SCHOOL OF MEDICINE FOR WOMEN.

In February, 1892, the Universities Commissioners issued an Ordinance (No. 18), empowering the Scottish University Courts to make provision within the Universities for the instruction of women, either by admitting them to the ordinary classes, or by instituting separate classes for their instruction. The Council of Queen Margaret College, having considered the provisions of this Ordinance, came to the conclusion that the purpose for which the College had been instituted would be best served by making over their work to the University of Glasgow. They, accordingly, with the concurrence of Mrs. Elder, the proprietrix of the buildings and grounds hitherto occupied by the College, offered to transfer to the University Court these buildings and grounds, and the endowments (present and prospective), on condition that these should be devoted to the establishment and maintenance of University Classes for women exclusively. The University Court, after consultation with the Senate, having resolved to exercise the power conferred by Ordinance No. 18, and to provide University instruction for women mainly by the institution of separate classes, agreed to accept the offer made by Queen Margaret College, and remitted to a Committee to take the necessary steps for completing the transfer. In virtue of this arrangement the teachers in Queen Margaret College were appointed by the University Court, and in session 1892-93 the students were admitted matriculated students of the University. In 1893, the College having been dissolved, the buildings and grounds, which had cost about £15,000, and the endowment funds, amounting to £23,395 7s. 11d., were handed over to the University Court; but the name "Queen Margaret College" survives as designating the part of the University buildings and grounds which is devoted to the education of women.

MATRICULATION AND ENROLMENT IN CLASSES.

Attendance upon the Classes in Medicine qualifies for the Degrees in Medicine of the University of Glasgow.¹

By Ordinance No. 50 of the Commissioners under the Universities Act of 1889, every student is required at the beginning of each Session to matriculate by enrolling her name in the University album before joining any class. The Secretary's office at Queen Margaret College will be open for the purpose of matriculation on and after Monday, 14th October. The Matriculation Fee is One Guinea for the Academical year; for the Summer Session alone, 10s. 6d. Matriculation ends on 14th November.

Students entering on a Course of Medical Study should note that they must have previously passed the Preliminary Examination, and be registered in the books of the General Medical Council as Medical Students (see footnote, p. 26).

Women students are entitled, after matriculation, to the privilege of borrowing books from the University Library, to the use of the Reading Room in Queen Margaret College, and, under certain conditions, to admission to the Hunterian Museum; they are also entitled to vote for the Lord Rector of the University.

¹The Classes in Medicine held in Queen Margaret College being University Classes, certificates of attendance thereon may be used by those who propose to become Candidates for the Degrees of the other Scottish Universities, and for those of London University, Victoria University, and the Royal University of Ireland, as well as for the Qualifications of the Scottish Corporations.

Strict order and silence must be observed in the Reading Room; an adjoining room is provided for students who wish to wait between two classes.

Medical students have access, for the usual attendance in the wards and on the Clinical Lectures, to the Royal Infirmary, the Royal Hospital for Sick Children, the Royal Asylum, Gartnavel, the City of Glasgow Fever Hospital, Belvidere, and the Eye Hospital, Charlotte Street; they also have facilities for Dispensary work at the Royal Infirmary and Royal Hospital for Sick Children.

The Winter Session of the Medical Classes begins on 22nd October and ends on 20th March, and the Summer Session of these Classes begins on 21st April and ends early in July.

Class Tickets will be obtained and Fees paid at Queen Margaret College, Kelvinside, Glasgow. All Fees must be paid on enrolment.

The Secretary's office at Queen Margaret College will be open during the Winter Session from 10.30 a.m. till 5.30 p.m., except on Saturdays, when it will not be open after 1 p.m. During the Summer Session the office hours are from 11 a.m. till 5 p.m., except on Saturdays, when the office will be closed.

This Class will meet daily at 12 noon during the Winter Session. In this course 75 lectures are devoted to Inorganic and 25 to Organic Chemistry. The Inorganic part of the course begins with the study of the Chemistry of Water, Air, and their constituent elements, and from the knowledge thus gained the principles of the science are deduced: the commoner non-metallic and metallic elements are then considered in detail.

In the Organic lectures some of the more important members of the fatty series are discussed.

The employment of heat, cold, electricity, etc., for Therapeutic purposes, will also be considered; and there will be systematic demonstrations of the various articles of the Materia Medica.

PRACTICAL PHARMACY.

During the Summer Session lectures will be given on the official Galenical preparations, and students will be practically instructed in the compounding and dispensing of medicines.

Students are recommended to attend the Practical Class in the summer preceding their attendance upon the Winter Course.

SURGERY.

The Systematic Class will meet five days weekly in the College, 4 to 5 p.m. Clinical work and lectures 9 to 10.30 a.m. in the Royal Infirmary.

Text-Book—Erichsen, Science and Art of Surgery.

A course of Operative Surgery will be given in summer.

GRADUATION IN MEDICINE AND SURGERY.

The Degrees in Medicine and Surgery conferred by this University are all recognised by the Medical Acts as qualifying for practice throughout the British dominions, and for admission to the Army, Navy, and Public Medical Service.

Every student who began his medical studies previous to 1st January, 1892, is entitled to graduate under the system in force before or after that date, according as he shall comply with the regulations in force in the University before¹ or after that date. All others must fulfil the requirements of the new Ordinance—(Ordinance No. 14, Glasgow No. 1, Regulations for Degrees in Medicine)—the principal provisions of which are as follows :—

I. Four degrees in Medicine and Surgery are conferred by the University of Glasgow, viz., Bachelor of Medicine (M.B.), Bachelor of Surgery (Ch.B.), Doctor of Medicine (M.D.), and Master of Surgery (Ch.M.). The degree of Bachelor of Surgery shall not be conferred on any person who does not at the same time obtain the degree of Bachelor of Medicine, and the degree of Bachelor of Medicine shall not be conferred on any person who does not at the same time obtain the degree of Bachelor of Surgery.

II. Subject to regulations to be made from time to time by the University Court, the University may also confer diplomas in Special Branches of Medical and Surgical Practice on graduates of the University in Medicine and Surgery.

III. Before commencing his medical studies, each student must pass a Preliminary Examination in (1) English, (2) Latin, (3) Elementary Mathematics, and (4) Greek or French or German: provided always that, in the case of a candidate whose native language is not English, an examination in the native language of the candidate may be substituted for one in either French or German, and an examination in any other classical language for one in Latin or Greek.²

IV. The extent and standard of the Preliminary Examination shall be determined by the Joint Board of Examiners constituted under Ordinance No. 13—[Regulations as to Examinations]—in accordance with the terms of that Ordinance.

Under this Section the Joint Board have directed that for the Medical Preliminary Examination the papers set in Latin, Greek, and Mathematics shall be the same as those set on the Lower Standard in these subjects in the Arts and Science Preliminary Examination; and that the papers set in French and German shall be of a lower standard than those set in these subjects in the Arts and Science

² The candidate for the Degrees of Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery must have been registered in the books of the General Medical Council at least five years prior to the date of his graduation. In order to be so registered he must transmit to James Robertson, Esq., the Scottish Branch Registrar, 1 George Square, Edinburgh, together with a printed form of application, which may be obtained from the Assistant-Clerk (Matriculation Office, University), a certificate of having passed the Preliminary Examination.

Preliminary Examination. The papers set in English (i.) in October, 1895, and in April and October, 1896, shall be of a lower standard than the papers set in this subject in the Arts and Science Preliminary Examination; (ii.) in and after April, 1897, the papers set in English shall no longer be of the same character as the paper on English in the Arts and Science Preliminary Examination; no set books shall be prescribed, nor shall a general knowledge of the life and works of the greater authors be expected of candidates, but one or two questions may be set, giving an opportunity to candidates to show a knowledge of famous literary works. The historical questions shall not be confined to any one period, but shall cover the whole of British History, and shall be set in such a way as to give an opportunity to candidates who have confined their studies to a single period to show their knowledge. A single three hours' paper shall be set, containing an essay, a paraphrase, two questions on History, two on Geography, four on Grammar (including correction of sentences, parsing, analysis of sentences, and derivations), two of a literary and general kind. Eight answers shall be required. The essay, the paraphrase, one answer on History and one on Geography shall be compulsory. In October, 1895, and in April and October, 1896, alternative papers will be set in English, one on the lines laid down in paragraph (i.), and the other on the lines laid down in paragraph (ii.), and candidates may select whichever they prefer.

It shall be in the option of any candidate for the Medical Preliminary to take the papers set on the higher standard for the Arts Preliminary in any of the subjects.

Excellence in one or more subjects will be permitted to compensate in some measure for deficiency in any of the other subjects. Such excellence may be shown either by attaining a high percentage of marks on the lower standard, or by passing on the higher standard.

Candidates who, having taken English, Latin, Greek, Mathematics, or a Modern Language, on the higher standard, as prescribed by the Arts Ordinance for the Arts and Science Preliminary, have obtained a satisfactory percentage of marks, shall be held to have passed the Medical Preliminary in these subjects, provided that all the subjects required by the regulations of the General Medical Council are taken at the same time.¹

V. The Preliminary Examination is conducted in accordance with the provisions of Ordinance No. 13—[Regulations as to Examinations]—and, subject to the provisions of the immediately succeeding section hereof, the entire examination must be passed at one and the same time.

VI. A degree in Arts or in Science (not being a degree honoris causa tantum) in any of the Universities of the United Kingdom, or in any Colonial or Foreign University specially recognised for the purpose by the University Court, shall exempt from the Preliminary Examination; and the Joint Board of Examiners appointed under the provisions of Ordinance No. 13—[Regulations as to Examinations]—shall have power to determine what examinations, other than those for the degrees hereinbefore mentioned, shall be accepted, either in whole or in part, in place of the preliminary examination.

The Joint Board have issued the following rules under the heading—Examinations accepted as exempting from the Preliminary Examination in Medicine, provided always that the regulations of the General Medical Council regarding the registration of students of Medicine be complied with :—

1. In terms of the Medical Ordinances, “ a Degree in Arts or in Science (not being a degree honoris causa tantum) in any of the Universities of the United Kingdom, or in any Colonial or Foreign University, specially recognised for the purpose by the University Court, shall exempt from the Preliminary Examination.”

3. A Candidate who has obtained the Leaving Certificate (Honours or Higher Grade) of the Scotch Education Department in any subject recognised for the Medical Preliminary Examination, shall be exempted from further examination in that subject in the aforesaid Preliminary Examination.

The Regulation that all the subjects of the Examination shall be passed at one and the same time shall not be held to apply to either of the above cases, 2 and 3. But Candidates complying with these Rules (2 and 3) must obtain a University Certificate specifying the examinations passed by them which have been accepted as equivalents to the Preliminary, and must present said Certificate to the Medical Registrar in order to registration.

Further, each such Candidate when applying for said Certificate must, if he has not entered for any part of the Preliminary, produce a Matriculation Card from some one of the Scottish Universities.

4. Lower Grade Leaving Certificates of the Scotch Education Department will only be accepted as exempting from the Medical Preliminary Examination, provided examinations in all the requisite subjects have been taken and passed at one and the same time.

No Examinations conducted in Scotland, other than those of the Scotch Education Department, will be accepted as equivalent to the Preliminary Examinations in Medicine.

These courses may be conducted by the Professor of Clinical Medicine or by Professors or Lecturers appointed for the purpose by the University Court, or by the ordinary physicians of a general hospital defined and recognised as hereinbefore provided, and shall consist of regular instruction at the bedside, along with Clinical Lectures.

¹ The Universities Commissioners, on 18th November, 1893, ordained that for the better carrying out of the purposes of these provisos the Senate should institute a Board or Boards of Studies in the Faculty of Medicine. See Section I., Ordinance No. 42, which received the approval of Her Majesty in Council on 28th May, 1894. The provisions of this supplementary Ordinance have, in the text, been combined with the provisions of the original Ordinance, by means of square brackets.

¹The explanatory words in italics are taken from Ordinance No. 54, Section II., issued by the Universities Commissioners on 18th July, 1894, which came into operation on 11th May, 1895, having been on that date approved by Her Majesty in Council.

²The recognised Vaccine Departments in Glasgow are—Western Infirmary, Royal Infirmary, and Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons.

2. The remaining three years may be spent in any University of the United Kingdom, or in any Indian, Colonial, or Foreign University recognised for the purpose by the University Court, or in such Medical Schools or under such Teachers as may be recognised for the purpose by the University Court, each year of study during the first four years including always the attendances specified in Section VII., Sub-section 2.
3. Of the subjects of study specified in Section VII., Sub-section 4, not less than eight must be taken in the University of Glasgow, or (subject always to the provisions as to attendance contained in the immediately preceding sub-sections) in some other University of the United Kingdom, or in some Foreign or Colonial University entitled to confer the Degree of Doctor of Medicine recognised for the purpose by the University Court, or in a College incorporated with, or affiliated to a University entitled to confer the Degree of Doctor of Medicine recognised for the purpose by the University Court: Provided always that where in any of said subjects of study two or more courses are required, the taking of one of those courses shall constitute a taking of the subject for the purpose of this sub-section.
4. The remainder of such subjects of study may (subject always as aforesaid) be taken in such Medical Schools or under such Teachers as may be recognised for the purpose by the University Court.
5. All Candidates, not Matriculated Students of the University, availing themselves of the permission to attend the Lectures of Extra-Academical Teachers in Glasgow, must, at the commencement of each year of such attendance, enrol their names in a book to be kept in the University for that purpose, paying a Fee of the same amount as the Matriculation Fee paid by Students of the University, and having, in respect of such payment, a right to the use of the Library of the University.
6. The Fee for attendance, for purposes of graduation, on the courses of instruction of recognised Extra-Academical Teachers in Glasgow, shall be not less than the amount exigible for the corresponding courses in the University.
7. The University Court shall not recognise as qualifying for examination in any of the subjects specified in Section VII., Sub-section 4, the class of any teacher who is at the time a teacher of more than one of the said subjects, except in those cases where Professors in the University are at liberty to teach two subjects: Provided always that a Professor or other teacher in any endowed public College or Institution, who by the terms of his appointment is required to teach more than one subject of Medical Study therein, may be recognised under Sub-section 2 of this section, as a teacher of any one of the subjects which he teaches.

8. A teacher, attendance on whose course of instruction shall, before the date of the approval of this Ordinance by her Majesty in Council, have been recognised for the purposes of graduation in the University, shall not require to obtain a new recognition from the University Court; and attendance on the course of instruction of every such teacher may continue to be recognised as heretofore.
9. It shall be in the power of the University Court, if it shall see cause, at any time to withdraw or suspend any recognition which it may have granted.

IX. In the University of Glasgow it shall be the duty of the Professors of the subjects specified in Section VII., Sub-section 4 hereof (except Practical Anatomy and such other subjects as the Senatus, with the approval of the University Court, may from time to time determine), so to conduct the courses that Students may receive instruction sufficient for graduation in any one of the said subjects by attendance on one course of five or six months, or of two and a half or three months, as the case may be.¹

X. If any candidate shall, before presenting himself for his Preliminary Examination, have attended in any University of the United Kingdom, or in any University or Institution specially approved, or under any Teacher specially recognised for the purpose by the University Court, a course or courses of instruction in Physics, Chemistry, Botany, or Zoology, equivalent in the judgment of the Senatus to the qualifying course in the same subject in the University of Glasgow, such attendance shall (notwithstanding anything hereinbefore ordained) be held as entitling him to be examined in these subjects; and if the candidate shall have attended such course or courses in each of the said subjects, he shall be held to have completed his first year of Medical Study: Provided always that the evidence of such attendance at such equivalent course or courses shall be presented to the Senatus at the time when the candidate presents himself for his Preliminary Examination; and the Senatus shall, if satisfied, grant a certificate to that effect; provided also that *the provisions of this section shall not have effect except where the University Court shall allow their application after a report by the Senatus Academicus, setting forth special grounds therefor in the case of any candidate named in the report.*²

¹ Doubt being entertained as to the construction of this Section, the question was submitted to the Universities Commissioners, and evoked from them the following deliverance:—

It is not intended to require of the Professor a complete course of instruction by lectures during each session, or to limit the examinations for degrees to subjects which shall be discussed in the lectures of the Professor at the time that the student attended the course. The word "instruction," as used in this Section, is to be held to include lectures upon such parts of the subject as the Professor may be able to overtake, supplemented by directions as to the use of text-books or other sources of information for the remainder of the subject: and it is also intended that the examinations may be taken over the whole field, even when the Professor has not been able to include it all in his course of lectures.

² The proviso in italics is taken from Ordinance No. 54, § v., issued by the Universities Commissioners on 18th July, 1894, which came into operation on 11th May, 1895, having been on that date approved by Her Majesty in Council.

PROFESSIONAL EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREES OF BACHELOR OF

Provided also that if a candidate have completed in a University of the United Kingdom a course of study and passed an examination in Botany, Zoology, Physics, or Chemistry qualifying for a Degree in Science or in Arts, he shall be held to have passed the examinations in such subject or subjects.

If a candidate have obtained a Degree in Science or in Arts in any University other than a University of the United Kingdom, granted in either case after a course of study and an examination in Botany, Zoology, Physics, or Chemistry, it shall be in the power of the University Court to exempt such candidate from the examinations in such subject or subjects; provided that the course of study and the standard of examination in each case are satisfactory in the judgment of the Senatus Academicus.²

XII. Candidates who profess themselves ready to submit to an examination in the subjects comprised in the first division, viz.:—Botany, Zoology, Physics, and Chemistry, may be admitted to examination in all or any two of these subjects at any examination held after they have attended a full course in each of the subjects professed.

XIII. Candidates who have passed their examination in the subjects comprised in the first division may be admitted to examination in the second division at the end of the third winter session.

XVII. If any candidate at these examinations be found to have passed in one or more subjects with sufficient merit, he shall not be liable to re-examination in such subject or subjects, although he may have been found unqualified in a subject or subjects comprised in the same division as hereinbefore specified.

XVIII. Every candidate must deliver, on or before such day as the Senatus may from time to time determine, to the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, a declaration, in his own handwriting, that he has completed his twenty-first year, or that he will have completed it on or before the day of graduation, and that he will not be, on the day of graduation, under articles of apprenticeship to any surgeon or other master.

NEW BUILDINGS FOR THE ANATOMICAL DEPARTMENT.

At the beginning of the Winter Session the New Anatomical Department will be opened. It consists of a handsome two-storied building, separate from the rest of the College, but within its grounds.

On the ground floor are the Lecture Room, Dissecting Room, Museum, Lecturer's Room, and Students' Cloak Room, with lavatories attached, all opening off the vestibule, from which also a turret staircase gives access to the upper floor.

The Dissecting Room measures 48 by 28 feet; it is very airy, and is well lighted by means of a factory roof with north lights only. The Lecture Room is placed parallel with the Practical Room, and communicates with it by a double door. It measures 25 feet by 24 feet, and is seated in theatre fashion, the seats rising in a sharp gradient. It is lighted from the north, the light being so arranged that it is concentrated on the area, black-boards, and diagram screens. There is also a permanent screen on the wall for lantern demonstrations.

Under the seats of the Theatre, and opening from the Dissecting Room, is a private work-room; and a dark room for photography opens off it.

The Museum measures 33 feet long by 24 feet broad and 38 feet high, and is provided with a gallery. It is lighted from the roof, as well as by small windows below the gallery. It will be fitted up as a bone-room, and equipped with preparations and models, and types of comparative osteology. The Lecturer's private room is placed between the Dissecting Room and the Museum, and communicates with both.

On the second storey is a large Microscope Room, 20 feet by 19 feet, lighted on two sides, and fitted both for Microscopic demonstrations and for the regular Histology class. There is also a room communicating with the gallery of the Vestibule and the gallery of the Museum.

Besides these there is a spacious basement, comprising preparation rooms, workshops and stores, connected with the upper building by a lift.

The building is heated throughout with hot pipes, and ventilated in the most approved fashion by means of an air chamber round the furnace chimney.

The funds for this new building and its equipment were provided by a gift of £5000 from the Bellahouston Trust, presented to the University for the purpose.

CURRICULUM OF STUDY, AND EXPENSES OF A MEDICAL EDUCATION.

The Class and Hospital Fees, for the subjects enjoined by Ordinance as constituting a Five Years' Course of Study and Clinical work, will amount to about £98 14s.

To this may be added the University matriculation fees, viz., £1 1s. for each of five years, and the Fees for the Degree Examination (page 40).
