Dec 1875

My dear William,

Thy letter of yesterday is to hand -

It is a satisfaction to learn, as thou say'st, that thou art favoured with a feeling of composure & thank-fulness in thy present al-lotment - This, I would have thee to cherish, and learn, as much as thou canst, the future disposal of events; trusting they may be ordered aright.

I had a letter from Joseph ^{of Philadelphia} Walton, a few weeks ago in which he & his wife express their continued kind interest in thy welfare — I propose writing in reply some day soon — Mr. Pindley sent a Copy of "Friends of the 17th Century" — for our joint use.
I shall be glad to send it to thee for thy perusal if thou wishes, after we have read it.

With our united dear love to thee I am affectionately thy Father
