable match for the girl"—which, only by the present rule, could be known to be a case justifying composition; (so too, where a gati is the first member] nishkausámbih "(a man) who has come out of Kausámbí" [though the name of the place is feminine].

अर्धर्चाः पुंसि च । २ । ४ । ३१ । अर्धर्चादयः पुंसि क्रीबे च स्यः । अर्धर्चः । अर्धर्चम् । एवं ध्वजतीर्थेशरीरमण्डपयूषदेहाङ्क्रशकलशपानसूनादयः ।

No. 1032.—The words ARDHARCHA, &C. may be MASCULINE AND neuter. Thus ardharcha or ardharcham "half a verse

(of Scripture)." No. 1035.—[A collection of] MORE words THAN ONE, in the nominative, employed TO DENOTE THE SAME THING AS ANOTHER WORD is optionally compounded:—this is a Bahuvrihi compound (No. 1034).

स्प्रम्यन्तं विशेषणं च बहुव्रीहै। पूर्वे स्थात् । कगठेकालः । ऋत एव ज्ञापकाञ्चाधिकरणायदे। बहुव्रीहिः ।

No. 1036.—A word in the 7th case, and an epithet shall stand first in a Bahuvríhi compound. Thus kanthekála "who is black in the throat—(Siva)." [Had the noun not been in the 7th case, the epithet must have come first—thus kálakantha "black-throated"]. From this we learn that a Bahuvríhi compound may consist of words in different cases—[though No. 1035 speaks of them as being all alike in the nominative].

इनदन्तत् सप्तम्याः संज्ञायाम्। ६। ३।८।

हलन्ताददन्ताच्च सप्रम्या ऋलुक् । त्विचिमारः । प्राप्तमुदकं यं प्राप्नादके। ग्रामः । जढरथाऽनड्वान् । उपहृतपश्च रुद्रः । उद्भृतीदना स्थाली । पीताम्बरे। हरिः । वीरपुरुषके। ग्रामः ।

No. 1040.—When trere is not úń after what is employed in speaking of what is masculine,—i. e. where there is the absence of the feminine affix úń—(see No. 1376) the form of such a feminine word becomes like the masculine, when a feminine word in the some case follows (in the compound)—but not if this (word that follows) is an ordinal, or is the word priva "beloved" &c.

[Thus—when we mean to speak of a man as having "a brindled cow"—the two words chitrá gauh being converted into an epithet], gau becomes short, by No. 1017, [and then, by the present rule, the chitrá, which is "followed by a feminine word in the same case"—viz. by gauh—, becomes "like the masculine"—i. e. becomes chitra—so that we have] chitraguh "(a man) who has a brindled cow." In like manner [from rúpavatí bháryá "a handsome wife"] rúpavadbháryah "who has a handsome wife." Why do we say "when there is not úń?" Witness vámorúbháryah "one who has a wife with handsome thighs"—[where the feminine affix úń—No. 1380—by which the final of the word uru "a thigh" was lengthened, remains].

No. 1041.—When a feminine word ends with an affix giving the sense of an ordinal, let the affix ap be after the Bahuvrihi compound (No. 1034) which ends therewith or with the word pramání "a witness." Thus kalyánípanchamá rátrayah "nights, the fifth of which is auspicious," strípramánah "having a woman for witness or authority"—(a suit &c). Why do we say (in No. 1040) "not if this is the word priya, &c."? Witness kalyánípriyah "whose beloved is an honourable woman,":—and so on.

बहुवीहै। सक्ष्यक्षोः स्वाङ्गात् षच्। ५ । ४ । ११३ । स्वाङ्गवाविसक्ष्यक्यन्ताद्वहुव्रीहेः षच्। दीर्घसक्यः । जलजावी। स्वाङ्गात् किम् । दीर्घसक्षि शकटम् । स्यूलावा वेणुयष्टिः । ऋत्यो-ऽर्शनादिति वक्त्यमायोऽच् ।

Thus dírghasakthah "whose thighs are long," jalajákshí (No. 1348) "lotus-eyed." Why do we say "denoting a part of the body"? Witness dírghasakthi śakatam "a cart with long shafts," sthúlákshá venuyashtih "a bambu-staff with large eyes"—[meaning the marks at the joints left on removing the twigs that grew there]. #### । द्वन्द्वः ।

चार्थे दन्दः। २। २। २८।

श्रनेकं सुबन्तं चार्षे वर्तमानं वा समस्यते स द्वन्द्वः । समुच्चया-न्वाचयेतरेतरयोगसमाहाराश्चार्थाः । तनेश्वरं गुरुं च भनस्वेति परस्परिवरपेचस्यानेकस्येकस्मिन्नन्वयः समुच्चयः । भिच्चामट गां चा-नयेत्यन्यतरस्यानुषङ्गिकत्वेनान्वये। प्रनयोगसमाप्र्यात् समासे न । धवखदिरौ क्रिन्धीति मिलितानामन्वय इतरेतरयोगः । संज्ञापरिभाषमिति समूहः समाहरः ।

No. 1054.-When a set of several words ending with caseaffixes stands IN A RELATION EXPRESSIBLE BY "AND," the set is optionally made into a compound :- this is called DWANDWA "doubling" or "coupling." The meanings that may be indicated by "and" are "community of reference," "collateralness of reference," "mutual conjunction," and "lumping." For example-iswaran gurun cha bhajaswa "reverence God and thy teacher"-here the dependence, on one (and the same verb), of the mutually unrelated set of more than one, is what we call "community of reference." In the example bhikshamata gán chánaya "go for alms and bring the cow," the relation founded on the one or the other's being concerned in a collateral action-is what we call "collateralness of reference." In these two cases composition does not take place, because the words are not directly related to one another -- (No. 962). In the example dhavakhadirau chhindhi "cleave (alike) the Mimosa and the Grislea"—the relation of the two mixed up (in one action of which they are spoken of as the joint object) is what we call "mutual conjunction." "Lumping" is aggregation (into a neuter singular word) - as in the example sanjnaparibhasham "an appellative and a maxim of interpretation."

By the employment of the expression "are seen" it is hinted that this may take place [not on every occasion, but] only when in juxtaposition with such a word as bhavat "your Honour." Thus, employed in the same sense as sa bhaván "your Honour," we see tato bhaván and tatra bhaván; and, in the 2nd case, tato bhavantam and tatra bhavantam. This debars the two former affixes (No. 1306). No. 1325.—OPTIONALLY [after kim, &c.,—see No. 1324—] there may be the affix DATAMACH [when the object is the determining of the one] out OF MANY, THE QUESTION BEING THAT OF CASTE. The restriction conveyed in the words "the question being that of caste" is objected to in "The Mine" (—i. e. in the "Great Commentary"—). Thus katama "which of the number?"—which of you, Sirs, is the Bráhman?—yatama "of the set the one who," tatama "of the set—that one." The employment of the term "optionally" (in the aphorism) is for the sake of indicating akach (No. 1321), which may be used in like manner. Thus yaka "of the set the one who," saka "of the set—that one."

No. 1828.—The affix MAYAT may be employed [after a word denoting some substance] when we require an expression for it as abundant. By "abundant" we mean "happening to be in abundance," and by its "expression" we mean "a declaring." [This word vachana—which has been rendered "an expression" in the aphorism—has two senses, for the affix with which it is formed—viz.] the affix lyut conveys the force both of the nature (see Nos. 928 and 1239) and the site. In the former case [—i. e. taking tatprakritavachana to mean "the mention of that as abundant"—] we have annamaya "abundance of grain;" apúpamaya "abundance of flour;"—but in the second case [—i. e. taking it to mean "that in which something is spoken of as abundant"—] we have annamayo yajnah "a sacrifice at which food is abundant," apúpamayam parva "a festival at which there is abundance of flour."

श्राद्यादिभ्यस्तमेरूपसंख्यानम् । श्रादी श्रादितः । मध्यतः । श्रन्ततः । पृष्ठतः । पार्यतः । श्राकृतिगणोऽयम् । स्वरेण स्वरतः । वर्णतः ।

No. 1331.—"THE ADDITIONAL ASSERTION should be made of the affix TASI as coming ATTER the words ADI 'first' &c." [as well as after words that are in the 5th case—see No. 1286—]. Thus aditah "at the first," madhyatah "in the middle," antatah "finally," prishthatah "behind," párśwatah "by the side of." This is a class of words those belonging to which are to be known only from the forms met with in writings of authority—(see No. 53). No. 1340.—"It should be stated that when the affix dách (No. 1338) comes after a reduplication (No. 118) which occurs when dách follows (No. 1337), then the form of the subsequent shall invariably be in the room both of the prior and of the subsequent letters." Hence [when we have patat+patat+dách+karoti] the letter p is substituted in the room of the t [of the first patat] and of the p [of the reduplication], giving patapatá-karoti "he makes a noise like patat, patat" [—the final t being elided by VI. 1. 98, as in the words under No. 53]. Why do we say "after the imitative name of an inarticulate sound" (No. 1338)? Witness drishat karoti "it makes (or turns to) stone." Why do we say "after the half of that of which two vowels are the least." Witness frat karoti "he utters [the exclamation implying belief or reverence] śrat." Why do we say "at least"? [Because the rule does apply if there be more, as well as when there are two]—thus kharaṭakharaṭákaroti "he makes a sound like kharaṭat." Why do we say "not if the word iti 'thus' follows"? Witness paṭiti karoti "he makes the sound called paṭat" (VI. I. 98).

So much for the Taddhita affixes.
