1. The Yorkshire Branch of the BRITISH MEDICAL ASSOCIATION includes the Members residing in Yorkshire who pay the Branch Subscription.
2. That any Member of the British Medical Association can be admitted on signifying to the Local Secretary his desire to have his name enrolled.
3. That the Executive Government of this Branch be vested in a President, an Honorary Secretary, who shall also act as Treasurer, and Twenty-four other Members, to constitute a Council or Committee of Management.
4. That the President, who shall enter on his office at the Annual Meeting next ensuing, the Secretary, the Branch Council and Representatives to the General Council, shall be elected at each Annual Meeting.
5. That the Annual Meeting of the Branch shall be held in the month of June of each year, at such place in the district as shall have been determined at the previous Annual Meeting.
6. That a Special Meeting of the Branch may at any time be called by the Secretary, on a requisition in writing, signed by twelve Members. Each Member to have ten days' notice of such Meeting.
7. That at each Annual Meeting, the Members shall assemble at a convenient hour to receive the Report of the Council, elect the Officers and the Council for the ensuing year, transact necessary business, and discuss such subjects connected with Medical Science and the interests of the profession as may be brought before them.
8. That in addition to the Annual Meeting, one be held in the Autumn and another in the Spring of the year, at such time and place as the Council shall appoint, for the consideration of matters in relation to Medical and Surgical Practice and Science.
9. That on account of the limited time necessarily allotted to each Meeting, the period allowed for each communication shall not exceed fifteen minutes.
10. That the Members dine together on the day of the Annual Meeting.
11. That each Member of the Branch be allowed to introduce Medical friends as visitors, to the Meetings, or to the Dinner.
12. That each Member contribute the sum of Two shillings annually, towards defraying the necessary expenses of the Branch.
13. That no alterations be made in the Rules of this Branch, nor any new law enacted, except at an Annual or Special Meeting, and provided also that notice of the proposed alteration or enactment shall have been given in writing to the Secretary not less than twenty days before the Meeting or Enactment is to be discussed, and by him communicated to each Member not less than ten days previously to such Meeting.
