My dear George

my dear George I have betrougt me this morning on a bus to address you. I hope you I your dear son arrived safe at home. I shall hope to see you again.
I shall be glad to hear from you in reply to this.
I do wish you would completely to what I hinted at when I saw you for my spelling gets worse every day and I have no power to do what I am wished or at least ought to do & so long as that is the case would ^{you} not feel happier? if you complied to my wish & render me happy. — I told Mr Baker I never ^{could} comply last night nor never would. — So do comply & render me happy I ask again? Would it not save them unnecessary trouble?

& render me much happier I forgot to ask you

if you had brought a hus for Kate as you promised she was away at Scarbro' that day
you were here. —

I hope you will not forget your promise to write love to Mrs Leach, your Mother I should so like to see her again? — I send a warm remembrance to your wife & kind love to yourself & my dear Grandsons believe me

My dear Joseph

I have received your letter this morning, And am much gratified to learn my dear Sister is improving May the Lord spare her many years longer for the sake of her family In answer to your enquiries I regret to say I am deeply disappointed you have not answered my request to you? Why have you not? —

I must tell you now that I am writing. They are expecting me to go every minute a thing quite impossible!! & they won't believe me. —

now do write for return & satisfy my mind on that subject for as I told you before I never can do, what I am

wanted! therefore you must comply; I am sorry to say Dr Baker has been very poor, and is now I believe ~~is~~ ^{is} ~~is~~ improving now do grant my request & make me happy; for you trust be aware & cannot be so in any present position ^{as for}
I am expected to do

What I cannot ^{say} ~~say~~ are they all well? at Low House. And

now with love believe me

Yours affectionately
Sister B. Labree

Now don't dis appoint me by not replying

Mr Akroyd. -

in the midst of all I have been very happy to have you here

The Retreat April 9th 1844
to believe me, W. A. L. S. Sister My dear Brother, W. Labaree

I wrote to you a fortnight ago, but I believe it was forgotten to be posted, not having received an answer so I have concluded to write again this morning —

I asked after my Sister?
I told you I was disappointed you did not write on C-day, or New Year day, I hope she is improving? am I right?

I also enquired after all Love W. A. L. S.

Other friends whom you thought I should be interested in? —

and I concluded by mentioning the all important subject my position and asking you to allow it, and allow me to live without this spelling? and I asked you to write to Dr Baker and ask him to allow it
the same!

I also told you that my spelling had become very bad & sometimes none ~~at~~ at all I believe & they are expecting me to go every minute; I also told you that I was very helpless!! & quite incapable of doing what I was expected!! and I also told you that if I was able to do it

I should not? for this reason! I should be committing sin!
in the sight of God!!
to do any thing of the kind and I please be you to consider the matter & comply with my request? & make me eternally grateful?
For I had only you to look to now, if you did not receive my last? I hope with answer this preparation, let me hear from you on Wednesday & Thursday
