Please give my love to Bill Worshall if you see him tomorrow as I believe it is his birthday ^{and} and tell him York June 2nd.
I will try and compose something for him soon.
My dear Peter.

You will have almost given up thought of hearing from me. I'm afraid but will I know excuse me for not answering your note. but you know what a bad one I am for.
writing a few lines as it leaves me at present very well and hope to find you the same. I have felt a little better lately and out much lately as the weather has been so dull.

The clouds look very heavy to night and seem hanging for rain. Have you been down to see mother lately she wrote yesterday and said she and Archie were coming next week. I must not forget to thank you for the flowers they were beautiful and the scent was quite refreshing.

How are Carrie and her young man getting on. Is the happy day fixed yet?

shall be able to return shortly I think although my head is very troubled being very hot yet and noises continually going through I fancy I can hear all your voices all this way off my breathing has been very troublesome but is getting a little better I am glad to say.

Our Father would tell you about the place it is very pleasant here in front on the terrace but I have not been

How is Mabel hope she is well and hearty as ever You must have had a dreadful time with me I'm afraid I always thought it was almost impossible for me to lay up but you see I had to come down a peg or two all of a sudden You must please excuse any more at present as I feel rather shaky after any exertion especially reading or writing. With very best love to yourself and all yours Every yours truly
Mabel
