Mr. F. J. Simpson
Crostwick
Burstwick
Hull

Hope she
is gone as you all
promised me don't write to me please

This
not a
family
and get
one of
week

My dear Johnson

I have had

my dear Robert to say

I asked him of the person you had in the house was with

you still he did not give me any de

cidet answer which

makes me feel uncom

fortable. I thought

such people as you

require are not wit

to get but I hope you will get rid of her

as soon as you
can if you have not lost hope as you
promised you would
do so you have you
have heard me say
so many times I think
that a bad woman
about is instead of ~~being~~ ~~far~~ worse than a bad man I think so still she is I believe
very deep and well
decided you all I
beseech you to get
let her go if you
have not done so.

I told Robert I could do at Sherburne with out you do come for me before it is too late take care of our darling William and all our dear children
