NOTE.

SIMILAR to the alphabetical Index that was compiled for the original six parts of these 'Notes,' I give now one for the six supplements which include the acquisitions of some years past. They have involved a number of questions biographical, bibliographical and critical. Many of the persons named are unknown, and their lives are without record. The bibliographical points relate to irregularity of dates and editions, to identical editions of different dates, to identical dates of different editions, to identical books with different title-pages, to identical editions by different publishers.

As before the index numbers refer to the paging of the reprint, but they can be applied without much difficulty to the respective volumes of the Society's 'Transactions' by the following table :

Supplement I.	New Series, 1896, Vol. II.	pp. 364-404.
II.	1899, III.	175-213.
III.	1899, III.	360-425.
IV.	1903, IV.	95-120.
V.	1908, V. part III.	125-185.
VI.	1910, VI. part I.	1- 79.
